An Unfinished Love Story: A Personal History of the 1960s

Join us to discuss this #1 New York Times bestselling memoir by Pulitzer Prize-winning author, Doris Kearns Goodwin. It is a memoir and history of the 1960s, co-authored with her late husband, Richard Goodwin, a key figure in the Kennedy and Johnson administrations. The book uses their personal archives — letters, diaries, and documents — to explore the decade's political and social upheaval through their unique perspective, blending their love story with American history, from the optimism of the New Frontier to the Vietnam War.

YES Fund (Youth, Education, and Special Projects)

The YES Fund provides grants to develop the future leaders of the Reform Movement, advocate for the voice and rights of women, and welcome diversity and inclusion throughout the Jewish world.

You can support causes such as Jewish Youth Enrichment. Championing the voices of young people across the world, we support NFTY and URJ camps in North America and youth organizations abroad. WRJ is proud to support the next generation of Jewish leaders as they learn how to make a lasting impact on their peers, their communities, and the world.

WBT has achieved a milestone for the YES Fund! We have been added to the WRJ YES Fund Honor Roll for Chai Honor by donating at least $18/member! This is the highest honor a women's group can earn for YES Fund donations! We are proud of our members who support Youth, Education, and Special Projects! Thank you to all who donated!

GAME NIGHT REVIEW

Women of Beth Tikvah and Brotherhood held a joint game night on April 30, 2026. The event was well attended by great people with lots of laughter and fun. There were tables for Mah Jongg, Canasta, Euchre, Scrabble, Texas Hold 'Em, Tripoly, and Priorites.

Before the friendly competition began, attendees mingled and enjoyed dinner, snacks, desserts and drinks. It was a fun way to unwind and connect with friends and meet new people. Very positive feedback was received and suggestions were made to do it again!

GIFT SHOP TREASURES

If you need something for Shabbat, other Jewish holidays or celebrations, Jewish jewelry, or a lovely piece of Judaica, look no further! The Women of Beth Tikvah Gift Shop has you covered, whether you're buying a gift or something for yourself.
