LIMITLESS M.D.

OUR HAIR EXPERT IS HERE TO ANSWER YOUR TOP QUESTIONS, DIAGNOSE YOUR CONCERNS, AND PRESCRIBE THE RIGHT ADVICE TO KEEP YOUR HAIR AT ITS BEST.

Q. What product should I use if my hair feels fried?

A. Start with the M3 Miracle Mask and a moisture-focused shampoo and conditioner like the Mega Moisture duo. If your hair snaps when brushing, it's begging for hydration and protein support.

Q. What's the difference between the Scalp Rescue Hair Growth Treatment and Hair Growth Serum?

A. The Hair Growth Treatment is a post-wash scalp treatment that helps stimulate the scalp and target hair loss/thinning while the Hair Growth Serum can be used daily to keep the scalp healthy and nourished between washes. The key difference is the treatment stimulates and activates, providing a stronger "treatment" focus while the serum is a lightweight everyday support that nourishes and maintains. Treatment is better for hair loss/thinning focus. Serum is better for general scalp health + maintenance. You don't really need both but they can complement each other really well.

Q. In what order do I use the Scalp Rescue products?

A. Start with the Scalp Rescue Soothing Duo to cleanse and calm the scalp. The shampoo helps remove buildup and irritation, while the conditioner hydrates and soothes without weighing hair down. Alternatively, use any shampoo and conditioner from the range. After washing, apply the Hair Growth Treatment to the scalp and roots as an intensive treatment. Follow with the Hair Growth Serum as a leave-in scalp serum to support scalp health and fuller-looking hair. The serum is the final step and does not need to be rinsed out.

Q. What's the difference between the blue, violet and white bleach?

A. Each bleach is designed to help control different underlying tones while lifting the hair.

- Blue bleach helps neutralise orange warmth, making it ideal for darker hair, balayage and strong lifting services.
- Violet bleach helps reduce yellow tones for a cleaner, cooler blonde result — perfect for icy blondes and foils.
- White bleach is the most neutral option, giving hairdressers a clean canvas for custom toning and creative colour work afterward.

Q. Can I mix DyeVerse shades together?

A. Absolutely! The range is designed for creativity, so you can customise shades and create unique colour blends. In fact, we highly encourage it.

Q. What's the difference between the Light and Rich shampoos and masks in the Clinical Curl range?

A. Light is ideal for finer curls or waves that get weighed down easily, while Rich is made for drier, thicker or thirstier curl types needing deeper moisture.

Q. What's the difference between Curl Foam and Curl Gel?

A. Foam gives lighter definition and bounce, while gel provides stronger hold and longer-lasting curl structure. Many curl routines actually layer both together.

Q. Can Limitless products help with extension care?

A. Definitely. Sulphate-free and moisture-rich formulas are ideal for helping extensions stay softer and last longer.

Q. Does Limitless Illuminates contain Plex Technology?

A. Yes — Illuminates is formulated with Plex Technology to help support the hair structure during colouring. It's designed to help reduce the feeling of damage and maintain stronger, healthier-looking hair throughout the service.

Q. What's the difference between the Dry Shampoo Spray and Dry Shampoo Powder?

A. The spray version is ideal for refreshing oily roots quickly, while the powder gives stronger oil absorption and extra texture and volume at the roots.

Q. What's the hero product in Scalp Rescue?

A. The Hair Growth Serum is quickly becoming the standout. Lightweight scalp serums are having a major moment because people want healthier-looking roots without greasy residue.
