Good evening and a very warm welcome to Goldington Road as we return to home action against our neighbours, friends and rivals from Ampthill.

Ampthill is always an exciting fixture as the local derby adds that extra dose of anticipation and drama. Welcome to our opposition supporters, players and guests.

The start of the Men's Six Nations tournament gives fans the opportunity to see Bedford Blues in action on the eve of England versus Wales tomorrow. Hopefully you'll be joining us in The Burrow for one of England's games as they go in search of a Grand Slam. Congratulations to former Blues; Emmanuel Iyogun, Henry Pollock, Rory Hutchinson, Tom Farrell and Matt Gallagher, who are set to feature in the competition.

Back to the Blues, unfortunately we came unstuck at Hartpury last time out and fell victim to the vagaries of front row laws and uncontested scrums, at one stage having only 12 men on the field. Certainly, our coaches feel our discipline let us down to put us in that position and we will have been working hard on tightening that up for this evening's fixture.

The second half of the season in now well underway, with focus very much on making sure Blues are involved in the play-offs come May. This month will be decisive in where we will finish, so the support, both home and away, which has been tremendous, will certainly make a difference.

The team will be determined to get back to winning ways tonight in front of their home crowd, and to consolidate their league position. Friday nights and the general ambience generated by floodlit rugby make for a special feeling in the ground, and we hope we succeed in attracting not only a large, but a vocal group of fans to build that noisy and energetic Goldington Road atmosphere. It will be needed because Ampthill will pose a difficult challenge.

I'd also like to mention our Women's team, who progressed to the Quarter Finals of the Community Plate competition by defeating Chinnor Kites 42-10 last Sunday. They continue to make huge progress - congratulations to the whole team and coaches.

We can all see the growth in the women's game firsthand, so to be awarded the England Under 21s Six Nations fixture against France on Sunday 10th May, is brilliant news for the club. Well done to those who have secured it, hopefully our supporters will turn out for what will be another great occasion.

Good evening everyone and welcome back to Goldington Road for the first of two Friday Night Lights here this February, as Ampthill make the short hop along the B530 for Champ Rugby action.

We extend a warm welcome to Dave Ward, Mark Lavery, their coaching staff, players and supporters back here to Bedford for what I'm sure will be another interesting affair on Derby Day.

There were a lot of mixed emotions after last weekend's trip to Hartpury, but firstly I have to say immense pride in how the group stuck together to still come away with a point that could be vital come the end of the season in terms of league standings.

But we fully accept that you can't win a game with 12 men on the field and our discipline was a really disappointing factor, particularly in such a tight game where any mistake was quickly seized upon.

It's extremely pleasing to be back at Goldington Road tonight. There's always a buzz around the place for fixtures such as this, and we're hoping to have another great turnout from our #BluesFamily to try and help us over the line.

Ampthill, as they always are, will be the toughest of opponents and will be determined to make up for their last outing against us. They are notoriously difficult to play against anyway and any extra motivation will no doubt inspire them. Our home form however has been very good so far this season and we aim to continue that tonight.

There'll be moments in the game where we'll really need you – these derby fixtures are always tightly contested affairs, and your pride and passion will be crucial to helping us with that extra one percent that could make all the difference in the end.

Thank you for your continued support and hopefully we can deliver a performance to be proud of.

BEDFORD BLUES SUPPORTERS CLUB

GET ON-BOARD AND FOLLOW THE BLUES

As I look out through the posts onto the pitch, I'm reminded of all the changes and successes we have had since the beginning of the 25/26 season.

The boys have done us proud, a part time squad sitting way up in second place in the Champ Rugby table. We couldn't be prouder to support them home and away.

Over the Summer, the new Supporters Club was formed from the Followers and the Friends of the Blues. The new committee have worked hard to get to know each other and work together for amazing results. As part of the change, we moved our physical space to make way for the new much needed Disabled Area, with our new Cabin now in a great position between The Dovecote Park Suite and the Scrum Bar. Do come visit us.

We think we are matching the fabulous results on the pitch by raising much appreciated funds that help support away travel and allows us to make significant donations to the club.

We do this in two ways; by regular monthly subscriptions from supporters and also through our widely admired Jackpot Sales on match days. My personal thanks go to ALL those who are our dedicated, professional looking sellers who are described as 'most welcoming' by visiting fans.

Our away support is also unmatched, and we are planning our 'Big Day Out' to the Cambridge game on 28th March. Lots of freebies and player interactions anticipated. Keep a look out on our socials and website and sign up for a great day of rugby fun! All are welcome to travel with us.

In the meantime, don't miss out on the trip to Doncaster next week, it's worth the journey just for their world famous 'cow pie'. Book online or in our Cabin at today's game.

Back to today, we welcome back once again our noisy neighbours, Ampthill! Always a great game that creates a wonderful game day atmosphere.

Come On You Blues!

BEDFORD BLUES WOMEN

BLUES WOMEN EARN QUARTER FINAL BERTH

A nice piece of history for Bedford Blues Women in their fledgling years as they reached the last eight of a knockout competition for the first time with a resolute 42-10 victory over Chinnor Kites at Goldington Road last Sunday.

It was another strong performance as they continued their momentum garnered so far in 2026, running in six tries and affording more members of the squad some much needed minutes on the field with a number of key players rested to focus on upcoming league action.

Emma Graham stole the show once again by notching a hat-trick, including two stunning solo efforts that started in her own half before leaving defenders for dust on both occasions. A more team-oriented try for the third.

Angel Boateng is proving to be a useful weapon off the bench of late, adding a huge power game against tired bodies and she again ran 40m to the line, while Katharine Simpson continued her rich vein of form since coming back from injury with a neat finish.

Ever present Emily McBarron completed the try scoring.

Lucy Middleton and Graham shared the kicking responsibilities, each nudging 3/3 off the tee.

Tougher challenges will lie in wait, including on Sunday against Stamford in a title showdown up in Lincolnshire, as they look to fight on two fronts with seven fixtures coming up in the space of just eight weeks.

TODAY'S OPPONENTS

AMPHILL

Having squared off against each other so often in recent years, there really can't be that much more for Bedford Blues and Amphill to learn about each other. Always a great game first and foremost, battle lines are certainly drawn going into this fixture and rest assured it'll be a rowdy atmosphere inside Goldington Road.

Two meetings have already come and gone in 25/26, the first a Baker Brothers Bedfordshire Cup clash back in September, and the reverse league fixture at The Olney Field a mere five weeks later.

More than 20 meetings in recent years in a contest that brings the best out of both clubs so expect another close encounter of the rugby kind tonight. All form goes out of the window on Derby Day and make no bones about it, Amphill will come to Goldington Road ready for war.

The Mob will need no motivation in search of a win that would stop a run of six successive Bedford victories in this fixture. Amphill have profited from good displays on enemy territory before, including victory in front of a sellout audience in 2019, and will be looking to upset the applecart again in the first Derby Day of 2026.

Blues are starting to turn the screw a little bit with ten victories in the last eleven meetings, but having met so often, then you'd expect both sides to have their respective moments at some point throughout.

In the meetings evidenced in the last 18 months or so, an average of just shy of 46 points is observed with both sides trying to implement an attacking style of play. Expect another blood and thunder contest today on the hallowed turf.

As always, Amphill are most welcome visitors to Goldington Road as we look for another cracking contest at the home of Bedford's premier sporting club.

Friday Night Lights. Derby Day. Nothing Better.

TWO TO WATCH

FORWARD

Harrison Courtney

LOOSE HEAD PROP

Since signing from Doncaster Knights for the start of 2024/25, Harrison Courtney has made the Amphill number one jersey his own, making a total of 39 appearances to date.

Named Amphill Player of the Year in his debut campaign, the 28-year-old has featured against Bedford more than any other side in his career, having also spent time at fellow Champ Rugby outfit, London Scottish as well as his time in Yorkshire.

He also had a short stint at United Rugby Championship side, Edinburgh but has seemingly found his home in Bedfordshire and established himself as one of the first names on the teamsheet.

The New Zealander, who grew up in Hamilton, is a product of Hamilton Boys' High School's First XV – a team which he captained in his youth. Heading to the Northern Hemisphere in 2021, he has also represented Lincoln University, Canterbury and Scottish Super6 side, Watsonians.

BACK

SCRUM HALF

A nippy number nine, Efan Jones has made his own personal highlight reel so far this season with some majestic displays, including a standout try against Coventry as part of his 15 appearances so far in 25/26.

An arrival last Summer from United Rugby Championship side Scarlets, where he spent two seasons but found game time somewhat hard to come by having competed with the likes of Welsh internationals Gareth Davies and Kieran Hardy.

He earned the chance to play in the Welsh regional set-up following a Player of the Year display at RGC 1404, and this is his first taste of rugby life outside of Wales but joined with high praise from the coaching staffs of both Scarlets and Amphill.

Jones was capped at Wales U18s level as part of his development going through the age grades.

SAFETY MATTERS

All persons attending fixtures at Bedford Rugby Club in possession of tickets for the Eagle Stand should note that in order to comply with the conditions of the Club Safety Certificate certain restrictions have to be imposed on occupants of seats within this stand:

No smoking is permitted in any part of the stand. No bottles, cans or glasses can be taken into the stand.

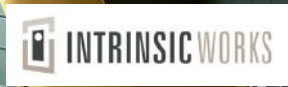

OTHER AREAS

In addition to the above it should be noted that bottles and glasses are not permitted in any part of the ground except inside the bars, therefore drinks will continue to be served in plastic containers on matchdays.

EVACUATION PROCEDURES

All spectators should note that in the unlikely event of an evacuation becoming necessary, an announcement will be made over the public address system immediately preceded by a warning klaxon sound, informing them of areas that are to be evacuated. As this announcement is being made stewards will open emergency exits and gates, all of which are clearly indicated. Safety stewards will then direct spectators as to which route they should use to leave the ground. In order that any evacuation is conducted as quickly and safely as possible all spectators are requested to comply with the instructions of Safety stewards.

Match tickets should be retained in the event of an evacuation should the game be rescheduled for another date.

THE GILBERT BIG INTERVIEW

As James Lennon prepares to lead the side out on the occasion of his 100th Bedford Blues appearance, he speaks pride at reaching such a momentous milestone while looking to celebrate in style this Derby Day.

JAMES LENNON

Jiffy, firstly many congratulations on becoming the latest member of the illustrious century club here at Goldington Road. How special a moment is this for you and your family?

I'm really proud, it's obviously a massive achievement to get to 100 games for a club, particularly one as special as Bedford. It's been something I've been targeting all season knowing I was close to it, so really happy to tick it off.

If you could pick a fixture and a time to do it, Friday night at home against Ampthill would probably be right up there with what you'd pick, so it probably does make it that little extra special in that sense as well.

This is your second spell with the club having spent two years at Richmond in between. When you departed in 2021, did you ever think you'd come back and get to 100 games?

If I'm being honest and thinking back to when I left, no I probably didn't think I'd get 100 – I always had in my mind that I'd love to come back to Goldington Road. Speaking to Mike about going to Richmond to get some more game time – I knew if I did what he challenged me then the door was never closed.

It will be nice to lead the boys out tonight but once that whistle goes, you've got to switch on and get into game mode and do your job. Celebrating the achievement can come later.

/// ...if we can play that attacking brand of rugby from minute one then teams find it hard to stop us getting momentum ///

99 games so far for Bedford Blues, are there any particular standout moments?

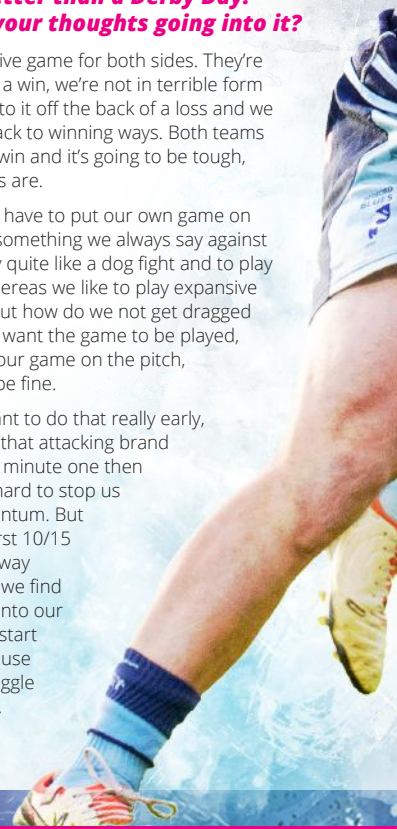

Probably back when I was here in the first stint beating Ealing at Goldington Road on a Friday when they were on the up was a pretty big one. Bristol at home last year was a big scalp for us as a group, and playing some of the Prem sides away – Bath was a great trip. Local derbies, beating Ampthill and things like that are always good.

Speaking of today's game, there's nothing better than a Derby Day. What are your thoughts going into it?

This is a massive game for both sides. They're desperate for a win, we're not in terrible form but coming into it off the back of a loss and we want to get back to winning ways. Both teams hunting for a win and it's going to be tough, derbies always are.

I think we just have to put our own game on the pitch; it's something we always say against Ampthill. They quite like a dog fight and to play it up front, whereas we like to play expansive rugby. It's about how do we not get dragged into how they want the game to be played, and if we get our game on the pitch, I'm sure we'll be fine.

It's so important to do that really early, if we can play that attacking brand of rugby from minute one then teams find it hard to stop us getting momentum. But if we let the first 10/15 minutes get away from us, then we find it hard to get into our flow. The fast start is crucial because teams do struggle to live with us.

Last week was a mixture of emotions in that massive heart and character shown, but discipline again proving the deciding factor within the game itself. What have the squad been speaking about this week?

We need a bit of a reaction. We did say we were disappointed with the result, discipline was spoken about a lot this week as something to tighten up.

But we also did say about the fight and desire, to still come away with a point is still a good result in the end. We've taken something in every game apart from Chinnor, which is a positive.

Being away from home is always going to be tougher and I think we're sometimes caught going off on our own and trying to problem solve. Whereas at Goldington Road it just seems to all come together a bit better – obviously you're more comfortable in the environment.

The penalty count is normally lower at home, and we find that because momentum is normally with us and when the momentum is with you, the referee tends to be as well, which helps.

It's cliché but you take every game as it comes, you obviously want to win every game in the best manner possible, but that's exactly how we'll be taking things tonight – one game at a time.

JUNIOR SQUASH COACHING

Squash is a brilliant sport for children. It helps to develop not only ball skills, but also the basic movement skills of agility, balance and coordination that underpin many other sporting activities, and important mental skills such as concentration, self-reliance and perseverance. It is also great for overall junior health and fitness and most importantly it's fun!

Bedford Squash Academy run regular beginner courses throughout the year for juniors ages 8-14, with free introductory sessions for those new to the programme. After the initial free sessions there will then be an opportunity to pay for further coaching to develop and improve play.

The courses are run by an experienced England Squash qualified coaching team and we provide all equipment needed so get in touch today to find out why children love Squash so much!

JORDAN ONOJAIFE

2016-18 & 2019-2024. 100 APPEARANCES, 7 TRIES.

2013 - England U18s European Champions*2014 - England U20s Junior World Championship*Jordan writes:

I was born in Colchester, Essex, and my first introduction to rugby was in Year 7 at school in Colchester. I'd never played rugby before and we didn't have a school team, but we had a few rugby lessons in Physical Education, which I really enjoyed.

I started playing rugby properly when I was thirteen. We were in Dubai and I played for my school, Jumeirah College. I absolutely loved it. For the Sixth Form, I moved back to England and attended Stowe School on a rugby scholarship.

I had great coaches at my first rugby club, Dubai Exiles. One coach in particular was Tim Boyle, who had a great influence on me. That's where I really experienced what rugby was all about - playing and enjoying yourself.

I initially came on loan to Bedford from Northampton Saints for eight games in the 2016-17 season. I had also played on loan at Moseley and Rotherham. From the off, I loved the style of play and the environment Mikey created. I also loved playing at Goldington Road in front of the fans - it's truly a very special rugby club and it brings the best out of the players.

I have so many fond memories of the club and everyone involved. A proper rugby club!

2017-18 was the season I spent a full year on loan at Bedford. We had a really good squad with a mix of experienced players like Lee Dickson, Chris Czekaj,

Paul Tupai et al alongside a lot of younger players eager to perform and impress. There was a great team spirit.

My highlight from that season was our British & Irish Cup run. We had some great away wins - the most memorable being beating Munster away just before Christmas. We flew out on the day, beat them, stayed the night and experienced the Irish night life the Bedford way.

My only regret that season is that we didn't win the Cup. We got knocked out in the semi-final, but I still believe we were good enough to win it. It was Bedford's best season in the League and Cup since 2012-13.

2023-24 SQUAD

In 2024, I retired from rugby after Bedford. Bedford has a special place in my heart, and there is truly no other club I would rather have played for.

Unlike many other retired rugby players, I didn't take up rugby coaching. I spend most of my weekends watching my son play U8s football. I make sure he is physical and uses his size! (no cards yet - haha!).

My work now is as a Lead Data Engineer for Marks & Spencer (Data engineering is a type of Software Engineering).

My last visit to Goldington Road was for the pre-season game v Blackheath for Deano's Testimonial. It was a great occasion for a great servant to Bedford Blues and Championship Rugby. I always love returning to the Blues and hopefully I'll be back again soon.

I am still living in Northampton with my partner, and I now have two children who keep me busy. In terms of sport, I don't really play anymore, but I keep myself active in the gym.

Bedford is an incredible club, run by even better people and with great supporters - long may it continue.

HARTPURY

A performance full of character and heart as Bedford Blues took a bonus point away from their trip to Gloucestershire, falling to a narrow defeat against a Hartpury University side who remain unbeaten at home this season.

It was a performance that should take a lot of credit for constantly staying in the fight, but probably did also highlight some deficiencies as Blues scored a seasonal low points haul of just 13.

Fyn Brown's try and points from the boot of Will Maisey had them up at the break, but they couldn't hold onto the lead and ultimately paid the price.

With results around the league again bringing up some surprises, the table is now becoming extremely congested. The losing bonus point could be vital come May.

STATS CORNER

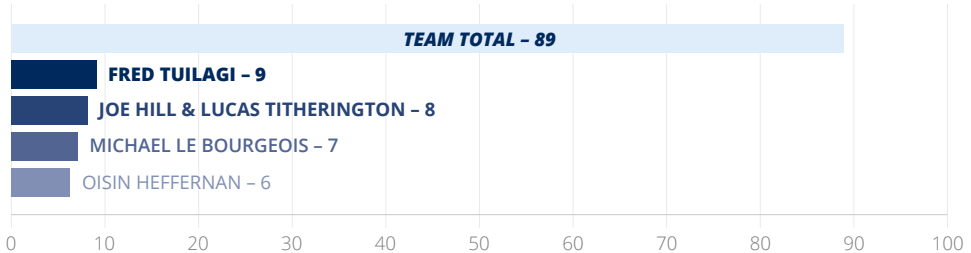

It was a frustrating afternoon for Bedford Blues as they fell to defeat against fellow play-off chasers Hartpury University, suffering defeat for the second away game in succession.

Lots of hunger and desire from the team as they battled against the tide to at least pick up a losing bonus point, but they were second best in many key aspects of the game and were left to lick their wounds at the final whistle.
