THE LIGHTMAKER OF AUSCHWITZ

NAPHTALI BREZNAK

When Moshe steps off the train at Auschwitz, everything changes.

Knowing he must avoid being assigned to Auschwitz's manual labor detail if he wants to survive, Moshe gives away the very last of his possessions in return for a job as an electrician.

His new position affords him liberties few others are granted, but with opportunity comes danger. And Moshe's quest to bring light to Auschwitz, all while struggling every day to survive, might prove to be an impossible quest.

NEW

THE GERMAN DRESSMAKER

SUSAN SHALEV

Lily falls head over heels in love with Heinrich, a charming major in Hitler's Wehrmacht. Their love affair quickly blossoms into a beautiful romance, but Heinrich has a secret – one that, if revealed, would put his life in grave danger. And now Lily's, too.

As darkness takes over and secrets become harder to keep, the lovers are forced apart, lost to each other in a war-torn world. Devastated and alone, Lily is left to pick up the pieces of her life... the needle and thread in her hands the only comfort for her broken heart.

THE GIRL FROM SAN-DANIELE

ILAN BAHAR

A lone Jewish girl in occupied Italy, Liliana finds refuge in the most unlikely of places – a village abbey. Its promise of safety is enticing, but the price of a peaceful life might be too much to bear. It is there she will learn the true meaning of faith, and what is more important – the sanctity of life, or the promise we make to the dead?

THE SECRET JEWISH SISTERS

TIKVA RAGER

As the Nazi Party rises to power, sisters Rita and Suzie are sent to live in a small abbey outside Antwerp under the guise of two Christian orphans. But before he leaves, their father entrusts Rita with a task that will forever change her life...

Rita is left in charge not only of her sister — but of the secret of their Jewish identities. While Suzie is quick to embrace the abbey's Christian upbringing, Rita remains haunted by the secret that could spell only heartbreak and pain for them both.

AFTER THE DARKEST HOUR

YECHESKEL RUBIN

After losing her husband and son to the German labor camps of World War II, Maria Zaneski's only consolation from the horrors of war is her youngest daughter, Anna.

After years in exile, Olek Rabinovitch returns home to Poland in search of family members who may have survived the war. He takes up residence in Maria's rental apartment, where he and Anna quickly develop a unique partnership. But Olek's homecoming has a darker, secret reason. One he cannot risk sharing with anyone—not even with Anna.

THE CHILDREN'S NURSE

EHUD REGEV

Merie watches as bombs fall on the once-peaceful streets of Warsaw. Her husband pleads with her to flee with him, but Merie refuses to leave her patients, Warsaw's injured and orphaned children.

However, when the occupation of Warsaw is complete Merie has no choice but to follow her husband. Merie experiences extreme poverty and grief but also unbelievable acts of kindness, discovering strength she never knew she had. Will it be enough for her and her children to not only survive the war – but to heal?

A CHILD WITHOUT A SHADOW

PROF. SHAUL HAREL

The moving story of Professor Shaul Harel's life from darkness to light, from Holocaust survivor to world expert in pediatric neurology and child development. This book reveals his story, from his time as a child in the Holocaust, through his immigration to Israel, the choice to study medicine, and finally the mark he has made in the field of pediatric neurology and child development in Israel and in the world.

THE OFFICER OF DACHAU

DORIT JOURNO

Twenty-year-old nurse Ilse spends most of her time dutifully tending to the sick and injured. When she first meets the striking Johan Kirche, she is immediately captivated. But as their courtship ensues, something begins to change behind his once beautiful blue eyes...

When she discovers Johan is a brutal SS officer, Ilse ends their relationship. But as the Nazi party sweeps through Germany, Ilse's past comes knocking on her family's door – and their future will be forever changed.

THE SILENCE AFTER THE STORM

ALIZA KLEBANOV FLORENTHAL

The heavy wooden doors slam shut as Frieda steps inside the local synagogue, where her community is ordered to gather by the pro-Nazi Lithuanian army. Though she is scared, Frieda still believes no harm will come to her family. Until the shots ring out.

Hundreds of miles away, completely unaware of the horrors enveloping their country, Frieda's sons face the dangers of war-torn Europe with only their ingenuity to keep them safe, as they long for the day they can finally reunite with their family.

ESCAPING BUDAPEST

EITAN POSNER HALEVY

When a drunken neighbor brings the ruthless Arrow Cross gendarme straight to their front door, the Levy family realizes their days in the city they once called home are numbered.

To increase their chances of survival, the stronghearted Miriam Levy and her husband Istvan decide to split from their daughter, Magda. While Istvan finds shelter at the Swiss Embassy, Miriam is caught by a Hungarian mob, and Magda fights with all she has to save her new husband's life.

THE WAR TWINS OF LONDON

DEB STRATAS

Identical twins Maggie and Tillie are thriving in 1940s London. Waitresses in one of the city's finest institutions and both with budding romances, the war could not feel farther away.

Then, the Blitz begins. And everything changes.

Nightly airstrikes wreak havoc on the city. Ambulance shifts for Tillie become desperate rescue missions, while the constant fear for the fates of their beloveds, far from home, is almost too much for the girls to bear.

And when tragedy strikes for both sisters, nothing will ever be the same again.

A BURNING LONDON SKY

DEB STRATAS

Identical twins Maggie and Tillie have each suffered loss and heartbreak, but their hardships are only just beginning.

Which is why, when Maggie is confronted with a choice, it is one of the hardest she will ever have to make: stay with her sister and family or leave them behind for a dangerous military role manning the anti-aircraft batteries protecting London's skies.

Though it pains her to leave, Maggie can't ignore her duty. But life as a war girl will put her bravery and resolve to the test every single day.

THE LAST BOY IN AUSCHWITZ

MOSHE BOMBERG

Moshe and his family flee their hometown of Warsaw in a desperate bid for survival as Nazi forces advance on the city. But when Moshe and his brother find themselves on a train bound for Auschwitz, they know their chances of getting through the war are better together.

Until a devastating accident leads the brothers to confront an impossible choice – stay together and perish, or part ways for the smallest chance to survive.

THE SURVIVOR FROM BLOCK 19

ARIE BLUMENFELD

Samuel is only sixteen when he enters the gates of Auschwitz-Birkenau. Forced deep inside the camp, he is marched past the smoking crematoriums, toward his future, toward his fate. Toward Block 19.

Block 19 will test his bravery and endurance in ways he could never have imagined. Even if he survives, will he ever heal from the deep scars of such darkness?

THE POLISH NURSE

LEAH MOYES

When Aleksandra is taken from school one day to join the infamous Lebensborn program – the German “voluntary reproduction” program, she knows her survival depends on keeping her true identity a secret.

Following a daring escape in a foreign land, Aleksandra takes a job as a nurse in the German city of Dresden. But just as she starts to think she might live to see the end of the war, her carefully crafted secret begins to unravel. If she ever wants to see her home and family again, she will have to risk it all – on her own.

THE AUSCHWITZ PHOTOGRAPH

JULIE TULBA

Samuel Weiss and Max von Hofmannsthal were best friends until the cruel antisemitism of Nazi Germany seeped into Berlin and tore their friendship apart. As Max rises in the ranks of the Nazi SS, Sam and his Jewish family struggle to survive the concentration camps, praying for the war to end.

And when Max and Sam's paths cross once again among the bleak barracks of Auschwitz-Birkenau, their fates will intertwine in ways neither of them could ever have expected.

MY DAUGHTER'S KEEPER

ADIVA GEFFEN

In the midst of World War II, a bond forms between Rachel and Irena, sisters not by blood but by a joint tragic fate. But as times become darker and more desperate, Rachel and Irena are forced to part. Through the hardships and the sufferings of the Holocaust, the two women must face hunger, fear, loss, and the most painful of goodbyes, never giving up hope of a happier future.

SURVIVING THE FOREST

ADIVA GEFFEN

Shurka was a happy woman who lived a fairytale life with her husband and their two children in their idyllic village in Poland. Or so they thought...

When WWII breaks out, their happiness comes to a brutal end. The family is forced to flee their home and escape into the dark forest, hoping to survive.

A SISTER'S VOW

ADIVA GEFFEN

As Nazi forces march through France, seventeen-year-old Jutta wakes one morning to find her sister, Sara, gone. With the urge for revenge burning in her veins, Jutta joins the French resistance, biding her time until she can bring her sister's tormentors to justice.

Jutta will endure anything to keep the vow she made to her sister. Even if it means giving up her own freedom. Even if it means forfeiting her life.

THE LIGHT THROUGH THE STORM

DR. MARGALIT GANOR

August, 1942. Dr. Leon Schmeltzer, his wife Donia, and their baby daughter attempt to flee Nazi-occupied Romania under the cover of darkness. They hastily board a small ship, leaving behind family, friends, and the only life they ever knew – But their path to freedom does not sail over smooth waters.

Even as endless waves threaten to drown what little hope they have, the desperate refugees find that the hatred in the hearts of men is more terrifying than any force of nature.

MY NAME IS VITTORIA

DAFNA VITALE BEN BASSAT

Vittoria Vitale was born into a noble Jewish family in the north of Italy in the very same year that Mussolini met his Jewish lover. With the onset of World War II, she is forced to gather her family and flee the country, making critical and life-changing decisions as she goes. Her life is quickly carried away by a swirl of atrocities, decisions, farewells and remorse that will scar Vittoria and her family forever.

BOYS OF COURAGE

AMOS BLAS

Kadish is barely more than a boy when war breaks out. Forced to grow up fast, he takes it upon himself to provide for his family in the ghetto – his helpless parents and younger cousin Robbie.

Until one night, Kadish disappears.

Years later, Robbie is now an old man. He's never known what happened to his hero after that terrifying day – until a phone call startles him in the middle of the night.

A stunning revelation unravels an incredible story that has waited decades to be told.

THE PARISIAN DANCER

DORON DARON

Paris, 1939. Helena is a talented dancer in Paris' bohemian quarter.

Her life is worlds apart from that of Marek and Annette, the young Jewish couple and their two little boys who live in the apartment above. Then, one day, Marek disappears. And everything changes.

Soon, Helena is vowing to keep and protect the boys as though they were her own. But as the Nazis strengthen their hold on the city, the beautiful dancer may not be enough to protect the boys, and herself, from what is to come.

THE BOY FROM BLOCK 66

LIMOR REGEV

Moshe steps off the train at Buchenwald concentration camp with several hundred other children. Having endured the horrors of Auschwitz-Birkenau, Moshe has seen more than his share of tragedy. At Buchenwald, Block 66 is to be Moshe's new home. But when just a short time later, the Germans decide to send the camp's inmates to their death, they are not prepared for Buchenwald's secret resistance, which rises up with one mission: to protect the camp's children from harm.

UNDERNEATH A CHANGING SKY

YARON RESHEF

When Syma decides to leave home and embark on an adventure in a strange land, she cannot imagine what will be. Daily life in Palestine is far from comfortable and the reality of living the Zionist dream while embarking on a love affair is agonizing. She chooses to leave everything behind and sails back home, to Poland. But when WWII breaks out and the situation in Europe goes from bad to worse, Syma will have to reevaluate her decisions.

LALECHKA

AMIRA KEIDAR

The book follows Lalechka, a little girl born into the chaos of war and Holocaust and forced to struggle with the reversals of fortune that lead her time and time again into foreign and terrifying regions. But, beyond that, it is the story of the true friendship between three girls in early 20th century Poland, a friendship that refuses to cower before government dictates. An astonishing manifestation of loyalty and courage.

SIBLINGS OF WAR

CHANOCHI ZAKS

September, 1939. The Zaks siblings leave their quiet Polish hometown, on the run from the Nazis. But their escape does not go unhindered; and as they are captured by invading German forces, their father's last command echoes in their minds: "Whatever you do, never, ever leave any one of your siblings behind."

Reunions and tragedies follow as the Zaks siblings witness the horrors of Auschwitz, Buchenwald, and Bergen-Belsen, with only each other to protect them from the greatest evils man has ever known.

THE KEEPER OF THE LAUGH

DANNY FROMCHENKO

Max cannot remember anything from his life before the concentration camp. All he is left with is a sickening, maniacal laugh that echoes in his head.

Alexandra Brecholdt seems adamant on taking Max into her care, but there is something she is too afraid to tell him. The secret of her fortune, her survival - and her son.

As Max's memories begin to unravel, he and Alexandra will learn the true meaning of courage, love, hope - and the ultimate secret behind the laugh.

THE BOY FROM THE FOREST

SHAY EFRAT

11-year-old Shmuel is startled awake by the sound of German planes over his hometown in western Ukraine. As the Nazi shadow begins to fall on their small Jewish community, Shmuel's parents smuggle their son away to a local farm where they think he will be safe. But danger quickly follows and Shmuel is forced to escape into the nearby forest. With nothing but birch trees and death to surround him, Shmuel must beg, cheat, and steal in order to survive.

RESISTANCE GIRL

HASSIA KNAANI

After her father and brother are brutally murdered at the height of World War II, 17-yearold Chaya and her mother are banished to the ghetto. Chaya manages to escape unseen and meets a young partisan man; his inspiring stories of heroics awaken a desire to join the fighting in the forest. Many fall victims to the long and hard months of fighting, but Chaya and Yehuda persevere and develop a deep emotional connection through the struggles. Will they survive the inferno and regain their lives?

RAKING LIGHT FROM ASHES

RELLI ROBINSON

When Relli was just a baby, the Nazis occupied Poland and she, together with her parents, was imprisoned in the Warsaw Ghetto, a final station before death. This is the amazing story of Relli Robinson, who, thanks to kindhearted, courageous people and a tenacious capacity for survival, was able to endure the most difficult times in the history of humankind. An orphan girl, she was the sole survivor of her entire family.

THE NEIGHBOR FROM BERGEN BELSEN

YAAKOV BARZILAI

11-year-old Yaakov and his family are forced out of their home into the unknown. They find themselves in the ghetto, living under impossible conditions, until they are banished by the Nazis to Bergen Belsen concentration camp, to what might be their final destination. A unique story about the unyielding love of a mother, about faith in God, and the naïve perspective of a child in the most challenging of times.

But when a seemingly routine assignment to seize control of a vessel takes a dangerous turn, Cooper finds himself trapped between a terrorist cell and the cold waters of the Mediterranean Sea.

Outnumbered, Cooper and his team must fight to overcome their attackers. Based on the true events of the Mavi Marmara flotilla raid, this fictional book weaves a thrilling story of action, suspense, and military and political intrigue.

THE HOLY GRAIL CODE

EHUD PELED

When a freak plane crash leaves five people dead without explanation, veteran investigative journalist Ilana Perez jumps on the case.

Five anonymous graves, a DNA test, and a blood-red trail lead Perez and her team to the best kept secret in history. Surrounded by intelligence officers, high-ranking clergymen, and unprecedented political powers, Perez and her team slowly learn that some secrets are better left undisturbed.

THE BLISS CONSPIRACY

EHUD PELED

When an unconscious woman appears on the doorstep of his isolated woodland cabin, Amen doesn't know what to address first: her striking good looks, the gun in her hand, or her unbelievable story of betrayal, and murder – with its epicenter rooted in a secret messianic council led by the Vatican. Soon, Amen and Osnat are caught in a conspiracy that connects the three major monotheistic religions – with a cataclysmic conclusion in the heart of Jerusalem, the holiest city in the world.

TERMINAL CHASE

EHUD PELED

After receiving a devastating diagnosis of cancer in his early thirties, Emil Dreyfus drowns his sorrows in a blissful night with Jenny, a beautiful woman he meets in a bar.

But when Jenny is found dead the following day, Emil finds himself at the very center of a nationwide conspiracy. Soon, he is trapped in a loop of drug smugglers, rogue agents, and high stakes call girls, all leading in one direction: the President of the United States.

RESISTANTS

EHUD PELED

Behind sealed files and locked doors, a team of scientists is working on a radical solution to bring humanity to the next step of its evolutionary potential.

Itamar is an up-and-coming lawyer in a small-time firm. His wishes to stand out from the pack are seemingly granted when he gets a new client in the form of Dafna - a young woman with an incredible story of injustice, conspiracy, and murder.

AN EYE FOR MURDER

DR. MARTIN SHERWOOD

Professor Lucy Efron is close to a breakthrough in the field of ophthalmology. Once her clinical trial has ended, her revolutionary eyedrops should render cataract surgery unnecessary. But the clinical trial is far from squeaky clean... and a series of unexplained and nearly unnoticed geriatric deaths catches the attention of medical student Milbert, who's not about to let anyone, especially those closest to him, lose their lives.

SURVIVING MY MOTHER

DEBBIE MATZKIN

Since she was a little girl, Debbie Matzkin lived a double life. In one, she was the pampered only child of a European-born aristocratic family. In the other, she was living in the shadow of her violent, abusive mother.

Surviving My Mother is the candid story of a woman's quest to survive, a mother's quest to heal, and a daughter's quest to forgive. Debbie Matzkin shares the lifesaving lessons she learned about life and finding happiness in the darkest of depths.

INSIDE THE ROOM WHERE IT HAPPENS

YONA BARTAL

Yona Bartal's long and exciting career as deputy director of the Israeli President's Office has made her a fly on the wall of some of the most politically charged rooms in the world – the oval office, the Russian Kremlin, even the Vatican's inner chambers.

Bartal recounts and exposes meetings and events that helped shape the Middle East, giving readers a rare glimpse into global diplomacy in action: from historic peace talks with foreign powers to forging friendships with Bono and Madonna over drinks.

LOVING THOSE PAINFUL PARENTS

ESTHER PELLED

Loving Those Painful Parents is a collection of memoirs written by five Israeli women. They all fit the definition – which did not exist during their childhood – of “second-generation Holocaust survivors.”

Together, the five women recount their childhood experiences in the homes of parents who “came from there” – a concise yet loaded term used in Israel since the 1960s denoting Holocaust survivors who built their homes in Israel. The book attempts to explore the life experience of their daughters, who hadn’t “been there,” but whose parents’ traumas are inside them.

PROF. RAFI ELDOR

Professor Rafi Eldor was diagnosed with Parkinson's disease in 2008. Despite the rapid deterioration, Rafi chose to fight. In his uniquely optimistic memoir, Prof. Eldor describes his seemingly impossible transformation, in both body and mind. He shares how the discovery and practice of ballroom dancing helped him not only delay the progression of Parkinson's' most prominent symptoms, but also develop muscle strength, improve coordination, and provide him with overall quality of life.

PASSERBY by GILAD SEGEV

A collection of inspiring quotes accompanied by stunning photographs exhibiting amazing landscapes from locations all over the world. Passerby is a multi-cultural platform designed to incorporate music, visuals, sounds, ideas, people, and places. It stands for music without borders, shared creativity, cultural generosity, and self-expression.

The Passerby (AKA Gilad Segev) is a traveling artist who tells the stories of his encounters with people from different cultures through music, video, and visual content. His positive inspiration and creation are shaped by the stories, lifestyles, authenticity, and dominant memories and traits of the many places he has visited.

Gilad Segev is an esteemed Israeli singer-songwriter, musician, journalist, and author. Gilad has toured and performed all over the world in front of thousands of people and recently established “Passerby”, a content-based social platform aiming to enhance unheard voices and promote musical cultures and communities.

“This book is a gift to the world.”
 “Extraordinary, absolutely beautiful.”
 “A new and unique concept.”
