THE SUPERCATS

The Supercats collection takes everything you love about cats and turns up the energy.

They're bold, lively, and a little bit mischievous – moving with more colour, more rhythm, and more spark.

CHOOSE YOUR FAVOURITE COLOUR OR MIX CATS AS YOU LIKE IT

A pop of colour can transform even the calmest, most neutral room. These vibrant cats bring warmth, playfulness, and a touch of personality to minimalist spaces, making them feel instantly more alive.

THE SUPERCATS

Who are the Supercats?

They're the boldest branch of the Cats Collection, still playful, still full of character, but with an extra spark. More colour, more movement, more personality.

Supercats come in three signature colours: blue, magenta and yellow. Each version brings its own rhythm and a little burst of energy, turning a simple cat illustration into something that feels alive and ready to leap off the wall.

It's the same world of Cats you already know – just turned up a notch.

COLOURS & COLOUR PALETTES

A Colourful, Saturated and Playful Collection of Wall Art for Kids' Spaces

The Cats Collection is vibrant, bold and full of saturated, high-contrast colours.

Each illustration is constructed from multiple layers of shades, some of which may not be noticeable at first glance. Here, I show you every colour used in each artwork, so you can see how rich and multi-tonal each piece truly is.

Why Colour Matters

Understanding the colour palette behind the artwork helps you style your child's room more easily and more intentionally.

These colours aren't just decorative, they act as a ready-made styling guide for accessories, fabrics, rugs, cushions and small décor elements.

Real Styling Advice That Actually Helps

(not the usual fluff)

We all know the classic styling advice: "choose accessories in matching tones," "make it cohesive," "pick a rug that echoes the artwork."

COLOURS & COLOUR PALETTES

Let's be honest, none of that truly helps when you're standing in a shop or scrolling online at 10 p.m., wondering what to buy, what fits, and what will make the room feel calm rather than chaotic.

This is why I show you the exact colours used in every Cat illustration.

Not abstract rules.

Not Pinterest phrases.

You'll see the real shades, the mint that leans a bit blue, the purple that fades into ink, the soft beige that's warmer than it looks on the screen.

Important Styling Tip: Avoid Using These Colours on Walls

The colours in this collection are intense, saturated and emotionally expressive. They work beautifully in small decorative elements, but:

They are too strong to paint on large wall surfaces.

Highly saturated colours on walls can easily overstimulate a child and make the room feel chaotic or tiring during the day.

Use them as accents, not as a background.

COLOURS & COLOUR PALETTES

How to Create a Calm, Harmonious Room (Without Overstimulation)

To keep the room peaceful and balanced, combine the bold colours from the illustration with neutral, grounding tones in the rest of the space.

This is the universal rule for styling colourful artwork in kids' rooms.

Recommended Neutral Shades

Pair these vibrant illustrations with:

warm off-whites
soft beiges
muted greys
greige (grey-beige)
oat and linen tones

These shades reduce visual noise, create emotional calm and make the colourful artwork the focal point, without overwhelming the room.

Why Neutrals Work So Well

Neutral tones:

calm the space

support your child's emotional regulation

prevent visual overstimulation

allow the artwork to shine

make the room feel soft, warm and timeless

A room built this way feels both playful and peaceful, exactly what your child needs—the Perfect Balance.

Check my guide on easy-to-apply neutral shades for your home, perfect for kids' rooms or any space you're currently designing.
