

I BELIEVE IN LOVE

VILLY KLEPPE

PREFACE

A background image showing two hands, one from the top right and one from the bottom left, gently holding a bright red heart. The hands are rendered in a dark, almost black, silhouette style against a dark grey background. The heart is the central focus, glowing with a soft light.

Some songs are loud.

Some songs try to impress.

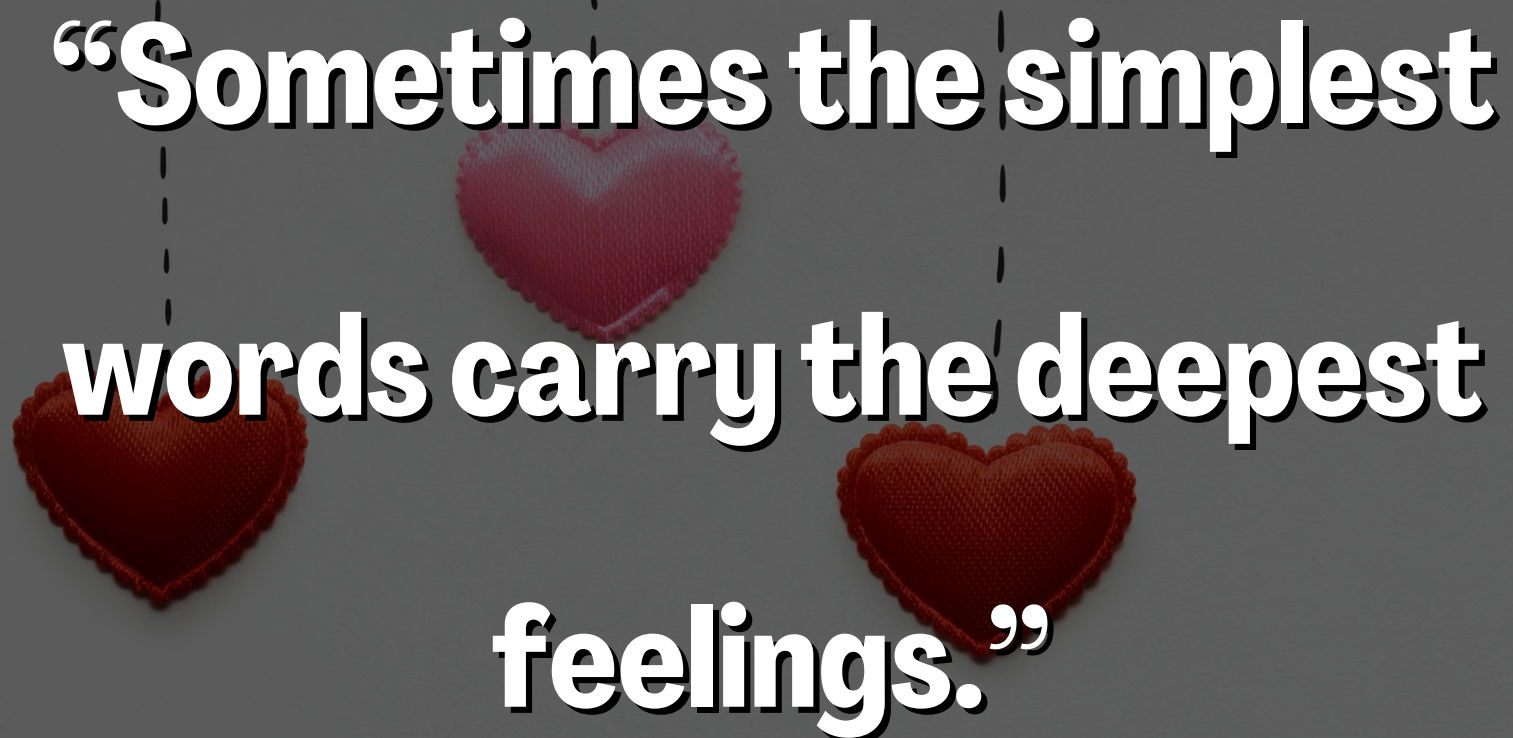

And then there are songs like I Believe In Love.

A song built on something simple, honest and human.

This song is about holding onto hope, even after disappointment. About choosing connection in a world that sometimes feels disconnected. About believing that love still matters. Not perfect love. Real love.

I Believe In Love is a reminder that even in uncertain times, warmth still exists. Hope still exists. And love is still something worth believing in.
