AREA OVERVIEW

NORTHWEST CHEYENNE

Located in the rapidly growing northwest Cheyenne area, these lots offer exceptional development opportunities with unparalleled access and visibility off Interstate 25. Positioned at opposing corners on Horse Creek Road and I-25, these properties are ideally suited for a large service station, retail center, or multiple quick-service restaurants.

As two of the most recent available corners off I-25 in Cheyenne, these locations benefit from high traffic flow and proximity to key regional hubs. Traffic data from 2023 underscores the area's high visibility, with an average daily count of 11,234 vehicles between Exit 11 and the Central Avenue Exit, 7,475 vehicles at the Pershing Exit, and 8,277 vehicles at the Lincolnway Exit. Additionally, the lots are just 8.2 miles north of F.E. Warren Air Force Base, 16.5 miles from the Colorado border, and 55 miles west of the Nebraska border. They're also 55 miles east of Laramie, 64 miles south of Wheatland, 93 miles south of Scottsbluff, Nebraska, and 107 miles north of Denver.

North Cheyenne is experiencing significant expansion, with increasing residential and commercial growth making this area a hotspot for future development. Take advantage of this prime location and its potential to anchor a thriving business in a fast-growing market.

WHY CHEYENNE?

Wyoming's capital city conjures up romantic images of the Old West – cowboys, rodeos, railroads and the majestic High Plains. Just 100 miles north of Denver, Colorado, Cheyenne invites travelers to step back into time when Wild Bill Hickok and Calamity Jane tore through the streets.

F.E. Warren Air Force Base is the oldest and continuously active military installation within the Air Force and is one of three strategic missile bases in the US.

Cheyenne Regional Airport is a 40-minute flight to Denver and just 3 miles from I-25.

Cost of living is 5 percent lower than the US average (due to the availability of land, and no personal income tax).

Cheyenne Frontier Days has become one of the world's largest and most authentic rodeo events, attracting top professionals who compete for over $1 million in cash and prizes. The week-long celebration in July includes rodeo action, tours, trick riding, cultural exhibits, and various frontier-themed activities, making it a comprehensive and iconic event.

- The legend of Cheyenne exists in the past, but today's Cheyenne is writing a new story with a diverse music scene, public works of art, museums and a variety of dining and local craft beverage creations.
- The Wyoming Business Council and the community colleges partner to target and develop employment training programs to meet the specific needs of businesses and industries.
- Cheyenne is the capital and most populous city in Wyoming, as well as the county seat of Laramie County (population 100,512).
