The Igloo® Evergreen 36-Can Snapdown Cooler is your ultimate partner in maintaining the freshness of your food and beverages with its innovative MaxCold® insulation technology. Engineered with a focus on sustainability, this cooler boasts a tough exterior crafted from resilient 1680D polyester and 600D REPREEVE® performance fiber, incorporating recycled material from post-consumer plastic bottles. The bottom panels, coated with TPU, offer an extra layer of defense against water and dirt. Accessing your items is effortless thanks to the user-friendly zipper pulls, while the snapdown design ensures a secure closure by buckling at the sides when needed. This cooler also provides versatile carrying options, featuring top grab handles with convenient closure wrap, and a removable, adjustable shoulder strap for hands-free, crossbody or over the shoulder convenience. The front zippered pocket offers secure extra storage, and the inner liner is leak-resistant and easy to clean.
