SCHOOL

The Eugene Waldorf School seeks donors for our Annual Giving Campaign. When you support EWS you support a rich program including theater productions, woodworking, dance, music, Spanish language, handwork and rigorous, developmentally aligned academics. You support grains being milled and bread being baked in early childhood classrooms. You support children spending ample time outdoors in nature. You support our ability to provide this education to children of diverse economic backgrounds.

The Eugene Waldorf School began as a grassroots initiative by a group of determined parents. Each year, our community expands with alumni, their families and the community businesses who sponsor our work.

We celebrate the generosity of all levels of support, from Seedling to Shooting Star. These supporter packages are our way of thanking you through publicizing your business online, or at our annual May Faire and Winter Light Faire celebrations. We want a strong connection woven between our vibrant school and the local businesses that sustain our community.

Together we thrive.
