THE
OF TIME

Fullness of Time

Evangelist/Pastor Barbara

The Fullness of Time is upon the church. In this Fullness, all things are lined up to bring in the End Time Harvest of Souls. The time is here, and there is no other designated time to bring in the last Harvest before the second return of My Son Jesus. I have all things lined up. All the ts' have been crossed, all the is' dotted, and all the work has been laid out before your feet. I have spoken to and directed this generation on how to bring in this Harvest. There is absolutely no more preparation work to be completed. The Fullness of Time is upon you.

In this Fullness of Time dispensation, not only will the Harvest be brought in, but all the promises I have given you are yes and amen, and they will be brought forth just as I spoke. Everything the palmer and cankerworm stole will be restored back to you. The Fullness of Time has come when all of Heaven will be poured out upon My Chosen Ones.

It is celebration time. It is time to take up the harp and lyre and rejoice before the throne of Grace. Children, this is your time of total and complete Fullness of Time. Walk in it. Enjoy every second of it. Go forth and conquer.

The fullness of time is a biblical phrase that refers to God's plan for the redemption of humanity through Jesus Christ. It indicates the point in history when Christ will come again to unite all things in him, things in heaven, and things on earth. The fullness of time also marks the moment when God sent forth his Son, born of woman, born under the law, to redeem those who were under the law so that we might receive adoption as sons.

The Israelites hung up their harps when they went into captivity. Psalm 137:1-4 (BSB) "By the rivers of Babylon we sat and wept when we remembered Zion. There on the willow tree, we hung our harps, for there our captors asked us for songs; our tormentors demanded songs of joy; they said, 'Sing us one of the songs of Zion!' How can we sing the songs of the Lord while in a foreign land?"

"Take back your weapon, your tool, your instrument, your song, your declaration, your dance, and your war cry of freedom, for You are home, no longer in captivity." Have you hung up your harp? Ask the Holy Spirit for a strategy to move forward from here.

Jeremiah 31:4 (BSB)

"Again I will build you, and you will be rebuilt, O Virgin Israel.

Water On The Ground

Evangelist/Pastor Barbara

The song "Honey In The Rock" also talks about "Water on the Ground." I would like to take a look at the meaning of Water in the Word.

What is the Spiritual Meaning of Water in the Bible? Rebirth

Water in the Old Testament represents various spiritual meanings – creation, purification, and judgment. Water is associated with the beginning of life in the Bible. In Genesis (1:2), the earth was formless and empty, and darkness was over the surface of the deep, and the Spirit of God was hovering over the waters.

Genesis 2:5-6 (TLB) 5 There were no plants or grain sprouting up across the earth at first, for the Lord God hadn't sent any rain; nor was there anyone to farm the soil.

6 (However, water welled up from the ground at certain places and flowed across the land.)

This verse tells us how the garden got its water with no rain: mists or streams came up from the ground. The impression is of underground streams, the so-called "freshwater ocean," which would saturate the land, perhaps on a cyclical basis.

It is a powerful representation of God's grace, transforming power, and provision in various aspects of human life.

Water in the Bible is also used metaphorically to represent the word of God, the Holy Spirit, and the spiritual nourishment that faith in God provides.

Representation of God's grace: Water signifies the abundant grace that God extends to his people through forgiveness and redemption.

Purification and cleansing: In the Bible, water is often used for purification purposes, as seen through rituals like baptism and the cleansing of lepers.

Rebirth and renewal: Water signifies new life and regeneration, as illustrated in the story of Noah's Ark and the parting of the Red Sea.

Life-giving properties: Water is essential for life, both physically and spiritually. Jesus described himself as the "living water" that satisfies the spiritual thirst of those who believe in him (John 4:10).

It also symbolizes the Holy Spirit, flowing into the hearts of believers and providing wisdom, strength, and comfort.

The parting of the Red Sea is one of the most dramatic instances where water is involved. In this event, water represented a barrier to freedom, which God miraculously overcame. (Exodus 14:21.)

John 7:37-39 (TLB) On the last day, the climax of the holidays, Jesus shouted to the crowds, "If anyone is thirsty, let him come to me and drink. 38 For the Scriptures declare that rivers of living water shall flow from the inmost being of anyone who believes in me." 39 (He was speaking of the Holy Spirit, who would be given to everyone believing in him; but the Spirit had not yet been given, because Jesus had not yet returned to his glory in heaven.)

We need to place our focus on what God is doing with the Living Waters at this Fullness of Time. pg 3

Jesus answered and said to her, "Everyone who drinks of this water will thirst again; but whoever drinks of the water that I will give him shall never thirst; but the water that I will give him will become in him a well of water springing up to eternal life."
John 4:13-14

Instead of using "I'm human" as an excuse to walk in the flesh, let us use "I'm saved" as a reason to walk in the Spirit.

Title : One step at a time

A bridge is a structure that builds a path for your feet.

However, one morning God portrayed to me that the path that your feet make can also be a structure for a bridge because His feet were that path for me.

We all have those mornings when we just don't want to get out of bed. When we don't want to get our minds out of hopelessness and into hope. When we don't want to get our emotions out of sadness and into joy. For some, it's not that they don't want to, it's that they simply don't have enough strength to.

They don't have enough strength to step into that new day, because the old ones are still dragging them down.

For those some, I want to tell you something that Ellie Holcomb told her listeners through her song "Bridge", that if you long for a day that does not feel like night. Build a bridge to the other side.

For those some, I want to tell you something that God told me through His words that one morning, "I will be with you through every step of the way." See, that one morning I honestly did not have the strength to get up, but knowing that I have a Father who will be with me through every step of the way made my heart race with the strength of pure love. I didn't just jolt out of bed at that moment; I skipped, hopped, and ran with joy that day because He was there because He was and will always be there....for you! He will be there to be a bridge to the newness that is waiting ahead of you, that is waiting ahead of all of us.

Also, my friend, as you cross that bridge, the path that He lays out before you, let those old days and old ways go, so that your legs and arms are not dragging along with them. When your legs and arms drag under burdens that are not from God, unbearable weights, and through a crooked path they become sore, injured, and weak.

Hebrews 12:12-13 "So then, strengthen hands that are weak and knees that tremble. Cut through and make smooth, straight paths for your feet [that are safe and go in the right direction], so that the leg which is lame may not be put out of joint, but rather may be healed."

Walk the straight path, foot in front of the other, and next to the Father, so that no joint may be put out of place.

One more thing my friend, get to the end of that bridge; whatever the obstacle, trial, challenge, test is, get to the end of it. There are still going to be tough mornings, days, and nights, but don't stay down, not now, not when God is moving all of heaven and earth for what's next.

Service Interrupted

By: Reverend Brett Connell

Earlier this week there was an impressive outage with the AT&T cellular service that affected tens of thousands of Americans, and lasted almost 12 hours. What we saw was a small preview of what might happen in a disaster scenario.

At least one police department reported their 911 line was briefly flooded by callers just checking to see if they could access the emergency service. Can you imagine? The actual 911 service is jammed up and real emergencies could be turned into real tragedies simply because the masses are 'testing' to see if their cell phones work?

People have become deeply reliant on their cell phones for keeping in touch with work and family, getting directions, accessing the internet and doing two-factor authentication for website logins — not to mention more serious tasks like calling for help when in danger.

There is a dependency and reliance that has bled over into the realm of convenience when it comes to these types of things, and the newer generations that are being rooted in these technologies have a potential to miss out on a unique type of growth and development that is independent of technology.

Reading maps, using a compass, actually playing outside, and having a more mature emotional intelligence that doesn't require hyper-stimulation. Listen to the following statement taken from an AP news article:

"When her cellphone's service went down this week because of an AT&T network outage, Bernice Hudson didn't panic. She just called the people she wanted to talk to the old-fashioned way — on her landline telephone, the kind she grew up with and refuses to get rid of even though she has a mobile phone.

"Don't get me wrong, I like cellphones," the 69-year-old Alexandria, Virginia, resident said Thursday, the day of the outage. "But I'm still old school."

Do you have any old school in you? We ought to share the wisdom and knowledge we have gained through our experiences with others, and help each other to make it during the hard times. In a world where everyone is out for themselves, we should be out for Jesus — wise as serpents, yet gentle as doves.

The Blood of Jesus

Reverend Aaron Betz

There is nothing more powerful in all of creation than the blood of Jesus. This blood comes also with a powerful testimony. Our knowledge of the blood and its testimony is extremely important to the New Covenant believer.

Hebrews 12: 22-24, BSB Instead, you have come to Mount Zion, to the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem. 23b You have come to God the Judge of all, to the spirits of the righteous made perfect, 24to Jesus the mediator of a new covenant, and to the sprinkled blood that speaks a better word than the blood of Abel.

The blood is proof of the debt paid and the penalty of sin lifted. The blood of Jesus removes the enemy's hold and puts us back in our rightful place with God- the place that we are destined to be. Let's expand upon these points.

The blood of Jesus dissolves the contracts with darkness (legal rights/agreement) AFTER repentance takes place. It is proof that we are forgiven of sin and cleared of all guilt. It is the NEW EVIDENCE that thoroughly dismisses and disproves the old. The blood of Jesus allows us to be armed with the perfect testimony, freed from the accusations of the enemy.

The blood of Jesus cleanses us and prepares the way for our Restoration.

1 John 1:7, BSB 7But if we walk in the light as He is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus His Son cleanses us from all sin.

Take a deep look at the following scripture, it points out how much the blood does for us:

Hebrews 9:12, 14-15, BSB He did not enter by the blood of goats and calves, but He entered the Most Holy Place once for all by His own blood, thus securing eternal redemption. 14 How much more will the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered Himself unblemished to God, purify our consciences from works of death, so that we may serve the living God! 15Therefore Christ is the mediator of a new covenant, so that those who are called may receive the promised eternal inheritance, now that He has died to redeem them from the transgressions committed under the first covenant.

Did you get that all? This scripture teaches us that blood of Jesus gives us access- it makes the way for us to enter into Heaven. It allows us to be spiritual and to receive promises, it allows us to inherit eternity- it gives us our place and allows us to serve God!

The Strength of Humility: Knowing Where You Are At... Part 4

Reverend Christopher Gore

We have been looking at Adam and Eve. Now let's look at Elijah.

"Now Ahab told Jezebel all that Elijah had done, and how he had killed all the prophets [of Baal] with the sword. Then Jezebel sent a messenger to Elijah, saying, "So may the gods do to me, and even more, if by this time tomorrow I do not make your life like the life of one of them." And Elijah was afraid and arose and ran for his life, and he came to Beersheba which belongs to Judah, and he left his servant there. But he himself traveled a day's journey into the wilderness, and he came and sat down under a juniper tree and asked [God] that he might die. He said, "It is enough; now, O Lord, take my life, for I am no better than my fathers." I Kings 19: 1 - 4 {AMP}.

Elijah looked at himself after Jezebel threatened to take his life. Elijah had knowledge that God would protect him as he was doing God's will. Elijah had knowledge that Jezebel had made this threat against him. Here comes the conflict. Is God really going to do what He said or is Jezebel going to win. We all have this internal struggle when it comes to standing for God. Nonetheless we see Elijah in this conflict with the knowledge of his situation. This knowledge was competing against what God was going to do with Elijah.

This knowledge made Elijah go into a cave. This is different from Adam and Eve. They didn't cry out to God and got into a mess. On the other hand Elijah cried out to God but from the wrong perspective. Elijah's perspective was about him and what he was doing or what he could do. Elijah knew he could not defeat Jezebel. Elijah let the knowledge of the threat from Jezebel keep him from getting into the Spirit. Elijah was fixated on what was going to happen to him if Jezebel succeeded. Remember we said last week that, "Knowledge is good but absent from the Spirit of God knowledge can be used by the enemy to pull us off course and away from God". Elijah began to further look at himself, he did not seek God for the next move but went further into himself. Elijah became focused on his flesh, i.e. "What is happening to me?" Not what did God just do at Mt. Carmel or what is God going to do next? But his focus was on what is happening to me. With this the enemy used Jezebel to pull Elijah off course.

Humility will always compel you to seek God. No matter what the situation or circumstances. It's the dependance upon God. We need to develop the mindset that we need to include God in everything. We need to develop the mindset that there is nothing inside of us that will cause us to finish the assignment God has for us. We will continue next week with more on Elijah.

Ananias Pt.2

Evangelist Kathryn Gore

Last week, we spoke about Ananias being used as a vessel of the Lord to help bring Saul (Paul) into the Kingdom of God. Here are some key notes to take into your spirit about Ananias being used by the Lord.

1. Ananias was chosen by the Lord to carry out a specific assignment.
2. Ananias had a special visitation from the Lord in a vision that would allow him to hear, recognize, and answer the voice of the Lord.
3. Ananias understood that he didn't have to be afraid to respond to the Lord's request with a question, stating facts of what he knew about Saul's current status.
4. With understanding, Ananias trusted the voice of the Lord and went forth to lay hands on Saul to restore his sight, and to be filled with the Holy Spirit, that would lead him into baptism.

Imagine Ananias being chosen but not following through on His assignment with Saul. Imagine Ananias putting the special visitation to the side, or not hearing the voice of the Lord with confidence. Do you think he would've answered the call? Do you think he could trust the voice that he heard, knowing Saul did damage to the children of God?

Imagine Saul's life being different if Ananias would've dropped this assignment. It is possible that Paul would not have the experiences as an Apostle, suffering in ways that only he could, allowing for the whole world to know through it all, salvation in the Lord is real and it's worth it. Thank God for Ananias!!!

Ananias was called a disciple of the Lord. This was considered a big thing back in those days because a true disciple understood the price they had to pay to be called a follower of Jesus Christ. What did Ananias first say when giving this assignment? "Lord, I have heard from many about this man, how much evil he has done to your saints at Jerusalem."

Being called a disciple should still be a big thing in today's era. We make things so complicated, but the bottom line is this, do we believe it or not? Do we follow or not? There is much we can learn from Paul as being a true believer in Christ. Paul never faked it. He put his whole heart into what he witnessed through the Holy Spirit. He suffered in understanding; knowing the love of Christ, and that he had a place in Heaven prepared just for him. Paul finished his race, and he finished it well.

Today, many still don't quite believe they are chosen by God. They can't believe God is speaking to them in so many ways. They do not believe they are loved by God. Though we desire special visitations from the Lord like Ananias and Saul, would we be ready for such a thing? Or would we find a way to dismiss that as well?

John 14:8-10 8 Philip said to him, "Lord, show us the Father, and it is enough for us." 9 Jesus said to him, "Have I been with you so long, and you still do not know me, Philip?

As followers of Jesus Christ, at what point do we believe? Selah!

Pastor Barbara had always told us, JUST BE, JUST BE YOU.

Remember the story of David and Goliath when David was going to slay Goliath, and before he did, King Saul brought him in and told him, David, you can't go out there like that; you need armor to fight this giant!

So David went and listened to what King Saul said and started putting on his armor, and as he put it on, it was heavy, bulky, and restricted his movement. David knew it wasn't going to help him win against Goliath.

He decided to tell King Saul, listen, I can't wear this; I have to take it off!!

It will not allow me to move and do what I know I can to win and do what I must do to defeat this enemy the way God has called me to.

The very thing that worked for King Saul and allowed him to win at war was the very thing that would have hindered David and caused him to fail.

With that story in your mind, answer this question to yourself. What things have you put on that other people have suggested for you to do in your life, or the way that you should live your life, or the way you should think, or the way you should do things, that might have helped them in their life but may be causing you to lose in yours?

God has equipped each one of us differently. Just be you!! Just be. He has called us to live, operate, and think differently due to our varied experiences. Embrace that! Embrace the unique creation that is you, formed by the master potter.

He has equipped us with gifts that only we know how to use.

Let today be the day that you take off anything that you may have put on that God never called you to wear.

That could be mindsets, relationships, situations, jobs, the sin that so easily besets us, and so much more. Go before God and ask him to tell you what is not yours that you are carrying, that is weighing you down like the armor King Saul thought David should wear. Ask God what he has already built within you that's unique to you, that by shedding what isn't yours, will come to the forefront so that you can slay all the Goliaths that you need to defeat now and in the future, in the way that God has called you to do it.

Humility and Exaltation (Part 21)

By Theresa McGinnis

Luke 14:11; 18:14 "He that humbleth himself shall be exalted."
James 4:10 "Humble yourself in the sight of the Lord, and He shall lift you up." And 1st Peter 5:6 "Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, that He may exalt you in due time."

These three verses show us that it is when we humble ourselves, that is when we are exalted. We cannot exalt ourselves, but we must humble ourselves if we want to be exalted. If we want to conquer pride, then we must do two things: first we must do what God says is our work, to humble ourselves, then we must trust Him to do what He says is His work; He will exalt you! The command is very clear that we are to humble ourselves, but this does not mean that we are alone to conquer and cast out the pride of our nature and to form within ourselves the lowliness of Jesus. God is here, so He can do His work in us. The very essence of that exaltation in which He lifts you up into the real likeness of His beloved Son. We should be taking every opportunity to humble ourselves before God and man. We need to humble ourselves and stand persistently, not withstanding all failure and falling, under His unchanging command. We must do this with faith in the grace that is already working in you and in the assurance that more grace will be available for the victory that is coming. We need to pay attention to the light that conscience flashes on the pride of the heart and its workings. It is important that we accept with gratitude everything that God allows from within and without, from friend or enemy, in nature or in grace, to remind you of your need of humbling, and to help you to it. Believe that humility to indeed be the mother-virtue, your very first duty before God, and the one perpetual safeguard of the soul. We need to set our hearts upon it as the source of all blessings. The promise He gives us is divine and sure, "He that humbles himself shall be exalted." If we do as God asks and humble ourselves, God will make sure that He do the one thing that He has promised- He will exalt us in due time. All of God's dealings with man are done in two stages. There first is a time of preparation. This is a time of command and promise, with the mingled experience of effort and inability, of failure and partial success, with a holy expectancy of something better which these awaken- which train and discipline men for a higher stage. Then comes the time of fulfilment. This is when faith inherits the promise and enjoys what it had so often struggled for in vain. In all that concerns our redemption, God must take the initiative. When that has been done, man's turn comes. In the effort after obedience and attainment, he must learn to know his weakness. In self-despair, he must learn to die to himself, and so be voluntarily and intelligently fitted to receive the promise from God. The Father will complete that which man had accepted at the beginning in ignorance. So, God, who had been the beginning before man rightly knew Him or fully understood what His purpose was, is longed for and welcomed as the end-as the all in all.

GOD IS WITH US

Sis Grace Crescenzo

Psalm 46 says that HE IS WITH US through all things! He highlighted this Psalm lately and I believe He is saying it is important for us to remember His Words and hide them in our heart.

(Covenant)

Hebrews 10:16-26 AMP, "This is the covenant that I will make with them After those days, saith the Lord:

I will imprint my laws upon their heart, and on their mind, I will inscribe them (producing an inward change)", He then says, "And their sins and their lawless acts I will remember no more [no longer holding their sins against them]."

Now where there is [absolute] forgiveness and complete cancellation of the penalty of these things, there is no longer any offering [to be made to atone] for sin.

(A New and Living Way)

Therefore, believers, since we have confidence and full freedom to enter the Holy Place [the place where God dwells] by [means of] the blood of Jesus, by this new and living way which He initiated and opened for us through the veil [as in the Holy of Holies], that is, through His flesh, and since we have a great and wonderful Priest [Who rules] over the house of God, let us approach [God] with a true and sincere heart in unqualified assurance of faith, having had our hearts sprinkled clean from an evil conscience and our bodies washed with pure water.

Let us seize and hold tightly the confession of our hope without wavering, for He who promised is reliable and trustworthy and faithful [to His word].

(Christ or Judgment)

For if we go on willfully and deliberately sinning after receiving the knowledge of the truth, there no longer remains a sacrifice [to atone] for our sins [that is, no further offering to anticipate]!

(Promises in Psalm 46, for Whosoever Believes & Lives in Him)

Psalm 46 Today's English Version.

1. God is our shelter and strength always ready to help in times of trouble.
2. So we will not be afraid, even if the earth is shaken and the mountains fall into the ocean depths;
3. even if the seas roar and rage, and the hills are shaken by the violence.
4. There is a river that brings joy to the city of God, to the sacred house of the Most High.
5. God is in that city, and it will never be destroyed; at early dawn, he will come to its aid.
6. Nations are terrified, kingdoms are shaken; God thunders, and the earth dissolves.
7. The Lord Almighty is with us; the God of Jacob is our refuge.
8. Come and see what the Lord has done. See what amazing things he has done on earth.
9. He stops wars all over the world; He breaks bows, destroys spears, and sets shields on fire.
10. "Stop fighting", he says, "and know that I am God, supreme among the nations, supreme over the world."
11. The Lord God Almighty is with us; the God of Jacob is our refuge.

God's Consuming Fire

Reverend Astrid Sherriff

God tells us that he is a consuming fire. When we talk about God being a consuming fire, we say Hebrews 10:26-27 refers to God using "an all-consuming burning fire," indicating the kind of wrath that will come to all those who choose to defy him. His fire consumes all the impurities we have, and we become a new person in Christ. The things that keep you from being what he wants you to be. At the same time, it's trying to mold you into the image of Christ, and sometimes that will require fire.

Hebrews 12:18-29 You have not come near a mountain that can be touched or that is burning with fire, nor have you come near darkness or darkness or a storm. 19 Not at the sound of a trumpet, nor at such a clamor of words that those who heard it begged that no more should be spoken to them, 20 because they could not endure this command: "Everyone who touches the mountain will be stoned, even if he be an animal." 21 So terrifying was this sight that Moses said, "I am trembling with fear." 22 But you have come to Mount Zion, to the heavenly Jerusalem, the city of the living God. They have come to thousands and thousands of angels, to a joyful assembly, 23 to the church of the firstborn inscribed in heaven. They have drawn near to God, the Judge of all; to the spirits of the righteous who have attained perfection; 24 To Jesus, the mediator of a new covenant, and to the sprinkled blood, which speaks better than Abel's. 25 Be careful not to reject the speaker, for if those who rejected the one who warned them on earth did not escape, much less will we escape if we turn our backs on the one who warns us from heaven. 26 His voice shook the earth at that time, but now he has promised, "Once again I will make not only the earth but the sky tremble." 27 The phrase "once more" indicates the removal of movable, i.e., created things, so that the immovable may remain. 28 Since we are receiving an unshakable kingdom, let us be thankful. Inspired by this gratitude, let us worship God as he pleases, with reverent fear, 29 for our "God is a consuming fire."

Both Deuteronomy 4:24 and Hebrews 12:29 speak of God's holiness, righteousness, and zeal for His worship. We must worship Him with a deep spiritual sense of His holiness and greatness. We need grace to approach Him in worship in the right way. The particular grace mentioned is fear, spiritual wonder, and reverence.

As Deuteronomy 4 and Hebrews 12 make clear, this also includes loving care regarding the worship of God. We are to limit ourselves to the ways He has assigned us to worship Him (Deuteronomy 4:2; Leviticus 10:1-3; Exodus 20:5).

To take Hebrews 12:29 seriously means to recognize that God is still consuming fire and that this still requires of us the same reverence and fear. We must always fear God, it is consuming fire by itself, it is also consuming fire in its works, it is consuming fire in the covenant, and we must serve our God with fear.

DIFFERENT TYPES OF DOCTORS AND THEIR SPECIALTY

Reverend Naomi Nichols

MD – stands for Doctor of Medicine. They treat and diagnose conditions using conventional medical tools like x-rays, prescription drugs and surgery. They can choose to be broad practitioners and work as family medicine, primary care, psychiatry, geriatric medicine and pediatrics.

DO – stands for Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine. They focus more on holistic health which includes all parts of a person, including their mind, body and emotions which are considered during the treatment. They also use a system of physical manipulations and adjustments to diagnose and treat people. Over half of DOs choose to work in primary care but they can also choose to specialize in another area, just like MDs. DOs have all the same responsibilities and rights as MDs, including ability to perform surgery and prescribe medicine.

DDS – Doctor of Dental Surgery

DMD – Doctor of Medicine in Dentistry

* Both represent the same education. Training programs range from 2-6 years depending upon the specialty such as endodontics, orthodontics, periodontics prosthodontics, oral surgery and pediatric dentistry.

ENDOCRINOLOGISTS – specialize in treating disorders of the endocrine system including diabetes, thyroid diseases, infertility, growth issues, metabolic disorders, osteoporosis, some cancers and hormone-producing adrenal glands and pituitary glands. When problems in other systems or body parts impact your endocrine system, endocrinologists work in tandem with your primary care doctor or other specialists to come up with a treatment plan.

ALLERGISTS/IMMUNOLOGISTS – focus on the immune system and treat disorders such as food allergies, asthma, eczema, autoimmune diseases and more.

DERMATOLOGISTS – treat and diagnose benign and malignant skin disorders in addition to issues with hair and nails, moles, tumors of the skin, melanomas, allergic skin disorders and acne.

CHIROPRACTOR – focus on the musculoskeletal system which includes bones, nerves, muscles, tendons and ligaments. They believe the benefits of spinal adjustments and realigning joints improve neck and back pain and the functioning of other systems throughout the body.

CARDIOLOGIST – focus on diseases of the heart, lungs and blood vessels. These diseases include things like ischemic heart disease, pericarditis, congenital heart disease, high blood pressure and abnormal heart rhythms. They perform and interpret results of heart tests like stress testing and echocardiograms.

GASTROENTEROLOGISTS – focus on digestive organs including the stomach, bowels, pancreas, liver, gallbladder, abdominal pain, ulcers, diarrhea, jaundice or cancers in your digestive organs.

HEMATOLOGISTS – focus on diseases of the blood, spleen, lymph glands like sickle cell disease, anemia, hemophilia and leukemia. pg 14

Take Your Blood To the Courtroom Part 4 – Blood Clots Testify

Nancy Connell

I was laying there after several days of not being able to function or move, the Holy Spirit continues to show me what to do with the blood in the courtroom. He said, "it is time to have your blood testify of the clots and the blockages in the blood."

I had to look up what is a blood clot/blockage. Blood clots help stop bleeding when you're injured. It is your body's way of stopping you from bleeding too much. The Blood must flow continuously and smoothly throughout your body for an entire lifetime but quickly shut off to avoid spills when you get a cut or injury. So the blood clot can develop in response to an injury or the trauma your body experiences for example through surgeries or other medical procedures. They can also form because of damage to arteries or for no purpose which then they can be dangerous and cause life-threatening medical conditions.

Once the injury is healed the blood clot/blockage should be broken down by your body and dissolve. If this does not happen, the clot may break away and form a blockage and when this happens or they form when not needed they can cause heart attack, stroke, high blood pressure, stomach and intestinal issues, headaches, muscle aches, and many other issues. and can be inherited from the family line.

Blood clots can testify of the damage that has been done to your body through injury and trauma. They also can testify of why they are or have been there for no purpose. Once it has then you will want to allow God to walk you through the healing and forgiveness process. Ask God to allow your blood to be cleansed by the living water, restored by the blood of Jesus, and be made whole in the Spirit. (more on that later on in another article.)

When we become agonized by something no matter what it is– if you do NOT turn it over to God and allow God heal you of those wounds and "blood clots" – unforgiveness will set in and unforgiveness turns into bitterness and anger which causes negative health issues that can lead to a deadly result both physically and spiritually.

Jesus shows us of an example of this with His experience when he came to the place he had to make a decision to die to his own will and choosing to walk out the will of the Father.. In Luke 22:44, when Jesus was praying alone in the Mount of Olives He experienced so much agony that He sweat drops of blood. (The literal translation of "great drops of blood" in Luke 22:44 translates into "thrombosis".) But even more than that, the works was NOT completed, until Jesus requested God to forgive all those who did this to Him. How important those words were in that hour and so much meaning.

It actually has been proven in the medical and physiological field that negative health effects of unforgiveness are widely documented which include but are not limited to: stress, depression and anxiety, social isolation, and physical health issues. Unforgiveness manifests as anger and bitterness which causes heart ailments, high blood pressure, stomach and intestinal issues, headaches, muscle aches and other health disorders and diseases. The good news: Studies have found that the act of forgiveness can reap huge rewards for your health, lowering the risk of health issues; and reducing pain, blood pressure, and bring healing.

Faith in God includes Faith in His timing.
