

HALLAM RETAIN ALAN COOPER TROPHY

Last minute equaliser and penalty shootout in pre-season “Rules Derby” thriller

The historic “Rules Derby” between the world’s two oldest football clubs—Sheffield FC and Hallam FC—delivered another memorable chapter on Tuesday evening at Sheffield FC’s Home of Football Stadium.

The two sides last met in January at Sandygate in the Sheffield & Hallamshire CFA Senior Cup, where Hallam emerged victorious. This latest encounter, though a pre-season fixture, carried added significance with the Alan Cooper Memorial Cup at stake.

Both clubs enter the new season on contrasting trajectories. Hallam FC are preparing for their inaugural campaign at Step 4 in the Northern Premier League Division One East, while Sheffield FC face life in the Macron Northern Counties East Premier Division following relegation.

Despite its friendly status, the match was anything but tame. A lively crowd of 720 witnessed a pulsating contest. Sheffield struck first in the 8th minute when Cameron Bedford’s shot was spilled by Hallam keeper Hugo Warhurst, allowing the hosts to take an early lead.

Hallam responded in the 30th minute, with Brodie Litchfield flicking in Danny South’s header to level the score at half-time.

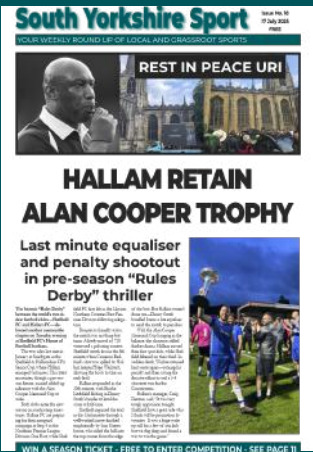

Sheffield regained the lead in the 53rd minute through a well-worked move finished emphatically by Sam Greenhouse, who rifled the ball into the top corner from the edge of the box. But Hallam weren’t done yet—Danny South bundled home a late equaliser to send the match to penalties.

With the Alan Cooper Memorial Cup hanging in the balance, the shootout added further drama. Hallam missed their first spot-kick, while Sheffield faltered on their third. In sudden death, Warhurst turned hero once again—scoring his penalty and then saving the decisive effort to seal a 5-4 shootout win for the Countrymen.

Hallam’s manager, Craig Denton, said “It was very tough opposition tonight. Sheffield have a great side who I think will be promotion favourites. It was a huge wake up call for a few of our lads but we dug deep and found a way to win the game.”

South Kirkby’s
Cage Sensation

By James Bovington

Owen Walton only began his MMA training just over a year ago and was proud and delighted to appear on Caged Steel 40, the prestigious MMA show founded by Dominic Gibbs and now in its fourteenth year based at Doncaster Dome.

‘My coaches knew I was ready,’ said Owen, who got the win over his older opponent Hemel Hempstead’s Rory Gloady whose corner team withdrew their fighter just into the third and final round. ‘It was fast-paced action all the way between us. I’d started training to lose weight, but I am in love with the sport and my daily routine now centres on training. MMA combines elements of different sports like grappling and striking that come together as one.’

‘Owen is exactly the sort of talented and courageous novice fighter we’re proud to promote’ said Alex McReynolds, head of marketing and fight matchmaker at Caged Steel. ‘He fitted well into our show and contributed to the phenomenal standard of fights. Many bouts were impossible to predict, and every athlete put their heart into their performance. They should all be proud as fans in attendance and watching online reacted positively to the quality of the fights.’

‘There were 18 bouts on Owen’s show including four professional and ten amateur

MMA, plus four caged boxing bouts with athletes coming from clubs across Britain and Europe. Six fighters came from Iceland. Magnus Ingvarsson and Bjarki Þór Pálsson now coach but previously fought on Caged Steel. We developed a strong connection with them and more Icelandic athletes followed. Their athletes always give a good performance and those attending know they’ll see exhilarating action.’

Sixteen-year-old Walton lives in South Kirkby with his parents and sister and has just left Minsthorpe Community College. He is coached by Wayne Murrie at Doncaster’s HD Performance gym. ‘I’m highly impressed with Owen,’ said Murrie. ‘I’ve never seen such commitment and so strong a work ethic in training from anyone let alone a boy in his mid-teens. If he continues like this the sky’s the limit. He reminds me of Hems-worth’s Scott Askham who fought out of Doncaster, and we know how successful he became.’ Owen’s dad John agrees. ‘MMA has boosted my son’s confidence and allowed him to develop greater discipline and respect as he sets hopefully achievable goals.’ Owen is looking forward ‘to concentrating fully on MMA now I’ve left school and I’m aiming eventually for the UFC. I’m grateful to Caged Steel for giving me my first major break.’

‘Caged Steel promotes each athlete as Owen found out,’ add McReynolds. ‘We’re helping them to develop their personal brand. We showcase their stories and help grow their profiles. This summer we’re also running a popular holiday programme designed to keep young people across Doncaster active with clubs offering a mix of martial arts, multi-sports, dance, gymnastics, and creative activities, alongside healthy meals and snacks. The scheme welcomes children aged 5–16 and provides free places for those receiving free school meals. This summer clubs will run in Intake, Hexthorpe, Edlington and Toll Bar.

Athletes A J Hall and Ollie Reeve from HD Performance Centre also competed on Caged Steel. For further information contact hdperformancecentre on Instagram or visit www.hdperformancecentre.com or e-mail Wayne Murrie wayne-murrie3282@gmail.com . Caged Steel 41 takes place on 6th September. YCSPL Reshapes Lower Divisions

The Yorkshire Cricket Southern Premier League (YCSPL) is set for a significant restructuring of its lower divisions in 2026, following the confirmed closure of the Yorkshire & Derbyshire Cricket League (YDCL) at the end of the 2025 season as reported previously in South Yorkshire Sport.

In a move designed to accommodate an influx of new clubs and address growing concerns over travel distances, the YCSPL will regionalise its bottom three divisions—Divisions 7, 8, and 9—into north and south sections. This change will result in six new regional divisions: 7N, 7S, 8N, 8S, 9N, and 9S, each initially comprising ten teams.

The reorganisation comes in response to the integration of 16 clubs from the YDCL, which will cease operations after this season. These clubs, primarily based in the southern parts of Sheffield and Derbyshire, were deemed unsuitable for the Derbyshire County Cricket League due to their player base being predominantly from South Yorkshire.

League officials say the regionalisation plan was chosen from three proposed options, as it offers minimal disruption to existing YCSPL teams while ensuring compliance with the ECB Disparity Policy. The policy aims to maintain competitive balance across divisions and avoid mismatches, which have been a concern in previous attempts at regionalisation.

The restructuring also reflects the league's broader growth, with additional applications from clubs in the Pontefract & District Cricket League and a new third team from Tickhill CC. The expansion has stretched the league's geographical boundaries, making travel a more pressing issue—especially in the lower divisions, which often feature junior and casual senior players.

The new format will allow for future expansion, with divisions potentially increasing to 12 teams as more clubs apply. The Senior Section committee and the League Executive Board have both endorsed the changes, which are expected to enhance the sustainability and accessibility of grassroots cricket across the region.

As the 2025 season progresses, final placements for the incoming YDCL clubs will be determined based on their performance, ensuring a fair and merit-based integration into the YCSPL structure.

Local cricket leagues invite new applicants

Two of South Yorkshire's popular recreational cricket leagues are now inviting new club applications for the 2026 season.

The Barnsley & District Cricket League, which hosts Sunday afternoon fixtures, is seeking clubs interested in joining its friendly yet competitive setup. Matches are played over 40 overs per side, beginning at 1:30 p.m., offering a relaxed but structured format ideal for weekend cricket enthusiasts. Clubs wishing to apply or request further information can contact league secretary Mark Brook via email at mdbrook1964@gmail.com.

Meanwhile, the South Yorkshire Alliance Works Midweek League is also welcoming new entries for its 2026 campaign. Matches are held on Wednesday evenings, starting at 6:15 p.m., and consist of 12 to 16 overs of eight balls each. The league is split into North and South divisions, culminating in end-of-season play-offs to determine the overall champions. Organisers are particularly keen to hear from clubs based in the northern part of the region to help balance the competition geographically. Interested teams can reach out to Steve Birch at steven.birch@alliancemidweek.org.uk.

Both leagues offer a great opportunity for local cricketers to enjoy regular, organised matches in a welcoming community environment.

Rotherham Hawks Go National

Rotherham Hawks Basketball Club is set to make history this autumn by entering a senior men's team into Basketball England's National League for the first time. The move marks a significant milestone for the club, which has grown steadily since its formation in the 1990s.

Based at Thomas Rotherham College Sports Centre, the Hawks have long been a hub for grassroots basketball in South Yorkshire. With hundreds of players attending weekly training sessions from under-10s upwards, the club has built a strong foundation of youth development. Now, with sustained growth and a thriving junior programme, the Hawks are ready to take their ambitions to the next level.

“We’ve enjoyed quite a few years of sustained growth, so we thought this was the best time ever to have a men’s team in the National League,” said Sam Oakley, who coaches both the senior men’s and U16s squads. “It shows kids a pathway into a senior team they can play for in the future, whereas before we didn’t really have anything beyond youth level. It’s good for them to have that goal.”

The club will field U14s and U16s teams alongside the new senior squad in the 2025–26 season, with each roster comprising 15 players. All three teams will compete in Basketball England’s National League, which is structured into regionalised conferences at the entry level. Rotherham will join a division featuring teams such as City of Leeds, Cleveland, East Durham Lions, Lincolnshire Wildcats, and Team Sunderland [1].

The league offers promotion play-offs for top-performing teams, adding competitive incentive to the Hawks’ debut campaign. “We’re going to see a lot of the A1,” joked Oakley, referring to the travel involved. “But we’re looking forward to it. It’s a new challenge for us.”

The Hawks’ expansion reflects a broader trend in British basketball, where community clubs are increasingly stepping up to national competition. With nine qualified coaches and a strong emphasis on development, Rotherham Hawks are well-positioned to make an impact.

In preparation for the new season, the club is actively seeking sponsorship to support equipment and travel costs. Local businesses and supporters are encouraged to get involved. “We’re building something exciting here,” said Oakley. “Any help from the community would go a long way.”

Those interested in supporting or joining the club can visit www.rotherham-hawks.co.uk or search “Rotherham Hawks” on social media for updates and contact information.

As the Hawks gear up for their National League debut, the move not only elevates the club’s profile but also inspires the next generation of players in Rotherham and beyond. With a clear pathway from junior to senior basketball now in place, the future looks bright for one of South Yorkshire’s most ambitious sports clubs.

Stocksbridge Strengthen with Triple Signing

Stocksbridge Park Steels have bolstered their ranks ahead of the 2025/26 campaign with the signings of midfielder Jack Degruchy, defender Paul Iggulden, and goalkeeper Michael Roxburgh. The trio brings a mix of youth, experience, and familiarity to Bracken Moor as the club looks to build on recent progress under manager Ian Richards.

Jack Degruchy, 21, arrives with a solid footballing pedigree. A product of York City’s youth system, he made his professional debut for Doncaster Rovers in July 2022 in a goalless draw against Bradford City. During his time with the League Two side, Degruchy gained valuable experience through loan spells at several non-league clubs, including FC

United of Manchester, Marske United, Kettering Town, Hanley Town, and most recently Liversedge, where he made 29 appearances and scored once last season.

His versatility and composure in midfield are expected to add depth and creativity to the Steels’ engine room.

Joining Degruchy is 19-year-old centre-back Paul Iggulden, who returns to Stocksbridge following a successful loan spell last season. A former Hull City academy player, Iggulden signed his first professional contract with the Tigers in 2018 and progressed through their youth ranks.

During his loan at Bracken Moor, Iggulden made 45 appearances in all competitions, scoring five goals and earning praise for his maturity and defensive leadership. His permanent move is seen as a major boost to the Steels’ backline.

Completing the trio is goalkeeper Michael Roxburgh, 22, who rejoins the club for a third stint. Roxburgh previously featured for the Steels during loan spells in the 2021/22 and 2023/24 seasons. A former academy player at Hartlepool United and Huddersfield Town, he has since gained further experience at Spennymoor Town, Liversedge, Emley AFC, and Sheffield FC.

Known for his shot-stopping ability and commanding presence, Roxburgh’s return adds stability and competition in goal.

Manager Ian Richards has made it clear that the club is aiming to push higher in the Northern Premier League East Division this season. The new signings reflect a strategy of blending promising young talent with players who already understand the club’s ethos and expectations.

“These are three players who not only bring quality but also fit the culture we’re building here,” said Richards. “They’ve all shown commitment and potential, and we’re excited to see how they develop with us.”

Final Whistle for a Trailblazer

Hundreds gathered at Sheffield Cathedral on Monday, July 14, to pay their final respects to Uriah Rennie, the Premier League's first Black referee and one of Sheffield's most admired sons.

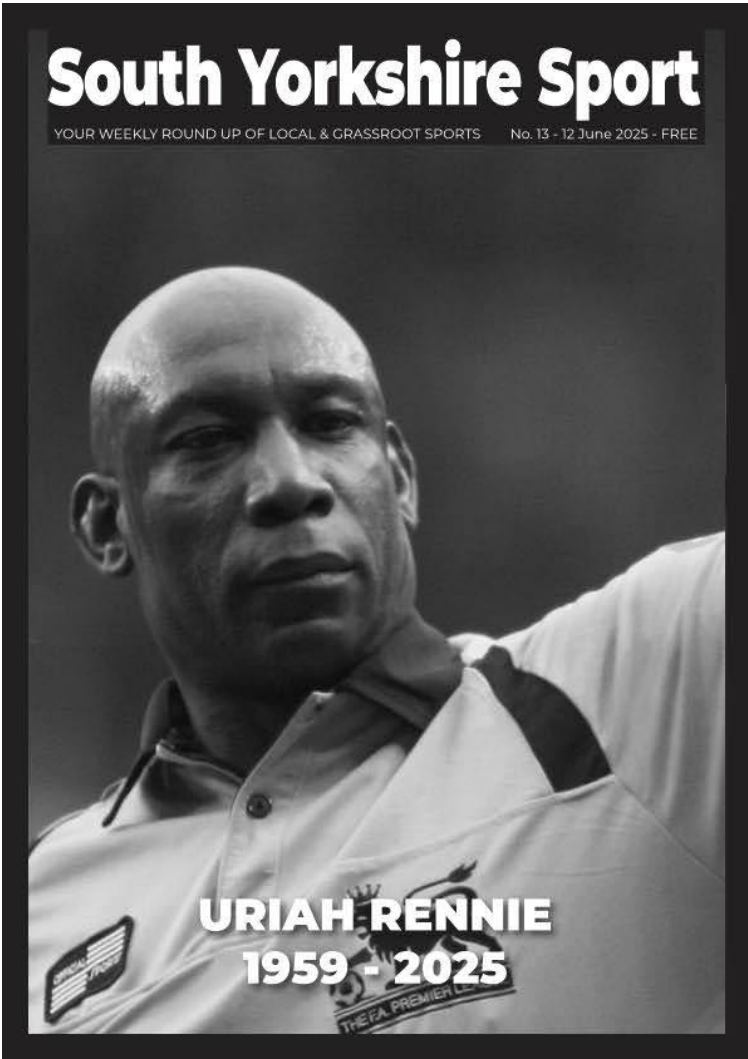

The 65-year-old, who passed away on June 7 after a private battle with illness, was remembered not only for his groundbreaking achievements in football but also for his deep commitment to community, justice, and equality.

The service, held under clearing skies, was a poignant and powerful tribute to a man who broke barriers and inspired generations. Mourners filled the cathedral and spilled onto the surrounding grounds, reflecting the breadth of Rennie's impact. Among those in attendance were current and former referees, including Howard Webb, Premier League Chief Executive Richard Masters, and local dignitaries such as Sheffield South East MP Clive Betts and Lord Mayor Safiya

Saeed.

Born in Jamaica and raised in Sheffield from the age of 11, Rennie began refereeing grassroots matches in 1979. His rise through the ranks culminated in a historic moment in 1997 when he officiated a Premier League match between Derby County and Wimbledon, becoming the league's first Black referee. Over his career, he took charge of 175 Premier League games and more than 300 matches in total.

But Rennie's legacy extended far beyond the pitch. A qualified magistrate, he also earned a master's degree in business administration and law from Sheffield Hallam University, where he was later awarded an honorary doctorate and, earlier this year, named Chancellor. He was a passionate advocate for education, equality, and youth development, and supported numerous charities including Sheffield Children's Hospital and Weston Park Cancer Charity.

During the service, heartfelt tributes were paid by friends, family, and colleagues. Sam Allison, a Select Group 2 referee, spoke movingly of Rennie's influence: "Uri meant more to me than he ever truly knew. He showed me how to walk into rooms where you weren't expected and still hold your head high. He led by example—with strength and unwavering dignity".

Akil Howson, a Select Group 1 assistant referee, echoed those sentiments: "Without Uri, I wouldn't be where I am today. Watching him break through that barrier made me realise it could be done. He didn't just inspire from afar—he guided, encouraged, and cared".

Rennie's contributions to football and society were celebrated not only in words but in the presence of those he mentored and inspired. His friend and fellow Sheffield icon John Burkhill described him as "a great bloke and a great friend" who had done "tremendous work" for Macmillan and other causes.

As the service concluded, there was a sense not only of loss but of enduring legacy. Uriah Rennie's life was a testament to resilience, leadership, and integrity. His final whistle may have blown, but the doors he opened remain wide for those who follow

By Roger Pugh

Wakefield Thornes were indebted to Joe Billings for their narrow win over Tickhill at Field Lane, that keeps them 14 points clear in the Premier Division. Ross Diver (63) led from the front when visitors posted 225-6, Brad Green taking 4-34. Billings then dominated Thornes' reply with an unbeaten 117, and steered the hosts to a one-wicket win with five balls to go, after they had been 152-2.

Cawthorne kept up their challenge in second place, after Liam Wiles had taken 4-53 to restrict visitors Wickersley Old Village to 187-8, Hamzah Younis top-scoring with 63. Aryan Versani made 86 in the hosts' reply, and Wiles completed a very successful day with an unbeaten 56 in their four-wicket win.

Sheffield Collegiate responded after last week's reverse, but only after recovering from 70-80 to post 180-9, thanks to Rubaiyat Abrar (48) and Henry Eldred (45 not out) who put on 119 for their ninth wicket away to Shiregreen.

T20 FINALS DAY

On Sunday, the League T20 Finals Day was held at Field Lane, the home of Wakefield Thornes CC. In the Plate final, Whiston Parish Church were put in to bat by Sprotbrough and bowled out for 136, George Thompson taking 3-17 in his four overs, whilst Arman Jaffer top-scored with 49. Thomas Pepper (45 off 29 balls) gave Sprotbrough a good start in reply, then Lewis Hogg, with an unbeaten 57 in 44, saw them home by eight wickets with three overs to spare. Winners Sprotbrough are pictured below.

In the Blast final, Uzair Mumtaz hit 61 off 38 balls after Wakefield Thornes elected to bat first, but Curtis Free, with 4-33 took wickets at vital times to prevent them from really capitalising on their 60-0 in the first six overs, and they posted 190-6.

Jayden Fell (45 off 26 balls) got Doncaster Town off to a brisk start and Bhargav Merai anchored the innings with an unbeaten 49 off 33, but the match-winner was Charlie Kaye with an explosive 51 off 21 balls tat enabled Town to pass their target for the loss of five wickets with 14 balls to spare. The winning Doncaster team are pictured below.

We congratulate Sprotbrough and Doncaster Town on their successes; they have now qualified for the national T20 Plate and Blast competitions respectively, and we wish them the very best of luck for those. We would also like to thank Wakefield Thornes CC for doing such a great job of staging the day’s cricket.

PRESIDENTS CUP

Also on Sunday, skipper Alex Pepper made 60 in Hatfield Town’s 211-8 against Doncaster Town 3rds in the President’s Cup, and Joshua Yemm took 3-27 when Town were bowled out for 112 in reply.

ALLAMA IQBAL SUNDAY LEAGUE

By Afraz Khan

In a tightly contested Allama Iqbal Sunday Cricket League clash, Sehnsa CC emerged victorious over Sharrow CC by a margin of 17 runs. Batting first, Sehnsa CC posted a formidable total of 217/5 in their allotted 25 overs. Amjid K was the star performer with the bat, scoring a brilliant 93 off just 50 deliveries.

He was ably supported by Saqib S (47) and Adnan N (32), who ensured a strong finish. Sharrow CC's bowlers, despite the high total, managed to pick up crucial wickets, with Saqib H leading the charge with an impressive 5/40 from his 5 overs. Atif Q also chipped in with 4/31.

In response, Sharrow CC fought valiantly, reaching 200 all out in 25 overs. Zahid K top-scored with 45, while Mohammed A (42) and Osama S (40) also made significant contributions, keeping their side in the hunt. However, Sehnsa CC's bowlers held their nerve to secure the win. Sajad K (1/8) and Zaheer A (1/16) were economical and picked up key wickets at crucial junctures. Ultimately, Sharrow CC fell just short, handing Sehnsa CC a well-deserved victory.

Pakistan XI secured a comprehensive 67-run victory over Attock CC in the Allama Iqbal Sunday Cricket League. Batting first, Pakistan XI set a challenging target, posting 228/8 in their 30 overs. Mohammed N was the backbone of their innings, scoring an excellent 75 off 63 balls. Javad S provided solid support with 59 runs, while Iqrar H added a quickfire 21. Attock CC's bowling effort was spearheaded by Abu S, who claimed an impressive 5/32 from his 6 overs, attempting to stem the flow of runs. Abu B also contributed with 2/13.

In reply, Attock CC struggled to build partnerships and were eventually bowled out for 161 in 27.4 overs. Usama H was their top scorer with 28, but a lack of significant contributions from other batsmen hampered their chase. Pakistan XI's bowlers were in fine form, with Fazal K (3/28) and Javad S (3/30) dismantling the Attock CC batting lineup. Haider S also bowled economically, taking 1/25. This commanding performance ensured a comfortable win for Pakistan XI.

Narmando CC emerged victorious by 16 runs in a keenly contested Allama Iqbal Sunday Cricket League fixture against Kotli CC. Batting first, Narmando CC posted a competitive total of 224/5 in their 30 overs. Shadab K (48 off 29 balls) and Hassan I (48 off 67 balls) provided a solid foundation, with Rahemullah K adding a brisk 34 towards the end of the innings. Kotli CC's bowlers, including Hussnain H (2/62), worked hard to contain the scoring, but Narmando CC's batsmen proved too strong.

In their pursuit of 225, Kotli CC fought bravely, but ultimately fell short, finishing on 208/7 in their 30 overs. Fazal R was the standout performer for Kotli CC, scoring an excellent 68 off 64 deliveries. Shezad S also contributed with 43 runs. However, Narmando CC's bowling attack maintained pressure throughout. Rahemullah K, who also shone with the bat, picked up 2/38, and Arman K took 2/46, ensuring Narmando CC secured the win.

Old Madras CC pulled off a thrilling 7-wicket victory against Kashmir CC in a high-scoring Allama Iqbal Sunday Cricket League match. Kashmir CC set a challenging target, posting 260/6 in their 30 overs. Mobashar Ilyas R was the star of their innings, smashing an impressive 85 off just 46 balls. Nabeel A (41) and Seeru N (33) also made valuable contributions. Srinivasan R was the pick of the Old Madras CC bowlers, claiming 3/31.

In a remarkable chase, Old Madras CC reached the target with 7 wickets in hand and 4 overs to spare, finishing on 263/3 in 26 overs. Their top order fired on all cylinders, with Ezil C leading the charge with a magnificent 86 off 51 deliveries. Gokul S provided crucial support with 77 runs, and Jude A sealed the victory with a blistering 68 off just 28 balls. Despite efforts from Yousaf A (2/36) and Shahrukh K (1/35), Kashmir CC's bowlers couldn't prevent the relentless scoring from Old Madras CC, who secured a memorable win.

So only Seven Hills remain without a win now, ifty Ahmed you need to come out of retirement and sort the win column.

This week's Pepe's Player of the Week spotlight shines brightly on Jude Joseph, whose sensational all-round performance spearheaded Old Madras CC to a monumental victory over the formidable Kashmir CC. In a match that will be talked about for seasons to come, Joseph not only led his team to their first win but also secured a massive scalp against one of the league's most revered sides.

Old Madras CC faced a daunting target of 260 set by Kashmir CC. With the pressure mounting, Jude Joseph stepped up to deliver a truly unforgettable innings. He unleashed a blistering assault on the Kashmir bowling attack, smashing an incredible 68 runs off just 28 balls. His innings was a masterclass in aggressive yet controlled hitting, adorned with 6 powerful fours and 5 towering sixes that sailed into the stands, turning the tide decisively in Old Madras CC's favor.

But Joseph's heroics weren't limited to his explosive batting. Demonstrating his invaluable all-round capabilities, he also chipped in with a crucial wicket, showcasing his contribution with the ball and proving his worth across all facets of the game.

This match-winning effort marks him as a truly exceptional talent and a deserving recipient of the Pepe's Player of the Week award. His leadership and electrifying performance have undoubtedly set the tone for Old Madras CC's season.

Thrillers, Upsets, and Run Chases Galore!

SOUTH YORKSHIRE ALLIANCE WORKS MIDWEEK CRICKET LEAGUE

By Mark Simmerson

Another sun-drenched Wednesday evening brought a feast of cricketing drama across the Al-lama Iqbal League’s divisions, with nail-biting finishes, surprise upsets, and standout individual performances lighting up the scorecards.

In Division North, the clash between Barnsley Woolley Miners and Thorpe Hesley and High Green went down to the wire. Batting first, Thorpe Hesley and High Green were restricted to 120-7, with R Eddy anchoring the innings with a gritty 48. W Chapman was the pick of the bowlers for Barnsley, returning excellent figures of 3-10. The chase was anything but straightforward, but E Shillito’s composed unbeaten 52 guided Barnsley home—dramatically—off the final ball of the match, with six wickets in hand.

Meanwhile, runaway leaders Oughtibridge posted a competitive 163-4, thanks largely to a commanding 80* from J Newton. However, Thorncliffe & Wentworth had other plans. J Denby’s explosive 85* and L Heath’s steady 30 saw them chase down the target with six balls and six wickets to spare. Despite the loss, Oughtibridge remain firmly at the top, seven points clear of Higham, who still have a game in hand and could close the gap.

In Division South A, the top dogs held firm. Sheffield Collegiate continued their dominant run, putting up 159-5 against Holmesfield, with E Mathewson contributing a fluent 51*. Holmesfield never quite got going in reply, finishing on 124-9, as O Tyas ripped through the middle order with 4-20. Collegiate’s lead remains a healthy 12 points.

Outokumpo Stainless also impressed, chasing down Sheffield Waterworks’ modest 106-5 with six wickets down. J Lund’s unbeaten 47* and P Yadava Gannerla’s 37 ensured a smooth finish. The win sees Outokumpo join Waterworks in second place.

Sheffield Centralians delivered the most explosive batting display of the evening, hammering 191-8 against Whiston Forge, with A Khan falling just short of a century on 97. Despite a valiant 69* from M Beevers, Whiston Forge could only muster 145-5 in reply.

In Division South B, the biggest upset of the night came courtesy of De La Salle, who defended a modest 113-8 against high-flying Sheffield Transport. A Tahir’s 50 gave De La Salle something to bowl at, and J Maiden’s sensational 6-30 turned the game on its head. Sheffield Transport stumbled to 100-9, handing De La Salle a famous win.

The result opened the door for Hollinsend Methodists, who seized the opportunity to go top. They posted 136-4 and then restricted Baslow to just 97-4 in a controlled bowling display.

Elsewhere, Woodhouse put up 153-5, with S Ali (53) and A Mohammed (34) leading the charge. Brincliffe came close in reply, thanks to a brilliant 89* from V Vajpayee, but fell just short at 146-3.

HSBC defended 116-7 with a disciplined bowling effort, holding Brookhouse to 84-6. Despite the loss, Brookhouse remain second, tied with Sheffield Transport, three points behind the new leaders, Hollinsend Methodists.
