Our rental solutions are available for periods as brief as one month or as long as two years, ensuring we can accommodate your timeline.

Indigo Living isn't just a furniture rental company; it's a multi-award-winning home furnishing retailer and design service provider that has been setting interior trends across Asia and the Middle East for nearly four decades.

We take pride in our portfolio of services, which extends beyond furniture rental to include design consulting, property styling, FF&E procurement, and bespoke furniture design. Our dedicated, in-house team brings a wealth of experience to every project, ensuring you benefit from our deep industry knowledge at every step of the journey.

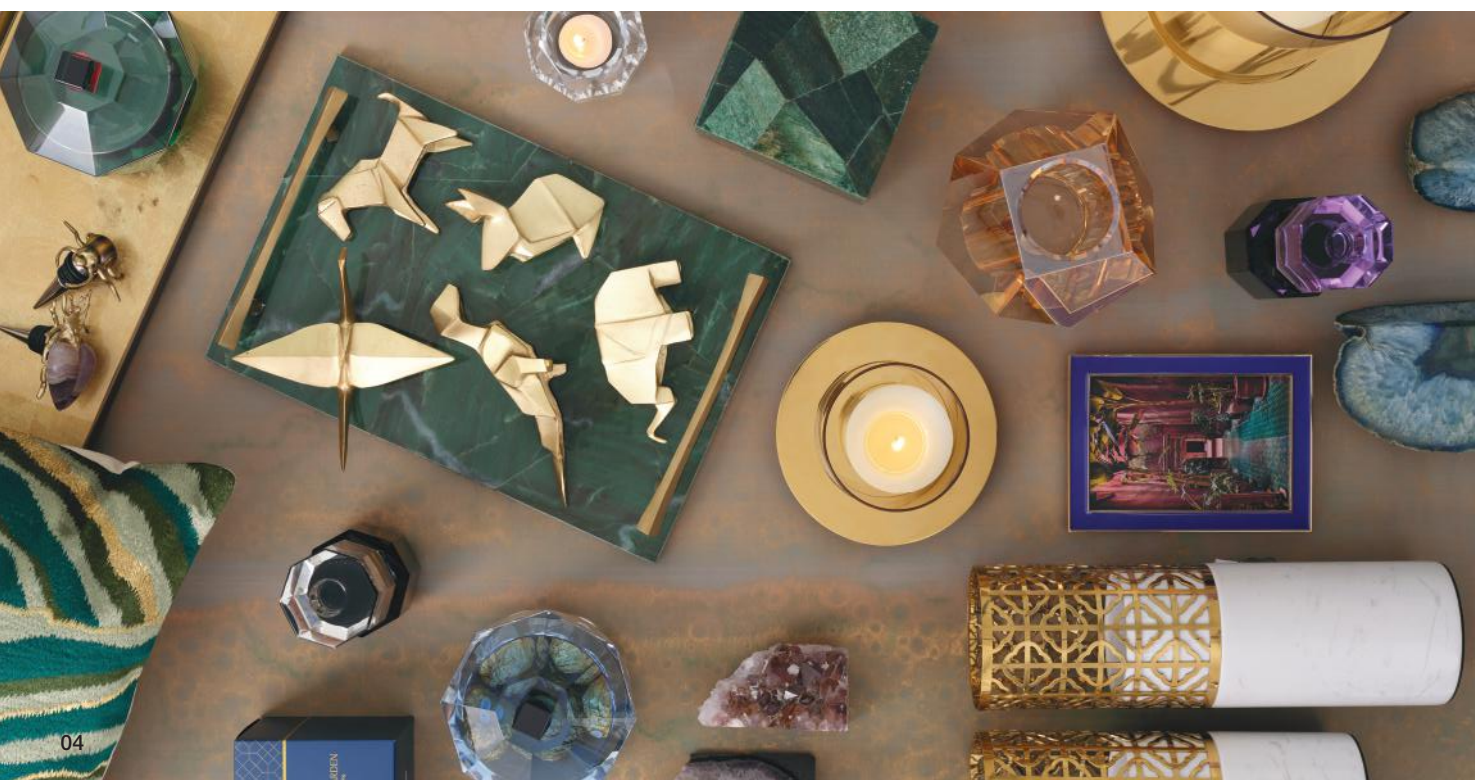

FURNITURE RENTAL

THE OPTIMAL CHOICE

Renting furniture from Indigo Living comes with numerous advantages:

- Stress-free Relocation: It eliminates one major concern when planning an overseas move, ensuring a beautifully furnished and functional home upon arrival.
- Personalized Style: It is more economical than leasing a fully furnished service apartment while allowing you to select furniture styles that align with your personal taste.
- Perfect Fit: It removes the risk of your shipped furniture not fitting in your new apartment or elevator, a common issue encountered during international relocations.
- Deal for Corporations: For corporate HR departments and multinational corporations, Indigo Living offers a one-stop solution for furnishing individual homes, multiple residential compounds, and staff quarters.
- Cost and Damage Avoidance: By renting, you bypass the expense and potential harm associated with shipping furniture overseas.
- Enhanced Property Appeal: Furnishing and styling your property with rented pieces can attract potential tenants and increase rental returns.
- Financially Savvy: Renting furniture proves more cost-effective than purchasing entirely new home furnishings, particularly for short-term relocations or contractual stays.
