Regional Director

Dear Sorors and Guests,

Welcome to the 2023 Delta Authors on Tour hosted by the Oklahoma City Alumnae Chapter in the Charismatic and Courageous Central Region. The Central Region is honored to showcase eight authors from various genres to include children, women, romance, religious, self-help, and poetry.

Donna Pendleton will teach us the value of friendship. Tonia Renee Lee will bring words to life as we live to inspire not to be bound by negative influences. Honorary Member Daphne Maxwell Reid and Sandra Mathis have the recipes for passion, living, and love. Taliah Buford will affirm that it is okay to be single yesterday, today, and tomorrow marriage does not define us. Jamille Hunter will show us how to overcome obstacles and find our voice, and Dr. Ketra Davenport-King will teach us how to see beyond shattered glass. Lastly, LaNessa Jackson discusses why we should not try GOD. God is not on a point system.

As you can see, the Central Region is blessed to have a rich variety of strong, brilliant authors from various regions. Thank you to the Oklahoma City Alumnae Chapter members for your steadfast commitment to doing the work of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Incorporated, and your impact on the Oklahoma community.

Special thanks to Chapter President Angela W. Rogers and Delta Authors on Tour Chairpersons Nicole Mitchell, Diane Wood, Felisha Anderson Fox, and everyone involved in making this a charismatic and courageous event.

Sincerely,

Oklahoma City Alumnae Arts & Letters Chairs

Diane M. Wood

The Oklahoma City Alumnae Chapter is excited to host the third stop of the 2023 Delta Authors on Tour. As chair and co-chair of this illustrious affair we are excited and honored to represent the Charismatic and Courageous Central Region.

Our chapter is happy to welcome these authors to Oklahoma City, located in the middle of Oklahoma. Our state has a rich history of accomplishments: 50 established all black towns between 1856 and 1920, the home to author Ralph Ellison, jazz musician Charlie Christian, Civil Rights activist Clara Luper the architect of one of the country's first sit-in movement, Black Wall Street located in Tulsa, and Bessie Coleman the world's first licensed Black pilot, just to name a few. We are thrilled to welcome these accomplished authors to our state in the Central Region.

Arts and Letters Committees in our region have promoted the art form of literature with active book clubs reviewing Delta authored books, promoted poetry events, donations of books to preschool and elementary schools, and many more activities highlighting Delta authors.

For the 2023 Delta Authors on Tour, we have chosen eight dynamic, dazzling, and distinguished authors who personify our theme, "A Red Reading Affair In Oklahoma." Attendees will have a wide-ranging choice of genres, with choices for everyone who attends: Children's Self-Help, Self-Help Non-Fiction, Religious Nonfiction, Cookbooks, Young Adult Fiction and Women's Fiction.

Our mission for this event is to support and promote these authors work through book sales. We are inviting you to purchase the author's books listed in this order guide. During this two-day event, there will be entertainment, you will have the opportunity to hear about the author's inspiration for writing, meet them in person, purchase their books and get them personally

Dr. Ketra L. Davenport-King

Douglas "Ed" Harrington, the Senior Pastor of Shekinah Holy Temple Church, has decided to step down and retire after thirty years. Now, he must choose between his three children to become his successor. The two obvious choices, William and Constance, are lost for words when they learn that Pastor Harrington has chosen Douglas, the least expected one.

Douglas and his wife are faced with making a life-changing decision that will change the trajectory of their lives forever. They have seven days to accept the offer or lose it. At the same time, William and Constance have seven days to convince their headstrong father that Douglas is not the one to become the next senior pastor. Their plot begins as they start digging for dirt on their brother. However, the two ambitious and undermining siblings don't realize someone in their midst knows their dirty little secrets.

Book Reviews

"This book was very satisfying, which I enjoyed. It showed behind the scenes of the modern-day church as it really is. The characters were believable, and the writing was captivating. I was Blessed to meet the Author."

- Lady G

"I completely enjoyed this read. It was not too wordy and addressed a lot of church-hurt issues that people face today and have been facing for years. It was great to see that the author did not hold back on the reality of these buried issues. My book club was blessed enough to meet with the author and found her to be just as intriguing as her book. Great Read"

- Destined Beautifies

THANK YOU!

Book Review

"Dr. Ketra's book ReveLAYtion was an amazing literary work that was thought-provoking, challenging, and healing. It dove into the realities of many of our church experiences. Her book exposed evils that are hidden every day. Dr. Ketra was able to use the characters, and the plot to bring the stories Christ preached to life. She teaches us the importance of truth and forgiveness, and how secrets can kill. This book was life-changing for me, and I believe anyone that reads it will also be changed forever. --"
