Bulletproof Report Writing

★★★★★ 5.0

“What I liked most about the class is that we didn’t review basics and got straight to the nitty gritty. As a Sgt, I can confirm that most reports from officers on patrol lack articulation. This should be a required course for all officers through POST because it really breaks down what is important and why. I feel it is also a good review for tenured officers and FTOs.”

Searching Cars and Occupants

★★★★★ 5.0

“Clear simple and right. Had I understood the law to be easier to understand when I was new, I feel I would have so many better cases. BTG has mad a complex, or what we believed to be complex, much more easy to understand. I now have the confidence to get it right every time.”

“Excellent 4th Amendment focused book written for cops by a cop . The book is divided in such a way where you can skip to whichever topic you’re looking for clarity on. For example, if you want to review terry stops, you can jump directly to that section. Highly recommended.”
