- We offer free business consultations
- We have a database full of qualified buyers & sellers
- We will guide you through the process step by step.
- All our consultants have been involved in different types of businesses.
- We offer services to assist both the buyer & seller before, during & after the sale.
- We can teach you to be successful in your new business.
- We have the knowledge to help you transition into your new business effectively.
- We will always go above & beyond for our clients.

Whether you're looking to change jobs or careers, we have something life changing for you, that you may not have ever thought of.

Please call for your free consultation and explore one of the best kept secrets around, routes.

You can go back to the horse and buggy days, when they had milk routes, ice routes, and the truck sharpening tools and knife guy.

Today we are more sophisticated and have other needs and desires, you may be looking for something semi-absentee or totally absentee, depending on how much you have in funds and what you're looking to make, there is a high probability that we have something for your needs!

It can be from FedEx routes, residential or over the road tractor trailer runs, to chip routes, bread routes, beverage routes, independent trucking routes and Amazon tractor trailer routes, they are thriving in our existing economy today.

If you're ready to retire we even have some routes for 2-3 days per week for supplementary income. We have routes and businesses throughout the States.

Newsday ★★★★★ Joan Reminick

In an East Northport building whose architecture says "Pizza Hut" you'll find a restaurant called Precious. It is that true rarity on Long Island, a source of great Chinese food and a place that lives up to its name.

The moment you sample something as seemingly prosaic as wonton soup, you'll feel transported from East Northport to Flushing or Chinatown.

This is a Chinese restaurant that takes all the classics and makes them new again by virtue of sheer skill. With the advent of buffet-style chinese restaurants, many of us have almost forgotten how satisfying fine made-to-order chinese cooking can be. To remind ourselves, we make the occasional pilgrimage to lower Manhattan or visit one of a mere handful of worthy chinese restaurants on Long Island. Now that handful has been increased by one. All this plus a staff that makes you feel you've come home.
