It is with the deepest of remorse and sorrow one heard the news of Sh. Shiv Dutt Salwan passing away. Though he has left our world, we know with certainty that he is with the Almighty for he was blessed with all that it took to be one with the ONE.

I knew him since I was 11 years old as he was a loved member of our family, especially my father to whom he was like a younger brother. They spent countless time together sharing their innermost feelings and enjoying their time with one another. I am blessed to have got his wise counsel and to have learnt from him in innumerable ways, particularly in upholding the best of human values.

It's deeply saddening to hear about the loss of a legend who played such a vital role in building our nation. It's now our duty to carry forward his great work. My heartfelt condolences ...

Sh. Jyotimitra, Architect

It is a blessing for a father to have a son mourn for his passing away with such poignant memories and sentiments. He lived a full life and built an institution. Not many can leave such big footprints that will be respected for generations in your family and all those associated in some way or the other with his legacy. I hope and pray that succeeding generations of your family truly understand and cherish those memories just as fervently as you do. Perhaps you will do what is necessary to ensure that. It is important because we are living in a very transient world. May God give you strength and courage to not only bear the loss but carry on the good and noble work forward.
