CURAÇAO

Curaçao, a pearl in the Caribbean Sea, is not only known for its breathtaking beaches and crystal-clear waters, but also offers a rich history and vibrant culture that captivates visitors time and time again.

Curaçao is part of the Kingdom of the Netherlands, which creates a special connection with the Netherlands. In the bustling capital, Willemstad—a UNESCO World Heritage Site—colorful Dutch colonial architecture blends beautifully with lively Caribbean culture. The city is famed for its iconic Queen Emma Bridge (Pontoon Bridge), which connects the historic districts of Punda and Otrobanda.

In addition to exploring historical treasures, Curaçao offers activities for both adventurers and those seeking relaxation. From diving and snorkeling in crystal-clear waters to hiking in nature reserves like Christoffel Park. What's more, the island boasts an impressive variety of places to eat and drink—from trendy beach bars and upscale restaurants to local eateries and cozy patios. But what truly sets Curaçao apart is the warm hospitality of its people.

i The climate on Curaçao is tropical and warm, with temperatures around 30 degrees Celsius (86°F). Keep this in mind when planning your activities! Make sure to apply sunscreen regularly, wear a hat, and stay well hydrated.

HÒFI MANGO CURAÇAO

HÒFI MANGO PARK: A GREEN PARADISE ON CURAÇAO

Experience the nature of Curaçao! Located in the lush Bandabou region on the island's green western tip, this beautiful historical plantation is a true gem. Stroll through the colorful palm and cactus gardens, home to countless species. In the yellow sugar mill, sugarcane was once processed to produce rum in our on-site distillery. Walk along wooden pathways and bridges through the stunning, centuries-old mango forest.

Climb the "Stairway to Heaven" to the artwork "The Hand of God." You'll be amazed by the breathtaking view over Hofi Mango, with a clear sight of Christoffel Mountain — the highest peak on Curaçao.

Be sure to take lots of photos of these unforgettable Caribbean impressions. And of course, end your visit with a delicious Mango Li (ice cream) or a mango cocktail on our cozy terrace, where you can also enjoy a tasty lunch featuring local dishes.

The drive to Hofi Mango takes you through Bandabou, the green part of the island full of nature. In this hilly landscape, you'll pass through small villages and find plenty of spots to stop for a bite or a drink. From Willemstad, it's just over a 30-minute drive (36 km).
