About Us

Uniqo Art is a premium candle manufacturing brand based in Jaipur, Rajasthan, dedicated to creating beautifully handcrafted candles for every occasion. Established with a vision to deliver elegance and creativity, we specialize in a wide range of decorative and functional candles that enhance the beauty of any space. Our product range includes soy wax candles, gel candles, floating candles, designer candles, and customized candles for weddings, festivals, return gifts, and special events. Each product is crafted with precision using high-quality raw materials such as natural soy wax and paraffin wax, ensuring a clean, smokeless, and long-lasting burn.

At Uniqo Art, we focus on blending creativity with quality. Our candles are not just products, but artistic pieces that add warmth, fragrance, and luxury to homes, celebrations, and occasions. We also provide customization options to meet the unique requirements of our clients, making every product special and personalized. With a strong commitment to customer satisfaction, timely delivery, and innovative designs, we aim to become a trusted name in the candle manufacturing industry across India. Whether it's for home décor, gifting, or large-scale event requirements, Uniqo Art brings light, beauty, and elegance to every moment.
