

Community Profile

BITPN is more than just a network—it is a movement of professionals who believe in unity, collaboration, and mutual growth.

Introduction

The world is moving at lightning speed with technology, and the driving force behind this revolution is tech-savvy people. In Bangladesh, we are also making strides in IT and IT-enabled services (ITES), led by passionate and skilled professionals.

But one challenge remains: we are not united. Too often, we work in silos, pursuing our own thoughts and projects, without the collective strength of community. If we join hands, share ideas, exchange knowledge, and support each other, it can become a game changer—for ourselves, for our industry, and for our nation.

Bangladeshi IT professionals are highly productive and talented, but our presence on the global stage is still limited compared to our neighbouring countries. To bridge this gap, we must unite under one network.

With this vision, the Bangladesh IT Professionals Network (BITPN) was founded.
