Welcome to our 2022 Holiday Gift Guide!

This season we have chosen to highlight not just the top trending styles and retail brands, but also manufacturers who put an emphasis on sustainable goods and giving back. We've used specific icons throughout the guide to highlight these products, so they're easy to recognize.

In addition, we've added in a few interactive components in an effort to help build upon the emotional connection that we believe is so critical to having a strong campaign. Like many of you, INM saw the need to focus on our Corporate and Social Responsibility (CSR) this year. So throughout these pages, you'll see informative content from our INM team of experts on Gifts that Give Back, Gifting to Build Culture, and The Importance of Tangible Gifting.

Finally, I wanted to share a little about an organization that we've been partnering with over the last few years. Humanity is a non-profit organization whose mission is to emancipate, educate, and empower victims of poverty and human trafficking. Based in the US, but focused on the street children of the Philippines, the stories of success that they have shared with us are nothing short of remarkable. In an effort to help further their cause, we've committed to donating a percentage of all profits back to them at the end of each year. I could go on and on, but instead, I ask you to take a few minutes to learn about a boy named Nilo.

Zac Fowler, President
