Uriah Rennie: Trailblazing Referee and Sheffield Icon Dies Aged 65

Uriah Rennie, the Premier League's first Black referee and a towering figure in English football, has died at the age of 65. He passed away peacefully in Sheffield on June 7, surrounded by family.

In a statement, his partner Jayne and brother Glenroy said:

"Our family have appreciated all the support from the nursing teams at Northern General and Weston Park Hospitals, plus close family and friends during the past few weeks at such a difficult time. Uri will be so very sadly missed."

Born in Jamaica and raised in Sheffield from the age of six, Rennie began refereeing in 1979 and rose through the ranks to officiate 175 Premier League matches. Known for his commanding presence and supreme fitness—he was once dubbed "the fittest referee in world football"—Rennie was also a martial artist, magistrate, and community advocate.

Chris Foy, a former colleague, recalled a moment that captured Rennie's character:

"One Christmas, we were at a training camp and Uri arranged for us to visit a special education needs school in Daventry. He didn't tell anyone until the morning of. That was Uri—always thinking of others, always giving back."

Keith Hackett, former head of referees, said:

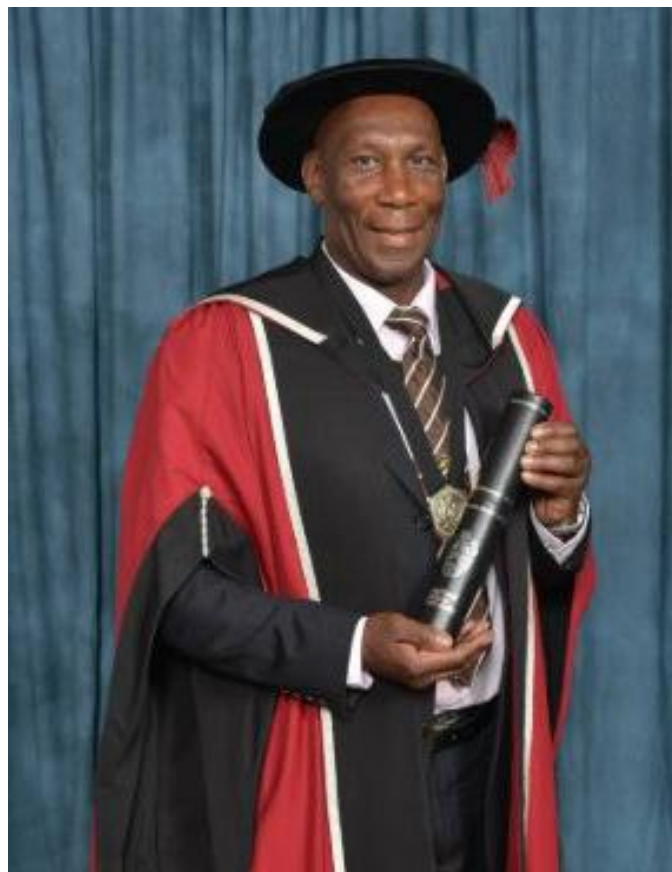

"Uriah was a role model. He broke barriers with grace and humility. I remember him mentoring young referees in Sheffield, always with time and encouragement. He was a gentleman in every sense."

Mark Halsey, another Premier League contemporary, shared:

"Uri had this calm authority. Players respected him. Off the pitch, he was warm, funny, and deeply principled. We once got lost driving to a match in the Midlands—he turned it into a comedy routine. That was Uri—always finding light in the moment."

Howard Webb, Chief Refereeing Officer at PGMOL, added:

"He was a pioneer, but also a friend. I remember him telling me, 'Don't just be a good ref—be a good man.' That stuck with me. His legacy is immense."

Sheffield Hallam University, where Rennie had recently become Chancellor, paid tribute to his impact.

Vice-Chancellor Liz Mossop said:

"Uri had already made a profound impression. He challenged us to be bold, to live our values. He was a proud Sheffielder and a true inspiration."

The Sheffield & Hallamshire County FA echoed the sentiment:

"Uriah was a legend in refereeing and a tireless supporter of grassroots football. His mentorship shaped countless careers."

Rennie's influence extended far beyond football. He was awarded an honorary doctorate in 2023 for his contributions to sport and community. In recent years, he had been recovering from a rare neurological condition, learning to walk again with the same determination that defined his life.

Funeral details will be announced soon.

Fly High, Big Man Uri

By Andy Hogg

Time to say goodbye, with sadness, to the one and only Uriah Dudley Rennie, my bestie in football and Uri to the world. Sadness yes, but also rejoicing in the man he was and the life he led. First of foremost, as seen in the picture, he was a lover of life, and during our many hours up and down the motorways to training and matches, and in airports and hotels when we were on international duty together, he was such great company.

Uri knew everybody, especially in his beloved adopted city of Sheffield, and he always had time for people and made time for people. On match days he treated the club chairman and the tea-lady with the same good grace. I loved it when he had that twinkle in his eye and that mischievous grin on his face, "come on Hogg, let's go and have some fun with this!"

As fit as the proverbial butcher's dog, I will always remember him sprinting up Cobnar Hill (a 1 in 4 road in Sheffield) like it was flat, and taking the treadmills at Hillsborough to max speed for long durations. He was a fantastic referee, with a brilliant rapport with the players and managers/coaches, a 100% footballers ref, he knew and understood the game. I will always remember him at Hull City, explaining to the away team captain, with a massive grin on his face, that we were unable to restart the game as there was a police horse standing in the centre circle!! Priceless.

I can guarantee that he will already have enlisted the help of St Peter to organise a charity walking football 24 hour marathon; Uri was the kind a guy who fitted 48 hours into every single day.

Uriah D Rennie - Magistrate, University Chancellor, Film star, TV game show referee, Dad, Godfather, International Referee, Trailblazer, Pioneer, Kick-boxer, ambassador and much, much more. Fly high big-man.....

A Gentleman of Sport

By Steve Birch

As I landed back in the UK from Spain last Sunday, a message awaited me: Uri had passed away. By the time I reached home, the news had already begun to circulate through media outlets and across the city.

Much of the national coverage rightly focused on Uri's remarkable refereeing career in the Premier League. But here in Sheffield, the tributes told a deeper story—one of a man who was not only a trailblazer in football but also a beloved figure in everyday life. Dozens of heartfelt messages poured in from people across the city, all echoing the same sentiment: Uri was a fantastic, laid-back character who always had time for a chat.

It seemed like everyone in Sheffield had crossed paths with him at some point—whether through football, cricket, his work as a magistrate, his recently appointed role as Chancellor at Sheffield Hallam University, or his long-standing presence at Hillsborough Leisure Centre.

Among the many tributes, the one from the County FA, where Uri served as Chair, stood out. They described him as a "trailblazing referee," adding:

"Uriah made history as the Premier League's first Black referee, officiating over 300 top-flight matches between 1997 and 2008. He broke down barriers, shaped our football community, and inspired generations to come."

To many of us, though, he was simply Uri.

I first met him in 1979. I was 14, he was 19, and we were both attending the Class 3 referee course at the old County FA offices in Waingate. We bonded quickly—especially after meeting the formidable Ernest Kangley!

Uri was always a step ahead—literally and figuratively. We officiated many games together over the next decade as he rose through the ranks to the Football League. But you'd never know it from him. He was humble, grounded, and always just "Uri." He was the fittest person I knew, always on top of play while when I ran the lines for him. I was always five yards behind!

More than once, I'd turn up to a game only to find myself handed a flag by him! He would still referee the local games on a Sunday, even if he had had a game in the Football League on the Saturday. Concord Park was never a problem – although I did notice he did start to get less and less games on pitch 21!

URIAH RENNIE TRIBUTES

He was one of those annoyingly brilliant sport-speople—good at everything. A solid footballer, a sharp tackler, and a talented cricketer (I still remember him taking 8 for 38 whilst playing for Frecheville Community). He was always the standout player when Sheffield Referees competed in the JB Holland Cup, even if the rest of the team pretended otherwise.

I once featured him on the cover of The Sheffield Referee—a photo from a pre-season training camp. Uri was ten yards ahead of everyone else, 25 yards up Cobnar Hill! He later told me it was his favourite photo, despite all the national press he'd received.

We often bumped into each other at events or just around town loads of times in different circumstances. I remember chatting with him for hours in the Heeley & Sheffield pub car park after a Sheffield RA meeting in the Carlton Club across the road. On a whim I went to a Sheffield FC game, when Dave Mc was the manager - Uri was there assessing the referee! Another time, I ran into him in the old Castle Market while shopping with my mum—he sat down and had a coffee with us like it was the most natural thing in the world for two hours!

At my dad's funeral in 2011, Uri represented Sheffield RA. He stayed until the very end, chatting with everyone—including Tony Currie and Ted Hemsley, who were there on behalf of Sheffield United. I never did find out what they talked about, but I'm sure it was memorable.

Uri was always willing to help. When our cricket league celebrated its 75th anniversary, one call to him was all it took. We were organising a charity match between a league XI and he brought his "celebrity" team full of national and local sporting figures. It drew a huge crowd at Frecheville, and he made sure it was an evening to remember.

I remember him pulling up beside me on Bradfield Road once as I came out of Wilko's as I was helping my youngest son to move into his first property he had just purchased in Hillsborough. He spent the next 20 minutes urging me to volunteer with the County FA. I couldn't at the time, but I'm proud that we launched this magazine before he passed—something I know he would have supported wholeheartedly.

Uri also helped me personally, in ways I never fully thanked him for. During his time at Hillsborough Leisure Centre, he quietly sorted out a few things for my work. More significantly, he once helped me through a personal matter that changed the course of my life. We never spoke about it directly, but every time we met afterward, there was a quiet understanding between us.

I knew about his illness before we launched South Yorkshire Sport. I held back a story for our first issue, thinking it wasn't the right tone for a launch focused on positivity. I'm glad I waited. It gave me the chance to write this tribute instead—one that reflects the Uri I knew and the Uri so many others cherished.

He had time for everyone. He was just a great guy.

Fresh Faces on the Front

Two of the region's most community-driven football clubs, Rossington Main FC and Dronfield Town FC, have unveiled new shirt sponsorship deals ahead of the 2025/26 season, marking a new era of commercial partnerships and local collaboration.

Rossington Main FC announced a major new sponsorship agreement with the Doncaster Culture and Leisure Trust (DCLT). The deal sees DCLT become the club's main front-of-shirt sponsor, replacing Oxford Street Motors, who had supported the club for the past four seasons.

The partnership will feature DCLT's branding across all senior team kits and will include joint initiatives aimed at promoting health, fitness, and youth engagement in the Doncaster area.

Club Chairman Daniel Linstrum said, "We're thrilled to welcome DCLT on board. Their commitment to community wellbeing aligns perfectly with our values, and we're excited about what we can achieve together."

Meanwhile following their lateral move to the United Counties League, Dronfield Town FC revealed MD Law, a Sheffield-based legal firm, as their new shirt sponsor. The deal brings an end to the club's previous partnership with Peak Print & Design, which had been in place since 2022.

MD Law's logo will now feature prominently on the kits of all senior and youth teams, with the firm also pledging support for the club's legal and governance needs.

Dronfield Town's Commercial Manager

Sarah Linton commented, "MD Law brings not only financial support but also professional expertise that will help us grow sustainably. We're proud to be working with a firm that values grassroots sport."

New Clubs Sought

The Imperial Sunday League is now inviting applications from clubs interested in joining the competition for the 2025–26 season.

Clubs looking to participate in one of the region's established Sunday football leagues are encouraged to apply. The league offers competitive fixtures, a strong community atmosphere, and opportunities for teams of all levels.

For further information or to request an application form, interested clubs should contact David Elwis via email at mrelwis@hotmail.co.uk.

Cottage Triumph

Cottage FC secured a memorable 3–1 victory over New Lodge in the Barnsley Challenge Cup final, held at Houghton Main on Sunday, bringing their season to a triumphant close.

After a string of near-misses in other competitions, including defeats in the Sheffield FA Sunday Trophy, Wath and West Melton OAP Charity Cup, and the Hospital Cup at Oakwell, the Brampton-based side finally lifted silverware. The win was powered by a brace from Jordan Pilling and a goal from Callum Walton.

The result also capped off a successful campaign for Cottage FC, who have earned promotion to the top flight of the Barnsley Sunday League. The final was widely regarded as the last major fixture of the local football season, drawing a strong crowd and celebratory atmosphere at Houghton Main.

New Era New Manager for Swallownest

Swallownest FC have officially announced the appointment of Brad Jones as their new first team manager, marking a fresh chapter for the club as they prepare for life in the United Counties League following their recent league switch.

The announcement was made on June 10, 2025, and comes after the departure of long-serving manager Jamie Housley, who has joined the management team at Parkgate FC. Housley's move follows a successful tenure at Swallownest, where he helped stabilize the club in the Northern Counties East League and oversaw several key developments on and off the pitch.

Jones, who joins from Staveley Miners Welfare, brings with him a wealth of experience, having played over 200 games for the club and managed their reserve side with distinction. He will be supported by assistants Ash Barber and Matt Nettleship, both of whom bring valuable knowledge of the United Counties League.

Club chair Louise Pink expressed confidence in the new appointment:

"Brad stood out during the recruitment process for his energy, alignment with our values, and his hunger to succeed. We believe he's the right person to lead us into this exciting new chapter."

Jones himself is eager to get started:

"I'm thrilled to be stepping into a first team managerial role. Swallow-nest is a club with ambition and a strong community spirit. I'm looking forward to working with Ash and Matt to build a competitive squad for the season ahead."

Bill Croft

The Yorkshire Cricket Southern Premier League (YCSPL) has announced the passing of Bill Croft, a Life Member of the League and an inductee into its Hall of Fame. Bill passed away on the morning of June 7, 2025.

Bill was a long-standing figure in local cricket, particularly at Sheffield Collegiate Cricket Club, where he spent five decades as both a player and committee member.

A fast-medium opening bowler, he joined the club in 1975 after playing for Sheffield United CC, Rotherham Town, Brighouse, and Elland in various Yorkshire and regional leagues.

Among his notable on-field achievements were taking all ten wickets in a match against Hull in 1987, claiming nine wickets against Rotherham in 1979, and topping the Yorkshire League bowling averages in 1984. He was also part of the Sheffield Collegiate side that secured a league and cup double in 1990.

Off the field, Bill served in multiple roles at Sheffield Collegiate, including fundraiser, treasurer, and Yorkshire League representative. He also contributed to the wider sporting community through his involvement with the Sheffield Amateur Sports Club and as groundsman at Abbeydale Sports Club in 2008 and 2009.

In addition to his club commitments, Bill served as President of the Yorkshire League from 2008 to 2011. His leadership during this period was widely respected for its balanced and forward-thinking approach. He was inducted into the YCSPL Hall of Fame in 2017 and named a Life Member upon the league's formation in 2021.

Following his departure from Sheffield Collegiate, Bill joined the management team at Parkgate FC, continuing his involvement in local sport.

The YCSPL and the wider cricketing community have extended their condolences to Bill's family, friends, and all those associated with Sheffield Collegiate CC.

How are cup winners decided?

I'm hoping you might be able to help me.

I'm trying to find out more information about the recent Don and Dearne Girls Cup Final and how the winning team was decided.

The top 3 teams all finished on equal points however the winners had a much lower goal difference than the runners up. Can anyone explain this?

Darren Green

We covered Carrfield School winning the Don and Dearne Girls Cup in Issue 11 (29 May). Chris Brook organises the event and writes reports for us, explains: "The League table fin-sibed as Carrfield 14 points, OLSJ 13, Wath CE 10, Fitzwilliam 5, Gooseacre 5, Windhill 5 and Sacred Heart 3 in that order. Where clubs are level on points, the first deciding factor is head to head, then goal difference. Where three clubs share the same points like this year, where head to head cannot separate two of the sides, goal difference comes first and then reverts back to head to head. So initial head to head could not separate Fitzwilliam, Goosacre and Windhill. Goal difference was worst for Windhill and then head to head put Fitzwilliam in front of Goosacre. Full details can be found at <https://tottycup.co.uk/2025-don-dearne-girls-cup>."

Plaque in honour of Mark Crook, the Wath Wanderers overload

In Issue 11 (29 May 2025) we publicised that a plaque in honour of Mark Crook was being unveiled. From his website wolvesheroes.com and with supporting pictures from Julian Barker, historian David Instone spoke with some of the heroes that passed through possible the worlds first Academy here in South Yorkshire at the plaques unveiling.

From Solihull, Leeds, York and, in particular, Wolverhampton, all roads led to Wath upon Dearne; to the small town in South Yorkshire that served as a springboard to Molineux and professional football for numerous youngsters.

Bob Hatton called this return journey a pilgrimage, Steve Daley reckoned he hadn't been to those famous training pitches since he last played on them five and a half decades ago and, from two or three hours north, Paul Walker and Jimmy Seal were lapping up the waves of nostalgia, too.

To a man, they were delighted to be paying their respects to the late former Wolves winger Mark Crook, the Wath Wanderers overlord, on the day a blue plaque was unveiled in his honour.

This pioneering nursery club, operational and highly productive long before academies were ever thought of, have a remarkable roll of honour, with more than 100 of their lads having gone into League football.

Wolves, happily, benefitted from the cream of the crop, with Ron Flowers, Roy Swinbourne, Barry Stobart, Peter Knowles, Daley, Alan Sunderland, Hatton and Gerry Taylor among them.

But there were dozens of others who took the same route to the West Midlands and the stories continue to surface about how they decamped in unfamiliar surroundings to pursue a career.

Seal, a Pontefract-born forward who followed up a solitary Wolves first-team game (a 3-1 defeat at West Ham in March, 1969) by moving to Barnsley and then becoming a free-scoring loyal servant to York, had a slightly delayed career path.

"I remember going down to Wolverhampton and finding there was a problem with my digs in Newhampton Road," he said. "So Mark Crook suggested I came back up here for a month or so while things were sorted out and I scored a few goals in a few games for Wath."

The 74-year-old married a Wolverhampton girl and, now in retirement as a painter and decorator, plays golf three times a week off a handicap of 14 and pays a couple of visits to the gym in between.

Despite still living in York, he doesn't attend their games these days at what we used to call Bootham Crescent but was disappointed to see his local side lose out to Oldham in the Vanarama League play-offs.

He was delighted to meet up at the event with Gerry Farrell, who he recalled facing in a game between York and Morecambe in the 1970s. And the two clubs will be in opposition again next season in the fifth tier.

Farrell and Norman Bell, both resident in Northern Lancashire, have no direct Wath connections but were in attendance as part of a trans-Pennine excursion to meet up with their good pal, Walker, who had a dry run to the venue several weeks ago to ensure he could remember where it was.

Hatton was confronted with the observation that he must be in a very small group having played for three sets of Wanderers.....Wath, Wolverhampton and Bolton. "I never played for Wycombe," he replied, "but have been there several times."

Football is still played on the acres where he and hundreds of others trained and the Wolves contingent were delighted to see several bystanders in gold and black.

Among the turn-out were club historian Peter Crump, Molineux Museum colleague Dave Jones, Wolves Heroes' David Instone, Express & Star fan contributor John Lalley and Elizabeth Robledo, daughter of one of the two Chilean stars, George and Ted Robledo, who achieved legendary status at Newcastle and Barnsley.

Also there from the playing ranks were Peter Wroe, a former Wolves junior who later played for Sheffield United Reserves, and Geoff Church, who overcame a serious eye injury to have a spell with Doncaster.

All had their own reason to be grateful for the labour of love Crook took on in sending a seemingly never-ending stream of teenage hopefuls to the club with whom he had played 81 senior games in the 1920s and 1930s and scored 16 goals.

The honour of unveiling what was described as a lasting legacy fell to his grand-daughter Jane Whitlam (left above) and Defence Secretary John Healey (an MP in the Wath area, right above), the plaque being manufactured in Wolverhampton by Lumley Designs and being positioned on the wall of the Cortonwood Miners Welfare.

“When I was approached about the possibility of the plaque, I was a little non-plussed,” Jane told the gathering. “Pozzy’ was just my grandad who tormented the living daylight out of me and trailed me around playing fields, watching football matches every weekend when I was a child.

“He was a proper character and, judging by the people who are here today, he meant an awful lot to an awful lot of people, even ones not fortunate enough to have known him.

“One thing he always instilled was a sense of belonging, whether that’s your town, family or sports clubs. Fortunately for my little family, we’ve ticked all the boxes.”

How proud would Mark be nearly half a century on from his death that two of his great-grandchildren (Jane’s twin sons) have played roller hockey for Great Britain?

All proceeds from the forthcoming Feeding The Wolves book are being shared between the club’s Foundation and Brampton United Juniors FC, whose premises are next door to the miners welfare.

Former schoolteacher Chris Brook (right in the picture below), project manager and researcher on the publication being written by Barnsley journalist Ashley Ball (centre in the picture below), welcomed the guests yesterday and said: “We believe we have a lasting legacy here, where junior football is still played. It will ensure Mark Crook continues to be talked about.

“His incredible achievements in football had been largely forgotten, so it has been an honour to recognise him in this way. Blue plaques are lasting legacies.”

Anyone wishing to pre-order a copy of Feeding The Wolves, at the reduced price of £12, can do so by clicking on <https://dondearneschoolfootball.wordpress.com/mark-crooks-wath-wolves>

Any businesses willing to support the book can display their logo inside for £30 or become main sponsors and have front-page recognition for £500. The link for those opportunities is <https://dondearneschoolfootball.wordpress.com/logo-sponsorship/>

Teen Entrepreneur Scores with Shirt Startup

By James Bovington

Enterprising Doncaster teenager Oscar Withers is proud to be 'sports mad' and the seventeen-year-old who came second in the most recent water-skiing national championships has now set up a company customising football kit t-shirts while also finding time to represent New College at rugby and for which he recently received a player's award.

'Our football shirt company customises shirts from both current and retro kits as shown on our website. Some customers specify other specific shirts to customised or even send us one that they own. I started out customising my own shirts six months ago and began selling when I felt that my designs were of a high enough standard. I funded the start-up by selling my old clothes and using some savings. I generally use Photoshop for my designs and aim for a unique look that fits the individual shirt's style. We met Joel Piroe and Pascal

Struijk in Leeds at the promotion parade. They've given positive reviews of the shirts we did for them. I've also designed a shirt for goalkeeper Alex Cairns who loves our work.'

'I'm delighted with the volume of sales so early in trading. My business plan is a work in progress as I need to adapt and constantly innovate. Two of my friends now have roles with Robbie Douglas dealing with finance and accounts and Dan McNaught handling logistics and assisting with design. I'm the boss. I handle most shirt designing and run customer communication via the website and social media. I'm studying Business, Economics and History for 'A' levels and my eventual aim is to create a clothing brand with customised football shirts as just one product in the range, but we'd need a much larger number of followers to achieve that ambition.

Oscar came in second in last season's national waterskiing championship in the under 17s slalom category and has also been a member the British team attending the European Championship the last two years. 'I've been brought up with waterskiing as my family love it. I train at Hazelwood Ski World in Lincolnshire which is one of the best places to prepare for a tournament. I train there at weekends from February through August and often daily during school holidays as well as keeping up fitness levels in the gym.'

'The sport has three categories Slalom, Jump and Trick. Slalom involves aiming to ski round six buoys at the shortest line length with the boat moving at the same constant speed for all contestants. Trick involves completing certain tricks each of which has a certain number of points with competitors aiming to get the highest score. Jump is skiing onto the ramp and aiming to get the furthest distance possible. My coach says that I'm a determined skier in all weather conditions.'

Oscar also plays rugby for his college team. 'I was delighted to see my work effort on and off the ball and leading the line from the front rewarded with the player award from Cayden Hazlett. I mainly play at second row and sometimes inside centre.'

Anyone considering a customised football shirt can contact Oscar at Off-side Originals at <https://www.off-side.shop/> or via Instagram @offside_originals Tik Tok Offside_Originals.

Rain Can't Stop Premier Drama

WORDS: Roger Pugh

For the first time this season, rain interfered with league games, but, with DLS called into action in several, there were results achieved in all but the two that were called off before the start.

Wakefield Thornes returned to winning ways by beating Whitley Hall at Baxter Field, and now lead the Premier Division by four points. Neil Longhurst (48) and Muhammad Qaisar Ashraf (58) rescued the hosts from 51-6 after they were put in to bat, and they reached 170-9. James Rhodes (55) then set the visitors on the right path, and they wrapped up a four-wicket win in the 39th over.

Doncaster Town also bounced back from last week's defeat, with an impressive five-wicket win over previous joint-leaders Sheffield Collegiate at Town Fields. After being asked to bat first, Jack Timby

(49) and Abdul Faseeh (94) put on 139 for the visitors' first wicket, before Warren Graca (4-35) pegged them back and they reached 173-6 in an innings shortened to 44 overs by rain. Town's target was marginally DLS-adjusted to 176, and Bhargav Merai (64) led them to a five-wicket win with four balls to spare.

Third-placed Cleethorpes also asked opponents Hallam to bat first at Crimicar, and bowled them out for 160. Jordan Cook (57 not out) then led his side to a six-wicket win in the 41st over.

Cawthorne recorded an impressive win for the second week running, when they bowled Tickhill out for 71 after putting them in to bat at Dark Lane, Rizwan Sadiq taking 4-14. Josh Court then took 5-27 and the hosts were 31-5, but Liam Wiles steered them at a four-wicket win with an unbeaten 36.

There was an important win for Barnsley Woolley Miners when they made 183-7 in a 38-over game against Wickersley Old Village at Shaw Lane, Sean Whitehead top-scoring with 49. Skipper Boeta Beukes then took 4-42 as the visitors were restricted to 168-6, after being 112-1 in reply.

Joe Billings (53 off 27 balls) top-scored in Thornes' 159-9 against Sheffield Collegiate, for whom Tate Miller took 3-27. Six bowlers then shared the wickets as Collegiate fell short at 144-8 in reply.

The T20 Plate final will be between Sprotbrough and Whiston Parish Church. Thomas Pepper (51 off 34 balls) and Harry Graham (62 off 49) gave Sprotbrough a fine start with an opening stand of 88 against Aston Hall at Green Lane, and the visitors made 178-6 in their 20 overs. Zaki Anjam made 51 at the top of the order in the hosts' reply, but wickets fell regularly, three each to Nicky Graves and Joe Toole, and Sprotbrough held out for seven-run win. Oughtibridge Marches On, Transport Turns Up Heat

WORDS: Mark Simmerson

As the summer sun begins to shine on the Yorkshire cricket scene, the mid-season standings are taking shape—and in some divisions, dominance is already being asserted.

DIVISION NORTH

In Division North, defending champions Oughtibridge continue to set the pace with an unbeaten record and a commanding nine-point lead.

Last Wednesday, they hosted Thorncliffe & Wentworth, who posted a competitive 123-4 from their 12 eight-ball overs, thanks largely to a classy unbeaten 62 from C Brunt. But Oughtibridge, led by a composed 64 from W Cooper, timed their chase to perfection, sealing victory with a ball to spare and six wickets in hand. The win not only preserved their perfect record but also sent a clear message to the chasing pack.

Elsewhere in the division, Higham struggled to 88-5 against Shelley, who chased it down in just nine overs, losing only four wickets.

Barnsley Woolley Miners posted 108-8, but Thorpe Hesley and High Green made light work of the target, cruising home with six wickets in hand, thanks to R Eddy's 36. As the halfway point of the season arrives, Oughtibridge's consistency has left Shelley, Higham, and Thorpe Hesley and High Green all trailing in their wake.

DIVISION SOUTH A

In Division South A, Sheffield Collegiate remain the team to beat. They comfortably chased down Whiston Forge's 88-7, with H Struggles' unbeaten 32 the only real resistance. Collegiate's seven-wicket win keeps them unbeaten and six points clear at the top.

Sheffield Centralians posted 111-6, but Sheffield Waterworks responded with ease, led by J Harrison (42) and J Freeman (41*), to win with seven wickets in hand.

Holmesfield's 128-7 wasn't enough to hold off Waverley, who claimed a four-wicket win, with D Saseekaren contributing 33 and J Fieldsend taking 4-42.

DIVISION SOUTH B

While the North and South A divisions have clear leaders, Division South B is shaping up to be a thrilling two-horse race.

Sheffield Transport and Hollinsend Methodists met in a top-of-the-table clash at Fox Road, and it was Transport who came out on top.

The match was lit up by a blistering 94 not out from Yograj Kote, who smashed 13 fours and 6 sixes in just 55 balls. His innings powered Transport to 131-4, and despite a spirited 48 from B Whitehead, Hollinsend fell 12 runs short at 119-7.

The result leaves both teams level at the top, three points ahead of Brookhouse and Woodhouse.

Brookhouse edged a thriller against Woodhouse, defending 126-8 by just three runs. S Ali (45) and L Knowles (34) nearly saw Woodhouse home, but J Gulari's 3-21 proved decisive.

Baslow posted 124-3, with W Cooper unbeaten on 54, and restricted Brincliffe to 110-5.

Meanwhile, De La Salle's 150-7, powered by J Gillgrass (72), wasn't enough to stop HSBC, who chased it down with eight wickets in hand, thanks to L Muniraju's 70.

As the season heats up, so too does the competition—especially in South B, where every run and wicket could prove crucial.

Sheffield Stumble on Home Lawn

WORDS: Peter York

Bishop Monkton Croquet Club, a village five miles south of Ripon, made an early get up and go to get to Sheffield Croquet Club's lawn at Hillsborough Bowling Club for the 10:00am start of this league fixture.

Played largely on a cool overcast day the twelve games constituting the full match were played in a good competitive and very friendly manner. The recent rain did nothing to slow the balls down as they moved swiftly across the lawn.

Carl Bradwell, (handicap 10) made his league debut. Pete York (handicap 12) won his opening singles match, 6-5 but after that things did not go too well for Sheffield. At lunch, Bishop Monkton lead 5-1.

The afternoon session fared no better. Sheffield could not get back into the competition despite a singles win for Mick Derrick (handicap 9). The final score was 10-2 to Bishop Monkton. Despite the overwhelming loss it should be emphasised that some of the games were very close (honest!) with a bit of bad luck thrown in. It was agreed by all that it had been an enjoyable day.

The next league fixture for the Handicap league team is away at Ben Rydding (Ilkley) on Thursday 10th July

Vulcan is the Roman god of fire, metalworking, and volcanoes, whilst Thor is a figure in Norse mythology, the god of thunder, lightning, storms, strength, and protection. Both, truly representative of Sheffield, 'The Steel city'.

In Thor's right hand is what some say is a hammer. In recent times, one of our croquet club members has been bold enough to suggest that it is actually a croquet mallet. This idea has evolved within the club so that informally we refer to our competing league teams as 'The Mighty Thors'.

Overtime Heartbreak, Shutout Frustration

WORDS: Bill Hardy

Last Sunday, 8 June 2025, both Sheffield Steelkings para ice hockey teams saw action away from home, as the Stings faced the Mayhem in Widnes and the Kings made the long trip down to Cardiff to take on the Huskies.

The Stings faced off first; the development side knew that they were in for a tough game, but they were determined to do all they could to frustrate the Mayhem's attacks.

The Stings put up a strong defensive effort in the second and third periods, where they conceded

The late evening faceoff saw a clash of titans, as last years League Champions, the Cardiff Huskies, faced the reigning Playoff Champions, the Sheffield Steelkings.

Games between the Kings and Huskies are always hotly contested affairs, and this game was no different.

just one goal in thirty minutes of play, but they couldn't make up for the five goals put past them in the first period.

Despite this they finished the game with their heads held high, ready to take what they learned from the game into their remaining fixtures.

Final Score: Mayhem 6-0 Steelkings

The Huskies used their speed to get on the scoresheet early, when team GB star Tyler Christopher fired in a puck after less than four minutes of play.

The Kings fought tirelessly to get the scores back even, but despite outshooting the Huskies in every period it took until the third period for one of the chances to find the back of the net.

Just twenty seconds into the regulation time period Kings #41, Jake Oakley, wrapped around the back of the Huskies net and got a pass away to #88, John Plummer, who was ready in front to launch the puck into the net, evening up the score to one a piece.

Both teams fought hard for the rest of the period trying to break the deadlock, but forty-five minutes wasn't enough to separate them.

It didn't take long to find out who would be celebrating the victory though, as the extra space afforded by the three-on-three overtime was enough for the Huskies' Jon Le Galloudec to find himself alone with the puck in front of the Kings net. His shot just managed to sneak past the glove of the Kings' netminder, Andrew Jackson, meaning the Kings had to settle for just one point instead of two.

Final Score: Huskies 2-1 Steelkings (AOT)

All about South Yorkshire Sport

Thousands of people in South Yorkshire partake and watch local and grassroots sport each week. Our aim is to report and promote all local sports - that is all local sports. We would love as many local and grassroots sports to reach out to us - it does not have to be a weekly article - although if you have weekly competitive leagues it would be great to report outstanding achievements, results, tables and fixtures. It can be less regular or adhoc. All contributions are free (each of the contributors do so on behalf of their organisations) and we are completely free to read and download. And if you are here just to read what is happening - that is absolutely perfect!

You can follow us on our social media accounts, let us have your views - we would love to know how we are doing!
