Series Synopsis

Inspector Behringer has been posted to Bamberg to restore order and bring the town's criminals to justice. Understatement is his weapon of choice: behind his mild gaze lies a razor-sharp mind.

He can count on his team – forthright Ela Jennings and forensic whiz Basti Loncar. Behringer's sister Anne tries to rein in their son Ole's police dreams. This vibrant bunch stands strong – solving even the trickiest of crimes.

Konrad Behringer

Detective.

Seemingly laid back, but with a razor-sharp mind.

Konrad is an experienced investigator with a sharp mind and a calm, thoughtful manner.

He is known for his analytical skills and ability to keep a cool head in stressful situations. Despite his professional detachment, he has a soft side, especially when it comes to his family and close friends.

Ela Jennings

Detective.

Ambitious, courageous and determined.

Ela is Behringer's current partner on the police force and brings youthful energy to the team.

She is ambitious, courageous and forthright – a combination that can sometimes rub her colleagues up the wrong way. However, her sheer determination and commitment make her an asset to the team.

Sebastian Loncar

Forensic scientist.

A man who values loyalty and justice.

Sebastian is husband to Behringer's sister Anne and Behringer's best friend.

He is analytical, detail-oriented and an expert in his field. His loyalty and sense of justice make him an indispensable member of the team.

A man with a beard and a woman are standing in a grassy field. The man is wearing a brown jacket over a blue shirt, and the woman is wearing a dark jacket. They are both looking towards the camera. In the background, there are trees and a car. A red and white striped tape is stretched across the field. The overall tone of the image is dark and moody.
