ABOUT US

Verdeluxinternational is an India-based company located in Maharashtra, engaged in the manufacturing, export, import, and supply of Agro Products, Textiles, and Gem & Jewellery. We are committed to delivering premium quality products that meet global standards while ensuring timely delivery and customer satisfaction.

Under the leadership of Mr. Kiran Sukdev Shinde, our company focuses on building long-term business relationships through trust, transparency, and consistent performance. With strong sourcing networks and a reliable supply chain, we efficiently cater to both domestic and international markets.

Our agro products are carefully processed to maintain freshness and nutritional value, while our textile range reflects quality craftsmanship and modern trends. In the gem & jewellery segment, we ensure elegance, authenticity, and precision in every piece we deliver.

At Verdeluxinternational, we believe in continuous growth and innovation. Our experienced team works diligently to understand market demands, ensuring that we provide customized solutions and competitive pricing to our clients worldwide.

Our mission is to become a globally trusted name in trading and manufacturing by maintaining excellence in quality, ethical business practices, and customer-centric services. We aim to expand our footprint across international markets while upholding our core values of integrity, reliability, and professionalism.
