Cultural Land Acknowledgement

Oki. Tansi. Bienvenue. Welcome. Lethbridge is located on the lands of the Blackfoot people of the Canadian Plains and we pay respect to the Blackfoot people past, present, and future while recognizing and respecting their cultural heritage, beliefs, and relationship to the land. We offer respect to the Metis (or Metis Nation of Alberta, Region III) and all who have lived on this land and made Lethbridge their home. We are committed to reconciliation and fostering meaningful relationships with Indigenous peoples through sport.

INTRODUCTION

Lethbridge has a deep-rooted love of sport. From its vibrant community spirit to its world-class facilities, Lethbridge is your year-round destination for hosting sporting events.

Our top-tier sport facilities such as the VisitLethbridge.com Arena, Cavendish Farms Centre, Lethbridge Trade & Convention Centre, University of Lethbridge, and Lethbridge Polytechnic, along with specialized venues like Softball Valley and Spitz Stadium, cater to a wide range of sports. These premier accessible venues, and many others you'll learn about in this guide, reflect our commitment to ensuring inclusive events for everyone.

When Lethbridge hosts a sporting event, our community comes together with energy and excitement. Athletes, fans, and volunteers unite in celebration creating an electric atmosphere that extends well beyond the competition. Sport events spark lasting connections, nurture a strong sense of local pride, and drive growth and economic vitality.

Beyond its sport facilities, Lethbridge's charm lies in its blend of big-city amenities with small-town convenience and warm friendliness. It's easy to get around town with a maximum 15-minute commute anywhere. It's a well-connected hub, easily accessible by car from major urban centres across the province and the U.S. Compared to other large cities in Alberta, Lethbridge offers exceptional value to visitors with cost-effective accommodations, venues, and services.

Tourism Lethbridge can provide support with regional guidance on business assets, leisure attraction information, and transportation options. They offer extensive resources to help you plan a seamless event of any size.

The Lethbridge Sport Council has strong connections to the local sport community and can help connect you with sport organizations, venues, and funding opportunities, including grant and sponsorship guidance. Their expertise extends to recruiting event volunteers, engaging media for greater exposure, and ensuring you are connected with the facilities and resources needed to maximize your event's impact.

Lethbridge's outdoor recreation opportunities add to its appeal. The city features beautiful parks, lakes, and more than 200km of trails set against expansive skies and the historic High Level Bridge. Boasting more than 333 days of sunshine annually and its proximity to four UNESCO World Heritage Sites, Lethbridge promises a memorable experience for visitors.

When you're planning a major sporting event, our welcoming city offers everything you need to create a successful event for athletes, spectators, and organizers alike.

Lethbridge is ready to host your next sport event!

Testimonials

|| Lethbridge has long been a leader in sport tourism, and our city takes great pride in delivering first-class events that leave a lasting impact. With world-class venues, a strong network of volunteers, and a welcoming community, we have successfully hosted everything from regional to international championships. Sport brings people together, and Lethbridge thrives on the energy and excitement these events create. As Mayor, I can confidently say that any organization looking for a dedicated and experienced host city will find everything they need right here in Lethbridge.

Mayor Blaine Hyggen, City of Lethbridge

|| Lethbridge is more than just a place to host sporting events—it's a city that lives and breathes sport. As a destination, we offer an unbeatable combination of top-tier venues, easy accessibility, and a warm, welcoming atmosphere that makes every event feel special. Whether it's a national championship or a regional tournament, Lethbridge provides an exceptional experience for athletes, organizers, and fans alike. The collaboration between Tourism Lethbridge, the Lethbridge Sport Council, and our many partners ensures seamless planning and execution. If you're looking for a host city that delivers, Lethbridge is it!

Erin Crane, CEO, Tourism Lethbridge

|| Sport is at the heart of our community, and Lethbridge has built a reputation as a premier destination for sporting events of all sizes. Our well-maintained, top-tier sport facilities set us apart, providing athletes and organizers with exceptional venues. Organizers know they can rely on Lethbridge Sport Tourism for guidance, connections, and local expertise, making the bidding and hosting process seamless and successful.
