THE FINAL CHAPTER

After a decade of exceptional food, award-winning wine and unforgettable moments, Teakle Wines prepares to close this chapter.

Set against the coastal landscape of Port Lincoln, this boutique vineyard and chef-hatted dining destination became more than a place — it became an experience. One defined by generosity, craftsmanship and connection.

What remains is a carefully curated collection of pieces that formed part of that experience.

Kincaid Consultancy has been entrusted to manage the sale and realisation of these assets — approaching this release not simply as an auction, but as a considered and respectful transition of a well-regarded South Australian business.

From the dining room to the cellar door, from the kitchen to the vineyard outlook — each item carries with it a story.

We invite you to explore this collection and take home a piece of Teakle History.

TEAKLE WINES WAS NEVER JUST ABOUT WINE A PLACE PEOPLE RETURNED TO

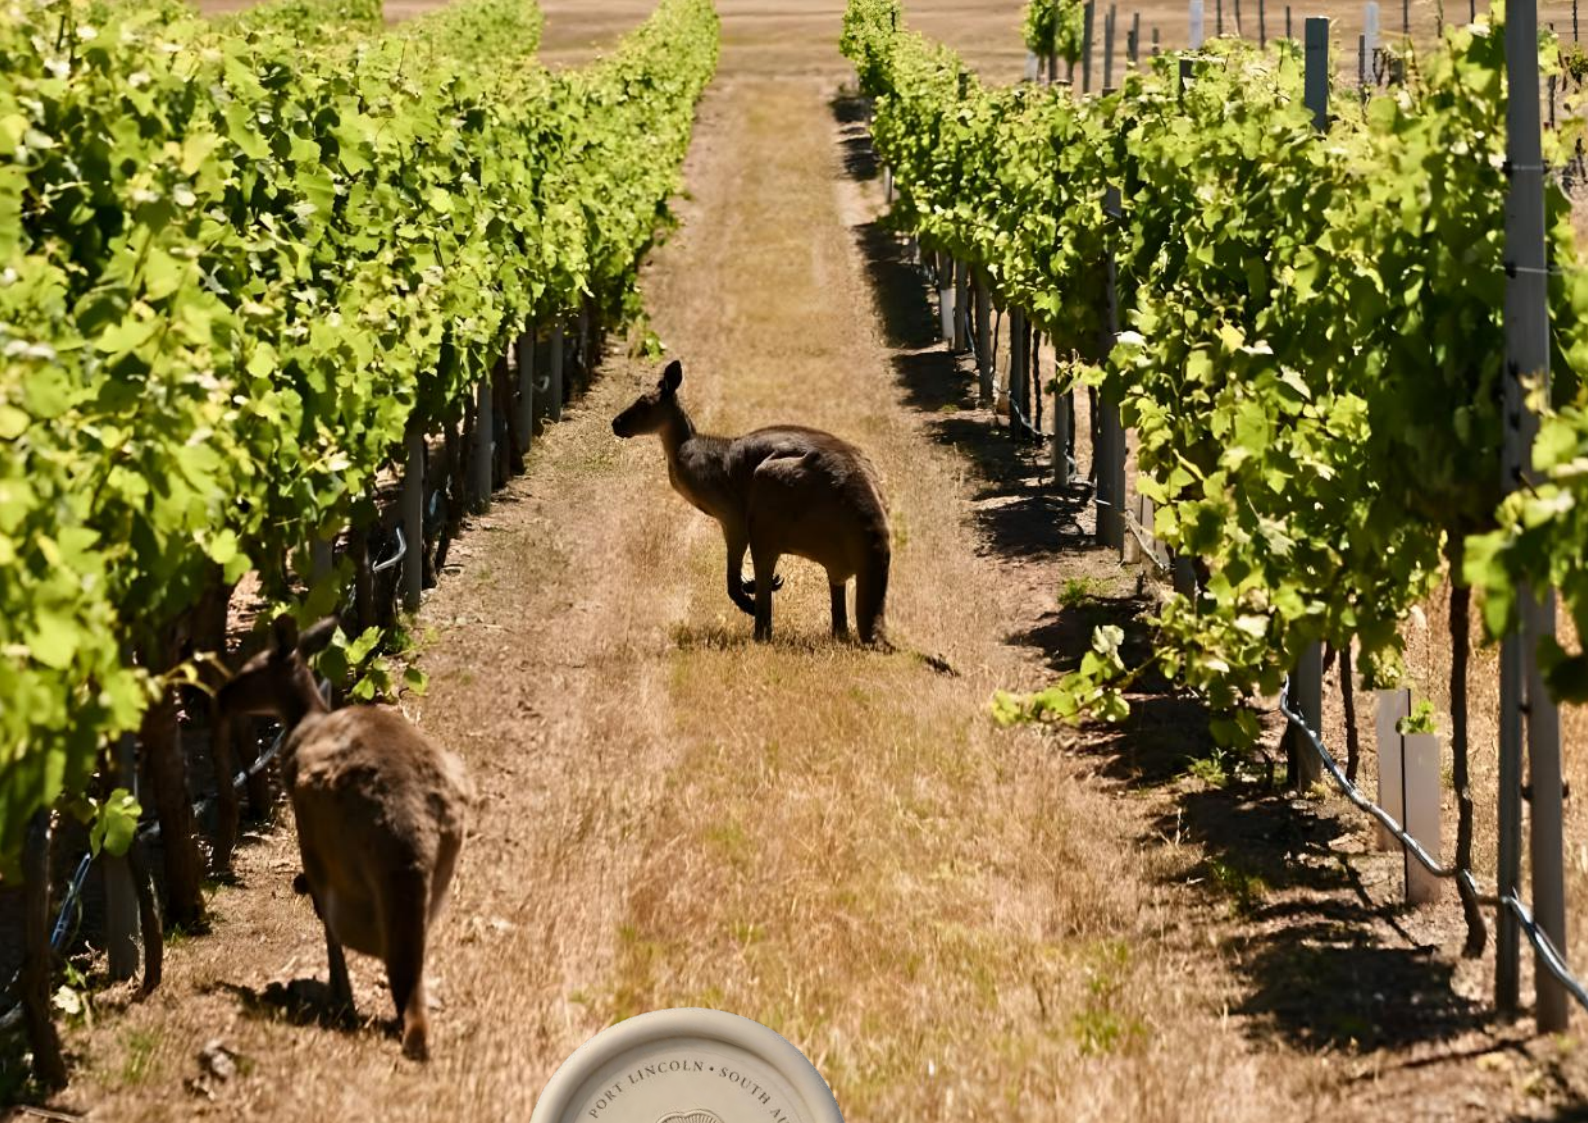

It was about long lunches that stretched into late afternoons. It was about the quiet anticipation of a first pour, the hum of a full dining room, and the kind of hospitality that made people feel instantly at ease. With its chef-hatted restaurant and striking cellar door, Teakle became a destination — not just for locals, but for visitors seeking something special on the Eyre Peninsula.

Every detail was considered. Every experience, intentional.

And now, as the doors prepare to close, the elements that created it are being offered for the first time.
