What is the Health of Your Ministry?

Recently, my pastor spoke about Mary and Martha in Luke 10:38-42. In this passage, Martha became upset because she was doing what she was supposed to do – serving the guests and our Lord, Jesus Christ – while Mary wasn't doing what was normally expected of her at that time. Instead of helping serve, Mary was seated at the feet of Jesus. When Martha complained, Jesus reprimanded her – not for serving, but for getting upset when Mary had chosen the better option: spending time with Jesus.

When we serve, whether at church, the dealership, a Black Sheep breakfast, or any other capacity that God calls us to, we need to do it for the right reasons. We should regularly check ourselves to ensure we aren't making the same mistake as Martha. Is it important to tend to guests? Yes. Should we serve in the Children's Ministry, Youth Ministry, Praise Team, tech team, parking lot, security, or however we've been called to serve in our church? Yes. Serving Him in some capacity is a sign of a growing, healthy believer. Is it important to feed the homeless and care for widows and orphans? Obviously, the answer is yes. We should do those things. However, if our service has become drudgery – an appointment we must keep with no joy or thoughts to how, why, or what we are doing – we've lost the point of service.

We must remember that service does not take the place of a relationship with Jesus. We must spend time with Him, sit at His feet, and get to know Him through worship, prayer, Bible study, and meditation. We must ensure God is first – that we are not seeking a position more than simply being willing to serve Him.

This also applies to our Black Sheep ministry. If we have a role – chaplain, president, secretary, etc. – then we have a responsibility to do that with the proper attitude. We must check ourselves to ensure we don't become judgmental or serve with the wrong motives, which takes time for reflection and self-evaluation. When was the last time you took a break from serving or stepped back to examine why you do what you do? I am not asking anyone to step down or stop serving; I am asking you to spend some time making sure your relationship with God comes first. We cannot give what we don't have. If we aren't spending time with Jesus, how will we pass Him along to a world in desperate need of His grace?

As we celebrate Easter this month, please take a look at your service and your actions. Are you more interested in how you look to others or if you are serving Him properly? Are you abiding in Christ? Do your actions, attitudes, interactions with others, and social media posts reflect a life lived in Him? Remember the words of Psalms 91:1-2:

"The one who lives under the protection of the Most High dwells in the shadow of the Almighty. I will say concerning the LORD, who is my refuge and my fortress, my God in whom I trust..."

I encourage you to spend some time reflecting on this Psalm. And may God direct your paths! Love and blessings,

Tom & Dee

Commitment in Action:

A New Black Sheep's Dedication to the Pledge

One of the most powerful moments in our Black Sheep ministry is welcoming a new member into the family. It's more than just receiving a patch—it's a commitment to our mission, our ministry, and, most importantly, to Christ.

At a recent patching, we witnessed something truly special. A new member, so moved by the heart of this ministry, practically memorized and recited our Black Sheep pledge during his patching ceremony. This wasn't just a display of memory—it was a reflection of his calling, passion, and deep understanding of what it means to serve in this ministry.

Our mentorship process is designed to prepare new members for the road ahead, equipping them with the tools and support needed to serve with integrity and purpose. But seeing someone take it to heart so fully, committing not just to learning but to living out the pledge, is a reminder of why we do what we do.

The pledge isn't just words. It's a declaration of faith, of service, and of an unwavering commitment to bringing the love of Christ to the motorcycle community. When someone embraces it so completely, it speaks volumes about their heart for our ministry and mission.

Moments like these fuel our passion for training and mentorship within Black Sheep. They remind us that God is moving, calling new laborers to the harvest, and raising up men and women who are ready to serve with passion, purpose and boldly.

REPORT

We are excited to welcome Curt Visca as the newest patched member of our Orange County chapter!

Curt's heart for ministry and willingness to be available make him a valuable addition to our Black Sheep family. We look forward to serving alongside him as we share the gospel and shine the light of Christ.

Congratulations, Curt!

A big welcome to Daniel “Dago Dan” Perondi! Our Black Sheep MMFC—San Jose Chapter gathered to celebrate and support Dan as he officially joined the flock. It was a day filled with fellowship, encouragement, and the shared mission of serving others in the name of Christ.

Thank you to everyone who came out to show their support. Your presence made this moment even more special. We are excited to see how God will use Dan in this ministry. Welcome to the family, brother!

What an incredible day for Texas Black Sheep MMFC as we proudly welcomed our newest member, David “Sensei” Feliciano, into the Waco area with a special patching ceremony. This milestone was celebrated with great joy as members from the Alamo, Gulf Coast, and Lone Star chapters, along with members from the Brazos Valley HOG Chapter, gathered to honor and support our new brother in Christ.

We are blessed to have David as part of our Black Sheep family and look forward to serving alongside him as we continue to minister to the motorcycle community. Welcome to the flock, brother!

Is God Listening?

A Testimony by Wayne Maertens

"Have you ever felt like God isn't listening? I'm sure we've all experienced that at some point in life. I want to encourage you with this testimony. For about four years, my wife and I have been navigating tough times while caring for and supporting family. The level of care and support required eventually forced us to sell our home in Arizona and move back to California. We spent years praying for wisdom to handle the difficult decisions that come with caring for elderly parents. At the same time, our oldest son fell ill, adding countless hours with doctors, healthcare professionals, and daily updates to our already heavy load. Life became so overwhelming that our physical and mental health began to suffer. The breaking point came for me last summer. I was sitting in my garage, working on my motorcycle, while my wife was away for the weekend tending to family needs. It was a scorching hot day, around midday, and I found myself talking to God about everything—my wife's parents, our son, the relentless challenges. In frustration, I asked, 'Lord, are You listening?' I didn't want to test God, but I remembered the story of Gideon asking for a sign (Judges 6:36). So, I prayed, 'If You hear me, Lord, please let a coyote cross my vision on the hill across the street.' Now, coyotes are mostly nocturnal, active at dawn or dusk—not in the heat of midday. Less than a minute later, an adult coyote stepped out of the bushes and walked calmly across the hill in full view before disappearing. It wasn't in my peripheral vision, wasn't running, chasing a rabbit, or playing with another coyote. In my spirit, I knew this was no coincidence. It was God, in His grace and mercy, showing me He hears my prayers and is with me. Tears welled up as I thanked Him. I hope this testimony reminds you that God will never leave you or forsake you (Deuteronomy 31:6)."

LEADERSHIP SPOTLIGHT

ITHIEL TORRES

“SARGE” REGIONAL DIRECTOR
ROCKY MOUNTAINS

CALLED TO RIDE AND REDEEM

It all started back in 2008, during a break from tearing apart a friend's kitchen. While kicking back in his backyard, I spotted a motorcycle tucked under a tarp. Curiosity got the better of me, so I asked, “What's the deal with that?” He grinned and said, “That's my '92 Sportster. Get it running, and it's yours to ride.” That moment sparked my love for Harleys—and unbeknownst to me, it was the first mile of a journey God had mapped out, weaving my passion for riding into His greater purpose.

As I cruised through life on that Sportster, ministry opportunities popped up like road signs. One day stands out: my wife and I were led to a family in desperate need. Sitting in their living room, we prayed with them, and the Holy Spirit moved in a way that changed everything. They surrendered their lives to Christ right then and there. Riding away, I felt a fire ignite in my soul. “I'm a motorcycle missionary,” I said out loud, the words tumbling out before I fully grasped their weight. God had planted a seed I didn't even know was growing.

Fast forward to 2021—countless miles and a few bikes later. A coworker nudged me toward our local HOG group and connected me with the area contact for Black Sheep, a Harley-riding ministry. I dove into the mentorship process and officially joined in March 2022. By October 2023, God had stirred others to the cause, and the Yuma 14:23 Chapter roared to life. I was humbled to step up as its first president. But the Lord wasn't done. Today, in March 2025, I'm honored to serve as the Regional Director for the Rocky Mountains Region—a role I never dreamed I'd fill.

Through Black Sheep, I've seen Jesus transform lives in ways that still leave me in awe. Strangers at gas stations have come to faith mid-conversation. Broken families have found restoration. Healings—physical and spiritual—have unfolded before my eyes. And somehow, God always provides what our chapter needs as we hit the road. The bond I share with my Black Sheep brothers and sisters is unshakable—a family forged in faith and united by Christ. What hits me deepest is knowing I'm loved, truly loved, by this crew. Every mile, every moment—it's all for His glory.

“100% WOOL”

Our Texas Gulf Coast Chapter was out at Stubbs Harley-Davidson, blessing bikes, praying with riders, and sharing the love of Christ! There's nothing better than meeting people right where they are and being a light in the motorcycle community.

A huge shoutout to our Texas Gulf Coast Chapter. Your dedication to sharing Christ's love is what this ministry is all about. Thank you for being present, intentional, and always ready to serve.

FROM THE

PRESIDENT'S DESK

I was on my way home after running some errands in town. A few blocks from home, I stopped at a red light. That's when I noticed a ladybug land on the hood of my truck.

When the light turned green, I started driving. I figured the ladybug would fly away. But to my surprise, it didn't. It stayed right there on the hood as I kept going.

As I drove faster—20, 30, even 40 miles per hour—I kept watching the ladybug. I couldn't believe it was still holding on! I started laughing, imagining the little bug hanging on for dear life, like a scene from the movie A Bug's Life.

That's when it hit me—just like the ladybug, we too can feel like we're just barely holding on when life gets overwhelming. When problems come out of nowhere. When we face loss, worry, pressure, or fear.

But the truth is, we're not holding on alone, God is with us. He's the one giving us strength when we're tired. He's the one holding us when we feel like we can't hold on anymore.

The Bible reminds us:

Psalm 55:22 - "Cast your burden on the Lord, and he will sustain you; he will never permit the righteous to be moved."

Psalm 73:26 - "My flesh and my heart may fail, but God is the strength of my heart and my portion forever."

Isaiah 41:10 - "Fear not for I am with you; be not dismayed, For I am your God; I will strengthen you, I will help you."

Matthew 11:28-30 - "Come to me, all of you who are tired and carry heavy burdens, and I will give you rest."

1 Peter 5:7 - "Cast all your worries on him because he cares for you."

So, if you're feeling like that ladybug today, just trying to survive the ride, barely holding on, remember this: Jesus is with you. He sees you. He's holding you. You are not alone. Call out to Him.

All for His glory! Love you all!

BIKE OF THE MONTH

Ninja

This month, we're thrilled to spotlight Maria's stunning 2012 Sportster Model 48, a true masterpiece of customization and style. Purchased from Lifestyle Cycles in 2016, Maria has poured her heart into transforming this bike into a one-of-a-kind ride that turns heads wherever it goes.

Maria's Sportster boasts an array of custom upgrades that elevate both its aesthetics and performance. The bike features a custom-painted Drag Specialties 3-gallon gas tank, paired with a sleek custom LaPera seat featuring Ninja stitching for that extra flair. The attention to detail continues with custom grips, a custom-painted fairing, and Arlen Ness levers and handguards, ensuring every inch of this bike reflects Maria's unique vision.

For added style and functionality, Maria installed a custom sissy bar adorned with a real Ninja throwing star welded in—a bold statement piece that perfectly complements the bike's edgy vibe. The Sportster also sports a custom powder-coated finish and rolls on striking white wall Shinko tires, giving it a classic yet modern look.

Maria has done a lot to make this bike her own since 2016, and it's clear that every modification was chosen with care.

How I Became A Black Sheep Missionary

Barnabas (Son of Encouragement)

Vice President | BSMMFC Temecula "Da Mutha" Chapter

In 2017, I was riding a 2010 Yamaha FJR sport bike. I never thought I'd sell it—let alone buy a Harley-Davidson. But that changed when my wife and I walked into Temecula Harley-Davidson and laid eyes on a black and blue 2018 Ultra-Limited Classic 115th Anniversary model.

She hopped on the back and said, "This feels like a recliner! I feel like you've been cheating me!" That sealed it—we traded in the Yamaha and rode off on the Harley. Of course, I had to make some modifications. It was just too slow.

Since then, my love for riding has only grown. In fact, last year, I added a second Harley-Davidson to the fleet—a 2024 Hydra-Glide Icon. I call this one "Elvis" It's a modern remake of the legendary 1956 Hydra-Glide that Elvis rode—and so did my dad. That bike carries some serious history and heart. It's a beautiful little Softail, and I absolutely love to ride it.

On one of my parts runs back in the early days, I met a man who was clearly struggling. I asked if I could pray for him, and as we prayed, Casey from the parts department quietly slipped a business card into my pocket. It was for Chris Bergman, Chapter President of the Temecula chapter of Black Sheep.

I reached out. Chris invited me to breakfast and a few rides. "We'll be checking you out," he said. I replied, "Good—because I'll be checking you out too."

On my very first ride with Temecula Black Sheep, the first two people I met were Tom and Marianne Segobia—Tom’s road name is Scooby. They were amazing and made me feel right at home. I started connecting with riders from the Temecula, Riverside, and Lake Elsinore chapters—guys like PITA, Larry Hancock, and Rico Martinez (then president of the Lake Elsinore chapter). Rico was a game-changer in my journey.

I met Zach Rosser through No Man Left Behind—he also rides with Black Sheep. He and his wife Wendy are a blessing. And my mentorship? That came from Micah Orloff, who poured into me with wisdom, love, and accountability. His wife Alicia is just as incredible. I’m honored to have been Micah’s mentee.

I’ll never forget meeting Marty Edwards, the founder of Black Sheep, and Tony Schumaker at a car show at Lamb’s Fellowship. When Marty asked what chapter I rode with, I said, “I’m kind of a tri-chapter guy.”

He looked at Tony and said, “I don’t think we have a tri-chapter.” Tony said, “We don’t.” “Well, now you do,” I smiled.

Eventually, I chose to patch in with Temecula since it was closest to home. Not long after, Temecula and Lake Elsinore chapters merged, and Rico became our chapter president.

That’s when I received my road name: Barnabas, which means Son of Encouragement. It was given to me during mentorship because that’s just who I am—I’m always encouraging others.

Today, I’m honored to serve on the board of the Temecula Chapter as Vice President. Black Sheep Motorcycle Ministry for Christ truly is my forever family. I love the rides, the fun, the food, the fellowship—but most of all, I love that it’s all about Jesus. We get to share Christ with people who might never step foot in a church. We get to be missionaries on two wheels.

Every other year, we have The Gathering—where Black Sheep from all over the world come together: from Europe, across the U.S., and every active chapter. The next one is in Boise, Idaho—and I can’t wait!

It’s such a blessing to be part of this powerful motorcycle mission field. This is my story. And I love it.

CT Black Sheep MMFC at Hartford Harley's "Get Lucky" Event!

The weather may not have been on their side—cloudy, damp, and cool in the low 40s—but our Connecticut BSMMFC didn't stop from showing up and serving!

In just two hours, prayers were said, bikes were blessed, and great conversations were had. Rick and Carol Mills even had the opportunity to bless bikes the moment they were sold!

No matter the weather, we are grateful for every opportunity to share God's love and be a presence in the community. Thank you Rich and Carol!

Jesus is Lord

“Always be ready for God.”

I had the privilege of being invited to the Compassion Queen Creek event fair, a resource fair for those less fortunate. Initially, I thought to myself, as a member of Black Sheep, What can I do there? There were no bikers to share the gospel with. I prayed about it, talked to some other Black Sheep members, and reached out to my mentor. He suggested setting up a prayer tent, and I thought the idea was genius. It's so simple—just go and show the love of Jesus.

Biscuits, a member of the BSMMFC Scorpion chapter, came to support me. The BSMMFC Scorpion chapter have shown nothing but love and support to me.

One of the most beautiful aspects of the event was that my church was there as well, and they showed me incredible support. They truly love Black Sheep. I received so many thank-yous and prayers of support—the community out here is wonderful.

At one point, the Pinal County sheriff called me by my road name. To be honest, I didn't recognize her at first, and she must have noticed the confusion on my face because she reminded me of where we had met. We crossed paths at the “Shop with the Sheriff” event, which the American Legion Riders Post 97 and Exodus chapter host every year. She went on to say that she knew about my past, so I asked her if that was a good thing or a bad thing. She smiled and said, “Oh, it's good,” and then dropped a bombshell: she asked me to be a motivational speaker for a new troubled youth program they're trying to start.

Several years ago, when I was still in prison, I used to pray that God would put me in a position to save just one kid from making the same mistakes I did. When I heard her request, I immediately thanked God out loud and handed her my card.

As we walk in this world with Jesus, we make plans and have ideas, but none are greater than His. His plans are the ones we need to listen to. He answers our prayers—maybe not always right away, and sometimes not in the way we expect—but we must trust in His plan. He knows what's better for us than we do ourselves. The key is to be listening when you are called. When you are devoted and obedient, He will use you for His glory, whether you're on your bike or wearing your cut. Always be ready for God!

A Calling Fulfilled: Our Journey into Black Sheep

The first time I ever heard about Black Sheep was in Port Orchard, WA, around 2011. At that time, my life was packed—raising young children, working full-time while going through an apprenticeship, and attending college. When I did have time to ride, I rode with my local CMA chapter, a group I deeply respected and loved.

One day, at a car show hosted by a local church, I came across a Black Sheep tent. I was curious, so I stepped up and started talking with them. Their appearance was a little rough around the edges—much like myself—but as I spoke with them, I could sense the spirit of the Lord in their words and actions. It wasn't just a riding club; it was a ministry, a brotherhood, a calling. In that moment, I knew this was where I wanted to be—not just to ride, but to serve. However, with my busy life, the timing wasn't right.

Fast forward ten years. My wife, Brande, and I were preparing to move from Belfair, WA, to El Mirage, AZ. As we researched churches and Christian communities in the Valley, I began searching for motorcycle ministries. When I found out there was a Black Sheep chapter nearby, I was excited. I knew I was finally at a point in my life where I could fully commit.

The very first week after we arrived in Arizona, once the unpacking was done, I reached out. I sat down with Doug Boyd and Joel, and so began my journey into Black Sheep. Brande, while fully supportive, wasn't initially interested in joining. But after that first meeting—after hearing the mission and vision of Black Sheep—something stirred in her heart. She felt the call, too, and was all in.

We both mentored under Doug Boyd, and about seven months later, we were patched in together with the Arrowhead chapter. This is the first ministry where we have served side by side, and it has been an incredible blessing. Now, we take our love of riding and our passion for the gospel into the motorcycle community, witnessing and serving together.

As a couple with grown children, this journey has strengthened our marriage and brought us new adventures. More importantly, it has given us the opportunity to share the love of Christ in a way that is real, raw, and life-changing. Being part of Black Sheep isn't just about wearing a patch—it's about being the hands and feet of Jesus in a world that desperately needs Him. And for us, that has made all the difference.

Blessings,
Shawn & Brande Green
