CHALLENGE ROUTE

HIGHLIGHTS

Starting our rally from the historic city of Bucharest, we spend our first four days exploring the mountain passes and forest roads of Romania, including a loop around the beautiful Bălea Lake between Brasov and Cluj Napoca. We will spend a night in Timișoara, famous for its stunning Secessionist architecture and the mosaic-patterned Metropolitan Orthodox Cathedral before heading West to Bosnia Herzegovina, via the rugged landscapes of Serbia, staying overnight in the historic capital of Sarajevo.

The scenery changes dramatically in day five, as mountain roads and alpine forests make way for the sheltered harbours, sandy beaches, and quiet fishing villages of the Dalmatian coast. Our first overnight halt will be in Split, on the shores of the Adriatic Sea, followed by a day of driving across the moonlike terrain of the Dalmatian archipelago to the gorgeous port city of Rijeka, our stop for day six.

Route details may be subject to change.

On day eight we will experience the spectacular countryside of Slovenia as we journey through the Triglavski National Park and Lake Bled to our overnight stop in Ljubljana. Day nine will see us head North to Austria, via the city of Maribor and across the Central Eastern Alps for our night in Graz.

From Graz, we will head Northeast to Slovakia, passing through vineyards and the medieval castled ruins of the heavily forested Little Carpathian Mountains, pausing on day nine in the nation's capital, Bratislava.

Our final day will see us trace the Danube South from Bratislava, passing through the oak forests and limestone mountains around Tata and the Duna-Ipoly Nemzeti Park to our destination, Budapest the “Queen of the Danube”.
