USBORNE BOOKS AT HOME CANADA

Welcome to the Usborne Complete List 2023

I find it almost impossible to believe that 2023 will be the 50th anniversary of the foundation of Usborne. My career in publishing all started with a phone call from my wife saying that I was going to be a father. I knew from that moment on that I wanted to create books for children. I always think that my job has been an extension of the incredible privilege of being a parent.

I started with little other than a plan to focus on non fiction books, as I felt that those currently on the market were far too serious and unwelcoming for children. Children's TV at the time was, I felt, doing a better job of engaging kids, and magazines too. So I looked to both those formats for inspiration.

As we tried to forge a new path in children's publishing, we had some hits and misses. But the "publishing philosophies" we developed in those early years continue to guide us: "Do it better", "Never speak down to children", "Always make books pick-upable".

Our books are now published all over the world (in 137 languages and dialects at current count) and I am proud beyond belief that there are children and parents everywhere looking for books with our distinctive, colourful hot-air balloon for the best in non-fiction, fiction, baby books, activity books, music books and so much more.

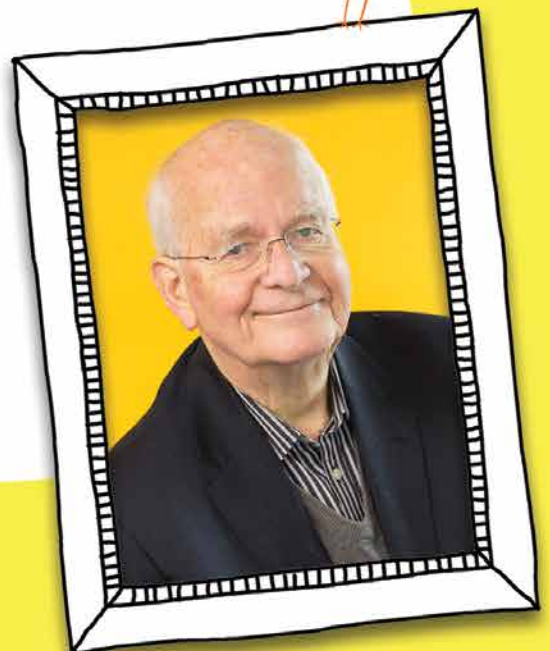

I'm enormously indebted to my remarkable staff, many of whom have worked with me for decades.

The growth and success of Usborne has exceeded by far my wildest expectations, and has given me what I consider to be the best life of anyone I know. I love what I still do at the company now I'm 85.

Thanks to you all - to booksellers, to Independent Usborne Partners, to librarians, to teachers, to parents - and to everyone else for helping us so much. I hope that you'll join me in celebrating 50 wonderful years in the UK, and 30 years in Canada!

Peter
