The color purple Sheriff's Office has balloon launch for domestic violence awareness

By Henry E. Green

Abbeville County Sheriff's Office had a balloon launch Tuesday to mark Domestic Violence Awareness Month.

Sheriff's Office personnel and friends released purple balloons at the Abbeville County law enforcement center.

The balloon launch was in memory of domestic violence victims who lost their lives due to domestic violence, said Abbeville County Sheriff's Office victims advocate Monique Bell.

"This year we'll be releasing 40 balloons," she said in an interview Monday. "In 2020, the state of South Carolina lost 24 women and 15 men, and we're releasing 40, with one balloon representing the unknown victims."

South Carolina ranks sixth in the nation in terms of murders due to domestic violence, she said.

Here in Abbeville County, there were no murders due to domestic violence.

The Abbeville County Sheriff's Office has worked 45 cases dealing with domestic violence so far in 2021.

The amount of case work varies from year to year, she said.

"Every day is different," said Ball, the law enforcement victims advocate for the Abbeville County Sheriff's Office, as well as the Due West and Ware Shoals police departments.

Bell has been working 15 and one half years in the field of victim services.

"I love what I do," she said.

"To do this job you have to have the compassion, the heart, the patience."

Every case is different. Domestic violence is not always physical—it can be emotional or verbal as well. Domestic violence affects all levels of society.

"You deal with all kinds of people," she added. Black, white, rich, poor, middle class—domestic violence can affect anyone.

"We have male victims, too," said Bell, who works with shelters such as Laurens County Safe Home and Meg's House to provide assistance to victims.

"No matter who they are I'm always there to help them," she said. "I'm with them from beginning to end."

Elections coming up in various communities

By Henry E. Green

A number of elections, all nonpartisan, are coming up on Tuesday, Nov. 2 here in Abbeville County, according to Kim London, Abbeville County voter registration and elections director.

Elections are slated for Due West, Lowndesville, and Calhoun Falls, and there is also a special election to fill the unexpired term of Buster Taylor on the Abbeville County School District Board of Trustees.

Taylor resigned from the board earlier this year, and Glynda Bryson is the only candidate on the ballot. If elected, she will serve the 40 remaining months on Taylor's unexpired term.

Meanwhile, in Calhoun Falls, incumbent mayor Chris Cowan will be facing challenger Terrico Holland for the Mayor's post.

In addition, two Town Council seats are open for election, but only one candidate filed—Christine Long—so the winner of the second seat will have to be a write-in candidate, London continued.

In Lowndesville, the Mayor and all the Council members are up for election, and all are running unopposed. They include Mayor Rufus Waters and Town Council members Lynn Branyon, Lisa Driver, Janice Hanna, and Janet Yeargin.

Finally, in Due West, three Council seats are open—those of Charles Angel, Kitty Storey, and Terry Arnold.

The candidates for those three seats are Gayle Beaudrot, Chris Myers, and Kitty Storey, London continued.

One may vote absentee if one chooses, either by mail or in person. For more information, one may call the Abbeville County voter registration and elections office at 366-2400, extension 53.

ACPA planning Christmas program

By Henry E. Green

The Abbeville Community Performing Arts board is planning to present a Christmas program at the Opera House in December, according to board chairperson Jodi Miller.

The ACPA will be presenting "The Best Christmas Pageant Ever" at the Opera House Dec. 9-11 and Dec. 16-18. Miller will be directing the pageant, for which auditions will be held on Nov. 1 and Nov. 2 with "potential callbacks" on Nov. 3.

"Casting requirements include six women, four men, nine girls, and eight boys. No experience is necessary. Auditions will include reading from the script, and simple activities to determine voice and movement potential," said Miller.

It tells the story of how a group of children learns what it means to celebrate Christmas, and it will feature both adults and small fry. "I'm looking for lots of community participation, and I'm happy that the first production with the ACPA will be a holiday show in the newly renovated Opera House," said Miller, who lives at Lake Secession with her husband Steve.

"I am looking for individuals who are interested in learning how to direct a live theater production and are willing to start out as my assistant directors."

She is hoping that this will provide an opportunity for teaching aspiring directors as well as all other aspects of live theater, cast and crew, to learn the dynamics of the position.

The ACPA presented earlier this year a youth theater camp, and earlier this month the board presented a production showcasing the work of the theater camp—"Frankenstein."

It was performed at the Opera House by students from the camp, Miller said. "I have 35 years of theater experience. I was presented with a lifetime achievement award from the Holland Community Theater in Holland Michigan in 2017."

She has played roles ranging from Beth in "Crimes of the Heart" to Chelsea in "On Golden Pond."

"I'm a choreographer," she continued. "I'm a director and actor, and helped to produce, and have been on multiple stage crews."

The ACPA, according to the City website, is "tasked with facilitating theatrical performances at the Opera House as well as other community-oriented events in tandem with professional acts brought in by the City's Community Development Department."

"In a broader context, the ACPA will act as another engine for the economic and cultural development of the City of Abbeville," the website continued.

The ACPA board was approved by Abbeville City Council on Feb. 9 of this year, according to the website.

Lady in the picture

Doris Smith made history for Abbeville High, Abbeville County

By Henry E. Green

Every picture tells a story, Rod Stewart used to sing. How true is that? Well, Jenny Kelly of the Abbeville County Historical Society might be able to testify.

Kelly came across a photograph at the Abbeville County Museum of a beautiful African American woman wearing a tiara and a gown, but she did not know who it was.

Through the intense networking which seems to be part of life in a small town, she soon found out.

The young lady, she discovered, was Doris J. Smith, who grew up in Abbeville and graduated from Abbeville High School in 1978.

Doris, Jenny and Doris's cousin, Louise Aikens, an Abbeville City Council member, all converged on The Press and Banner one sunny October afternoon.

Doris, who is also an AHS classmate of Faye Thomas, an Abbeville City Council member, talked a little about her life.

"I attended Piedmont Technical College and Lander College but I graduated from Southern Wesleyan," she said. "I was a teaching assistant at Abbeville High School and then I was a social worker for John de la Howe School for 12 years." She then began working with DSS in Greenwood, and has been with the state of South Carolina for 41 years.

"I'm a foster family support and licensing coordinator (with DSS)," she said. "That was my passion--working with children."

Smith, who resides in Simpsonville, has one son, Jarvis, who is about to get married.

As for the photograph of her wearing a gown and a tiara, that is something of a story in itself.

That crown was part of the Miss South Carolina pageant, she explained.

"In 1979, I was a participant in the Miss South Carolina Pageant," she said. "I was the first black to represent our county."

She was in 1978 also the first black Miss Garnet and Gold, what today would be called the Miss AHS Pageant.

It was in 1978 that she graduated from AHS, where she was honored with a Senior Superlative--Most Courteous.

"I was in the band," she added. The Grenadiers were a force to be reckoned with back then, winning competition after competition.

"When we won a competition the whole town welcomed us back," she said.

Smith, who was also part of a singing group--the Singing Angels--brought an old AHS yearbook with her, and she, Kelly, and Aikens looked through it.

Smith looks back fondly on her high school years. "That 1978 class did not see color," she said.

The class has remained close through the years, thanks largely to class president Nathan Turner, according to Smith.

"He's the glue that holds us together," she said.

That harmony from the 1970s has stayed with us, according to Kelly.

"This was the beginning of our town bonding," she said.

Hines coming to speak at Erskine

By Henry E. Green

Anti-suicide activist Kevin Hines is coming to Erskine on Sunday, Nov. 7, and he will be speaking at the college's Lesesne Auditorium at 5 p.m., according to Kristi Raines, who is organizing the visit.

Doors will open at 4:30 p.m. for mental health resources. Teams will be available after the event to offer support and prayer if needed.

"We encourage an adult to accompany a youth under the age of 15," she said.

There will also, in addition to his presentation, be a showing of a documentary about the effects of suicide called "Suicide:

The Ripple Effect."

Hines's visit to Erskine had originally been scheduled for earlier in the year, but it had to be rescheduled due to COVID-related issues.

Hines is known for having attempted suicide by jumping off the Golden Gate Bridge, but he lived to tell about it.

Raines of Abbeville has presented a number of anti-suicide programs in Abbeville.

She presented a suicide awareness program in September at the Livery Stable in downtown Abbeville, in conjunction with the observance of September as a month to promote awareness of suicide and its prevention.

The program at Erskine will be free and will be funded by the Caroline Project, a program of Bow and Arrow Center of Hope in Abbeville.

The Caroline Project is a suicide prevention program named in memory of the late Caroline Bishop, a young woman in Abbeville who took her life in 2016, but endeared herself to many before her untimely death.

Raines has long emphasized the need to recognize the warning signs of suicide.

On October 17, 2021, Grace Arant Bowen Utsey celebrated her 104th Birthday at Abbeville Nursing Home, surrounded by her son, Paul Bowen, JR and her daughter, Judy Anne Bowen. Grace was born October 17, 1917 to Allye and Shedrick Arant. Grace was a music teacher and voice teacher in Abbeville, SC and the surrounding areas for many years. She played both the piano and violin. She is also known for her love of painting and artwork. A quote that describes how Grace thinks and lives is, "100 years from now it will not matter what your bank account had in it, what sort of house you lived in, or what kind of car you rode in, it only matters if the world may be different because I was important in the life of a child." Oscar Velasquez was brilliant artist

By Henry E. Green

The artist Oscar Velasquez, who helped immortalize the skyline of Abbeville with his art, passed away last month in Ohio, according to reports.

According to the Bluffton Icon, based in Bluffton, Ohio, Velasquez passed away on Sept. 10, 2021, in Akron, Ohio, at the age of 77.

Born in Texas, he came to reside in Putnam County, Ohio in 1953, and after graduating from high school, he received a scholarship to attend Cooper Institute of Art in Cleveland.

Upon graduation, he was hired by the American Greeting Card Company, for which he worked before going "independent."

He claimed a number of honors for his art, including the prestigious Mary S. Litt medal in the early 1970s.

Velasquez lived for a number of years in Abbeville County, and according to the Icon, he was hired by the art director for the filming of "Sleeping with the Enemy" to do three watercolors and five drawings of scenes and sets of the movie.

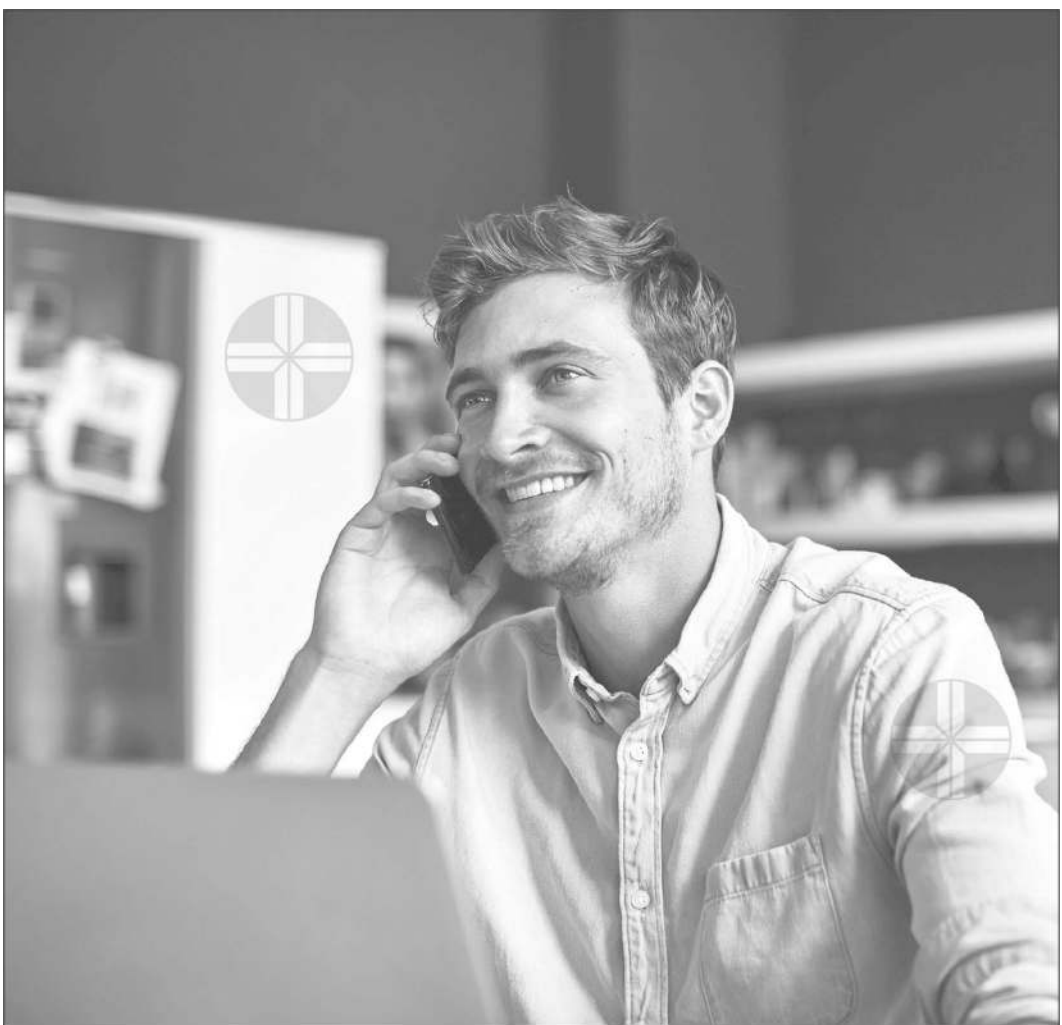

Velasquez, who was also a musician, was the author of two books--Sketch of the South and Sketches of Homes, according to the Icon, which reported that the latter included renderings of homes in Bluffton, Ohio.

The artist, while he was living in Abbeville, resided on the old Calhoun Falls Road, in the Mchoney section of the County, in a fine older home that he restored, according to Cynthia Jefferies of Abbeville.

"I remember going to his house one time," she said.

He left Abbeville County at least two decades ago, said Jefferies, who still has copies of two Velasquez watercolors in her house.

City to present Scare on Square

By Henry E. Green
The City of Abbeville will present Scare on the Square on Thursday, Oct. 28, from 4:30 p.m. to 6:30 p.m., according to Emily Bledsoe, the City's special events coordinator. Families are welcome to get into their spookiest costumes and show up at the Opera House between 4:30 p.m. and 6:30 p.m. From there they will be welcome to walk around Court Square and down Trinity Street to check out participating merchants, who will be distributing goodies to the kids. A map will be posted to show which downtown merchants are participating. "Scare" is aimed at children under the age of 12, and Bledsoe said that these small fries need to be accompanied by their parents. There will also be a costume contest, with the categories including Best Overall, Scariest, Funniest, Most Creative, and Best Family Group.

More details of the event are to be announced. Merchants and organizations wanting to participate are encouraged to sign up online at the City website. For more information, one may call Bledsoe at 366-9673. The Scare has in the past drawn hundreds of participants. "It's one of my favorite events," Bledsoe said. "I love Halloween."

Electric Cooperatives host "Ride Across SC" to raise awareness for Heart Disease

Submitted by Jeff Lewis

The Electric Cooperative Ride Across South Carolina is a seven day, 648 mile ride with stops at 18 cooperatives. Starting on October 25th in the Upstate and ending in the Low Country on November 2nd, 20 cyclists will make their way through the state building awareness for heart disease and offering heart screenings to more than 2,000 electric cooperative employees. The ride was established in memory of Brian Kelley, former President of Pee Dee Electric Cooperative, after his untimely death from undetected heart disease. A CrossFit athlete and avid golfer, Kelley died from a heart attack in 2017. The ride, also dedicated to all cooperative employees who have been impacted by heart disease or stroke, aims to build awareness for heart disease and provide preventative education for cooperative employees. Heart disease is the number one killer in the U.S. with more than 800,000 people dying annually. According to the American Heart Association, S.C. has the 14th highest death rate from cardiovascular disease in the country. Many of those deaths could have been prevented through early detection and education. For more information on heart disease and prevention, visit www.heart.org. The Medical University of South Carolina (MUSC) and Clemson University's Rural Health Initiative will bring the statewide program, Healthy Me - Healthy SC, to each cooperative along the cycle route. The Healthy Me - Healthy SC initiative will provide heart screenings and education for all electric cooperative employees. Employees will also receive access to a blood pressure screening, and Body Composition Screening with an individualized nutrition plan. The American Heart Association, also a statewide partner, will also be onsite providing heart and stroke education. Jeff Lewis, CEO of Little River Electric Cooperative, stated, "We are proud to support and participate in the Ride Across South Carolina. Our employees are front-line workers critical to keep our system up and running, it is important that they are heart healthy. It is also an opportunity to set an example for the members we serve." The Electric Cooperative Ride Across South Carolina's major sponsors are AFL, First Advantage Bank and CBRE, and a large number of other corporate partners are providing financial support for the event. All remaining funds will be donated to the American Heart Association and Clemson's Rural Health Initiative. 2021 Electric Cooperative Ride Across S.C. route: Day 1 - October 25 (94 miles): Blue Ridge (Pickens), Laurens/New Horizon (Laurens), Little River (Abbeville); Day 2 - October 26 (101 miles): Broad River (Gaffney), York (York), Lynchess River (Page-land); Day 3 - October 27 (71 miles): Fairfield (Blythe-wood), Newberry (Newberry), Mid-Carolina (Lexington); Day 4 - October 28 (84 miles): Berkeley (Moncks Corner), Santee (Kingstree), Sumter; Day 5 - October 29 (85 miles): Black River (Sumter), Horry (Conway); Day 6 - November 1 (116 miles): Central (Columbia), Tri-County (St. Mathews), Coastal (Walter-boro); Day 7 - November 2 (97 miles): Edisto (Bamberg), Palmetto (Ridgeland)

A Closer Look at Oklahoma City

by Geoff Hult

On the morning of April 19th, 1995, Sergeant Terrance Yeakey of the Oklahoma City Police Department was working nearby the Alfred P. Murrah Federal Building when the bombs went off. He rushed to the scene and immediately began helping people to safety. Yeakey worked tirelessly to free people from the rubble and is credited with saving eight lives that day. Being on the scene like this and having the trained eye of a police officer, Yeakey also took note of the condition of the building and nature of the explosion that had taken place.

Local news stations were initially reporting events accurately during the first several hours of reporting but the story then changed to that of a single truck bomb that caused all the damage. This would be the official narrative from that point forward.

Soon after the bombing, Yeakey knew that what was being reported by the government and national media was not the way it really happened. Over the course of the next year, Yeakey continued to collect evidence and information disproving the official story and storing this evidence in a storage facility in El Reno, OK. On May 8th, 1996, Terrance Yeakey's body was found in El Reno, approximately a half mile from his locked car. He had sustained several cuts on both wrists, cuts on both jugular veins, ligature marks around his neck, handcuff marks on his hands, and a bullet wound entry point above the right temple and exit point below the left ear. This bullet trajectory indicates someone firing from a standing position with Yeakey kneeling. Despite this being an obvious torture-homicide, it was ruled a suicide. There was no homicide investigation and no autopsy performed.

themselves in the head, a gun would easily be found within feet of the body, but in this case no gun was on the initial scene. Later, the FBI showed up and "found" the gun.

Sgt. Terrance Yeakey was a threat because he knew the government was involved in the bombing and wasn't backing down. Timothy McVeigh was involved, but was set up to take the fall and was "handled" by federal agents all along. The blast from the Ryder truck that McVeigh and another still unidentified individual drove to the scene served as a diversion, and the real bomb came from inside the building.

Wright Armament Laboratory at Eglin Air Force Base in Florida conducted its own independent analysis of the same type of ammonium nitrate bomb from the McVeigh Ryder truck that allegedly did all the damage to the Murrah building. Their conclusion was that "the damage at the Murrah Federal Building is not the result of the truck bomb itself, but rather due to other factors such as locally placed charges within the building itself." As well, nuclear physicist and inventor of the neutron bomb Samuel T. Cohen stated: "I believe that the demolition charges in the building, that were placed inside at certain key concrete columns, did the primary damage to the Murrah Federal Building. It would have been absolutely impossible, and against the laws of nature, for a truck full of fertilizer and oil... no matter how much was used... to bring the building down." A third witness in this testimony is Benton K. Partin, ret. USAF, who spent his career conducting bomb damage analysis with explosives for the military. Partin concluded that explosives were placed at four critical junctures on supporting columns within the building. It would be quite a feat for on his own to be able to go undetected and rig the building in the sophisticated manner that Partin, Cohen, and Eglin AFB describe. And if he was able to do so, why include the unnecessary element of a truck bomb?

Dr. Frederick Whitehurst, supervisor at the FBI crime laboratory, stated that evidence was mishandled and all evidence was tailored to fit the narrative of a lone nut truck bomber.

It is also important to note that there was an ATF office inside the Murrah building, but on the morning of the bombing, all ATF agents were paged and told not to come in. That is a clear indication of foreknowledge of the event. If McVeigh acted on his own as a lone truck bomber, there would either be no foreknowledge on the part of the government, or they simply would have stopped him if they did find out his plan... if they were honest, that is. False flag terrorism is more common than most Americans are aware of, or want to believe. And, as I wrote in a previous letter, 27 year FBI veteran and previous head of the Dallas, Memphis, and Los Angeles divisions, Ted Gunderson, stated: "The FBI and CIA are behind most, if not all, terrorism."

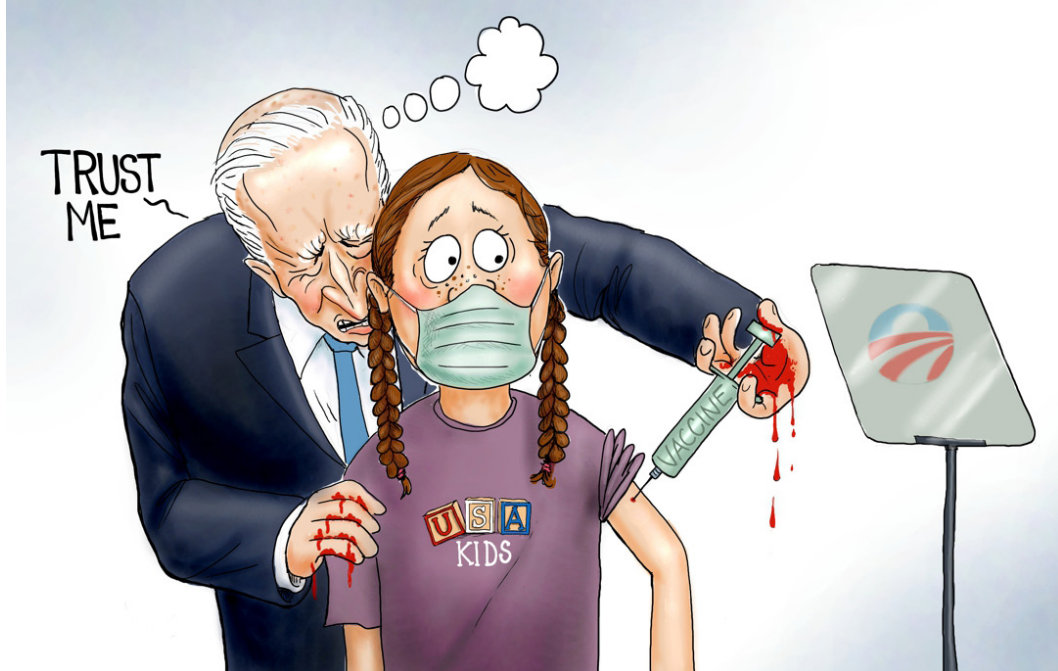

The Oklahoma City bombing, along with the brutal murder of Sgt. Terrance Yeakey, is a prime example of the deeply criminal nature of the system we live under. For more detailed information on this event, see the documentaries "A Noble Lie" and "The Secret Life of Timothy McVeigh" on bitchute.com.

"Woe unto them that seek deep to hide their counsel from YaHuWaH, and their works are in the dark, and they say 'Who sees us?' and 'Who knows us?'" (Isaiah 29:15)

US Senate

Scott, Colleagues introduce Bill to Block Democrats' IRS Snooping Proposal

Submitted by Senator Tim Scott

WASHINGTON – Today U.S. Senator Tim Scott (R-S.C.) and his Republican colleagues introduced the "Prohibiting IRS Financial Surveillance Act," a bill to prevent the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) from implementing Democrats' plan to give the agency access to transaction information of virtually every American. "The Democrats' plan to allow the IRS to spy on the bank accounts of nearly every person in this country, even those below the poverty line, should be deeply concerning to anyone who values privacy and economic inclusion," said Senator Tim Scott. "Of the more than 7 million American households that are currently unbanked, the majority are low-income, rural, and minority Americans. Implementing the Biden reporting scheme will disproportionately harm those who need greater access to our financial institutions and people living paycheck to paycheck. My colleagues and I will not stop fighting the Democrats' wrong-headed proposal to implement more federal government intrusion into our lives."

"Every American should be wary of giving the IRS more power and more tentacles into private financial transactions," said Senator Crapo. "The IRS bank reporting proposal is one of the biggest expansions of the agency's authority we've ever seen, and is fundamentally flawed. I'm proud to support Senator Scott's legislation to stop this proposal in its tracks and protect Americans' personal, private financial information."

"The Biden administration's plan to allow the IRS to monitor Americans' bank accounts is a dangerous idea that will only prove to be worse over time," said Senator Toomey. "Today the administration wants to know your annual account inflows and outflows. What will they demand access to tomorrow? I'm glad to join Senator Scott and Senator Crapo in working to ensure this terribly flawed proposal never sees the light of day."

BACKGROUND

President Biden, Treasury Secretary Yellen, and the IRS are seeking access to every working American's financial information by requiring financial institutions to report to the IRS each and every withdrawal and deposit that total at least $10,000.

The "Prohibiting IRS Financial Surveillance Act" would prohibit the Biden administration's proposed violation of privacy and federal government overreach.

Under the Biden reporting regime a family whose monthly expenses total just $833 would still be required to be reported to the IRS.

Nearly every American, even those below the poverty line, would be subject to this proposed reporting regime. Joint Committee on Taxation has analyzed the proposal and found that it is likely to impact taxpayers in every income bracket, including those making less than $50,000.

Steven Rosenthal at the left-leaning Tax Policy Center concluded the bank reporting requirement proposal would, "in fact, bury the agency in a sea of unproductive information."

Hester chosen for Post 72 honor

By Henry E. Green

Robert Hester is American Legion Post 72 member of the year.

Hester was presented with the Legion Post award Thursday night in Calhoun Falls by Legion Post 72 commander Mike Brandt.

The Calhoun Falls resident graduated from Calhoun Falls high school in 1975, and went on to West Point, where he graduated in 1979.

He served in the U.S. Army 20 years, attaining the rank of lieutenant colonel before he retired in 1999, and he moved back to Calhoun Falls in 2013 and joined American Legion Post 72 the next year.

Hester has a wife, Lynne, and two children, Jennifer and Chris.

"I'm retired and working on the family farm," he said Friday.

American Legion Post 72 has 26 members currently, and has monthly meetings, on the second Thursday of the month at the Legion Hall at the corner of Savannah and North Gordon, said Brandt Friday.

Post 72 is involved in a number of community activities in Calhoun Falls.

The post presents a Veterans Day parade every November, and a Memorial Day program in May.

The post also sponsors a young man to go to Boys

State in the summer, and encourages people to vote, and helps them get to the polls if needed.

"We take care of all the flags in town," he said, noting that Legion members make sure they are flown properly.

"We will help anybody if needed," he said.

Brandt explained why Hester was a good choice for Legion member of the year.

"He's involved in everything that we do, and he won't hesitate to volunteer for work," he said.

Hester was chosen by his fellow Legionnaires, Brandt said.

Post 72 planning Veterans Day parade

By Henry E. Green

American Legion Post 72 will present a Veterans Day parade on Saturday, Nov. 6, at 2 p.m. in Calhoun Falls.

Activities on the day of the parade will begin with a non-alcohol, free hamburger lunch for parade participants and veterans at noon, followed by the parade line-up at 1 p.m. and then the parade at 2 p.m.

"The sole purpose of the Calhoun Falls Veterans Day parade is to honor the service of our veterans and to salute our currently serving military," according to information from the Post.

"Any individual or group that attempts to use the parade as a forum for any other purpose will be denied participation at the discretion of American Legion Post 72."

The parade will begin on Savannah Street Extension at the entrance to Hester Memorial Airport and end at the parking lot of Solid Rock Church at the end of Savannah Street.

Included in the parade are expected to be motorcycles, dignitaries, and fire trucks, just to name a few.

Elderly and disabled veterans are encouraged to join the parade, and Post 72 will have a float that can accommodate most elderly and disabled veterans.

Seats are limited to 16 people, and those individuals wishing to be seated on the float must be able to negotiate a steep ramp onto the float.

There will be non competition between bands in the parade, or awards for floats/displays.

Horses are allowed in the parade, but will be placed at the end of the line of march, and those with horses are responsible for clean up after the horses.

For more information, one may call Robert Hester or Lynne Hester at the following e-mail address: Lynne.Hester@wctel.net or call 864-391-4029, or Mike Brandt at 864-828-2658.

Veterans Day

Veterans Day itself is celebrated on Nov. 11, and originally was called Armistice Day, to celebrate the cessation of hostilities in World War I.

Veterans Day honors people who have served in the United States armed forces.

Meanwhile, American Legion Post 72 has 26 members currently, and has monthly meetings on the second Thursday of the month at the Legion Hall at the corner of Savannah and North Gordon, said Brandt, the Post 72 commander, recently.

a Word from "THE WORD"

Rev. Dr. John Keith

What Do You Want?

Matthew 20:32 "And Jesus stood still, and called them, and said, What will you that I shall do unto you?"

If the Lord gave you a blank check and told you to fill in anything you desire and He would grant it, what would ask for? That is not a trick question, but one of profound implication. What you would ask for would be revealing about you.

Here in Matthew 20:32, Jesus in effect gave two blind men a blank check. Jesus was passing through Jericho and a great crowd was following Him. There were two blind men sitting by the road and when they heard that Jesus was passing by they began to cry out, "O Lord, thou Son of David, have mercy on us." The multitude tried to make them be quiet but they cried out louder. Jesus can not bear to hear a cry for help. Notice how Matthew says He stood still. He stopped in His tracks. Over the raucous crowd He heard their cry and stopped dead still, called them to Himself and asked them, what "shall I do unto you?" Notice how He said that, "what will you that I shall do unto you," not "what do you want, but what shall I do unto you? Their cry was not specific, just have mercy on us. He wanted them to be specific and tell Him what they desired. Three thoughts from this verse.

First of all, it was an invitation to state their desire. It may seem obvious that their desire was to have their eyes opened, but Jesus wanted them to tell Him what they desired. Jesus knew their need. Matthew 6:8 informs us that God knows what we need even before we ask. Even so, He wants us to ask. We need to be specific in our prayers as specific prayers will have specific results. Often our prayers are generic. We ask God to "bless so and so"—how will we know if God blesses so and so? If we ask God to bless so and so with a new job then we will know when He answers that prayer because it is specific.

Second, this query of Jesus was an indication to the blind men that He was capable of granting their request. The way He stated his question was an indication that He could fulfill whatever they asked of Him. Our God is able to do exceedingly, abundantly, above all that we are able to even think to ask of Him. Our prayers are way too small. We have a great big God and He can answer great big requests. When we pray, we should be bold in our requests.

Third, His answer would envelope their faith. He could do whatever they would ask. The question was how much did they believe He could or would do? Verse 33 records that they immediately requested to have their eyes opened. Jesus had compassion on them and touched their eyes and verse 34 tells us that "immediately their eyes received their sight, and they followed Him."

That is a unique way of putting it—"their eyes received their sight." Before Jesus touched their eyes, they had eyes but they could not see. After Jesus touched their eyes they received sight. Often we have eyes but we do not really see. Often we have physical eyes but our spiritual eyes remain dark. When Jesus opened their eyes, they followed Him. That is what we need: our spiritual eyes opened so we can see where Jesus is leading us.

That is my prayer.
"Lord give me spiritual sight so that I can follow you."

'Wash-out' at school

By Henry E. Green

A pipe broke at Cherokee Trail Elementary School, flooding much of the school, Abbeville County School District Superintendent Dr. Mason Gary said Tuesday afternoon.

An overhead main water supply line burst sometime late Friday or early Saturday morning.

"We had something close to 50,000 gallons of water expended," he said. "It was quite a mess."

A teacher discovered the problem when she went to the school on Saturday to do some work in preparation for Red Ribbon Week. She contacted Cherokee Trail principal Cy Clendaniel.

"He called our maintenance, and repairs were made," Dr. Gary said.

District director of maintenance Mike Reepe called SERVPRO, which has offices in Charlotte, to begin the "remediation" effort.

"We've had to go to e-learning for them this week," he said.

The students could come back to class as early as Monday of next week, if work goes as planned, said Dr. Gary, who emphasized that much work remains to be done, including the re-insulation work, and repairing a number of heating and air controls, just to name a few. Estimates are still being determined of the damage.

The school has 412 students in grades K-4 through 7, the Superintendent said.

The Abbeville County School District Board of Trustees met Tuesday night, and the "Cherokee Trail washout" was among the items discussed.

In other matters at last night's meeting, the trustees:

--Agreed to have a workshop on Nov. 9 at 5:45 p.m. to discuss capital improvement needs.

--Agreed to change the November regular meeting date to Nov. 16.

--Were informed by Dr. Gary that the District has 2,945 students, as of the 45th day of the school year.

--Accepted the release of a contract for an employee, following the recommendation of the District's administration.

--Passed second and final reading on Policy JFABC, regarding transfer students, and trustee David Brooks abstained.

--Listened to Gold Star Highlights (more details are to follow next week).

Third-graders gather for Clemson Extension's Farm-City event

Clemson Extension presented Farm City Day recently, and volunteer Josie Parnell held a goat for kids to pet. (Staff photo by Henry E. Green)

By Henry E. Green

So often when a child sees food at the grocery store, he thinks the food comes FROM the grocery store, Clemson Extension's Tom Brant will tell you.

That's in large part the rationale behind Clemson Extension's Farm City Day, held at the Abbeville County Agricultural Building on the outskirts of Abbeville Thursday morning--to show kids that food comes from the farm first, and THEN the grocery store.

It is a link which too often children are not aware of, and consequently 228 third graders from the County's four elementary schools gathered at the Ag Building Thursday morning.

There are numerous providers helping to make that final agricultural product a reality.

At 14 stations set up at the Ag building, under or near the livestock arena, they learned from volunteers about a variety of aspects of agriculture: bees, horticulture, forestry, pigs, rabbits, goats, wildlife, beef, dairy, horse and poultry.

They also had the opportunity to learn about Clemson's SNAP ED program, and had the opportunity to go on a tractor ride.

The students upon arrival were divided into small groups, moving from station to station to hear, for example, about bees.

It was an event replete with Kodak moments, as when volunteer Josie Parnell held a goat in her arms, and countless hands from countless admiring children reached out to pet it.

You could hear the children as they were seated on the flatbed pulled by the tractor. The kids were singing something appropriate: "Eee Eye Eee EYE Oh!

Southside Christian defeats Dixie, 42-7

By Henry E. Green
Southside Christian defeated Dixie 42-7 Friday night in Due West, spoiling the Hornet homecoming. "There is a reason" Southside Christian is ranked Number One in the state in the 1-A classification, said Dixie High School head coach Vic Lollis Friday night following the game. And the Sabres put that reason on display ever so prominently in a battle for the Region title. Southside stifled the Dixie offense for much of the game, and the Hornets did not score a touchdown until late in the second half when the issue was largely decided. Meanwhile, Southside made use of its tall, talented receivers to pick apart the Dixie defense, and the Southside running game came alive as well. The lone Dixie touchdown came by way of a three-yard run by the Hornets' Josh Miller in the fourth quarter. The score came at the end of a 10-play, 51-yard drive that began when Dixie recovered a Sabre fumble at the Southside 49. The Sabres established dominance early in the game, and led 12-0 at the end of the first quarter, and Southside gained two more points when Dixie muffed a punt in the second quarter, resulting in a safety. The Hornet defense played well at times, with Hunter Satterfield picking off a Sabre pass early in the second quarter. However, the Hornets fumbled on the next play, and Southside recovered, taking over at their own 40. Later in the second quarter, Satterfield picked off another Sabre pass, but the Hornets could not capitalize. Southside led 28-0 at the half. Dixie will now host Whitmire in a battle for second place in the Region this coming Friday at 7:30 p.m..

Ninety Six tears

Abbeville High School Panthers tame Wildcats, 55-0, Friday night

By Henry E. Green
A running clock in the second half appears to be the new norm for Abbeville football as the Panthers smoked Region foe Ninety Six like a herring 55-0 in varsity football action Friday night at Hite Stadium. And Panther Jeremiah Lomax continued his amazing run of pick sixes in a game where the Panthers took control early and never looked back. J'Marion Burton scored first for AHS, on a 24-yard run, and then Zay Rayford poured on the points on runs of 28 yards and 36 runs. The second quarter brought another 21-point scoring parade, with Antonio Harrison getting into the act with a 35-yard run. Karson Norman scored on a 28 yard run before Harrison scored again--this time through the air--as he connected on a 53-yard pass from Rayford. Abbeville led 42-0 at the half, and in the third quarter Jay Hill scored on a five yard run for AHS, and Jeremiah Lomax scored on a 56 yard interception return in the fourth--his fifth "pick six" in five games. Rayford led the way for the Panthers with 103 yards on seven carries, and AHS had 353 yards of total offense. "I thought our kids were sharp," said AHS varsity football coach Jamie Nickles Monday. "I was impressed by our kids' effort." AHS will conclude its regular season with a trip to Christ Church on Friday night, with a game time of 7:30 p.m. with the Region title on the line. The jayvee game with Christ Church has been moved to Wednesday night at 6 p.m. due to the expectation of rain, said Nickles. Christ Church has an outstanding quarterback, and a number of talented players at other positions as well, said the AHS coach. "It will be big time challenge for our young football team," said Nickles. The Cavalier defense is fast and physical. "They're really big," said Nickles. The visit to Christ Church will not be a picnic, according to the coach. "It will be a big time challenge for our young football team," he said.

City Council agrees to name ball fields for four beloved figures

By Henry E. Green
Four of the City of Abbeville's ball fields will be named in memory of four beloved individuals, according to action taken recently by Abbeville City Council. At its Oct. 13 meeting, Abbeville City Council passed a resolution to name a number of City of Abbeville ball fields in memory of some very influential figures in the world of Abbeville sports. The late Scott Sutherland, Foster Morris, Mike Culbreath and Keith Hall will all be remembered in this way. "They're split between Dixie Youth and Pete Smith (complexes)," said Mike Clary, Deputy Administrative Officer for the City of the ball fields. Signs will be erected in the coming weeks to mark the new designations for the ball fields, which Clary said are used mostly for baseball. Scott "Red Dog" Sutherland and Foster Morris were known to many for their officiating at youth sports events, Keith Hall made his mark in the world of broadcasting, and Mike Culbreath coached youth sports on the middle and high school levels.

Abbeville Rotary Bowl proceeds with mild temperatures, sunny skies

By Henry E. Green
The 55th Annual Abbeville Rotary Bowl Saturday was very successful, with the Abbeville Rotary Club fundraiser proceeding under sunny skies and mild temperatures. Thermaflex was the title sponsor for the Rotary Bowl, a major fundraiser for the Abbeville Rotary Club. The Rotary Bowl has been held annually since the mid-1960s, with a tried-and-true formula--a day of recreation league football, with Abbeville teams playing teams from neighboring communities. This year the Rotary Bowl, held in conjunction with the Abbeville Youth Athletics Homecoming, featured three games. The 7-8 year old Abbeville Panthers took on an Anderson Recreation team in the first game, and Anderson Recreation prevailed 27-20 in overtime. The 9-10 year old Abbeville Panthers took on Pendleton Recreation in the second game, and Abbeville triumphed to the tune of 25-0. The last game featured the 11-12 year old Abbeville Panthers taking on 11-12 U players from Southside Christian, and Southside won 18-14. Following another Rotary Bowl tradition, Rotary Bowl kings and queens were crowned in the various age divisions: 8U Rotary Court:

Fleet win shootout against Allen, 47-40

Submitted by
Erskine Athletics Department

The Erskine College football team (3-5) pulled off another fourth-quarter comeback as they defeated Allen University (3-4) by a score of 47-40 at J.W. Babb Stadium on Saturday afternoon.

Dearius Hazel had a game-high 91 rushing yards on 19 carries, including the game-winning touchdown. The Fleet had a season-high 240 rushing yards.

Allen QB David Wright was 25-for-39 for 344 yards and two touchdowns through the air.

Senika McKie had a game-high 11 receptions and two of the Fleet's three receiving touchdowns.

Jamal Barron led the Fleet in tackles (10), while Ivan Hill and Ty Simpson each had an interception.

After the Erskine defense got a stop to begin the game, the Fleet offense took over in good field position and Javian Bellamy took advantage of the short field with a 26-yard touchdown to give Erskine an early 7-0 lead. Allen answered with a scoring drive of their own, but a failed two-point conversion meant the Fleet maintained a 7-6 lead. Erskine was forced to punt on their next drive, and the Allen offense found the endzone again but another failed two-point conversion made it a 12-7 game after the first quarter.

Following an Erskine fumble late in the first quarter, the Yellow Jackets extended their lead with a 36-yard touchdown on the first play of the second quarter and a successful two-point conversion meant the Fleet deficit was 18-7 just nine seconds into the quarter. But the Fleet offense marched down the field on the ensuing possession with a 13-play drive capped by a Lance Brownlee passing touchdown to Senika McKie to cut the deficit to 18-14. Ivan Hill picked off the Allen QB on the following drive and Kaavon Parker punched it into the endzone for the Fleet just a few plays later as Erskine regained the lead, 21-18. But, the Yellow Jackets closed the half with a 9-play, 80-yard touchdown drive to take a 26-21 lead at the half.

Erskine got the ball to begin the second half and moved the ball down the field to set up a Bennett Caldwell 22-yard field to trim the Allen lead to just two points. On the ensuing kickoff, Jamaar Moore forced a fumble on the Allen kick returner and Dameon Green scooped up the loose ball and ran it into the endzone to put the Fleet back in front, 31-26. The Erskine defense forced a punt on the next drive, and Brownlee led the Fleet down the field with a 9-play drive, ending with Senika McKie's second score of the game to extend Erskine's lead to 38-26 with six minutes remaining in the quarter. Allen tossed a 28-yard touchdown on their next drive to answer right back and make it a 38-32 game after three quarters.

The Fleet moved the ball on their ensuing drive, but a missed field goal meant it remained a six-point lead for the hosts. The Yellow Jackets marched down the field, including a key conversion on fourth-and-four before a touchdown and a two-point conversion put Allen back in front for the first time since the first half, 40-38, with just under nine minutes to go in the game. Brownlee and company answered back behind a couple first-down receptions by McKie before Dearius Hazel willed his way into the endzone from five yards out. The Fleet went for two but did not convert, making it a 44-40 Erskine lead with four and a half minutes remaining. Erskine kicked the ball deep on the ensuing kickoff, but Allen never picked up a bouncing ball in the field of play and Dorian Robinson alertly scooped it off the ground for what ended up being an onside kick that set up the Fleet offense at Allen's 23-yard line. Parker had a 15-yard run to open the drive but Erskine was forced to settle for a field goal to make it a 47-40 game with just over two minutes remaining. On the biggest drive of the game, the Erskine defense stood tall. They forced a fourth-and-five in Allen territory and Ty Simpson iced the game with an interception as the Fleet came from behind for the second consecutive week to knock off Allen, 47-40.

The Fleet conclude their three-game home stretch next Saturday, October 30 at 1:00 p.m. against Newberry College (5-2) at J.W. Babb Stadium. The Wolves won these teams' first ever meeting back in April 2021 in Newberry by a score of 54-14.

Loving Julia Mark Smith recalls the state championship AHS won in 1991

By Henry E. Green

(The following article is one in a series.)

Mark Smith remembers the night Abbeville played at Chesnee for the Upper State championship back in 1991.

He was a coach on the Panther staff, back during the days when Sleeping with the Enemy was being filmed in Abbeville.

The film's star, Julia Roberts, had made some less than flattering comments about Abbeville in a magazine interview, and some of the Chesnee faithful held up a sign that said, "WE LOVE JULIA ROBERTS!"

Smith, now the athletic director at J.S. Wright Middle School and the assistant head football coach for the Panther varsity team, remembers well that magical season of 30 years ago.

Only three years before, the Panthers had gone 0-11 before improving to 10-2 the following year.

The third time did indeed prove the charm, as fans began to realize that this team was special. "The support from the town was tremendous," he said.

The Panthers defeated Chesnee with three seconds left in a game that Smith recalled as one of the most exciting of his career.

The team from A Town then went down to Swansea to play for the state championship, and their fan base was very much in support.

"The whole town packed up and went down (to Swansea)," he said.

The Panthers had won their last title in 1981, and fans were ready for another one.

And they got what they wanted, as AHS handily defeated Swansea to clinch its third state championship.

The Panthers did so with some immensely talented players. The biggest star, of course, was Leomont Evans, who went on to play football in college and on the professional level.

Interestingly, three members of the current Panther coaching staff--Tanko Rayford, Ellis Belton and Tony Temple--all played on that 1991 team.

Others included Marcus and Kin Gambrell, and Tige Howie, and running back Monoletto Rapley.

Smith looks back on it all with of fondness. "I have been so blessed to be a part of it," he said. "That was my first state championship."

As a member of the coaching staff, Smith coached the Panther running backs and defensive backs, and he worked under the late, great head coach Dennis Botts.

Asked what it was like to work with Botts, Smith remembered him as a gruff, old school coach who spoke his mind.

"He didn't sugarcoat anything," he said.

He made valuable friendships during a magical year. "It was a very good year," he said. "We were 14-1."

It was a year with a moment of reckoning--a loss during the regular season to Batesburg-Leesville.

"They upset us," he recalled. The Panthers "daydreamed" their way through much of the game, and the loss was a sort of wake up call.

"It snapped us back," he said. Whatever it was, it worked, and the Panthers went on to clinch their third title in state history.

"It was a great run," recalled Smith.

Delinquent Tax Sale

State of South Carolina, County of Abbeville

S.C. Code of Laws • Chapter 12

Uniform Tax Law

I, Dorothy W. Coates, Abbeville County Delinquent Tax Collector, have levied and seized the following described property and will sell for cash at the Abbeville County Administrative Complex, 903 West Greenwood St., Conference Room A & B, on November 1, 2021 at 10:00 o'clock a.m. According to our records, TAXES REMAIN UNPAID ON REAL PROPERTIES AND SAID PROPERTIES REMAIN SUBJECT TO TAX SALE. Properties listed in the name on record January 1, 2020. Mayhap some in the name of previous owner. Proceeds from sale to be applied to taxes, penalty and cost under the aforesaid execution.

Property sold subject to other existing liens and encumbrances.

Properties stand for taxes and taxes are a first lien on any real property.

Under the new legislation (Section 12-51-55) tax collectors are required to bid in the current levy along with the delinquent taxes, penalties, interests and costs. D. W. Coates.

NOTE: There will be no taxes paid on November 1, 2021 until after the Tax Sale!

Guild honors crafters

By Henry E. Green
 The Abbeville Artist Guild recently presented awards for best efforts in the craft show held as part of the Hogs and Hens festival presented by the City of Abbeville.
 The Guild judged 30 crafters, and the following crafters won honors for their efforts, according to Guild treasurer Jane Agan:
 Best in Show Art/Craft Items - David Sorrow, Pin Oak Pottery
 Runner-Ups -- Linda Giaretelli - When Pigs Fly AND

Nancy Nellis - Monarchs and Manatees
 Best Presentation of a Space/Booth - Elvira Else, CCE Cards and More
 Runner- Ups Nancy Laughlin AND Holly Freeman - Cell Block G
 The Guild also judged craft show efforts for the Spring Festival and last year's Hogs and Hens festival, according to Agan.
 "This is our third time doing it," she said.
 This year's winners received acrylic awards and $50 Square Dollars, which are similar to gift certificates and can be purchased from the City of Abbeville.

 They can be used at any participating store, and the stores are mostly in downtown Abbeville.
 The Artist Guild is already looking to 2022, when there will be another photo contest, another summer art camp for the kids, and a number of workshops.
 "We're already planning next year's activities," she said.

A future so bright

Rotary District Governor Frank Cox lays out blueprint for club growth

By Henry E. Green
 Abbeville Rotarians need to continue to be active in the community to help ensure they are making a difference in it, Rotary District 7750 Governor Frank Cox told Rotarians Thursday.
 "You all are just people of action," he said. The club has a number of activities, including everything from the Abbeville Rotary Bowl this past Saturday to the corn hole tournament which the club has in the spring.
 "This club has been a real mainstay," he said.
 Still, there are a number of initiatives in which the club can be engaged, initiatives which can help the club grow and can at the same time enrich the community.
 Cox himself started out as a Rotary club president before rising to assistant governor and then Governor.
 "My job is to help you all in whatever you need help with," he told the Abbeville Rotarians.
 He pointed to the town of Clemson as an example of what can be accomplished.
 "The town of Clemson has gone through unparalleled growth," he said. So has the university which calls the town home, with Clemson University welcoming as many as 4,600 freshmen.

 How did this growth happen? Cox had one word: "Dabo!"
 He was of course referring to Coach Dabo Swinney, who with his successful football program has put Clemson on the map.
 One factor in his success is that he encouraged his players to excel in the basic things.
 And there ARE challenges. The pandemic packed a wallop in terms of Rotary attendance. He called on the club to "fill these tables" and get Rotarians back to the meetings, and he encouraged Rotarians present at the meeting to call club members who had been absent to get them back in attendance.
 He called on club members to branch out in the community. The AHS Panther football team, of course, has been a "juggernaut," but he encouraged Rotarians to support spring sports programs as well--softball, soccer, and the like.
 Club growth is important, especially in the wake of the pandemic.
 "As a district, we lost over 200 members (due to COVID)," he said.

 The community needs to know the Rotary success stories. Rotarians have pledged to try to eradicate polio from the face of the earth, and currently there are only two cases of polio--one in Pakistan and one in Afghanistan.
 Cox suggested that the club embark on some new initiatives.
 "I'm asking the club to have a literary program," he said. This could involve everything from distributing books to reading to children.
 It is all posed against the backdrop of a depressing statistic.
 "Two thirds of our children cannot read adequately," he said. To this end, Rotary is participating in a Webinar with State Superintendent Molly Spearman and with the State Office of First Steps.
 He challenged the club to make its ranks more diverse, to be more reflective of the community.
 He called on them also to bring young people into the club.
 "Part of our job as Rotarians is to develop the next generation," he said.

HOW ARE YOU SERVING YOUR COMMUNITY?

Carolina Health Centers is always on the lookout for community-minded individuals to serve on our Board of Directors as a voice for the patients we serve. We strive to increase access to primary care and create a safe, comfortable environment for every patient in our service area of McCormick, Edgefield, Greenwood, Abbeville, Laurens, Newberry, and Saluda.

In Abbeville, we are Calhoun Falls Family Practice, and many Abbevillians use The Children's Center and Carolina Community Pharmacies. We have 10 other medical sites across the Lakelands.

Cowan: Family Dollar coming to CF

US Senate Senator Scott joins colleagues to defend freedom of speech & religion

By Henry E. Green
 A Family Dollar is coming to Calhoun Falls, according to Calhoun Falls Mayor Chris Cowan.
 "It is official -- the Family Dollar has begun clearing the lot for a new store being built in Calhoun Falls," he said in an e-mail.
 The new store will be located on Savannah Street, at the corner of Calhoun Shores Parkway and Savannah Street, behind the 7 Eleven and across from the Corner Stop.
 "I'm excited," said Cowan Tuesday. "This is good news for our town."
 He noted that this will bring some employment opportunities for some people, with the number of people to be employed is to be announced.
 Calhoun Falls Town Council met Monday for its regular meeting.
 Cowan said that during the meeting, the council approved for him to sign the intergovernmental agreement with Abbeville County for ambulance services.

 The agreement reads in part:
 "During the term of this Agreement, Abbeville County will provide such ambulance services to the residents and property owners within the Town of Calhoun Falls.
 "Abbeville County shall collect and retain any and all service fees and charges related to the provision of ambulance services within the Town of Calhoun Falls.
 "Abbeville County shall levy and collect upon each parcel of land within the Town limits of Calhoun Falls, SC upon which improvements have been established a Public Safety-EMS fee of $62.50 which shall be distributed to the Public Safety-EMS Fund and shall be used to defray the cost of providing ambulance services in the Town of Calhoun Falls.
 The Council also approved

Resolution 2021 to revoke the payment in wages section in the Employee Handbook and approve updates to that section of Town of Calhoun Falls Employee Handbook.
 "We had some issues with employees leaving and not returning the Town's equipment in a timely manner... We update that section of the handbook to include a time-line on when equipment needs to be returned," said Cowan.
Fall festival planned
 In other Calhoun Falls news, the Calhoun Falls Chamber of Commerce is planning to present a fall festival on Cox Avenue in downtown Calhoun Falls on Saturday, Oct. 30 from 2 p.m. to 5 p.m.
 The festival will feature candy, games, and music.
 "Everybody is invited," said Rebeca McCaslan, executive director of the Chamber. "Everybody is welcome to come and give out candy."

Submitted by Senator Tim Scott
 Senator Tim Scott (R-S.C.) joined an amicus brief led by Senator James Lankford (R-Okla.) along with 11 senators and 14 members of Congress in support of Coach Joe Kennedy in Kennedy v. Bremerton School District. The brief asks the Supreme Court to review and subsequently reverse the Ninth Circuit's decision that allowed Coach Kennedy to be fired for silently kneeling and praying after school football games.
 Representative Vicky Hartzler (R-Mo.) is co-leading the brief for the House.

Kennedy was head coach for the Bremerton High School junior varsity football team and an assistant coach for the varsity team. After each game, he waited until the players cleared the field, then took a knee and silently prayed. Bremerton High School sent Kennedy a letter demanding he stop praying after games. Kennedy's contract with Bremerton School District was not renewed, resulting in his termination.
 Kennedy filed a lawsuit against Bremerton School District, which a federal district court dismissed. On appeal, a three-judge panel of the Ninth Circuit argued Kennedy's prayers were not protected by the Constitution because he was praying as a public employee rather than in his private, personal capacity. In 2019, Coach Kennedy asked the Supreme Court to review the case and 15 members of Congress, including Senator Scott, filed an amicus brief in support of Coach Kennedy.

 On the issue of freedom of speech, Senator Scott joined Senators Blackburn (R-Tenn.) and Cotton (R-Ark.) in introducing the Campus Free Speech Resolution of 2021.
 "Freedom of speech and religion are cornerstones to the American way of life, yet they are under attack at all levels of education," said Senator Scott. "I am proud to stand with my colleagues against the tide of woke supremacy sweeping across our educational institutions."
 The Campus Free Speech Resolution of 2021 urges greater First Amendment protection at public universities. Senators Scott, Blackburn, and Cotton introduced this legislation alongside Senators Thom Tillis (R-N.C.), James Lankford (R-Okla.), Mike Braun (R-Ind.), Chuck Grassley (R-Iowa), Joni Ernst (R-Iowa), Marco Rubio (R-Fla.), Josh Hawley (R-Mo.), and Ted Cruz (R-Texas).

TERMS OF SALE: The successful bidder, other than the plaintiff, will deposit with the Master in Equity at conclusion of the bidding, five per cent (5%) of said bid, in cash or equivalent, as evidence of good faith, same to be applied to purchase price in case of compliance, but to be forfeited and applied first to costs and then to plaintiff's debt in the case of noncompliance. Should the successful bidder fail or refuse to make the required deposit at time of bid or comply with the other terms of the bid within thirty (30) days, then the Master in Equity may resell the property on the same terms and conditions (at the risk of the said defaulting bidder). Should the Plaintiff, or one of its representatives, fail to be present at the time of sale, the property is automatically withdrawn from said sale and sold at the next available sales day upon the terms and conditions as set forth in the Judgment of Foreclosure and Sale or any Supplemental Order. The successful bidder will be required to pay for documentary stamps on the Deed and interest on the balance of the bid from the date of sale to the date of compliance with the bid at the rate of 4.2500%. THIS SALE IS SUBJECT TO ASSESSMENTS, COUNTY TAXES, EXISTING EASEMENTS, EASEMENTS AND RESTRICTIONS OF RECORD, AND OTHER SENIOR ENCUMBRANCES. Since a deficiency judgment is being demanded, the bidding will remain open for thirty (30) days after the date of sale, pursuant to S.C. Code ANN. Section 15-39-720, (1976). The deficiency judgment may be waived by the Plaintiff upon written request prior to sale.

NOTICE: The foreclosure deed is not a warranty deed. Interested bidders should satisfy themselves as to the quality of title to be conveyed by obtaining an independent title search well before the foreclosure sale date. ATTENDEES MUST ABIDE BY SOCIAL DISTANCING GUIDELINES AND MAY BE REQUIRED TO WEAR A MASK OR OTHER FACIAL COVERING. Any person who violates said protocols is subject to dismissal at the discretion of the selling officer or other court officials.

IN THE COURT OF COMMON PLEAS

CASE NO. 2020-CP-01-00080

SUMMONS AND NOTICE OF FILING OF COMPLAINT

Specialized Loan Servicing LLC,

PLAINTIFF,

VS.

Kenneth D. Mullins, Sr., as

Personal Representative of the Estate of Mary Tucker a/k/a Mary Coleman Baskin Tucker a/k/a Mary Baskin Tucker a/k/a Mary Ellen Tucker a/k/a Mary Coleman Baskin Tucker, Deceased; et. al.

DEFENDANT(S).

(201091.00021)

TO THE DEFENDANT(S) DONNA MATHIS, INDIVIDUALLY, AS HEIR OR DEVISEE OF THE ESTATE OF JOHNNY LEWIS, DECEASED ABOVE NAMED:

YOU ARE HEREBY SUMMONED and required to answer the Complaint in the above entitled action, copy of which is herewith served upon you, and to serve copy of your answer upon the undersigned at their offices, 2712 Middleburg Drive, Suite 200, P.O. Box 2065, Columbia, South Carolina 29202, within thirty (30) days after service hereof upon you, exclusive of the day of such service, and if you fail to answer the Complaint within the time aforesaid, the Plaintiff in this action will apply to the Court for the relief demanded in the Complaint, and judgment by default will be rendered against you for the relief demanded in the Complaint.

YOU WILL ALSO TAKE NOTICE that should you fail to Answer the foregoing Summons, the Plaintiff will move for a general Order of Reference of this cause to the Master in Equity for Abbeville County, which Order shall, pursuant to Rule 53(e) of the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure, specifically provide that the said Master in Equity is authorized and empowered to enter a final judgment in this cause.

TO MINOR(S) OVER FOURTEEN YEARS OF AGE AND/OR MINOR(S) UNDER FOURTEEN YEARS OF AGE

AND THE PERSON WITH WHOM THE MINOR(S) RESIDES AND/OR TO PERSONS UNDER SOME LEGAL DISABILITY:

YOU ARE FURTHER SUMMONED AND NOTIFIED to apply for the appointment of a Guardian Ad Litem to represent said minor(s) within thirty (30) days after the service of this Summons and Notice upon you. If you fail to do so, application for such appointment will be made by the Plaintiff(s) herein.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the original Complaint in the above entitled action was filed in the office of the Clerk of Court for Abbeville County on March 3, 2020.
