Welcome to Wildes Land!

Wildes Land advocates natural and species-appropriate diets for dogs and cats.

Our motto is: Pure nature!

We produce premium dog and cat food that is fully tailored to the natural needs of our house pets. An extra portion of fresh meat for excellent acceptance, no grains for optimum tolerance, and valuable wild herbs are what set our foods apart. Inspired by our love for our pets, we deliver the essence of nature by the bowlful!

From Wet Food to Dry Food to Snacks, our product assortment has everything that gets our feline friends excited – adult cats and growing kittens alike.

What we stand for

Extra portion of fresh meat

All Wildes Land food varieties contain an extra portion of fresh, premium meat for species-appropriate cat nutrition.

Well-accepted and well-tolerated

Wildes Land food is outstandingly well-accepted and exceptionally well-tolerated, thanks to its high content of fresh meat.

Grain-free / gluten-free

We do not use any grains or gluten because our recipes are intended to be 100% natural nutrition for your cat.

Valuable wild herbs

Our select wild herbs such as blackberry leaf, centaury, and nettle are known to contain valuable nutrients and complement our product selection.

Organic quality

Our Wildes Land Organic Wet Food is certified-organic in Germany and is based on the unspoilt power of nature.

Our organic varieties are grain-free and contain only premium sources of protein. Since certified organic farming foregoes preventative use of antibiotics and hormones, growth and performance-enhancing substances are banned, and you can rest assured that Wildes Land Organic is exceptionally natural and free of contamination, and also supports the species-appropriate livestock husbandry. In our manufacturing process in Germany, we also place great emphasis on natural processing without artificial additives.

100% meat

Grain-free

High acceptance

The freeze-dried cat snacks from Wildes Land are made of 100% fresh fish or meat that is first cut into cubes and then frozen. The water is then vacuum-extracted from the meat in the freeze-drying chamber. As a result, the meat retains all the essential vitamins and nutrients as well as its natural delicious taste. Because the freeze-dried cat snacks are made of 100% white fish or chicken, you can be sure your cat will love these snacks. Use them as a treat as needed or simply as a between-meals snack. Here's an insider tip from Wildes Land: Feel free to enhance normal food by scattering the snacks over it.
