ADR QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Join us for this interactive online workshop, presented by Mr Jonathan Mitchell, the Regional Branch Chairman of our Western Cape branch, as part of the Association's ongoing mission to provide regular upskilling opportunities for its members and for everyone interested in alternative dispute resolution (ADR).

ABOUT THE WORKSHOP:

This workshop is a continuation of the workshop held on 20 March 2026. The questions below have been prepared for the purposes of upskilling seasoned ADR practitioners who have become somewhat 'rusty', alternatively are to be discussed to equip new ADR practitioners with the necessary knowledge to conduct arbitral proceedings properly, professionally and skillfully. This workshop will also be beneficial to the Association's students as it will assist in preparing them to become competent arbitrators.

The online workshop will be an open discussion and debate forum where Mr Mitchell, an experienced arbitrator, will act as the chairperson of the deliberations.

Following are the topics for discussion, debate and deliberation at the workshop:

1. What should an Arbitrator do when a Respondent has amended its Statement of Defence and Counter Claim five times already and now requests to amend same for a sixth time, which will cause serious delay and disruption to the arbitral proceedings?
2. What should an Arbitrator do when, at the hearing, Counsel for Claimant states that the Respondent does not have locus standi in these arbitral proceedings?
3. If an Arbitrator has made an error in his/her award, by awarding R100 000 in favour of Claimant when he/she meant to award R1 000 000 in favour of Claimant, can he/she recall the award to make corrections thereto?
4. What should an Arbitrator do when he/she receives an application that his/her award is going to be challenged in the High Court, alternatively taken on review in the High Court?
5. Should the Arbitrator allow Expert Witnesses of the two respective parties to sit in at the hearing at the same time?
6. Should the Arbitrator allow witnesses on fact from the two respective parties to sit in at the hearing at the same time?
