2026: A YEAR DESIGNED TO TRAVEL (EXTRAORDINARY)

There is a certain clarity that comes with looking ahead. Planning travel not as a single escape, but as a thoughtful expression of how you wish to spend your time, restore your energy, and mark meaningful moments.

2026 invites this kind of intention. With continued demand for considered experiences, limited-access accommodations, and journeys designed around wellbeing and depth, those who plan early enjoy greater choice, ease, and refinement.

This lookbook offers a curated view of the year ahead. Not a checklist, but a collection of destinations, themes, and journeys we believe are especially well-suited to thoughtful planning and elegant travel in 2026.

“TRAVEL, WHEN CHOSEN WITH CARE, BECOMES A WAY OF LIVING WELL.”

"THE ART OF TRAVEL IS KNOWING WHEN TO GO."

THE YEAR AT A GLANCE

Winter – A season for warmth, celebration, and restoration. Winter travel invites contrast: sunlit shores, soulful cities, and places where the pace naturally softens.

Spring – Renewal and balance. Longer days, fresh landscapes, and ideal conditions for cultural exploration and outdoor immersion.

Summer – Time well spent. Grand journeys, family travel, and destinations that reward unhurried exploration.

Fall – Depth and distinction. Harvest seasons, quieter cities, and an effortless sense of place.
