The final stretch

Summer is looming into view, but so is – uh oh – exam season. Don't panic, we have you covered with six top tips on revision planning, approach and practice (parents, you can do your bit too) that will help the moment you turn over that dreaded paper seem less daunting. If that doesn't help, you can always bribe the dog to eat your notes... Just kidding, you've got this!

SEND: Confident Futures is back

Did you know just 5.9% of people with learning disabilities are in paid employment? Confident Futures Skills Show – our annual experiential careers event aimed at young people with SEND – is back on Tuesday 10th June to help change that. Here's why our event sponsors believe you should make the life-changing decision to book a ticket.

Have your say

If you've got twenty minutes to spare, fire up the kettle, kick back in your comfies and take the Youth Voice Census 2025 to share your opinions on school, work and life. The online survey is completely anonymous and will help experts on employment understand the barriers faced by young people to help create change. Boom!

Pssst!

The May edition of Choices Magazine – Amazing Apprenticeships' free parent and carer guide to technical education – has just dropped with spotlights on Lloyds Bank and E.ON.

Careers: Five ways AI can open doors for you

While the headlines often focus on the downsides of AI, there's a whole other side to the story: the tech is opening up amazing opportunities for young people to explore careers, gain skills and get hired. Find out how.
