LETTER FROM THE EDITOR-IN-CHIEF

CELEBRATE & LOVE YOU!

As I continue to grow, it seems increasingly challenging to commemorate my birthday. I cannot recollect experiencing such sentiments in the past and this past year was no exception.

So, when did things start to change? When did I start to feel anxious about celebrating my birthday? I recently took some time to contemplate and was pleasantly surprised by what I discovered about myself. At times, I find myself stating that I don't care and try to move forward as if I only want to unwind and relax, despite the fact that I genuinely want to celebrate.

Upon reflection, I've come to the realization that I don't have an issue with celebrating. I discovered that planning my birthday celebration wasn't an enjoyable experience for me. Instead of feeling loved and special, I experienced a sense of selfishness and perhaps even arrogance, planning a party intended to celebrate myself.

A phone call from one of my sisters inquiring about my birthday plans was the catalyst for change. Admitting that I had no plans prompted her to make arrangements to visit me from Atlanta.

With this new development, I was thrilled to celebrate. This experience compelled me to reevaluate my self-worth and approach to life. Relying on the celebration from others of my birthday as a determinant of my happiness appears misguided. Gratitude for being alive and having the ability to love should be sufficient cause for celebration. The journey of self-discovery & self-love is a continuous process that demands perseverance and patience. It was a joy to have my dear sister visit me from Atlanta and spend a memorable week with loved ones. However, I have resolved to love and celebrate myself unconditionally for the duration of my life's journey.

I believe it's imperative to recognize and appreciate all my accomplishments and attributes, and it's not self-centered to do so. It's important to always embrace and appreciate your unique self. And if you happen to be reading this article on your special day, I wish you a very Happy Birthday!

The Family Business

During the summer months, our family and business kept occupied with numerous activities. We recently celebrated several notable occasions, including birthdays, a charity event, an album listening party, and various life milestones. While we ensured we spent quality time with family and friends, we were also successful in managing our obligations. As a small, family-oriented entertainment business, our workload could be characterized as around-the-clock. While many families plan vacations during the summer months, we are consistently strategizing and laying the groundwork for our future and legacy.

After organizing and executing a demanding schedule of consecutive events, it's crucial to take a breather and indulge in some leisure activities. With two remaining events, I made the decision to take a break. Originally intended to last two weeks, the hiatus ended up extending a full month. Contrary to popular belief, it wasn't an extravagant trip or a spending spree. Simplicity served as the cornerstone of our break - no laptops, computers, or email communication. While we did not completely detach from our mobile devices, we intentionally avoided all work-related activities during our hiatus.

While we may not have had much opportunity to enjoy leisurely activities this summer, it's worth noting that taking short breaks to recharge our minds can be beneficial. Amidst all the hard work, a brief nap at the end of the day, or even the end of the summer, is good for the mind.

HOT STILETTO
SHOE CHARITY GALA

DiXtreme Entertainment had the honor of delivering our signature Red Carpet Social Media Zone service at the 11th Annual Hot Stiletto Charity event. The event took place at the Abbott Venue & Event Space in Kansas City, MO.

A Night To Remember

Greetings, D.E.N. enthusiasts! If you missed the 11th Annual Hot Stiletto Shoe Charity Gala on July 9th, in Kansas City, MO., you surely missed out on an exceptional evening.

Allow me to share my experience being part of the entertainment segment this year and share the highlights of DiXtreme Entertainment's Red Carpet Social Media Zone. The Hot Stiletto Charity Gala is a unique event, showcasing some of the hottest shoe looks that was all captured on the Red Carpet Social Media Zone, while also raising the awareness about a critical issue of the fight against domestic violence.

To open the evening, I had the honor of co-hosting The Red Carpet Social Media Zone with my mother and business partner, Jackie Michaels. I was thoroughly impressed by the stylish ensembles you could spot throughout the event and especially on The Red Carpet Social Media Zone. Notably, Irv Randle (also known as "Mr. Steal Your Grandma") was in attendance who graced the DiXtreme Entertainment's Red Carpet Social Media Zone, accompanied by The Silver Fox Squad, who brought their unique blend of elegance and flair to the event.

The music was expertly curated by DJ Jermaine the Gentleman, whose song choices perfectly complemented the ambiance of the evening, ensuring that the crowd danced the night away.

The entertainment segment of the evening was nothing short of remarkable, featuring a lineup of exceptional performers. Jackie Michaels kicked off the show with a stunning rendition of Ke Ke Wyatt's "Mirror." Through her powerful vocals, she effectively conveyed the perspective of a domestic violence survivor, underscoring the event's purpose. Following her performance, The D.E.N. conducted a brief interview with Jackie Michaels, during which she expressed gratitude for being part of the experience and eagerness to witness the Hot Stiletto Foundation's future endeavors.

A Vision. A Reality.

Vicki's ability to understand and cater to her audience's preferences is exceptional. I am grateful for the opportunity to help bring Vickie Kelly's vision to fruition. Upon receiving the instructions and requirements for my dance performance, I promptly initiated the process of selecting music and creating choreography. In collaboration with the team, we developed a mesmerizing ballerina glass dance routine. This routine was intended to highlight the Hot Stiletto Foundation's "New Era" and captivate the audience at the event.

At the event, following Jackie Michael's performance, I made my entrance from behind the stage walls, creating a dazzling disco ball effect throughout the room. The performance commenced with a classical ballet piece, paired with a scripted and produced monologue by the DiXtreme Music Production team. The routine then transitioned into a striking hip-hop finale, which evoked a sense of surprise. The glass ballerina costume worn was both fierce and elegant. Although I incurred minor scrapes on my arms and legs, it was a small price to pay. The overall experience was immensely enjoyable, entertaining the guests, and eliciting an ecstatic reaction from the host.

After concluding my performance, I immediately exited the stage to prepare for the highly anticipated Strut the Runway segment, a favorite produced by DiXtreme Entertainment. The stunning models graced the event with their presence, showcasing a diverse array of bold and elegant shoe styles from Enrico Cuini, Dillard's, and TealHouse Shoes. Their presence added an unparalleled level of beauty and style to the event.

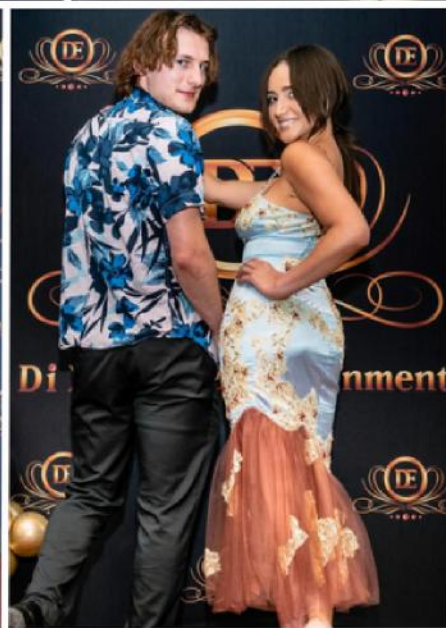

The Hot Stiletto Charity Gala proved to be an exceptional occasion of entertainment and community service. It was an unforgettable evening, and in case you missed it, you can head over to @hotstiletto on Instagram and Facebook to catch up on the 11th Annual Hot Stiletto Charity Gala's highlights. The DiXtreme Entertainment team extends gratitude to Vicki Kelly for allowing us to be part of such a purpose-driven event. We are humbled to have been a part of this endeavor and extend our best wishes to the Hot Stiletto Foundation.

A'Kaeila Coulter, the Co-Owner of DiXtreme Entertainment, performed in a 30-pound ballerina costume. This custom-made attire is constructed from acrylic glass sourced from Poland.

DiXtreme Entertainment had the privilege of providing our exceptional Red Carpet Social Media Zone at the 11th Annual Hot Stiletto Charity Shoe Gala. The event was held in Kansas City, MO., at the Abbott Venue & Event Space.

FLOATING INTO 40's

Nette's birthday celebration was a memorable occasion. Surrounded by close family and friends, we commemorated her milestone with a luxurious "Floating into Forty" yacht party in Atlanta, Georgia. The event was intimate and beautiful, with heartfelt speeches and touching anecdotes demonstrating Y'Nette's exceptional character. The joyous laughter filled the air as we floated on water amongst the stars, making it an unforgettable experience.

Y'Nette has been an invaluable asset, serving as right-hand to the CEO for several years. Her unwavering dedication and commitment to her work are unparalleled, ensuring smooth and seamless operations. Her meticulous attention to detail, coupled with her ability to anticipate and fulfill needs, has been instrumental in our success. It's no surprise that she is so highly regarded and esteemed as a critical member of our team.

As Y'Nette embarks on a new chapter in her life, it's an opportune moment to express our gratitude for her contributions. Her birthday celebration was not just a tribute to her existence but also an acknowledgment of her impact on our lives. We are eager to see what the future holds for Y'Nette and look forward to continuing our collaboration for many years to come. Happy Birthday Y'Nette!

DiXtreme Entertainment recently partnered with Shadow Hills Community to host a 2023-2024 Football Season Opening Game Mixer.

The event brought together members of the community to enjoy an evening of entertainment while watching the Detroit Lions battle the 2022 Super Bowl Champions, the Kansas City Chiefs. DiXtreme Entertainment planning and production team was enthusiastic about coordinating, decorating, and facilitating the games for the audience's enjoyment.

In contrast to our usual formal dress code and sophisticated events, it was a refreshing change of pace to unwind and celebrate collectively. We thoroughly enjoyed collaborating with the Shadow Hills Community and eagerly anticipate the prospect of another partnership. As the NFL season draws to a close, how do you plan to stay engaged with your favorite team during the offseason?

HONORING A TRUE LEGEND

DEE DEE MCNEIL

Whoever asserted that reaching the age of 80 lacks vibrancy has evidently not crossed paths with the remarkable Dee Dee McNeil. She boasts a diverse array of talents, excelling as a singer, songwriter, published poet, journalist, producer, and playwright. Dee Dee McNeil (aka: Doris McNeil), recently commemorated her momentous birthday. The festivities were an embodiment of liveliness, joy, and affection. Her exuberant spirit was truly on display, making it an unforgettable celebration. The phrase "Detroit Style" embodies an exceptional charm and authenticity that characterizes the city, and recently, we celebrated Dee Dee's birthday in a way that reflected this spirit. The event paid tribute to her Detroit roots and culture, featuring music and cuisine that celebrated her diversity and resilience.

Dee Dee McNeil has performed in over two dozen countries worldwide, entertained in a number of five-star hotels and performed for the king and queen of Bangkok (by special request) at the Oriental Hotel in Thailand. In her native Detroit, Michigan, as a contract songwriter for Motown Records several iconic artists have recorded her music including Diana Ross, the Supremes, Gladys Knight and the Pips, David Ruffin, Edwin Star, The Four Tops, The Marvelettes, The Fantastic Four, Kiki Dee, Martha Reeves and the Vandellas, and Rita Marley just to name a few. As an artist, McNeil was part of the historic Rap group, The Watts Prophets. She was one of the first women to Rap in the late '60s and early '70's, (before Hip Hop) speaking up for women's rights. Dee Dee is a published journalist and writes for a number of magazines including L.A. Jazz Scene, Musical Memoirs, and Making a Scene.

DiXtreme Entertainment was thrilled to celebrate such a significant occasion with you. To learn more about Dee Dee McNeil go to DIXTREME.COM

FALL TIME

SEASON
SWEET

Winter Wellness: Your Seasonal Health Check-In

As the Fall season ushers in the colder winter months, it's essential to prioritize our health by taking vitamins and making intentional healthy choices for ourselves and our families.

Here are some of the practices that the DiXtreme family relies on to maintain a robust immune system and overall well-being during the colder months.

7 Tips to Avoid Illness

1. STAY HYDRATED
2. TAKE VITAMINS C & D
3. DRINK GINGER & TURMERIC TEA
4. WEAR LAYERS OF CLOTHES
5. KEEP YOUR SKIN MOISTURIZE
6. EAT YOUR FRUITS & VEGETABLES
7. EXERCISE

HALLOWEEN SAFETY TIPS FOR FAMILIES

1. ALWAYS accompany your children during trick-or-treating or visiting haunted houses. Children under the age of 12 should always be accompanied by an adult, and for kids older than 12, ensure they are with a reliable group of peers whose parents you know and trust.
2. Exercise caution when driving to ensure your own driving safety. Stay vigilant of other drivers on the road.
3. Remain in neighborhoods you and family are familiar with when collecting candy.
4. It's essential to ensure that your children wear reflective and light clothing when walking through neighborhoods.
5. Why not ditch the masks and unleash your inner artist? Face paint is a colorful and creative alternative that lets you breathe easy and see clearly. Plus, it's the perfect pre-trick-or-treat activity to get everyone in the festive spirit!
6. Hold off on letting the little ones dig into the candy stash until you've given it the all-clear.

Have a Frightfully Fun
Halloween Bash!

The Essence of Thanksgiving

Thanksgiving Day, is a time when the air is filled with warmth and laughter, and gratitude is weaved into every conversation.

It is a day when families gather around long tables adorned with autumnal decorations, indulging in delicious feasts and cherishing memories. But as we sit in the comfort of our homes, surrounded by abundance, let us pause for a moment and cast our eyes upon those less fortunate.

In this season of gratitude, let us not allow the joy of this season to become clouded by our own self-interests. Let the warmth of our hearts radiate through our actions, casting a light in the darkest corners of our world, illuminating the lives of those who need it most. Let us be the embodiment of gratitude and appreciation, not only for what we have but for what we can give.

So, on this day of thanks, let us extend our arms beyond our immediate circles, reaching out to embrace those who are drowning in despair. Let us lend a hand to the homeless, help provide a meal to the hungry, and offer solace to those burdened by loneliness. For it is within these simple acts of kindness that the true spirit of Thanksgiving flourishes.

If you're looking for some ways to give back to your community during the Thanksgiving Day season, I've got a few ideas for you. And don't worry, you'll still have plenty of time to enjoy a delicious dinner with your family.

- Adopt a family in need
- Volunteer at a nursing home
- Clean up and beautify your local park
- Volunteer at a local shelter or food pantry

NELLY'S ANNUAL BLACK & WHITE BALL

After a hiatus of seven years, Nelly hosted his annual Black & White Ball, with proceeds going towards local & national charities.

The exclusive star-studded event took place at the Four Seasons Hotel located in downtown St. Louis. The ceremony commenced with a Red-Carpet (black-carpet) segment that featured several notable celebrities such as Polow Da Don, Bow Wow, Monica, Jermaine Dupree, Big Boss Vette, and St. Lunatics (Murphy Lee, City Spud, Kyjuan), Issac Keys, Orlando Pace & Ozzie Smith. The evening's celebration began with an electrifying performance by DMC and DJ Charlie Chan Soprano, taking the audience on a journey through the past 50 years of Hip Hop.

During the dinner, Nelly made a point to personally thank all of the attendees, displaying his humble nature. He articulated that the evening was not only about celebrating but also about giving back to the community.

Nelly emphasized the importance of helping others through acts of kindness, stating "I eat, then I help someone else eat, and they help others to eat". On stage, Nelly presented the 1st Black & White Legend Award to Ozzie Smith, an American former professional baseball player known as "The Wizard of Oz," Ozzie Smith combined athletic ability with acrobatic skill to become one of the greatest defensive shortstops of all time.

He also honored two families from the Make-A-Wish Foundation. Additionally, he generously provided three students with full ride scholarships to Harris Stowe State University. The Black & White Ball commenced with a lively performance from the local band Dirty Muggs and concluded with an unexpected show by Wyclef Jean. This event was not only a celebration but also a chance to contribute to society. The entire proceeds from this year's ball will be donated to the Make-A-Wish Foundation.

*T*he Super Bowl LVIII was an amazing event that provided fans with a thrilling and engaging experience. The game took place in Las Vegas at the Allegiant Stadium on February 11, 2024. Las Vegas, is home to some of the most glamorous and renowned resorts, delivering a fantastic Super Bowl experience for football fans with world-class accommodation, entertainment, and amenities.

"Thank you to the NFL organization for orchestrating an exceptional Super Bowl weekend in Las Vegas."

DiXtreme Entertainment had the privilege of participating in the Super Bowl Experience at Mandalay Bay, offering football enthusiasts a distinctive chance to engage in interactive games, obtain autographs from NFL celebrities, and capture memorable moments with Super Bowl Vince Lombardi trophy.

Renowned for his dynamic stage charisma and hit songs, Usher presented an electrifying show that enthralled fans nationwide. As a prominent figure in the music realm, Usher elevated the halftime spectacle to unprecedented levels, cementing it as a standout moment in the Super Bowl extravaganza.

The event provided an exhilarating platform for DiXtreme Entertainment to celebrate one of America's most thrilling sports nights. Noteworthy moments included the crowning of the Kansas City Chiefs as World Champions and the captivating halftime show during Super Bowl LVIII. Adding to the fervor of the event, Usher delivered a captivating performance.

This year's Super Bowl Experience was one for the history books. I eagerly anticipate witnessing how the National Football League Production will surpass it in the upcoming season. As we anticipate the upcoming season, an intriguing question arises: Will the Kansas City Chiefs make history by winning a third Super Bowl championship, becoming the first team to achieve a 3-Peat Milestone?

February

BLACK HISTORY MONTH

WAY TOO MUCH HISTORY FOR ONE MONTH.

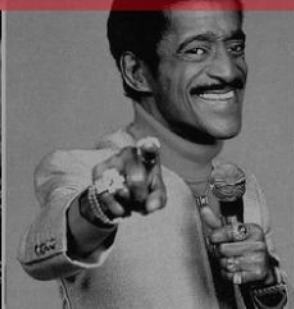

In February 1969, Black educators and Black United Students at Kent State University introduced the concept of Black History Month. The first official celebration of Black History Month took place at Kent State University from January 2 to February 28, 1970. Black History Month is a significant time of reflection, celebration, and exploration of the contributions and achievements of Black individuals throughout history. With a focus on honoring the legacies of Black leaders, artists, activists, and everyday individuals, this year's Black History Month celebrations aim to shine a light on the rich cultural heritage and resilience of a universal culture.

Considering the expansive and multifaceted cultural diversity within the Black community, attempting to encapsulate it all within a single month may pose a considerable challenge. As a society, it is imperative to acknowledge and value our past achievements. While honoring our accomplishments is essential, it is equally crucial to remain resolute in our commitment to shaping a promising future through excellence.

Embrace your uniqueness and fearlessly strive for excellence, contributing positively to the collective human experience.

HOLD ON

"Hold On" is a captivating contemporary R&B track that imbues jazz elements into its sound. The song is written and performed by Jackie Michaels, with production and composition credits attributed to Jazz Trumpeter Sam Hankins. The song's lyrics are universally motivating, inspiring listeners to persevere through life's challenges and never give up.

Women History Month

CELEBRATING WOMENS CONTRIBUTION IN AMERICAN HISTORY

The month of March is designated as Women's History Month, a time to honor and celebrate the significant contributions of women from the past to the present.

It serves as a platform to acknowledge and recognize the accomplishments of women across a multitude of fields throughout American history. Drawing inspiration from historical trailblazers and the exceptional women in our midst today, we should take pride in standing on the shoulders of those who continually pioneer in remarkable ways. We cannot overlook the vitals role and influences of women such as Maya Angelou, Billie Jean King, Madame C.J. Walker, Wilma Rudolph, Frida Kahlo, Serena Williams, Sally Ride, Aretha Franklin, and Amanda Gorman, among others, in shaping the narratives that encompass us all.

In honoring women who have left a significant imprint on society, let us also acknowledge those who have profoundly influenced our personal spheres. Whether it be a parent, a teacher, a mentor, or any woman pivotal to your growth and development, it is essential to celebrate and express gratitude towards them today.
