We Keep You in Our Hearts

Elizabeth Faso (1937 - March 2022)

We celebrate the joy, love, and the impact that Liz had on those of us who were lucky enough to know her. As a founding member of GDCTA, Liz's touch is still felt in the programs and processes of the club. Liz was such an important figure in the Georgia horse community and our hearts. She'll truly be missed.

GDCTA members share fond farewells. We hope these notes will provide some comfort to those of you most affected by her passing.

As time passes, she will remain cherished in our hearts, our laughter, and our memories. We can reminisce and reflect on the special relationship we had with her. The greatest testimony to Liz's memory is to make the most of our lives and love our families and horses!

If you desire, you can leave a sympathy message to the family on the memorial page of Elizabeth Kassner Faso to pay them a last tribute.

Our Fond Farewells

Liz was like my Horse Mom which was such a breath of fresh air for me as I did not grow up with a lot of support for my horse other than I had one; I had to fight to pursue showing and any opportunities. Liz Faso really encouraged me to approach the board and attend a meeting with my idea of bringing Lendon Gray's Atlanta Youth Festival to GDCTA. I was nervous, didn't know how it would pan out and had nothing but this idea. I hadn't really run a show, nor did I even own a Dressage Court. So, I asked the board if I could borrow one, and they voted yes, and while you're at it, why don't you run to be on the Board? Liz definitely thought I should run. Here we are 10 years later, hosting our 10th Annual D4k Atlanta Youth Festival.

Every time I would speak to Liz on the phone, she would talk forever. And about everything. So warm and personable. She was a big part of our horse show world and will be missed greatly.

~Liz Molloy

I'm very saddened by Liz Faso's passing. . . Liz always loved helping and being around the GDCTA. Always friendly and helpful to everyone! If you see or talk to Don or Allison, give them my regards.

~Suzanne Ashley

So sorry to hear about Liz. I haven't heard from her in a couple years. I enjoyed all the years I worked with her. She will truly be missed. Our deepest condolences.

~Teri [Vigeant, Market Street Promotions] and the Gang

I always enjoyed working shows with Liz. ❤️

~Deborah Odom Larkins

Always warm and welcoming. A great loss to the horse community.

~Peri Lambros

I am so very sad to hear about Liz Faso's passing. She was a tireless supporter of GDCTA and the first person I met on the phone so many years ago when we started our adventures hosting schooling shows.

Godspeed Liz. You were a light in the world.

~Sandra Carnet

I loved working at the shows with Liz. She's the one that brought me in and got me scribing. Such a wonderful lady. She will be missed ❤️.

~Susan Weldon

So very sorry... she was an Atlanta Equestrian staple.

~Laura Duhamel

Oh Allison, I'm so sorry. Your parents were some of my first horse friends in Atlanta.

~Susan Day

Allison, your mom will be volunteer coordinating the angels now! 😊. I am so sorry for your family because I know her absence will be felt deeply. Liz was a wonderful person inside and out and we are all lucky she touched our lives ❤️❤️.

~Julie Shannon

I am so sorry to hear this. I wish Allison Don, and the family comfort and peace. She was such a great mentor with GDCTA and was so kind to me when I was helping out with some of the shows. I always loved her sense of humor and slight air of good-natured mischief. What a bright light she was in the world. She will be greatly missed.

~Jennifer Johnson

Oh, so sorry! Liz was such a great person, she taught me the ropes when I started volunteering for GDCTA.

~Suellen H. Slockbower

So very sorry to hear of Liz's passing and Betty's. What a fitting tribute [renaming the Volunteer of the Year Program] to a wonderful woman. Condolences to those families and helping prayers for Lacey ❤️.

~Lynn Coleman

Agree, Liz was awesome, and she will be very much missed. The tribute and corresponding [Volunteer of the Year] award being named after her is absolutely appropriate. Prayers to Don, Allison, and her family.

~Jody Langton

So very sorry to hear.

USEF UKRAINE RELIEF FUND

USEF Establishes the USEF Ukraine Relief Fund to Support Ukraine Horses and Equestrians

Lexington, Ky. - US Equestrian will be joining the FEI in their recently announced efforts to provide support to the equestrian community of Ukraine by establishing the USEF Ukraine Relief Fund. One-hundred percent of funds collected will go to the FEI solidarity relief fund and directly to those in need of support. The FEI is liaising closely with the Ukrainian Equestrian Federation (UEF) and neighboring countries to facilitate support. The USEF Board of Directors has committed to allocating additional relief funding.

The UEF reports "Horse owners, riding schools, athletes, breeders, and professionals are in desperate conditions without any resources of saving their horses. By making a donation or offering help, you will provide the Ukrainian equestrian community a hope for a better future and save lives of the Ukrainians and their loved ones."

USEF President Tom O'Mara reinforced the importance of the Ukraine relief effort, stating, "The U.S. equestrian community always comes together to help fellow equestrians and horses in need. The acts of war in the Ukraine require all of us to join in supporting human and horse welfare in the areas impacted however we can. We will work closely with FEI to ensure all funds contributed are distributed to those who need it most."

To make a tax deductible donation please visit the USEF Ukraine Relief Fund Donation and help horses page or send a check to USEF Memo: USEF Ukraine Relief Fund.

HI, I'M LISA!

Horses have been a part of my life since I was a little girl. Just like you, I fully understand what it's like to be "that horse person". Once you're in the horse world, it's hard to leave. They aren't just animals, they are family.

As equestrians, we have dedicated so much time to this lifestyle. From the riders who enjoy trail riding to the ones competing every weekend, the love we have for our four legged partner connects us all. Memories only last so long in your head. Allow me to pause that moment for you and create artwork that will allow you to physically hold that memory in your hand. It is why I love photography.

Contact me today, so I can tell your story!

- Volunteers, (Caren): Liz Faso Memorial Volunteer of the Year - This would be special because there would not be a GDCTA if it were not for Liz. Caren motioned that we do a perpetual trophy to go with the award and grant. Julie seconded the motion. Discussion about the type of trophy it should be. Board voted and passed the motion.

- Show Committee, (Julie): First show at Wills Park is coming up soon. The Volunteer of the Year incentive program announcement is really helping to get volunteers. Jen is working on finding people to pay to set up arenas. Judges are set and we are starting to get entries.

- Youth Program, (Joanne): Nothing to report

- Awards, (Janie): Nothing for grants right now.

Discussion about who will be involved in selecting the new grants and the criteria that will be allowed when selecting grant recipients. Discussion about who should be a part of the committee and that Janie's grant committee being involved in all grants.

- Education, (Julie): Judge programs discussion. Next clinic will be the Jeremy Steinburg clinic and we have more submitted than he can do. Discussion about how to draw the 12 slots to ride with him and our additional clinics.
