

Retiring Ron

Adventures in Dominica are always so memorable

Sunny edition: Nov 24

Hi all and welcome to the Dominica leg of Retiring Ron's travels.

The saying goes that a picture tells a thousand words so without further ado, feast your eyes on the latest edition. It was two weeks of a mix of fun, family and innovation.

The Fort Young is like a home from home

Fort Young brunches are fab

Fort Young's codfish balls are irresistible

Queen Mary 2 docking beside Fort Young at 6am

Dominica has a stunning coastline

Uncle Ato, carer Adeline and mum, St Theresa, enjoyed their visit to Mero Beach

Uncle Ato has been a blessing for the way he looks after mum, who is 89 years young!

Dad, Haynes, has just turned 90!

Cuz Connie is super smart and gorgeous

Cousin Dense enjoying his bush tea. He cooked me a lovely lunch. Bless.

Daryl Bobb travels the world performing

Cruise passengers are fully entertained

Julien Josephs is soooo talented

I love attending St Alphonsus masses

Father insisted on a selfie!

Car beside the church. Owner must be praying hard!

DiDi and Indee are wonderful hosts

Dominica's steam train industry is still popular

Morning brew and view

I was addicted to their pineapple crumble

View from my uncle Del's balcony in Newtown

Uncle Del is still going strong at 85

Must be Dominica's biggest tree. It's in the botanical gardens

My cousins were great cricketers

Scotts Head is a stunning location

It was also the soft launch of my newsletter service. So far I've created a 4-page newsletter for a top London electrician (Steve Bastien), a Kenyan charity for teenage mums (Birth and Beyond), Indee's Beach Bar and Restaurant (Dominican diner) and a mock one for the Fort Young hotel in Roseau. All Stars Boxing Club in London are our latest clients.

First newsletter – personal or business - to anyone interested is free. I'm using Dominica graphic designers. Absolutely brilliant creative talent.
