THE GLOBAL DOMINION 100: INDEX OF WOMEN

There are moments in time when you don't just create content, you create access.

More than 20 years ago, an editor from Charisma Magazine spoke something over my life that I did not fully understand at the time. He said that in the spirit realm, I had been given land rights to the Internet and that I would be used to give access to many, including believers, through digital platforms.

At the time, it felt prophetic. Today, it feels like responsibility. Because when I look at what is being built here, I recognize that this is more than a list.

It is a gate.

After more than 35 years in media, I have seen this truth play out again and again: Many people are not lacking ability. They are one access point away.

One introduction.

One connection.

One moment of visibility away from their next level.

Yet, access is not always evenly distributed.

There are women building. Women leading. Women creating impact across industries. Women solving real problems and shifting culture.

But their names are not always heard. Their work is not always seen.

Their influence is not always acknowledged on a global stage.

That is where this comes in.

The Global Dominion 100 i Legacy & Leadership Index is not just about recognition, it is about revealing.

Yes, there are names the world already agrees on.

Women like Oprah Winfrey and Beyoncé have long defined what influence, ownership, and cultural impact can look like at the highest levels. Agree with them or not, their contributions are undeniable. Their legacy is established.

PUBLISHER

But this index is not about repeating what is already known. It is about expanding what is seen. It is about honoring women who are building in real time; some at scale, some in emerging spaces, and some in rooms the world has not yet paid attention to.

Because there is no time like the present to build what does not yet exist, some say, "If you're not invited to the table, create your own."

I believe it is time to go further than that. It is time to create gates. Gates of access. Gates of visibility. Gates that open opportunities for others to be seen, heard, and connected. This index is one of those gates.

Within these pages, you will find women you recognize immediately. You will also find women you may be encountering for the first time. That is intentional. Because influence is not only measured by visibility, it is measured by impact, consistency, and what is being built behind the scenes.

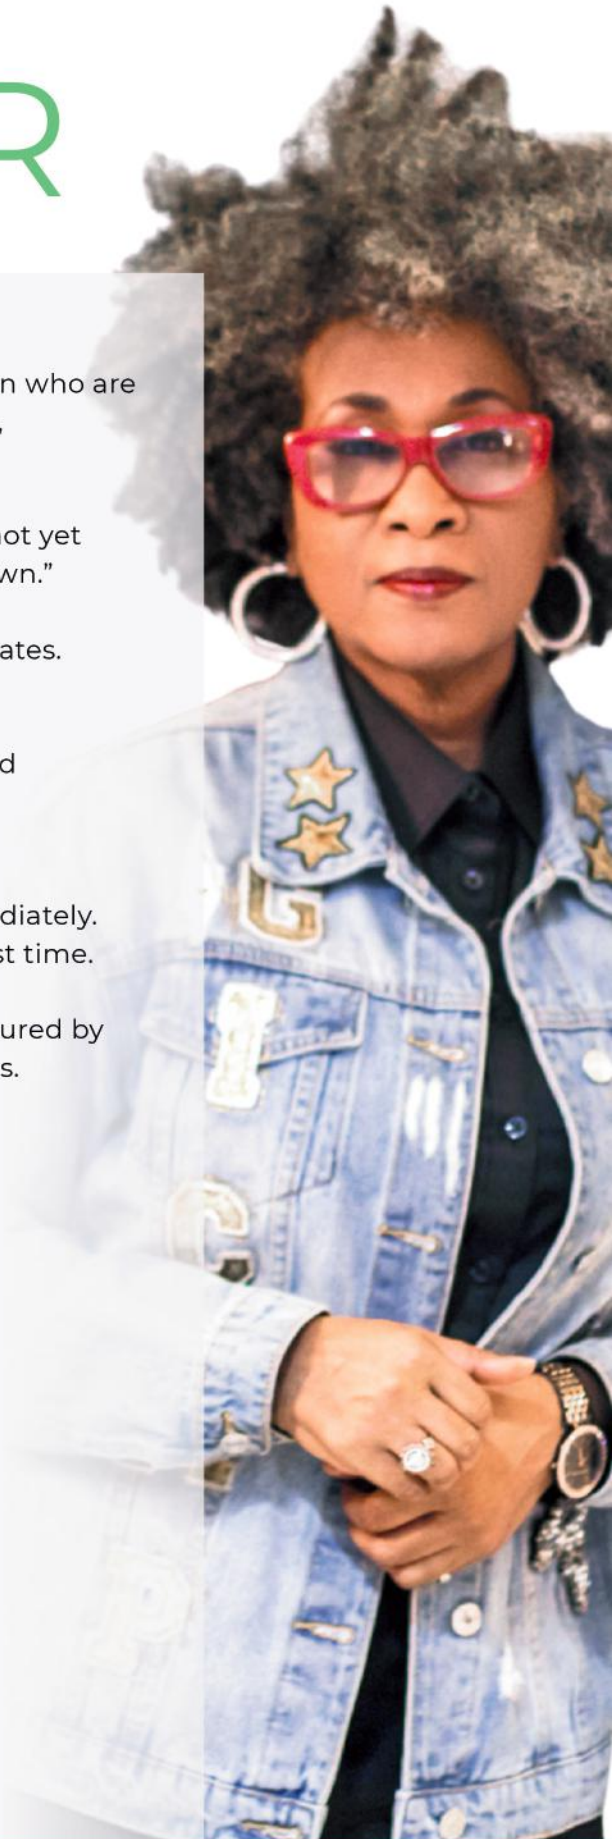

As you read, I invite you to lean in. Pay attention. Take note. Make connections.

And if something resonates with you, share it.

Because access is not just something we receive. It is something we can extend.

Welcome to the first edition of the Global Dominion 100.

STRATEGIC PARTNERSHIP DIRECTOR

Building Partnerships for Global Visibility, Influence & Legacy

There are moments in history when vision must do more than inspiration must build. It must open doors, create platforms, and establish new gates of opportunity for those called to lead with courage, conviction, and global influence. This is one of those moments.

Welcome to The Global Dominion 100 Legacy & Leadership Index – Class of 2026. As the Strategic Partnerships Director & Legacy Architect of The Global Dominion 100 Legacy & Leadership Index – Class of 2026, my why is deeply personal, passionate, and purposeful. I believe legacy-driven women leaders deserve more than hard work behind the scenes. They deserve visibility. They deserve expanded reach. They deserve meaningful global connections. They deserve to be seen, valued, honored, and positioned with authority in the rooms, markets, industries, and platforms they were born to influence.

It is a true honor to serve as part of a global team led by Apostle Dwann Holmes, whose creative media brilliance has helped shape a visionary platform for such a time as this. With excellence, innovation, and prophetic foresight, she has cultivated the art of designing visibility platforms, making prophetic gates, and building a strategic marketing system that supports the expansion of visibility, influence, and increased opportunities for impact and legacy.

This special edition publication is far more than a showcase of names and accomplishments, but it is a gateway to greater positioning, broader reach, and meaningful opportunities for legacy leaders whose voices carry the power to shape culture, transform lives, and leave a lasting mark on the world.

This special edition publication was not created simply to showcase accomplishments. It was created to make gates and build platforms. Gates represent access, movement, expansion, and entry into new dimensions of influence and greater impact. We are not merely highlighting names on a page; we are helping to create brand opportunities that shift trajectories, expand presence, and strengthen the public voice of visionary leaders whose impact deserves to travel farther and reach wider.

The Global Dominion 100 Legacy & Leadership Index has brought together an extraordinary class of leaders who chose to level up and lean in with unstoppable courage. Here, we recognize and honor Thought Leaders, Experts, Industry Voices, Lawyers, Estate Planners, Apostles, Prophets, Pastors, Mentors, Founders, Award-Winning Authors, Coaches, Creatives, Strategists, Marketplace Ministers, and Faith-Driven Leaders who are not only participating in important conversations but are shaping them as well. They are driving leadership, innovation, and global influence with boldness and intentionality.

STRATEGIC PARTNERSHIP DIRECTOR

In a time when many powerful voices remain overlooked, underestimated, or hidden beneath the weight of responsibility, this publication stands as a declaration: your leadership belongs in the Spotlight. Your wisdom carries weight. Your brand deserves expansion. Your story carries authority. Your legacy has global relevance.

My passion for this work is rooted in a deep conviction that visibility, when aligned with purpose, is not vanity, it is stewardship. Exposure, when paired with excellence, becomes impact. Networking, when rooted in destiny, becomes collaboration. Authority, when built on authenticity, becomes legacy.

This is why we make gates.

This is why we partner with leaders and expand reach.

This is why we honor service and legacy.

And we are doing it with faith, excellence, and global vision

The Class of 2026 represents more than a distinguished group of Honorees. It represents a global movement of courageous leaders who dared to own The Moment before them and step forward with vision, presence, and power.

To every featured leader within these pages: thank you for showing up boldly. Thank you for answering the Call to lead and serve. Thank you for choosing courage over comfort, expansion over limitation, and legacy over invisibility.

May this be only the beginning of your next level of visibility, influence, impact, and legacy.

Tawni Haynes

That level of intentionality is rare in fashion, and it reflects a deeper commitment to dignity, individuality, and excellence.

Her designs have helped women move with confidence in every kind of setting—from Sunday service to the boardroom to national television. This is fashion that does not just make a statement. It supports identity. It equips women to enter rooms fully aware of who they are.

That is why the Tawni Haynes brand resonates.

As a designer, entrepreneur, wife, and mother, Tawni brings a holistic perspective to her work. She has built a business that merges faith, family, and forward-thinking strategy without losing authenticity. She is not chasing attention. She is walking in alignment. And that is what gives her brand substance.

Beyond the showroom and online custom offerings, Tawni's impact extends into community initiatives, local manufacturing, and sustainable sourcing. She is building responsibly, proving that style and stewardship can coexist. In a world of fast fashion and mass production, she has chosen a more tailored and transformative path. Tawni Haynes has created more than beautiful garments. She has created a brand that helps women show up boldly, confidently, and with intention.

And that is why she stands among the ELITE 5 of the Global Dominion 100 Leadership and Legacy Index.

Because when fashion is done right, it does more than change how you look. It changes how you show up.

Tawni Haynes is more than the woman behind a fashion brand. She is a visionary builder, a woman of precision, and an ELITE 5 honoree of the Global Dominion 100 Leadership and Legacy Index. That matters because true legacy is not built on hype. It is built on stewardship, consistency, and the courage to create with intention.

Based in Cedar Hill, Texas, Tawni Haynes has developed a fashion brand that speaks to women who want to show up with confidence, strength, and unmistakable presence. Whether the look is church elegance, corporate polish, or sporty chic with a bold edge, her signature is clear: sleek lines, bold prints, and form-fitted silhouettes that honor the woman wearing them.

But what makes Tawni stand out is not just style. It is insight.

She understands that women are not one-size-fits-all, and neither is presence. Her custom design approach serves real women with real lives and real bodies, creating pieces that complement sizes 8 to 18 and beyond.

Dr. Sharon R. Nesbitt

Dr. Sharon R. Nesbitt: A Life That Gives, Builds, and Leaves Evidence

Some leaders are remembered for what they said. Others are remembered for what they built, what they gave, and how people were strengthened because they showed up in their season with weight. Dr. Sharon R. Nesbitt belongs in that second category. That is why she stands as an ELITE 5 honoree of the Global Dominion 100 Leadership and Legacy Index.

Dr. Nesbitt has built more than a ministry presence. She is the founder of Dominion World Outreach Ministries in Marion, Arkansas, as well as Dominion World Development Corporation and Dominion World Guatemala. Her leadership has also directed major land and facility development for the vision, including the ministry's 102-acre purchase for a new Dominion campus. But what makes her leadership especially compelling is not only the size of the vision. It is the spirit in which she carries it.

And people who know her witness another dimension of that character: she does not forget those who serve. Even while traveling, moving across platforms, and carrying major responsibility, she remains mindful of people in hospitality and support roles. She honors service. She notices the ones many overlook. That says something important about the kind of woman she is. Legacy is not only revealed by how a leader stands on stage. It is also revealed by how they value people behind the scenes.

There is also clear evidence of a builder's grace on her life. Dr. Nesbitt recently helped lead the building of a $3 million facility debt-free, made possible through generous pledges from people who believed in the vision. That kind of accomplishment does not happen by excitement alone. It happens when trust has been built over time. People give like that when they have seen integrity, consistency, and fruit.

Her work has also been recognized with major honors, including the Presidential Lifetime Achievement and Volunteer Service Award and her appointment as Goodwill Ambassador for the Golden Rule under the Interfaith Peace Building Initiative. Those recognitions fit a woman whose life has clearly reached beyond preaching into philanthropy, humanitarian work, and generational impact.

So when we recognize Dr. Sharon R. Nesbitt as ELITE 5 of the Global Dominion 100 Leadership and Legacy Index, we are not merely acknowledging influence. We are honoring a woman who has built with conviction, given with wisdom, and led in a way that leaves something tangible on the ground.

Dr. Sharon R. Nesbitt is not just a visible leader. She is a proven one.

Jackie Vernon-Thompson

Jackie Vernon-Thompson: Why Her Influence Reaches Millions

Jackie Vernon-Thompson has built a global platform because she offers more than etiquette. She teaches transformation.

As a 2026 ELITE 5 honoree of the Global Dominion 100 Leadership and Legacy Index, Jackie represents a rare kind of leadership—one that merges refinement, confidence, communication, and purpose in a way people can immediately apply to their lives. She is a Certified Etiquette Expert, Consultant, and Amazon #1 best-selling author of Transformative Etiquette, but her true impact reaches far beyond titles.

Millions follow Jackie on social media because her message connects with real needs.

People are not just looking for rules about dining or decorum. They are looking for confidence. They are looking for professionalism. They are looking for help in how to carry themselves in rooms that require excellence and grace. That with clarity, grace, and a...

Through From the Inside-Out School of Etiquette, she has taught children, young men, women, and professionals how to strengthen both presentation and self-worth. Her teaching covers business protocol, social graces, and dining etiquette, but what makes her work resonate is that she helps people understand the “why” behind refinement. She teaches that presentation is connected to opportunity, and that confidence can be cultivated.

Her digital influence is strong because it is practical, aspirational, and empowering. People follow her because she makes excellence feel reachable. She does not simply impress audiences; she equips them. That is why her community continues to grow across cultures and generations. With more than 4 million followers, her influence reflects trust, consistency, and a message that translates globally.

Jackie's reach is also multiplied through her five-week Certification Master Class, where she has certified more than 340 consultants across the United States, Canada, the UK, Jamaica, Dubai, Bangladesh, and several nations in Africa. She is not only building a brand; she is building leaders who can carry this work further.

Her visibility in major media outlets and national television confirms her credibility, but her nonprofit work reveals her heart. Through Youth Empowerment Village, Inc., she offers free summer programming for youth ages 10 to 17, teaching public speaking, professionalism, financial awareness, and etiquette. She is preparing the next generation to lead with confidence and character.

Jackie Vernon-Thompson is followed by millions because she speaks to aspiration with substance. She helps people become more polished, more prepared, and more confident in who they are. That is why she belongs among the 2026 ELITE 5 of the Global Dominion 100 Leadership and Legacy Index.

Michelle J. Miller, Esq.

It was about legacy, access, and what becomes possible when somebody from Englewood, Bronzeville, and Chicago's South Side refuses to quit. That is history-making. And it is not her only credential.

Michelle brings more than 20 years of experience in law, business, and legal strategy across corporate, academic, and entrepreneurial sectors. She is a law professor, clinical supervising attorney, managing attorney, business strategist, and trusted advisor to executives, entrepreneurs, faith leaders, influencers, and entertainers. Her work spans corporate compliance, intellectual property, international business law, contract negotiation, cross-border legal advisory, and risk mitigation. She is also the founder of her own law firm and the creator of a legal model that helps protect brands, businesses, and legacy.

Her résumé confirms what her journey already reveals. She holds a Juris Doctor, an LL.M. in International Business, advanced certifications from Harvard and the University of Illinois, has taught and spoken globally, and has served in major corporate and academic leadership roles. She also founded the first Intellectual Property, Entertainment, and Entrepreneurship Clinic in the history of Chicago-Kent College of Law. This is disciplined capacity meeting divine opportunity. Michelle is also shaping culture beyond the courtroom. She has written and taught on wealth, legal protection, favor, prophetic purpose, and business strategy. She has advised high-level leaders and protected the intellectual property of brands and public figures. She has moved in both legal precision and spiritual conviction without apology. That kind of integration is rare. That kind of obedience with wisdom builds Goshen. So let this be clear: Michelle J. Miller is not just a woman who made a move. She is a woman making history.

And this is a reminder to all of us; look around again. Pay attention to who is building. Notice who is breaking ceilings with integrity. Recognize who is carrying both excellence and assignment. Because some of the most important leaders in this hour are not begging to be seen. They are already moving. Attorney Michelle J. Miller is one of them. That is why she stands as ELITE 5 of the Global Dominion 100 Leadership and Legacy Index.

Too often, people miss history because they are looking for noise instead of fruit. They overlook the woman building quietly, breaking barriers lawfully, and moving with discipline instead of spectacle. But wisdom knows how to look again. Wisdom knows how to recognize a history maker while she is still in motion.

That is why Attorney Michelle J. Miller must be recognized as an ELITE 5 honoree of the Global Dominion 100 Leadership and Legacy Index.

Michelle J. Miller is not simply successful. She is a builder, a barrier-breaker, and a woman whose life is producing evidence.

From the South Side of Chicago to the Supreme Court of the United States, she has walked a path marked by discipline, resilience, and apostolic focus. Her recent public reflections do not read like casual celebration. They read like the testimony of a woman who understands the weight of history, the price of perseverance, and the responsibility of representation.

When Michelle stood before the Supreme Court as a member of the SCOTUS Bar and an Officer of the Court, she was not merely achieving a personal milestone. She was stepping into a place that many before her were denied access to, and she understood it. She made it plain that her ascent was never just about personal applause.

Dwann K. Holmes

She is a trusted spiritual advisor to many, including executives, senior leaders, and entertainers. People seek her out because she carries more than inspiration. She brings insight, strategy, discernment, and direction. She helps people see what is next, what needs protection, and what must be structured in order for vision to thrive.

That work extends across multiple lanes with unusual strength. With a professional background in television journalism dating back to 1989, Dwann understands media not just as communication, but as infrastructure for influence. She knows how to help people shape a message, clarify a brand, and move vision from concept to platform. For those looking to publish a book, expand their voice, or develop a stronger media presence, she brings both prophetic clarity and practical understanding. She does not just tell people to build. She helps them build it.

As a publisher and author of more than 20 books, including The Global Call to Marketplace Ministry, she has created resources that train, equip, and activate leaders in both ministry and the marketplace. Her work reflects a woman who understands that ideas need structure, messages need systems, and calling must be stewarded well if it is going to produce lasting fruit.

She is also an Emmy-nominated producer, a serial entrepreneur, and a woman unafraid to expand where vision demands it. In 2025, she entered the financial sector as a licensed insurance and variable annuities broker and financial strategist, helping individuals and families protect assets, steward resources wisely, and build toward generational wealth. That move makes sense for someone who has always cared about legacy. She understands that vision is not only spiritual. It must also be protected.

Her national honors include the Presidential Lifetime Achievement Award, and she also holds an Honorary Doctorate Degree in Entrepreneurship.

So when people read the name Dwann Holmes, they should not only think of a leader who has built well. They should recognize a woman who helps others build, publish, protect, and position what God has placed in their hands. That is ELITE 5 leadership.

Dwann K. Holmes: Publishing Vision, Protecting Legacy, and Helping Others Build

Some people are recognized early because others can already see the force of vision on their lives. But the real measure is not whether someone had an early moment. The real measure is whether they kept building after the applause faded. Dwann K. Holmes did.

Twenty-six years after being recognized as a former Ebony Magazine 30 Under 30, Dwann Holmes still stands as a woman of relevance, range, and real results. That kind of staying power does not happen by accident. It comes from discipline, clarity, and a willingness to keep evolving without abandoning the core of the assignment.

That is why she stands as an ELITE 5 honoree of the Global Dominion 100 Leadership and Legacy Index. Dwann Holmes is a pioneering prophetic strategist, publisher, media visionary, and founder of the Global Institute of Church and Marketplace Prophets (GICMP). For more than two decades, she has equipped prophets, marketplace leaders, and visionary builders with the language, structure, and spiritual intelligence needed to move forward with precision and purpose.

But what makes Dwann Holmes especially significant is her ability to help others build. She is not only a leader with her own vision.

Thank you for a wonderful and impactful speech today. I was moved by so many of your stories and appreciate the challenge to ask 7 people in my life and community to tell me about their culture and history.

-Kim U. (RF-Smart)

The training was very helpful for me, especially with having very little experience with negotiations in the work place. I feel confident and more self-assured in my abilities after this training.

Still Celebrating Women's History Month:

HONORING LEGACY, LEADING FORWARD

Even as the calendar will move beyond March, the spirit of Women's History Month will continue to resonate in powerful and meaningful ways. It is not confined to a single moment—it is a movement that lives on through the everyday contributions, sacrifices, and leadership of women around the world. This ongoing celebration offers us an opportunity not only to reflect on the past, but also to recognize and honor the dynamic role women play in shaping our present and influencing our future. In Proverbs 31, we see the trust and dependability, diligence and hardworking, wisdom of stewardship, compassion and generosity, and spiritually grounded and God-fearing characteristics women possess. Here are 5 inspiring and impactful truths about women.

WOMEN AS FOUNDATIONAL LEADERS

Throughout history and across the globe, women have been at the core of transformation. They have shaped communities, strengthened families, led movements, and built systems that continue to sustain society today. Often, their leadership has not been formally acknowledged, yet their influence is deeply embedded in the fabric of our world.

Women have served as the backbone of progress—organizing, nurturing, and innovating in ways that have propelled generations forward. Whether in times of crisis or seasons of growth, women have consistently stepped up, demonstrating resilience, wisdom, and an unwavering commitment to making things better. From biblical and ancient historical documents, we have learned about the power, bravery, and impact of women.

REDEFINING MODERN LEADERSHIP

In today's ever-changing world, women are not only advancing into leadership roles—they are redefining them. The modern woman is no longer waiting for permission to lead; she is creating her own opportunities and paving new paths for others to follow. From corporate boardrooms to entrepreneurial ventures, from classrooms to community organizations, women are bringing a leadership style that values both performance and people. They lead with emotional intelligence, strategic thinking, and a deep sense of purpose. This blend of empathy and effectiveness is transforming workplaces and communities, proving that strong leadership does not have to come at the expense of compassion. Instead, it thrives because of it and reshapes how we build in the marketplace and family.

GLOBAL INFLUENCE AND IMPACT

The influence of women extends far beyond local communities—it is global in scope and significance. Across continents and cultures, women are leading initiatives that address some of the world's most pressing challenges. They are advancing education, improving healthcare systems, advocating for social justice, and driving innovation in science and technology. Women are not only participating in global conversations—they are shaping them. Their voices are bringing new perspectives, challenging outdated systems, and inspiring inclusive solutions that benefit all of humanity. This global impact underscores the importance of continuing to invest in women's development, leadership, and opportunities.

LEGACY THROUGH MENTORSHIP AND EMPOWERMENT

One of the most powerful aspects of women's leadership is their dedication to empowering others. Women understand that true success is not achieved in isolation—it is multiplied when shared. Through mentorship, coaching, and intentional guidance, women are cultivating the next generation of leaders. They are creating safe spaces for growth, offering wisdom gained through experience, and encouraging others to step boldly into their purpose. This commitment to legacy ensures that the progress made today will continue to expand tomorrow. Empowered women empower women, and that ripple effect has the power to transform families, organizations, and entire communities.

CALL TO ACTION FOR WOMEN:

- Continue to rise with confidence and purpose. Invest in your growth, use your voice boldly, and do not shrink back from opportunities to lead, build, and influence. Seek mentorship but also be willing to mentor others. Walk fully in your calling, knowing that your contribution matters, and your impact is needed.
- Continue to lead with courage, build with intention, nurture with compassion, innovate with boldness, and inspire with authenticity; because we know our influence is everywhere. Our contributions are invaluable, and our legacy is still being written.

CALL TO ACTION FOR THE COMMUNITY:

- Be intentional about supporting women—not just in words, but in action. Create opportunities, advocate for equity, amplify their voices, and recognize their contributions in meaningful ways. Support women in leadership, invest in their development, and foster environments where they can thrive without limitation.
- Women's History Month may be a designated time of reflection but remember to celebrate Women's History Month and beyond knowing it is important that recognition must be paired with action. Supporting women, creating opportunities, and amplifying their voices are essential steps toward sustained progress.

It is a continuous acknowledgment that when women rise, communities thrive, and the world becomes a better place for us all.

REAL ESTATE & MARKET LEADERSHIP

Paulette Walker Is Helping Jacksonville Families Turn Homeownership Into Legacy. In a market where transactions can often feel rushed and impersonal, Paulette Walker has built her reputation on something far more enduring — trust, strategy, and results.

A Jacksonville native with more than three decades of experience across mortgage and real estate, Walker brings a level of insight that cannot be taught in a weekend course or replicated through surface-level knowledge. She understands the full scope of the homeownership journey — not just how to buy or sell, but how to position each decision as part of a larger financial and generational strategy.

That distinction matters. Because for Walker, real estate is not simply about closing deals. It is about helping individuals and families step into ownership with clarity, confidence, and long-term vision.

Her background in mortgage gives her clients a unique advantage. She is able to anticipate challenges before they arise, guide buyers through financing with precision, and ensure that each move is aligned with both current needs and future goals.

Whether working with first-time homebuyers, new construction clients, or seasoned investors, her approach remains consistent — informed, intentional, and results-driven. And then there is her service.

As an Army veteran, Walker carries a discipline and commitment that shows up in every transaction. Her clients are not left guessing. They are guided, educated, and positioned to make decisions that serve them well beyond the closing table.

Operating throughout Jacksonville and the surrounding Northeast Florida region, Paulette Walker continues to stand as a trusted authority in a competitive market. But more importantly, she remains a steady advocate for those seeking more than just property — those seeking stability, opportunity, and legacy.

Because when it's done right, real estate is not just a purchase. It's a foundation. And Paulette Walker knows exactly how to build it.

ROSE MARR

Cultural Legacy Spotlight

ARTIST · EDUCATOR · CULTURAL STORYTELLER
· GALLERY CURATOR · PRESERVER

“Art can preserve memory, honor legacy, and tell the story of a people with dignity.”

Rose Marr was born Rosemary Marr in Senatobia, Mississippi into a sharecropper family. At age five, she moved to Memphis, Tennessee with her mother, maternal grandmother, and three siblings. She earned her BFA in Drawing and Printmaking from Memphis College of Art and an MS in Educational Leadership and Policy Studies from the University of Memphis.

In 1995, she relocated to Oakland, California where she held a long career as a high school art teacher and later as an administrator. In March 2020 during the onset of the Covid-19 pandemic, she decided to retire early and return to Memphis. Since returning to Memphis she has established a full-time art practice and has had several solo exhibitions.

As a very young girl, she began drawing Black celebrity portraits from photographs she found in Jet and Ebony magazines. Her love for drawing portraits stayed with her throughout her adulthood. She continues to draw Black celebrities on occasion - but now mostly draws vintage images of Black people using her unique signature medium: Crayon on Wood. She considers her new body of work a visual black culture history lesson.

She also manages a home art gallery - The Mayfair Gallery - which is dedicated to showcasing the original artworks of her late mother. Mary “Mayfair” Matthews was an obscure self-taught folk art painter and quilter with masterful talent. Rose was married to the late Carl Scott, a Memphis artist and muralist.
