A little bit about us...

FraserGrace is both a brand and a collective of people who are committed to bringing finely-crafted furniture products along with high service levels to the UK market. Originally formed in 2018 as a vehicle for our sister brand - Koplus (see page 65), the FraserGrace brand was launched in 2023 at our showroom in the heart of Clerkenwell, London. The concept was, and is, to bring together a group of world-class British and international furniture designers to create sustainable and well-designed soft-seating and co-working products for the contemporary workplace. Our mission is to lead the market with new, innovative ideas and designs.

The team behind the brand have a mix of youthful energy, friendliness and enthusiasm, combined with vast experience from the management team within the UK furniture market.

We want to continue to help guide you, our customer, through the challenges of an ever-changing workspace and to consistently provide beautiful and effective products.

We hope you join us on our journey!

Sustainability

FraserGrace is committed to working hand-in-hand with materials, designers and manufacturers that are considerate of our environment.

Whether using renewable energy or materials such as wood, metal or fabrics, it is our collective responsibility to be aware of the impact we have on our planet. Therefore, FraserGrace factors these criteria into all designs when launching products into the market. We are also committed to achieving best in class for ESG (Environmental, Social and Governance), and continually work towards attaining or maintaining the latest certifications or assessments.

We believe it is vital for our customers to work with suppliers that have this mindset and will always strive for the very highest ESG credentials available.

Our manufacturing partners are all accredited with FSC for timber and ISO14001 for environmental management.

KOPLUS®

about us

Our sister company Koplus are recognised as world-class suppliers of acoustic booths, task chairs and sit-stand desks for the workplace.

We have invested heavily into holding a large stock of products here in the UK, ready for immediate delivery and installation.

This gives our customers a great advantage for both new and existing clients, enabling them to enjoy the benefits of world-class furniture without delay.

Koplus are one of the very few acoustic booth brands available in the UK that are manufactured from steel and aluminium.

This construction ensures maximum durability and strength, along with a high dB sound reduction rating and allows us to offer a conditional structural Lifetime Warranty.

The booths & pods are also available to view in our Clerkenwell showroom, in the heart of London.
