THE ART OF GIVING

A GIFT SERVES AS A
HEARTFELT SYMBOL OF
CARE THAT CAPTURES
THE UNIQUE CONNECTION
BETWEEN THE GIVER
AND THE RECIPIENT

WELCOME

Gift-giving is an art that beautifully expresses the bonds we share; a thoughtfully chosen, meaningful gift doesn't need to be extravagant, for it serves as a heartfelt symbol of care that captures the unique connection between the giver and the recipient.

At INTWINE, our gifts are not just items; they are unique narratives of heritage and tradition waiting to be discovered. Each product is meticulously chosen for its distinctiveness, quality, purpose, and design, celebrating the exceptional creativity of women artisans from around the globe.

Our gifts not only embody the stories of their talented makers but also reflect our commitment to quality craftsmanship, fair employment practices, and the economic empowerment of women worldwide.

At INTWINE, each thoughtfully selected gift is elegantly wrapped in our exquisite, handcrafted, tree-free paper, made from recycled cotton, and decorated with a matching ribbon and a small gift tag for a personalized message.

PLEASE NOTE

Due to the nature of our small-batch orders, our products sell out quickly. However, if the item you see in the catalog is sold out by the time you visit our store, we would be happy to help you find a similar product. If you would like us to hold a product for you, please feel free to email us or give us a call.

TEXTILES THAT STAND THE TEST OF TIME

The South African family weaving mill has carved out a niche in the home textiles sector by seamlessly blending traditional weaving techniques with modern designs.

The textiles are woven on mechanical looms, which were invented and engineered in Switzerland during its textile industry era.

IT'S A WRAP

IT'S A WRAP

THE CREATION OF OUR WRAPPING PAPER IS A LABOR OF LOVE AND INTRICATE STEPS

01. SEPARATION

Cotton fibers are meticulously separated from other fabrics, a manual process requiring both skill and patience.

02. SHREDDING

The separated pieces are shredded into fine threads and soaked for several days, transforming them into a fine pulp ready for papermaking.

03. MOLDING

In a large vat of water, two artisans carefully press layers of pulp into a wooden frame, backed by tightly stretched cotton, shaping it into rough-edged sheets of paper.

04. DRYING

Excess water is carefully pressed out, resulting in a unique sheet of paper formed from interlocked fibers. The sheets are hung to dry under the sun

05. MARBLING

Each one is hand-marbled with traditional techniques, adding an artistic touch that ensures every wrap is as unique as the gift it holds.

IT'S A WRAP

WE ADD A UNIQUE ARTISANAL TOUCH TO EVERY INTWINE GIFT

HAND-DYED COTTON RIBBONS

Each ribbon tells a story, showcasing unique shades that make every present feel personal and thoughtful. The vibrant colors and soft, organic feel of the cotton elevate your gift into a true work of art.

Dyed with natural colorants—calendula (yellow), dyer's madder (lilac), indigo (blue), and Himalayan rhubarb (red)—each ribbon features subtle, individual variations from the hand-dyeing process, making every present distinctly unique.

CUSTOMIZATION

A UNIQUE GIFT THAT HONORS TRADITIONAL EMBROIDERY

We are delighted to feature Ode to the Artisan (simply known as ODE), a London-based sustainable fashion label that treasures ancient embroidery and traditional craft techniques.

Founded by Swiss designer Larissa von Planta, the brand specializes in upcycling garments. Skilled women artisans in Beirut enrich your piece with hand embroidery, celebrating their heritage, creative freedom, and craftsmanship. Each item is a collaborative masterpiece infused with human touch, history, and the essence of slow, sustainable craftsmanship.

Bring your clothing to us, and we will arrange for it to be embroidered in Beirut.
