Month of Love

FEBRUARY

An aerial photograph of a beach at sunset. The sky is a soft, warm orange. In the foreground, the dark green fronds of palm trees are visible. On the sandy beach, there are several lounge chairs and small tables. A prominent feature is a heart shape drawn on the sand, outlined with a string of warm white lights. Inside the heart, a small table is set with a white tablecloth and a red runner, with two people seated at it. Several small, glowing lanterns are scattered around the heart. The overall atmosphere is romantic and serene.
