WELCOME

WELCOME TO 2026

The year beauty thinks smarter and ages better

As we step into 2026, we have been reflecting on how much the professional beauty landscape has evolved. Not in dramatic leaps, but in a steady, meaningful shift toward deeper care, deeper science, and deeper connection. If last year was about strengthening foundations, this year is about elevating the industry with intention and intelligence.

At the end of 2025, we travelled to Cosmoprof Hong Kong, where global innovators, formulators, and leaders gathered to shape beauty's future. What stood out most was a clear, shared movement. The future will not be defined by louder claims or faster trends. It will be defined by smarter formulas, slower rituals, and a more human approach to beauty.

Across the industry and through the trend reports, a few movements are set to shape 2026.

Regeneration over resurfacing

The industry has shifted away from aggressive resurfacing toward deep regeneration. Biostimulation, peptides, barrier science, and bio-actives are becoming the foundation of modern routines. This aligns beautifully with the direction of brands like Skin Regimen Lx, Alpha-H, Thalgo, Comfort Zone, and Priori, all grounded in advanced ingredient technologies that build resilience instead of stripping it away.

The longevity mindset

Longevity has become the new language of beauty. It includes collagen banking, circadian balance, stress recovery, and supporting the skin's biological age. This trend pairs naturally with innovation from LightStim LED, the biotech strength of Skin Regimen Lx, and the restorative focus across our wider BLC portfolio. Clients are investing in routines that protect their skin for the long term, not just the moment.

Lymphatic intelligence

One of the strongest movements we observed in Hong Kong. Manual lymphatic work, sculpting, buccal, and intelligent flow techniques are becoming central to professional treatment design. This shift blends anatomy-led education with self-care and connects beautifully to the spa philosophy of Comfort Zone and the sensorial rituals of Thalgo.

Microalgae and marine biotech

Marine ingredients have evolved from a "natural" claim into a high-performance category. Microalgae, marine enzymes, and blue biotechnology are emerging as top-tier actives. This is a defining moment for Thalgo, a brand already built on advanced marine science and sustainable aquaculture, perfectly positioned for this global direction.

Wellness tools and technology continua

In 2026, tools are no longer a trend but an expectation. LED, microcurrent, cold therapy, sculpting tools, and breathwork accessories are becoming integrated parts of the treatment narrative. Clients want the in-clinic experience to continue at home, creating a seamless wellness journey supported by brands such as LightStim and the ritual-driven design across our entire portfolio.

Hyper-personalisation powered by AI and data-driven beauty

From diagnostic technology to personalised homecare pathways, clients are seeking guidance that is tailored, measurable, and meaningful. This creates exciting opportunities across all of the brands in the BLC portfolio, empowering therapists to design routines that feel intentional rather than generic.

As we looked across these trends, what stood out most was not the technology or the ingredients, but the community behind it all. These movements only come to life in the hands of professionals. In your treatment rooms. Through your knowledge, your touch, and your connection with clients.

You bring these brands to life. You turn a serum into a ritual and a treatment into a moment of care. You are the heart of BLC and the reason Beauty Love Community continues to mean something real.

In this first edition of 2026, you will find the innovations, offers, and education that will help shape your year ahead. Our goal is to support you not just in following global trends, but in leading them within your own businesses.

Thank you for walking into a new year with us. We cannot wait to create, grow, and celebrate with you.

With love,

Hayley + Josie

SKIN REGIMEN

THE MODERN LONGEVITY FACIAL

Experience Skin Regimen/Lx's Longevity Facial: a multi-sensorial treatment designed to counteract premature ageing and support skin longevity — now with 10% off the professional range.

SKIN REGIMEN/LX LONGEVITY FACIAL 60MIN

TREATMENT OVERVIEW

Skin Regimen/Lx offers the professional solution to counteract premature aging and protect the health and beauty of the skin. The Longevity Facial treatment creates a multi-sensorial experience for the client, utilising different massage techniques, different tools and targeted product selection to elicit instant and long-last benefits to the skin.

KEY SELLING POINTS

Unlike any facial your client has received before, the Longevity Facial allows the Therapist to treat multiple skin concerns in the one treatment, layering high concentrations of natural and high-tech actives. The instant results of improved skin texture, luminosity, circulation and muscle tone allow the client to enjoy immediate benefits, resulting in excellent client satisfaction.

WHY IT'S PERFECT FOR YOUR SALON

The Longevity Facial treatment offers 4 highly effective and targeted facial variants, however, following the one protocol. Clients can either choose from the C-Glow mask, the Face Renewer Peel, Detox Peel-off mask of the Collagen-Pro Sheet Mask; or they leave it up to the Therapist to prescribe in the treatment room mid-treatment. The Longevity Facial offers incredible results within a luxury experience.

PRODUCTS USED

The Longevity Facial uses a mixture of both professional-only products for powerful treatment results, as well as products found in the retail line. Starting with a detoxifying double cleanse, followed by invigorating massage techniques using a Double Headed Jade Roller and manual manipulation. While the mask of choice is then applied to the skin, we use the Black Jade Gua Sha to stretch and drain the skin and aid relaxation. The final application of products are applied using a unique anti-gravity method to enhance and stabilise the benefits achieved throughout the facial.
