The Kimisis Tis Theotokou Greek Orthodox Church Monthly Bulletin

Monastery of St. Gerasimos of Kefalonia, in Kefalonia, Greece
Celebrates every October 20th

About St. Gerasimos

On October 20 we celebrate St. Gerasimos of Kefalonia. St. Gerasimos is a wonder-working saint whose relics have remained incorrupt for nearly 500 years after his falling asleep! His relics are on the island of Kefalonia, on the western shore of Greece, where he founded a women's monastery.

St. Paisios of Mount Athos said that God has given the Orthodox the incorrupt relics of three saints to these islands – St. Spyridon on Corfu, St. Dionysios on Zakynthos, and St. Gerasimos on Kefalonia – as a dam to protect the Orthodox from conversion to Roman Catholicism (since these islands lay between Greece and Italy).

St. Gerasimos was a great ascetic who lived on Mt. Athos, in the Holy Land, and in various places in Greece, before settling on Kefalonia. His most characteristic saying, which is inscribed on many of his icons, was: "Children, live in peace and do not be arrogant."

St. Phanourios

A patron saint of helping us to find lost items.

A Reflection by Silouani (Silvia) Kazas

Intro note by Fr. Theodosios Palis: One day after the Divine Liturgy, I spoke with Silouani Kazas about the intercessions of St. Phanourios in our lives and she shared a miracle connected with a sermon about how we respond to trials in our lives, whether big or small. I asked her to write up her experience so I could share it with our parish.

On June 17th we left on a direct flight from Toronto to Athens. I was the only one in our family that needed to check my luggage. We arrived safely in Athens on June 18th. We couldn't wait to see Elena, our daughter, who had been in Greece since January 5th.

We quickly headed to the baggage carousel to retrieve my bag. There was a crowd of people everywhere as you can imagine. George & Elias looked for my luggage while I stayed off to the side with the rest of the carry-on bags & backpacks.

After almost 1 hour had passed my luggage was nowhere to be found. It became obvious my bag was lost. I started to think of the few items I had in there that could not be replaced. I was a little frustrated with myself for not marking the luggage better, however, I did not get angry with anyone else.

I took a deep breath, and immediately started to pray to Saint Phanourios, for my luggage to be found. As George went to file a missing baggage report he noticed a suitcase just like mine by the side of the counter, the only difference was that this one had a large lock. George and the airport representative figured that person must have grabbed my bag, thinking it was theirs.

I remained calm & continued to pray. I promised Saint Phanourios that I would bake a fanouropita cake once it was found. I believed it would be found.

The next day we left Athens and headed to our cousin Gina's beach house in Halkidiki, which is about 4 ½ hours north of Athens and 30 minutes outside of Thessaloniki.

Upon our arrival we went to the beach. As we were relaxing from our past few days of travel and lost luggage drama, George got the call that my luggage was returned by the person who mistakenly thought it was his. I did my cross, thanking St. Phanourios! We were all so happy.

5 days later we returned to Athens. My suitcase was there untouched at the home of our family in Vrillissia. Our other cousin Youli & I made the St. Phanourios cake that night as promised.

The next day, we walked to their neighborhood Church of the Holy 12 Apostles for the vespers services & had the blessing of the phanouropita cake. We then handed out a piece to each of the faithful parishioners who were in attendance.

The first Sunday we returned to our Church was July 21st. I was listening to Father Theodosios' sermon (on 4th Sunday of Matthew) and towards the end, he mentioned situations that happen to people all the time, and he said that you have a choice in how you would react. Father gave examples of losing luggage, or someone cutting you off in traffic, or being late for something or something just happening that's not good and the question is: What is our response? Is it anger? Is it hate, retribution, or jealousy?

Are we OK with these things that happen and having these types of reactions? Or do we desire faith and trust in Christ?

Do we want our faith and love to increase through prayer, obedience and patience?

Sometimes you just do the right thing without realizing it. That is Christ working through you. In Luke 16:10 the Bible says, "If you are faithful in little things, you will be faithful in large ones". By practicing the virtues of prayer, obedience and patience daily, we are able to go through more trying situations.

Back home, I made a point to attend services for the Feast of St. Phanourios on August 27th. It was a beautiful service, and Sophie Gregory's phanouropita cake was delicious!

God willing, I will continue to attend every year.

Thank you, St. Phanourios!

Fanouropita

24cm springform

Ingredients

- 6 g baking soda, 1 tsp
- 250 mL orange juice, strained, see notes¹
- 150 mL water, at room temperature
- 200 mL extra virgin olive oil
- 3 g ground cinnamon, 1 tsp
- 2/3 tsp lemon or orange zest
- 105 g caster sugar
- 380 g plain flour, sifted
- 55 g raisins
- 100 g walnuts, coarsely chopped
- icing sugar, for garnish

Method

The method followed is the same as what is outlined below, but instead a 24cm diameter springform is used and the baking time required is a bit less, 55min.

Notes

1. As an indication I needed 3 small oranges but that may vary depending on the juiciness of oranges used.
2. If the baking dish you use is smaller in diameter, then the cake may need more time and it will crack more, so keep that in mind. 3

“The good we do today becomes the happiness of tomorrow.” Anonymous

The celebration of Father Theodosios’s second anniversary was amazing. Our parish came together to honor our spiritual leader. Our team worked tirelessly to prepare for this celebration.

Thank you to the following donors for their monetary/food donations:

- Chris and Betty Gabor
- Kimisis Parish Council
- Irene Kaffenes
- Fifi McCracken
- Kathy Neophytou
- Parishioners who donated desserts/covered dishes
- Kay and Gary Rygielski
- Roda Williams
- Kalliope Roros

Special thank you to Manoli Palis for helping the committee set-up the hall. Welcome to our new members, Fifi McCracken and Daniel Perez. They are an asset to our committee.

Kimisis Tis Theotokou and St Elijah Service & Outreach continue to provide monthly meals to 90 senior citizens at Sheffield Towers, Eleanor Roosevelt Apartments and Valley Terrace. While we are handing the meal to the residents, the volunteers hear “God bless you” again and again. In November, we are planning to cook extra Thanksgiving meals to deliver to the shut-ins of Kimisis and St. Elijah churches.

Service & Outreach Committee

Packaging the weekend meals for the Aliquippa Elementary school began on September 25. The volunteers are not only from the Orthodox churches but the Lutheran church as well. Nine hundred fifty (950) meals are packaged a month. Whoever wants to help package can help one time or many times . . . there is no long term commitment. Believe it or not, the meals are packaged in one hour each time. We get to know our Serbian brothers and sisters, as well as, our neighboring Lutheran brothers and sisters better. The food is donated by the Darrel Revis Foundation. You may not know this, but many children do not eat on the weekends. During the school year, breakfast and lunch are provided by the school. At home, there is no food. Some parents/guardians sell the food stamps to get cash to spend on other things, such as alcohol.

Starting September 22, we are collecting boys/girls underclothes for the elementary school from sizes 4-12. A gray bin will be in the small hall on the table on your right.

November 10 is a special Sunday. This is the Sunday we will be honoring parishioners who are 90+ years old and our veterans. Please refer to flyers in this bulletin. If you wish to help in any way, contact Kalliope Roros at 724-378-4093.

The Service & Outreach Committee is in need of funds. A gift card from Aldi's, Giant Eagle, Walmart or Kuhn's in any amount will be greatly appreciated, if you are able. Contact Fr. Theodosios or Kalliope Roros.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

The Order of AHEPA, founded in 1922, and the Daughters of Penelope, founded in 1929, share a common mission to promote Hellenism, Education, Philanthropy, Civic Responsibility, Family and Individual Excellence.

Throughout the span of its history, these organizations have served as a vital vehicle for the progressive development and emergence of many American citizens of Greek heritage into every facet of society: government, business, education, and the arts. This fulfillment illustrates the promise of the American Dream and symbolizes the hard work ethic of our immigrant forbearers who labored to achieve that dream with the principles of Hellenism rooted deep in their hearts. They also provide scholarships and educate their members through seminars and conferences.

Over their many years of existence, Philanthropy and Volunteerism have been pillars for both AHEPA and the Daughters of Penelope. From natural disaster relief, to raising funds to eliminate life threatening diseases, to making significant contributions to our local municipalities, they are there to help.

It is also their civic responsibility to provide affordable housing to senior citizens. The AHEPA Housing Corporation has been awarded over $400 million from the Department of Housing and Urban Development. The total number of senior housing complexes stands at 91, with 4,753 units complete, and more in development.

We are asking for your support through sponsorship of our Golf Outing at Beaver Valley Golf Club on October 26, 2024. With your generosity, these organizations can continue their mission and provide help and support to those in need.
