Hello, everyone!

Fall production season is sneaking up fast and we are excited to introduce 20+ new items to our fall 2026 catalog. Some of the new pieces include a new 32" FALL word sign. There has been a very strong demand for our large word signs. Additional new pieces include a couple cute new highland cows, door hangers, and small decorative items for your customers to personalize their selections. Also, check out the collapsible barrel rings available in three colors and two sizes, which will be easier to ship and store. We are excited to hear what you think about these ideas. We believe these new additions will make it easier than ever to bring your customers back to see what's new.

We love feedback! What do you think the next trend looks like? Are there items you would like us to make for you? Call me to discuss your ideas and suggestions; we always do our best to accommodate your requests.

Thank you to those of you who placed your Spring orders early. By continuing this trend with the Fall catalog, we can significantly improve production time for our very popular winter/Christmas season.

ATTENTION: Fall orders will not be guaranteed if received after July 31, 2026.
