One Day At A Time

Evangelist/Pastor Barbara

Tell My People Tomorrow is never assured to anyone. I have said: Take one day at a time. Live that day to its fullest.

Proverbs 27:1 (NIV2011) I Do not boast about tomorrow, for you do not know what a day may bring.

If My people would listen, they would have Joy Unspeakable. They would enjoy the sunrises and the sunsets. They would enjoy each other, and they would be secure in Me. The enemy has come upon the scene with his havoc and is causing much disturbance all around about My Children.

Take the enemy by the horns and throw him out of the day, concentrate on what I am calling you forth to do, and then ENJOY each moment of that day.

This is a formula that will work. TRUST ME!

To live one day at a time and not worry about tomorrow, we must put God first. We completely dedicate our lives to serving Him, above all others and everything else.

Matthew 6:33-34 (KJV) But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you. 34 Take therefore no thought for the morrow: for the morrow shall take thought for the things of itself. Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof.

Luke 12:7 (NIV2011) Indeed, the very hairs of your head are all numbered. Don't be afraid; you are worth more than many sparrows.

Why would you worry about tomorrow when I have numbered every hair on your head?

James 4:13-17 (NIV2011)
13 Now listen, you who say, "Today or tomorrow we will go to this or that city, spend a year there, carry on business and make money." 14 Why, you do not even know what will happen tomorrow. What is your life? You are a mist that appears for a little while and then vanishes. 15 Instead, you ought to say, "If it is the Lord's will, we will live and do this or that." 16 As it is, you boast in your arrogant schemes. All such boasting is evil. 17 If anyone, then, knows the good they ought to do and doesn't do it, it is sin for them.

Since God exists outside of time, He is already in your future. It's as if He is in the room labeled "tomorrow," and He's looking back, saying to you, "There's no need for you to worry about tomorrow. I'm already in your tomorrow, I've checked it out, and it's OK. And when you get here, I'll be here already, waiting for you. You'll never be alone."

MIRACLES

Evangelist/Pastor Barbara

If My children would follow My Rules in My Word, miracles would be an every second of everyday occurrence. They would not be trying to make the miracles happen. It would be as natural as putting on your shoes every morning. My Kingdom is made up of miracles.

The opening chapter of the Bible begins with “In the beginning, God created the heavens and the earth.” (Genesis 1:1). Day by day, God is able to take what was formless and desolate and, with a simple command, speak creation into existence. Beginning with the incredible creation of the world as God’s first miracle, history is filled with countless accounts of miraculous events, all documented by the Bible.

Abraham and Sarah Conceived at Old Age. Genesis 21:2 “Sarah became pregnant and bore a son to Abraham in his old age, at the very time God had promised him.”

Moses Parts the Red Sea. Exodus 16:21: “Then Moses stretched out his hand over the sea, and all that night the Lord drove the sea back with a strong east wind and turned it into dry land. The waters were divided, and the Israelites went through the sea on dry ground, with a wall of water on their right and on their left.”

Manna from Heaven. “Exodus 16:4 Then the Lord said to Moses, ‘I will rain down bread from heaven for you. The people are to go out each day and gather enough for that day’”

Jonah and the Whale. Jonah 2 From inside the fish, Jonah prayed to the Lord his God... and the Lord commanded the fish, and it committed Jonah onto dry land.”

The Immaculate Conception. Luke 1:38: “I am the Lord’s servant,” Mary answered. “May your word to me be fulfilled.” Then the angel left her.”

Daniel and the Lions’ Den. Daniel 6:21-22 Daniel answered, ‘May the king live forever! My God sent his angel, and he shut the mouths of lions. They have not hurt me because I was found innocent in His sight. Nor have I ever done any wrong before you, Your Majesty.’

Jesus Turns Water into Wine. John 2:7-9 Jesus said to the servants, ‘Fill the jars with water’; so they filled them to the brim. Then he told them, ‘Now draw some out and take it to the master of the banquet.’ They did so, and the master of the banquet tasted the water that had been turned into wine.”

Feeding the Multitudes. Feeding the Five Thousand: Matthew 14 19-20 Taking the five loaves and the two fish and looking up to heaven, He gave thanks and broke the loaves. Then he gave them to the disciples, and the disciples gave them to the people. They all ate and were satisfied...”
Matthew 15: 36-37 “Feeding the Four Thousand: “Then He took the seven loaves and the fish, and when he had given thanks, he broke them and gave them to the disciples, and they in turn to the people. They all ate and were satisfied.”

Jesus Walks on Water. Matthew 14: 25-27 Shortly before dawn Jesus went out to them walking on the lake. When the disciples saw him walking on the lake, they were terrified. 'It's a ghost,' they said, and cried out in fear. But Jesus immediately said to them: 'Take courage! It is I. Don't be afraid.

Jesus healed the sick from the Old Testament through the New Testament, and He is still doing the same today.

I created the earth with miracles, and I intend to have miracles manifesting continually until I call My Bride home. You can be a vessel that carries miracles...ONLY HAVE FAITH AND BELIEVE FOR THE MIRACELOUS.

"Whispers From My Heart"

Title: What is the Purpose?

Tianna Muiruri

Purposeless.

When I think of all the words that could replace the word purposeless; meaningless, pointless, and aimless come to mind. However, no name comes to mind. In fact, your name does not come to my mind. Even as a synonym, your name will never come close to being synonymous with the word purposeless.

Purpose.

However, when I think of one's purpose in life, the name Jesus comes to mind! His life and the new life that He promises give us purpose. He will never be without a purpose, promise, and plan for you.

2 Corinthians 1:19-20 "For no matter how many promises God has made, they are "Yes" in Christ. And so through him, the "Amen" is spoken by us to the glory of God. Now it is God who makes both us and you stand firm in Christ."

The promises God has for you are not a yes and a no, but they are yes and Amen. All because they have not come to pass yet does not mean that God has passed you by or that He has changed His mind. The devil is passionate about trying to make you think or believe that God has changed His mind about you, and if you end up believing his lie, you end up changing your mind about yourself, not God's mind. You end up believing that you are just in the way, and meant to stay on the backside.

If God's ways are not our ways, what makes you think that His ways are the devil's ways? They aren't. God's way does not make you believe that you are in the way, but He is making a way as you wait on His plans and promises. You are a part of His plan, not a foreigner to it.

Speaking of the word backside, has it ever crossed your mind that the bible details a glimpse of Jesus' physical appearance, from the front, but rarely from the back?

Jesus does not turn His back on you, but He turned His back for you. Jesus didn't turn His back away when He endured the flesh-ripping flogging from Roman soldiers for a purpose that expressed the firmness of steadfast His love. The devil was sadistically passionate about killing Jesus, but Jesus was overwhelmingly more passionate about conquering death, and so He did.

Psalm 57:2, "I cry out to God Most High, to God who fulfills his purpose for me."

Also, you aren't just here to take up space, you're here so that heaven's space could be filled with more and more souls. Don't replace your purpose for anything less because God has so much more. When you find yourself questioning your purpose, remember that your name is attached to purpose not purposeless.

The Chains of Apostasy

Reverend Brett Connell

I had a waking vision several days ago, in which I saw what appeared to be four gates. The environment was dark and cloudy, and the gates themselves were black. The sense I had was that these are not good, and just as I was looking at the gates one of them had opened suddenly.

Large multitudes of heavy chains came pouring out from the gate with great force. It was impressed upon me that these chains were being poured out upon the Earth. When I asked the Lord about these chains I heard "These are the chains of apostasy."

The function of these chains is to bind (permanently) the destinies of God's people, namely the elect. God has been warning us for a long time about the dangers of the "Samson" theme that has been entertained in the lives of many believers. In times past, the people of God that have not yielded over their sin nature have been participating in their sins "just one more time." They repent, shake themselves, and continue on. God has given us many stern warnings that the time has been upon us that those individuals will continue in their sin, and repent, but will find themselves in total bondage to their sin. Like Samson, they will shake themselves, but the anointing has already departed from them.

These chains of apostasy cannot be broken. While God is all-powerful, these chains will retain their power and authority for the fact that they are a judgment written in the word of God that will come to pass in the end times (which we are in). They will have a legal right to perform their function as each individual person crosses over that demarcation line. Many will fall away in the great apostasy – as they fall away from the faith for various reasons, the root of which is because they did not love the truth of the word that could have saved them.

[Matthew 24:10-13] 10 At that time many will turn away from the faith and will betray and hate each other, 11 and many false prophets will appear and deceive many people. 12 Because of the increase of wickedness, the love of most will grow cold, 13 but the one who stands firm to the end will be saved. (NIV)

[2 Thessalonians 2:9-12] 9 The coming of the lawless one will be in accordance with how Satan works. He will use all sorts of displays of power through signs and wonders that serve the lie, 10 and all the ways that wickedness deceives those who are perishing. They perish because they refused to love the truth and so be saved. 11 For this reason God sends them a powerful delusion so that they will believe the lie 12 and so that all will be condemned who have not believed the truth but have delighted in wickedness. (NIV)

When Should You Accept Salvation ?

Tomorrow is NOT promised to anyone.

Our Heavenly Status in Christ

Reverend Aaron Betz

1 Peter 2:9, BSB But you are a chosen people, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for God's own possession, to proclaim the virtues of Him who called you out of darkness into His marvelous light.

Let us never grow tired of this scripture. It serves to always point us in the right direction towards our upward call in Christ (Colossians 3:2). We are a generation of priests who have supreme access to God and the things of Heaven. This was an unthinkable thing in the Old Testament times.

Leviticus 16:2, BSB And the LORD said to Moses: "Tell your brother Aaron not to enter freely into the Most Holy Place behind the veil in front of the mercy seat on the ark, or else he will die, because I appear in the cloud above the mercy seat.

We go from a people who only have limited and strict access to God through a high priest to now all believers (the entire nation) having the ability to freely access God.

Hebrews 6:19, BSB We have this hope as an anchor for the soul, firm and secure. It enters the inner sanctuary behind the curtain. This puts the following scripture into perspective:

Matthew 11:11, AMP I assure you and most solemnly say to you, among those born of women there has not risen anyone greater than John the Baptist; yet the one who is least in the kingdom of heaven is greater [in privilege] than he.

John the Baptist's life span was still under the Old Covenant. He died before Jesus died, and the death of Jesus and shedding of His blood brought about the New Covenant. To put it plainly: those under the New Covenant are put in a more profitable position than John the Baptist was: we potentially have greater sway than even he. Notice the word {privilege}. Think of privilege as being access and ability. As a royal priest, we are able to minister on God's behalf with greater access to the things of God than even John. This is the reality of our status {in Christ}.

Hebrews 12:18, 22-25, BSB For you have not come to a mountain that can be touched and that is burning with fire; to darkness, gloom, and storm; 22 Instead, you have come to Mount Zion, to the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem. You have come to myriads of angels 23 in joyful assembly, to the congregation of the firstborn, enrolled in heaven. You have come to God the Judge of all, to the spirits of the righteous made perfect, 24 to Jesus the mediator of a new covenant, and to the sprinkled blood that speaks a better word than the blood of Abel. 25 See to it that you do not refuse Him who speaks. For if the people did not escape when they refused Him who warned them on earth, how much less will we escape if we reject Him who warns us from heaven?

Notice the charge in verse 25: Do not refuse him who speaks- do not reject Him who warns us and speaks to us from Heaven. That's a big statement. If you reject the heavenly reality that has been given to us by Christ, you are rejecting your priesthood and calling in Him. pg 7

Keepers of the Stuff – Unwanted Gifts in the Body of Christ...Part 1

Reverend Christopher Gore

“And God has appointed these in the church: first apostles, second prophets, third teachers, after that miracles, then gifts of healings, helps, administrations, varieties of tongues.” (I Corinthians 12: 28 NKJV)

“There are diversities of gifts, but the same Spirit. There are differences of ministries, but the same Lord. And there are diversities of activities, but it is the same God who works all in all. But the manifestation of the Spirit is given to each one for the profit of all.” I Corinthians 12: 4 – 7 NKJV)

God has ordered the Body of Christ in such a way that it will perform to its optimum if we let it. The different manifestations of the Spirit are needed. They are not optional. These manifestations are for the benefit of the entire Body of Christ. We need “all” of the giftings in place for an effective work to be done.

Two of the most unwanted gifts in the Body of Christ today are the “gift of helps” and the “gift of administrations” as decoded in I Corinthians 12: 28. These gifts are critical components that cannot be neglected or abandoned. These gifts touch every part of the work of the Lord. As with the other manifestations you need an anointing to operate in the “gift of helps” and the “gift of administration’s”. Just like the other manifestations you must be a person of character and integrity. Without character and integrity in these positions the needs of the people will not be met and the anointing will be divided instead of multiplied.

In order to receive the anointing for all giftings you must understand that these gifts require a lot of dedication, commitment, and a servant’s heart. Jesus had the heart of a servant. His heart needs to be your heart. Jesus was always about the Father’s business. Jesus operated in the “gift of helps” and the “gift of administration”.

“And He sent out two of His disciples and said to them, “Go into the city, and a man will meet you carrying a pitcher of water; follow him. Wherever he goes in, say to the master of the house, ‘The Teacher says, “Where is the guest room in which I may eat the Passover with My disciples?’” ’ Then he will show you a large upper room, furnished and prepared; there make ready for us.” (Mark 14: 13 – 15 NKJV).

Jesus made arrangements, got the items needed, had everything organized so that all the disciples had to do was put it together. Jesus had an anointing to have things ready for the Passover. This was an important event in the life of His disciples. He delegated responsibility to the disciples but it was Jesus’ giftings that caused things to come together. Jesus knew what He wanted, how He wanted it, and what was needed. Jesus let the anointing manifest for the “gift of helps and the gift administration” and everything was in order like God ordained.

Come back next for more on Keepers of the Stuff – Unwanted Gifts in the Body of Christ.

The Ruby Franke Case

Evangelist Kathryn Gore

Recently, a sentence was decided for a mother and recently separated wife of 23 years, due to child abuse towards her children. Ruby Franke whose been a YouTuber for years, started to be questioned on how she raised her children from her viewers. She had over a million followers and they started to see strange activity that caused them to report her to the local authorities. She was of the Mormon faith and had a beautiful family. However, the change came as Ruby started to receive counseling from a female mentor who carried darkness, that destroyed her very foundation that used to be good.

Her testimony was heartfelt as she apologized to the Court, doctors, the people in her community, as well as her entire family, for falling into such a dark place after everyone tried to save her. She admitted deserving the punishment of the Court, in which she thought it to be mercy as she was sentenced to 4-30 years in prison for the crimes she committed.

It brought me to tears as she apologized to her husband, crying through her words, saying he was the love of her life and she's sorry to leave him to finish what they started together. Her husband and her separated a year before her sentencing due to the nature of her behavior. He tried counseling with her and saw immediately the counselor was not right. As she spoke from her heart, he cried to see this happening to her. The most interesting part of her testimony is when she finally spoke on behalf of her walk with God, saying she was sorry for twisting God's words. She stated in her testimony with tears, hurt and pain, that she desires to be in the presence of God one day spotless and she will do whatever it takes to make it right. She didn't ask for a lesser plea. She completely agreed with the full sentence that was determined for her.

I truly believe with all my heart, God will restore Ruby Franke. Why? She took accountability and admitted to her wrongs from a deep and sincere place from within her soul. I believe this is what provokes the mercy of God. There are things we do out of ignorance that would place the spotlight on the darkness that we carry. And when we come to an understanding of our wrong, it can bring us to tears. It can bring us sorrow to know we've hurt those that we love. It brings humility to our lives, causing us to be fully aware of our actions and how we need to make it right.

I know Ruby Franke's family has a long way to go for healing, but God can make our wrongs right. This case is rare due to the fact that she accepted her sentence in humility, admitting her mistakes. We don't see this too often in today's society. What we do see is people trying to cover up their sinful nature, convincing themselves what they've done is right in some kind of twisted way. The best thing to do is repent before God and ask for Him to change your heart. David did this and what did God call him? A man after His own heart.

WHAT I KEEP IN HOME Part 1

The old-time common sense.

Reverend Elizabeth Cassutto

I purposely have kept my landline phone. If you need to call 911 (which I've had to for family health emergencies), that call goes directly to your local fire and police dept. If there's ever an emergency, and cellphone towers are hit, there is no 5G or Wi-Fi network - that's a problem if there is no cell service.

I'll pay Ma Bell to keep my landline. Since my cell phone long distance is cheap, I only have the local & emergency plan on my landlines- but at least I'll get 911 service faster than a cell (I had to use 3x in 10 years for family emergencies - They were here in minutes. In rural non-metro counties - the local fire depts/police depts still have underground boxes - 911 Calls go directly into their call box. So if a cell tower is hit or goes down - (like my AT&T and smartphone did this week), I'm not without a backup. I just have the basic dialing in and out the local landline, keep money down.

PRIVACY also, when landline phones were put in 60 years ago, a lot of times they were under the ground they're not affected by certain disasters. Above the ground, they're safer. And they're not traceable - smartphones, which we all have and use - have a small chip in them that has more AI power than a spaceship. What you say, what you do, everything you say or do is done on the smartphones. I have friends who use their digital finger to open up their passwords or their retina as a 2nd authentication. I don't - it's not safe. Limit the amount of personal info. you put in cyberspace.

!Safety - With your cell

Necessary tip - If you order out at restaurants or travel a lot and you MapQuest or get directions from your home to a certain place, "don't use your home address" in the To: and From: on the cell directions. If your phone is ever lost or stolen, the thief knows right where you live. Instead - use a nearby business, for example, a drugstore or a store - something within close proximity to your home. Esp. On MapQuest. Or Waze. Or Google Maps.

Any App or group that requires a face I'm cautious about. On online apps and sites you post on or belong to - try not to use your "face" picture as a profile bio. You can use your dog, your cat, a bird, a nature scene- I rarely use my face picture. Online and real-time safety reasons. On some sites I write on - I use my 'mission' or focus or what I do - instead of my face. For example, I have 'Lightbeacon Ministries,' or 'A Righteous Remnant' - and a picture of a flag or pet or outdoors. I don't post "Elizabeth- home address & my face".

Why make it easy for a criminal, a cyber thief, a hacker, or a scammer?

No fear. God is here - His angels are here. But He gives us common sense and wisdom to use. In the days ahead - just like Pastor Barbara had preached Sunday night, February 25, 2024 - we need to be checking with the Lord more - on where we go, when, and even when not to do something. We are at the end of the end times - the stakes are higher now. a little under the radar for the Lord. I want to live to finish my assignment.

I lived with my late husband on military bases. And I know what high alerts are. The Body of Christ can hear Holy Spirit alerts if our ears are open to it.

Humility and Exaltation (Part 22)

By Theresa McGinnis

The command to humble yourself comes from the throne of God Himself. When you attempt to listen and obey you will be rewarded with the painful discovery of two things.

The first thing that you will get is a knowledge of the depth of pride- an unwillingness to count yourself as nothing and to submit absolutely to God- that you have within yourself.

The second thing is what utter weakness there is in all of your efforts to overcome and destroy the hideous monster of pride. But blessed is the man who learns to put his hope in God and to persevere, not withstanding all the power of pride within him, in acts of humility before God and men. The humbling of a proud heart, with which the penitent saint casts himself so often before God, is rewarded with the "more grace" of a humble heart, in which the Spirit of Jesus has conquered and brought the new nature to its maturity. Then the meek and lowly One will dwell in the saint's heart forever. If you humble yourself in the sight of the Lord, He will exalt you. The highest glory of man is in being only a vessel, one that can receive and show forth the Glory of God. But this can only happen if you are willing to be nothing in itself so that God may be all.

Water always fills the lowest places first. The lower, the emptier a man lies before God, the speedier and the fuller the inflow of the divine glory will be. The exaltation is not, cannot be, any external thing apart from Himself. All that He has to give or can give is only more of Himself, to take more complete possession. This exaltation is not, like an earthly prize, something arbitrary, in no necessary connection with the conduct to be rewarded. But it is in its very nature the effect and result of the humbling of ourselves. It is nothing but the gift of a divine indwelling humility- a conformity to and possession of the humility of the Lamb of God—which fits us for fully receiving the indwelling of God. "He that humbleth himself shall be exalted." Jesus Himself is the proof of the truth of these words. It is our part to take His yoke upon us and learn from Him, for he is meek and lowly of heart. If we are willing to stoop to Him, as He has stooped to us, He will yet stoop to each of us again, and we will find ourselves equally yoked with Him. And as you enter deeper into the fellowship of His humility, and either humble ourselves or bear the humbling of men, we can count on the Spirit of His exaltation, "the Spirit of God and of Glory," to rest upon us. The presence and the power of the glorified Christ will come to them who are of a humble spirit. When God can again have His rightful place in us, He will lift us up. We never knew that humility- absolute, abiding, Christ-like humility, pervading and marking our whole life with God and with man- was the most essential element of the life of the holiness we sought. Let Isaiah 57:15 be our destiny, "I dwell in the high and holy place, and with him that is of a contrite and humble spirit." To be humble, to be nothing in His presence, is the highest attainment and the fullest blessing of the Christian life.

CHOICES

Sis Grace Crescenzo

There was a controversy on Facebook about 1 Samuel 16 :14,15,16. There were many different comments about God sending evil spirits into people. Scriptures interpret scriptures, the whole Bible interprets itself. Proverbs 25:2, It's the glory of God to conceal a matter and the glory of kings to search it out.

I wrote the following:

God gave man free will. God does not take Holy Spirit out of man; HE allows man to choose who he wants to serve: God or the devil/satan!

Saul chose satan 's way... what he himself wanted and in disobedience to God's laws (which were to guide & protect). Saul turned away from God!

God is a gentleman, giving man free will, and will not stay where He is not wanted. Because Saul didn't want God's way of doing things, but wanted control, the Lord left Saul to do as he wanted. Where there is a void, Satan comes in to occupy because that is what satan & his demons do!

God gets blamed for man's choices... "man choses each day who he will serve."

God loves. He gave man/people everything possible to live this life, by giving us Jesus Christ, His Beloved son, to take upon Himself our sins so we are enabled to live IN HIM & THROUGH HIM!!!

If man/people do not choose Jesus in their heart (Salvation & Redemption), and/or turns away from HIM after choosing HIM, then there is no longer any way for the Lord God to stay with man unless man turns back to Jesus, asks forgiveness, and lives with God's Holy Spirit in him!

Saul chose his own way, like Lucifer/satan did! So he no longer had God's presence with him. He called David to play worship music... to quiet the demons that entered him due to his own choice!

Sometimes, God gets blamed for our wrong choices, even though God gave written instructions to help us know the way to choose for a good end!

Addressing scriptures that says "evil spirit from the Lord" & about God being blamed for what satan & his demons do:

In Genesis, God created heavens and the Earth? In heaven God created the angels. God created Lucifer, a GOOD angel. The Bible describes Lucifer as "most beautiful". God made him the chief angel, the leader of beautiful praise and worship to Almighty God!

However, Lucifer fell because he wanted to BE God, wanted to be in control, everyone bowing to him. He did not want to serve God! So God banished Lucifer/Satan and his followers/demons out of heaven!

God did not create evil, HE banished evil! He gives man/people free will. Man/people CHOSSES to do evil. God PROVIDES a way for man/people to repent and overcome evil with good!

In the Old Testament HE gave 10 Commandments and provided leaders like Moses, Abraham, Noah, David, His prophets & many more.

In the New Testament, HE gave us Jesus Christ His Beloved son and His finished work, the cross/Resurrection, thereby sending HIS Holy Spirit to live within us!!!

God-Given Dreams and Visions

Reverend Astrid Sherriff

There are many ways that God speaks to us; one is by vision, and He tells us things that are going to happen to His prophets and seers. In Joel 5:28-32, "After this, I will pour out my Spirit on every human being. Your sons and daughters will prophesy, the old will have dreams, and the young will receive visions.<sup>29</sup> In those days, I will pour out my Spirit even on the servants.<sup>30</sup> In heaven and on earth, I will show wonders: blood, fire, and pillars of smoke.<sup>31</sup> The sun will be turned into darkness and the moon into blood before the day of the LORD comes, a great and terrible day. <sup>32</sup> And everyone who calls on the name of the LORD will be saved, for on Mount Zion and in Jerusalem there will be salvation, as the Lord has said.

It is very important to examine God's dreams; with the discernment of the Holy Spirit, we must let God give us the prophetic interpretation of their meaning and what he wants to speak to us. We must check our emotions and have the mind of Christ.

In Acts 9:10-12:10, There was a disciple in Damascus named Ananias, whom the Lord called in a vision, "Ananias! "Here I am, sir.<sup>11</sup> "Go," the LORD said to him, "go to the house of Judas on the street called the Right Street and ask for a certain Saul of Tarsus." He is praying <sup>12</sup>, and he has seen in a vision a man named Ananias who comes in and lays his hands on him so that he may regain his sight.

Daniel 10:5-7 On the twenty-fourth day of the first month, as I stood on the bank of the great river Tigris, <sup>5</sup> I lifted up my eyes and saw before me a man clothed in linen cloth with a golden belt from the side. <sup>6</sup> His body shone like topaz, and his face shone like lightning. His eyes were two flaming torches, and his arms and legs were made of burnished bronze; His voice echoed like the echo of a crowd. <sup>7</sup> "I, Daniel, was the only one who had this vision. Those who were with me, though they saw nothing, were frightened and ran to hide.

Daniel 10:8-11 No one stayed with me when I had this great vision. Strength deserted me, my face paled, and I almost fainted. <sup>9</sup> That's when I heard that man. As he spoke to me, I was stunned and with my face on the ground. <sup>10</sup> Then a hand touched me and put me on my hands and knees, which were still trembling, <sup>11</sup> and said to me, "Get up, Daniel, for I have been sent to you. You're very much appreciated, so pay attention to what I'm going to tell you." As soon as the man spoke to me, I stood up trembling.

Another person to whom God gave vision was John. The apostle John was under spiritual persecution and was exiled to the island of Patmos. We can look at Revelation 1:9-18 for our reference and Revelation 14.

Worrying doesn't take away
tomorrow's troubles.
It takes away
today's peace.

DO YOU HAVE VITAMIN B-12 DEFICIENCY

Reverend Naomi Nichols

SIGNS AND SYMPTOMS

* NUMBNESS – hands, feet or legs feel like “pins and needles”.

Shortage of B12 can damage the protective sheath that covers your nerves. Use of heartburn drugs and having diseases like celiac, Crohn's or other gut illnesses may make it harder for your body to absorb the vitamin.

* COLDER THAN USUAL – Without enough B12, you might not have enough healthy red blood cells to move oxygen around your body. That can leave you shivering and cold, especially in your hands and feet.

* BRAIN FOG – A lack of B12 may lead to depression, confusion, memory problems and dementia. It also can affect your balance. B12 supplements are safe for adults (2.4 micrograms a day). If you take more than what you need, your body passes the rest out through your pee. High doses could have some side effects like dizziness, headache, anxiety, nausea and vomiting.

* WEAKNESS – Your muscles may lack strength. You might feel tired or lightheaded. It's important to pay attention to any symptoms – which might pop up quickly or it could come on slowly. Alert your doctor.

* ATROPHIC GLOSSITIS – tiny bumps on your tongue called papillae start to waste away which makes it look and feel smooth and glossy. Infections, medication and other conditions can cause it. *

HEART PALPITATIONS – your heart suddenly races or skips a beat. You might feel it in your throat or neck. Foods with B12 include chicken, eggs, fish and the best source is beef liver.

REASONS FOR SHORTAGE OF B12

* AGE – as you get older, your body may not absorb B12 as easily. Low levels can lead to anemia, nerve damage, moodiness and other serious problems.

* WEIGHT SURGERY – after gastric bypass surgery, food bypasses parts of your stomach and small intestine where B12 would normally break down into usable form. Your doctor will monitor your B12 levels and suggest supplements or shots, if you need them.

* MOUTH SORES – you may get ulcers on your gums or tongue.

* MEDICATIONS – some meds drop your B12 levels or make it harder for your body to use.

- * Chloramphenicol - an antibiotic used to treat infection.
- * Prevacid and Prilosec – proton pump inhibitors
- * Tagamet and Pepcid – peptic ulcer meds
- * Metformin - diabetes

CAUTION FOR PREGNANT VEGETARIANS

- Talk to your doctor about B12 supplements both during pregnancy and breastfeeding. Infants who don't get enough B12 could have serious and permanent damage to their nerves or brain cells. Your baby might need supplements also.

The Courtroom and Your Blood Part 5

Revealing the Illegal and Legal Operations of the Enemy

Nancy Connell

Another thing that the Holy Spirit walked me through in the Courtroom with my blood is to make my blood speak the truth against the illegal operations of the enemy and that you want the entirety of the lifespan of the bloodline and not just the current generation.- (1 Peter 5:8, Ephesians 6:12) – and remove all legal operations or holds he had on my bloodline, mainly this time health-wise.

The enemy is sly and cunning. He will try to illegally do things and will succeed at those things that have open doors, or he has convinced you or those who have authority over your life to give him a right and even to believe a lie as the truth. He can twist and manipulate just one word, bringing havoc. This is why it is so important to be walking with the Holy Spirit.

He, the devil, tried this with Eve and succeeded and gained a foothold in the world, all by placing doubt into Eve's mind and changing the wording of what God said to her. Focus on that keyword... WORD... Genesis 3:1-7

He, the devil, tried this with Jesus. The first of three temptations is he wanted him to COMMAND the stone to be turned into bread. He did not succeed with any of the temptations and lost all chance to own everything, and now knowing that his time is numbered and that he will be thrown into the lake of fire for eternity.

We are no different, and he tries it with us as well, but it is up to us to make sure we do not give him legal rights to things that are not his to have with our words, actions, sin, and questioning God. The devil is not just after us; he is also after our bloodline. He uses it to travel down the generations. Because he uses us to try to get at God. There is POWER and LIFE in the tongue and WORDS. And you can use those WORDS as a sword to break his hold.

So, how do we give him a right to illegal operations? By our words and agreeing with what he says through people, situations, battles, actions, images, you name it – he will try to use it. So, as things come up and reveal that we have been lied to about, manipulated, deceived, and believed or simply came into agreement with because it was by choice or sin or even in ignorance, you have to repent for it. And it needs to be true repentance and then make the change. Allow the Light of the Truth to travel down the bloodline and reveal any operations of the enemy in there that are allowed to be revealed.

As you address these things with your blood in the courtroom, you should start to see things manifest in your life; even small things will begin to add to big things. And you can do it as much as the Holy Spirit leads you to do it.

Allow the Holy Spirit to bring more revelation on having your blood in the Courtroom of Heaven. There was so much more, but we are going to transition next week, and a few after that, prepare yourself to receive and experience the most powerful testimony and blood of all, which is the blood and testimony of Jesus Christ. pg 15
