Navaratri Festival of the Goddess

Fierce Grace

Fierce Grace

Divine Liberating Fire

Navaratri is an ancient bi-annual Goddess festival held in Spring and Fall. It celebrates the inevitable defeat of darkness and dullness, ignorance and pain by the vastness of Divine love and wisdom. In the wonderfully evocative way of the Sages of India, there are stories to delight our hearts and inspire us in our own lives, to bring forth victory of the soul over ego, love over fear. We celebrate the Jaia - victory of wisdom over ignorance and delusion.

Each day during Navaratri there will be sessions where we can be together online and there will be opportunities for puja and community over two weekends. Come to what you can, and sessions will be recorded if you would like to catch any of them later.

This divinely inspired program is open to all, you can expect powerful sacred energy and blessings, discourses and meditations, sacred music and lots of openhearted bliss. These priceless experiences are offered by donation to help our community embody the spirit of giving and loving and sharing.
