SPRING '25

JAN - JUN

THE CHRISTIAN LIFE IS BEST THOUGHT OF AS A RELATIONAL JOURNEY.

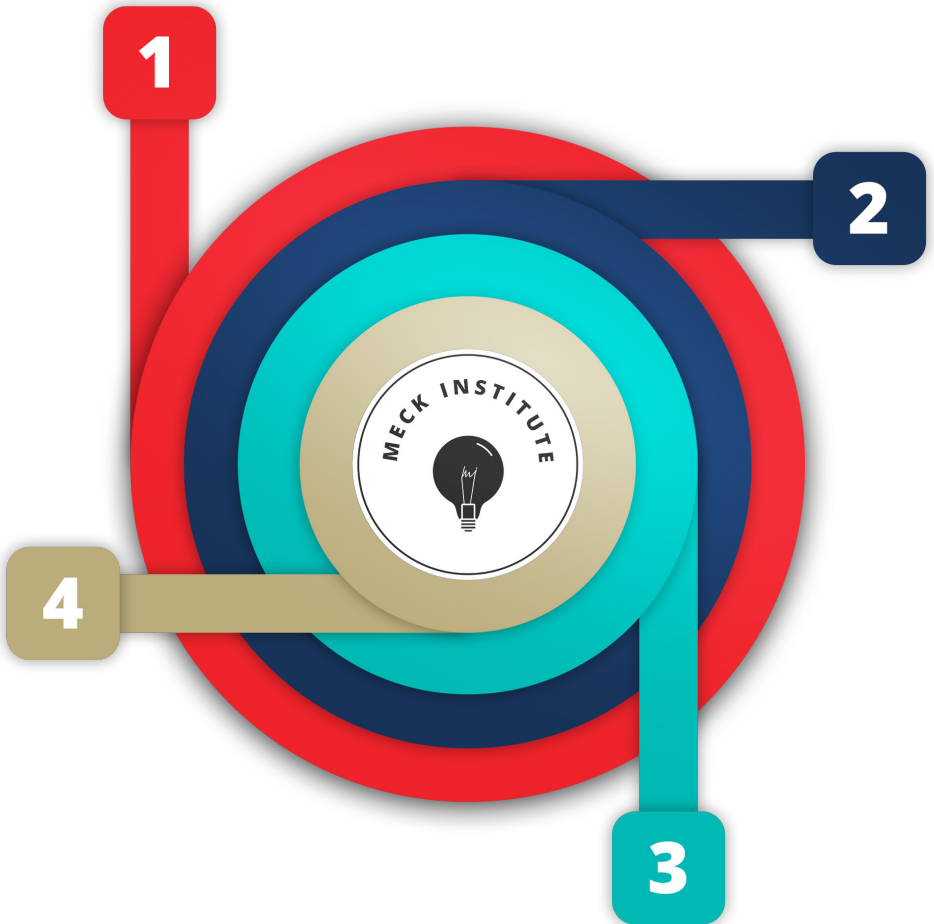

As in most relationships, you get to know someone on a surface level before entering into increasingly greater depths of intimacy. The same is true of our relationship with God. We spend time (a little for some, a lot for others) “exploring” God and what He says about us before deciding to enter a relationship with Him and follow His lead. And then we spend the rest of our lives continuing to learn more about Him and allowing Him to transform us into the best versions of ourselves. And this all happens with the help, support and encouragement of others who are on a similar journey. Consider the Meck Institute as one of your sojourners – here to walk alongside you, support you and encourage you toward greater levels of understanding and commitment to God.

Through classes, workshops, trips, mentoring and more, the Institute offers you a safe space to learn all about God, ask questions and develop a meaningful relationship with Him.

Inside this catalog, you’ll find the classes, trips and programs planned for the Spring of 2025. However, we’re always adding new classes and opportunities, so to view the most updated list, be sure to visit mecklenburg.org/meck-institute or the Meck app.

THE JOURNEY

SO, WHAT DOES THE JOURNEY LOOK LIKE?

1 EXPLORER

For those exploring the Christian faith or wanting to go back to the basics, we have created on-demand classes that introduce you to God and foundational Christian beliefs/practices. You can learn on your own time, at your own pace, commitment-free.

2 ENGAGED LEARNER

While exploration is important, eventually you need to take the step of getting onto the path toward God. Engaged learners participate in live classes, learning alongside other students, with the coaching of knowledgeable and caring instructors.

OPPORTUNITIES

- Live classes (in person and online)
- Immersive trips
- Family workshops and book studies

3 MENTEE

Jesus modeled a way of life that involves learning from a mentor – someone further along in their spiritual journey than you who has wisdom to share and accountability to offer. The Institute wants to put mentors in your life who will help you grow.

OPPORTUNITIES

- Spiritual Mentoring Program (mentee)

4 MENTOR

While we never cease learning and growing, we do come to a point on the journey when we can look behind us and give guidance to those who are a few steps behind. Mentors get to cheer on others in their journey while still pursuing their own.

OPPORTUNITIES

- Spiritual Mentoring Program (mentor)

MECK INSTITUTE ON DEMAND

You can grow with the Institute anytime, anywhere with our on-demand classes. Different from recordings of live classes, on-demand classes are specifically designed for an online audience, with the instructor speaking directly to you. Simply create a free account to gain access to all of the on-demand classes.

We recommend that you begin with the Training Camp orientation video.

TRAINING CAMP

In Training Camp, we unpack the vision of the Christian life, how to mature in faith and intimacy and how the Meck Institute can guide you in that process. Whether you're still exploring Christianity or you made the decision to follow Christ decades ago, this is a must-take class for everyone who is serious about the life change that should take place within a relationship with God.

Offered on demand this semester:

AFTER "I BELIEVE"

The first step in entering a relationship with God is to declare, "I believe" – a proclamation of both trust and faith. But what comes next? This on-demand course is dedicated to answering that question and helping Christians experience the full richness of a life led by God. If you recently said, "I believe," this class will provide a roadmap for where you're headed. If it has been ages since you said, "I believe," this class will reorient you toward a Christ-filled life.

10 Sessions, Total Time: 1 hour 34 minutes

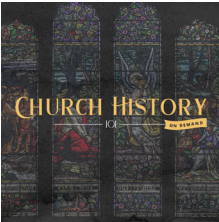

CHRISTIAN APOLOGETICS: DOES GOD EXIST?

Nothing in the Christian faith makes any sense if God doesn't exist. Regardless of heartfelt sincerity or spiritual sensibilities, if God doesn't actually exist, then Christianity is hollow. So can a convincing case be made for the existence of God? Can we really believe in Him beyond blind faith? In this apologetics series, we'll explore the evidence for God and, if He does exist, what it might mean for us.

CHURCH HISTORY 101

It has been said that history is walking back through time, listening to its better minds. For Christians, it holds even more significance as it charts not only the history of ideas but the history of the Christian movement. Through this course, taught by Senior Pastor Jim White, you will have history "come alive" through people and events, ideas and challenges, stories and revolutions. You will learn why we believe what we believe and come to understand our present moment with greater clarity. If you're ready for a fast-paced 2,000-year ride, this course is for you.

4 Sessions, Total Time: 2 hours 49 minutes

DISCOVERING THE ENNEAGRAM AND YOURSELF

The Enneagram is an ancient personality model that is bringing new understanding and life-changing transformation to countless lives. Deeply spiritual in nature, it helps individuals identify the unique personality type that God has given them, which shapes the way we view the world, other people, and ourselves. If you've never looked into the Enneagram, now is the time. This on-demand class provides the perfect starting point for beginners and a roadmap for how to go deeper and wider with the Enneagram as you seek to discover more about yourself.

7 Sessions, Total Time: 33 minutes

EXPLORING HOMESCHOOLING

You can go to an open house to find out more about a public, private or charter school but where do you go to find out more about homeschooling? In this on-demand class, Exploring Homeschooling aims to answer the real, practical questions many families have as they consider this education option. If you're a parent considering homeschooling you've probably wondered about things like: How do you choose curriculum? What about socializing your kids? How about sports? Is it expensive? How do I get started? Are there laws you have to follow? Why homeschool anyway? Join us as we explore the answers to these questions and more.

7 Sessions, Total Time: 41 minutes

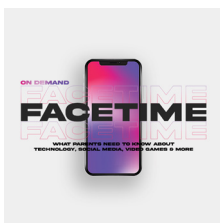

EXPLORING THE BIBLE

Can we trust the Bible? Is it still relevant to our lives? What is it about? How does it all fit together? And where do we even begin? All of these questions and more are answered in "Exploring the Bible", an on-demand class that takes you behind the text and into the most influential book ever written.

7 Sessions, Total Time: 48 minutes

FACETIME: WHAT PARENTS NEED TO KNOW ABOUT TECHNOLOGY, SOCIAL MEDIA, VIDEO GAMES AND MORE

Does your son or daughter have a smartphone? Or maybe a tablet? With access to more and more technology comes the world of social media, video gaming, YouTube and more. As a parent, it can be hard to keep up with, much less navigate, what platforms your kids are using these days. In this practical class, we introduce the most commonly used media outlets, explain the potential dangers of each, and give some practical suggestions on what you as a parent can do to help guide your kids.

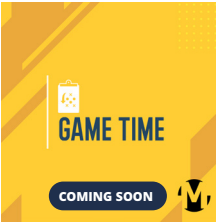

8 Sessions, Total Time: 2 hours 44 minutes

FOUNDATIONS 101

What is at the heart of the Christian faith? Who is God really and what does He want with us (if anything at all)? In Foundations 101, we lay the groundwork for what the Christian life is all about. This class strips God from our cultural context, from church tradition and from media portrayal to look at what He says about Himself and about us.

5 Sessions, Total Time: 55 minutes

GAME TIME

You were made with a plan and a purpose and equipped with a unique combination of gifts, passions, personality and skills. Yet it sometimes can be difficult to figure out exactly how God wants to use you or what role you might play in His big adventure through the local church. Join us for Game Time to examine the person God made you to be and how you can make a real difference with your life.

LEARNING TO PRAY

For many of us, prayer is hard. We're not sure how to do it or if it even works, so we simply give up. If you've ever wrestled with prayer, you won't want to miss this class. We cover everything from what prayer is to how to pray and whether it even works.

8 Sessions, Total Time: 2 hours 4 minutes

MADE FOR MORE

The Bible paints an amazing picture of what it looks like to follow Jesus. Yet, so often, it can feel like we're not making much spiritual progress at all. The good news, though, is that the Bible gives us the way forward. In this on-demand class, we explore various spiritual practices intended to help us grow and mature in our relationship with Jesus. We cover rest, time in the Bible, prayer, serving, and so much more.

8 Sessions, Total Time: 1 hour 43 minutes

MONEY SEEDS

(FOR HIGH SCHOOL AND COLLEGE STUDENTS):

As you approach or are embracing financial independence, you might quickly learn that there's a lot more to money management than meets the eye. In Money Seeds, we walk through responsible and biblical financial practices such as budgeting, saving, investing and more. This is a class you won't get to take in school but that you absolutely need for the real world. Set your financial portfolio off on the right foot by starting with Money Seeds.

5 Sessions, Total Time: 57 minutes

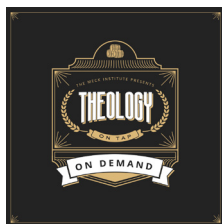

SETTING SAIL: LIVING WITH PURPOSE

Kierkegaard famously said, "Life can only be understood backwards, but it must be lived forwards." Add ideas like "hindsight is 20/20," coupled with the fast pace of life that leaves little room for thoughtful decision making, and we can often feel like our only option is to move through life and hope for the best. But what if you could develop a map of sorts that would guide you in the direction you wanted to go? In Setting Sail, we will look at how we might form a vision for our lives that will do just that.

Whether you are a young adult, in mid-life, or retired; whether you're single or married; whether you have a house full of children or you're an empty nester - this class will help you think through what God made you for and how you can get there.

THEOLOGY ON TAP

The word theology comes from the Greek words theos and logos and literally means “words about God.” In other words, talking about God. But when most people hear the term “theology” they think of it as something set aside for pastors who are attending seminary. But at its heart, theology has to do with the answers Christians give to questions people have about God and all things related to God. It’s attempting to speak Christianly about the great issues of life; it’s about having a biblical worldview; it’s about forming a Christian mind. In this on-demand class, Senior Pastor Jim White takes his seminary-level course on systematic theology and breaks it down in a way that anyone can understand. In his words, “Let’s pretend it’s just you and me, sitting down together having a pint and talking about theology.” In other words, this is going to be a theology discussion unlike any other, and we hope you’ll join us for it.

7 Sessions, Total Time: 4 hours 48 minutes

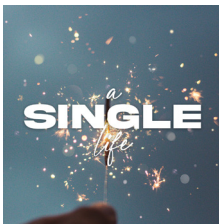

ENGAGED LEARNER

Ultimately, the Christian life is not simply the accumulation of knowledge about God. Instead, it's about letting that knowledge transform who we are so that we can draw closer to God and position ourselves to be changed by Him. One of the best ways to embody what you learn is by participating in community with others. Our live classes and workshops offer you the opportunity to talk about what you're learning, ask challenging questions, experience encouragement and accountability, grow as you explore others' perspectives, and meet some wonderful people in the process.

Live classes:

A SINGLE LIFE

Every human being experiences singleness at some point in their life, and some for their entire life. In fact, singleness is currently at a record high in our culture. And yet, few of us have discovered the key to thriving as single adults or have stopped to consider the unique ways in which singleness can draw us closer to God. In this class, we'll explore the many purposes God has for singleness, we'll examine Jesus' model of singleness, we'll troubleshoot some of the unique challenges of the single life, and we'll discuss the robust opportunities for communal life that are available. Whether you currently find yourself discontent in your singleness or loving every moment of it, this class will supply you with fresh vision and support.

BABY STEPS: BEGINNING THE PARENTING JOURNEY WELL

(FOR PARENTS OF NEWBORNS - 18-MONTH-OLDS)

Congratulations on entering the wonderful adventure of parenthood! So, what exactly did you get yourself into? More importantly, what kind of parent does God want you to be? In this class, we focus on you as the parent – celebrating your call to be a mother or father and helping you to understand the spiritual impact that you will have on your child. And as your church, we'll walk you through all the ways in which we aim to support you as you seek to raise your child in a Christ-centered home. Together, we will help you dream big for your child and learn how to make those dreams a reality.

Single-Session, In-Person Course (required for any family wanting to participate in the Baby Dedication ceremony)

CHRISTIAN CLASSICS: THE REFORMATION

Some of the world's greatest writers have also been deeply rooted in the Christian faith. This year's Christian Classics class will focus on writers who were part of the Reformation movement that began in the 16th century and led to a division between Catholic and Protestant Christians. Their words and wisdom can help guide us on our own spiritual journeys. In this edition of Christian Classics, we will be focusing on great works of the Reformation, including poems and prose by Martin Luther, John Bunyan, John Milton, Anne Bradstreet, Phillis Wheatley, and Harriet Beecher Stowe.

Five-Session Course, In-Person Course

CHRISTIANITY AND OTHER WORLDVIEWS

In this year-long series, we'll discuss the core beliefs of various faith systems throughout the world. We'll talk about evaluating truth claims, we'll compare and contrast with Christianity, and we'll learn how to build bridges with adherents of other religions. This Spring we'll discuss Islam and Judaism. Over the summer, we'll tackle the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints and Jehovah's Witnesses, and then we'll wrap up with Eastern religions, contemporary spirituality and postmodernism in the Fall.

Spring Series: Three-Session, Online Course

THE FAITH-CENTERED FAMILY: NAVIGATING THE ELEMENTARY YEARS

(FOR PARENTS OF CHILDREN AGES 5-7)

You've made it to the elementary years! It's time to take a breath, to celebrate and to plan for what the next couple of years are going to look like for you and your child. In this date-night class, you and your spouse (or supportive friend) will enjoy a catered dinner in The Grounds as you toast your progress and hear from some parents who are a bit further along in the journey about what's in store once school is part of the picture. You'll learn about how to make the most of the time you have with your kids, how to navigate your child's friendships, and how to keep faith at the center of your family

The logo for 'Financial Sense' features the word 'FINANCIAL' in a bold, black, sans-serif font above the word 'SENSE' in a similar font. The letter 'S' in 'SENSE' is replaced by a yellow dollar sign ($).

FINANCIAL SENSE

As pervasive as money is in our everyday life experience, very few people have ever learned how to truly manage money in a way that honors God and that helps them make wise financial decisions throughout their entire life. You might have learned the value of a dollar in your youth, but do you know how to have a healthy relationship with money? In this comprehensive money course led by financial professionals and money-wise teachers, we will explore:

- Basic financial principles and how to build credit
- Budgeting
- Getting out of debt
- Saving for college, retirement and home purchases
- Investing
- Generosity and estate planning
- Insurance
- and more

Seven-Session, In-Person Course

GALATIANS: A NEW WAY OF BEING HUMAN

In the Bible is a letter written by the Apostle Paul to a group of churches in Galatia (modern-day Turkey). Without mincing words, Paul writes passionately and directly, fighting to help the new Christians leave their old way of life behind, reject legalism, and embrace a completely different way of being human. His letter explores the transformation that takes place when we put our faith in Christ, while also acknowledging the real and ongoing battle between “the Flesh” and the Holy Spirit. Centuries later, his warnings and advice are just as timely for the universal church. In this study, we’ll walk verse by verse through this letter, mining all of its treasures for our lives.

Five-Session, In-Person Course

HEALTHY CONFLICT

There are few words that elicit a more emotional response than the word “conflict.” Some love conflict and even go looking for opportunities to argue. Others get a sick feeling in their stomach at the very thought and avoid it like the plague. Conflict, though, is an inevitable part of life in this world of imperfect people. We frustrate, disappoint and even hurt one another. So, how do we navigate conflict in a healthy and helpful way? Does the Bible have anything to say on the matter? In this two-session, online workshop, we’ll define healthy conflict, explore a range of conflict styles, and walk through seven steps that will help us engage conflict in a way that’s marked by love.

Two-Session, Online Course

HOW TO ENJOY READING YOUR BIBLE

If you’re a Christian, you know spending time in the Bible is important. Yet so many of us struggle to read it regularly. It feels like just another task to check off our list. We may even feel guilty if we miss a day or don’t keep up with our self-imposed reading plan. What if reading the Bible, though, wasn’t something we felt like we ought to do, but something we actually enjoyed doing? That’s what this class is all about – getting from “I ought to read the Bible” to “I can’t wait to read the Bible!”

Three-Session, Online Course

THE JOURNEY TO EASTER

Easter celebrates the most significant event in Christian history, but often because of its lack of a fixed date on the calendar it seems to pop up out of nowhere. What if Easter isn't simply meant to be an event but rather a journey? Enter Lent. Lent is an ancient practice that takes us on that very journey, preparing our hearts and minds to both savor Easter and respond to it in transformative ways. In this single-session class we will talk about the intention behind Lent and how you might enter into your own Lenten practice.

Single-Session, Online Course

MARRIAGE PREP

Marriage Prep is a course designed to help couples get ready, not just for the big day but for a lifelong, Christ-centered marriage. If you are planning to be married by a Meck pastor, Marriage Prep is a required part of our premarital process. However, we encourage any engaged couple to participate.

Six-Session, In-Person Course

MONEY GOD'S WAY

Jesus talked about it more than prayer. He also talked about it more than faith. Why would Jesus put such an emphasis on money? Does He want us to be rich? Does He want us to give everything away?

Wherever you are with money, this online class is designed to put a new perspective on the topic so you can learn what it means to manage money God's way. We'll unpack budgeting, debt management, insurance, investing and more in a practical, yet biblical way.

Single-Session, In-Person Course

ROOTED: FOUNDATIONS OF A STRONG MARRIAGE

Marriage is an incredible gift. Nevertheless, when the honeymoon ends and the rest of your life together begins, it takes time and intentionality to keep your marriage strong.

How do you navigate conflict? How do you demonstrate love and respect? How do you balance your time? In this 3-session course, we'll talk about how to build a marriage with such deep roots that when the trials and challenges of life come your way, your relationship will stand firm.

Three-Session, In-Person Course

THE “WELL-ORDERED LIFE STUDY”

In this multi-year study, comprising eight separate series, we’ll look at what it might mean for us to communally model our lives after Jesus in our modern context. By learning about the ancient practice of “Rule of Life”, we’ll find out how to live authentically spiritual lives in a way that doesn’t feel restrictive, but rather provides freedom and an abundance of peace and joy. We’ll learn how to move beyond good intentions to daily habits that result in transformed lives and a deeper connection to God.

REMEMBER THE SABBATH (A WELL-ORDERED LIFE SERIES #1)

Contemporary society values productivity and a hustle-and-grind lifestyle. Rest, play and relaxation are generally thought of as either rewards to earn or marks of laziness to avoid. And yet “Remember the Sabbath” are words God gave us in the Ten Commandments - a command for us to rest and play. But why? What if the command to remember the Sabbath holds the key to experiencing a truly healthy rhythm of life and a fuller understanding of our place in this world? Join us to explore what Sabbath can mean in a modern world and how we might take steps toward living out this command in our own lives.

Four-Session Course, Offered In Person and Online

PRAY WITHOUT CEASING (A WELL-ORDERED LIFE SERIES #2)

When we encounter prayer in the Bible or in the lives of great Christian men and women throughout history, we find it associated with power, deep intimacy, healing and peace. Yet for many of us, prayer feels like nothing more than an unspoken wish list, an awkward silence, random ramblings, or an eventual detour into your to-do list or weekend plans. We can often feel like we’re doing it wrong, or worse, that no one is listening. In this class, we’ll explore the multi-faceted nature of prayer; namely, how it allows us to abide in God, listen to Him, speak with Him, and be changed by Him. We will unpack some of the mysteries of prayer while practicing it for ourselves and with others. And we’ll learn what the command to “pray without ceasing” (1 Thessalonians 5:16) looks like in our current cultural moment. We hope this class serves as the beginning or the continuation of your own rich and personal prayer life with God.

FOR MEN ONLY

A Special Series of Workshops

Taught by Senior Pastor
Jim White

RECLAIMING GODLY MASCULINITY

RECLAIMING GODLY MASCULINITY

January 18 | 9 - 11 a.m.

When you consider the recent shifts in gender roles and gender identity, the exposure of toxic masculinity exposed by the #metoo movement, the growing absence of fathers in modern households, and the resistance to adulthood present in male youth, it's no wonder that so many men are experiencing an identity crisis. In the first of three monthly seminars with Senior Pastor Jim White, he invites the men of Meck to explore with him how manhood is defined by God. We'll discuss biblical masculinity, diffuse confusion about male roles, explore the need for accountability, and address the critical mission that Christian men have in modern society.

In Person at Meck

BEING A SPIRITUAL LEADER

BEING A SPIRITUAL LEADER

February 15 | 9 - 11 a.m.

Traditional notions of masculinity often include expectations regarding leadership. And throughout most of history, men have prominently held leadership roles in the workplace, the public sector, the church, and the home. However, as much of the world's traditional leadership roles are increasingly becoming accessible to women, men might wonder whether their leadership is still required. In this seminar with Senior Pastor Jim White, men at Meck are invited to explore the leadership calling that God has specifically and uniquely given men. We'll discuss spiritual leadership in the home and within the Church, and we'll explore the blueprint for godly leadership embodied by Jesus.

GOD IN THE WORKPLACE

GOD IN THE WORKPLACE

March 22 | 9 - 11 a.m.

A component of God's good creation is the work that He gives us to do. Yet for many, one's work life can often feel disjointed from if not adversarial to one's faith. In this in-person seminar, exclusively for men at Meck, Senior Pastor Jim White will be joined by a panel of men who have followed God's vocational calling on their lives into the secular workplace. They'll discuss the workplace as a mission field and how to live Christianly in secular spaces, while also being upfront about the real challenges and potential dangers of living the Christian life at work.

MENTEE AND MENTOR

OVERVIEW :

The Christian life is a life of transformation. The apostle Paul described it this way: “Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, the new creation has come: The old has gone, the new is here!” (2 Corinthians 5:17, NIV). And yet this life change doesn’t happen in isolation. Instead, God delivers us from a life enslaved to sin and into a community of fellow believers who can encourage us, support us and keep us directed toward Him.

The Institute’s Spiritual Mentoring Program allows participants the opportunity to target specific areas of spiritual growth they hope to pursue and then develop them within the context of biblical community.

This program is perfect for any Christ-follower who wants to mature their relationship with God, connect with others with similar goals, and who is willing to learn from a mentor’s guidance and accountability.

STRUCTURE :

Participants are placed in small groups (3-5 participants or couples) under the direction of a volunteer spiritual mentor. While the mentors are not professional counselors or sinless examples, they have walked a similar road and are able to provide the wisdom of experience, hindsight and reflection. Additionally, they serve as guides, helping participants seek God's counsel to become aware of opportunities for growth, establish a strategy to achieve specific goals, identify obstacles that might derail one's focus, and keep participants focused on God throughout the process. Specifically, mentors are available in the areas of:

- Marriage
- Parenting
- Spiritual Formation (i.e. developing spiritual disciplines, experiencing Christian community, outwardly expressing one's of faith, etc.)

The Spiritual Mentoring Program is structured with monthly meetings spread over the course of seven months (from March through September), combining one-on-one and group meetings:

PARTICIPANT EXPECTATIONS :

In addition to attending the monthly meetings, participants are expected to complete personal reflection assignments and preparation exercises throughout the program. Participants are required to apply for the program and will be selected based on suitedness and availability. For marriage and parenting mentoring, both spouses must be present unless in a single-parent home. If selected, participants will receive training and more specific details about the program. Mentor and mentee applications will be accepted from January 1 - February 7, 2025.

FAQ

Are classes only for people who attend Meck?

No! Meck Institute classes are open to anyone and everyone to attend. Some classes are age-specific (noted in the class description); otherwise, there are no restrictions. In fact, we encourage you to invite friends, family, coworkers, etc. to attend with you.

How much do classes cost?

Most classes are completely FREE. Only a handful of classes require a small fee to cover material costs.

What supplies do I need to take a class?

Most of our classes will have an accompanying workbook, which will be provided for you. You'll have the option when you register to have yours emailed to you as a PDF, shipped to you, or you can pick it up at Meck's campus in Charlotte.

Are classes in person or online?

Both. We offer in-person, live streamed, online and on-demand classes. The format of each class is indicated in the class description. Here's an easy breakdown:

- In person classes take place live in a physical classroom at Mecklenburg Community Church.
- Live stream classes also take place live in a physical classroom at Meck, but you can choose to attend virtually.
- Online classes are live but exclusively online, with the teacher joining you in the virtual classroom.
- On demand classes are pre-recorded and available for you to access at any time.

What does it mean to attend a class via live stream?

When in-person classes feature a live stream viewing option, the teacher will be in a physical classroom with in-person students, but you can opt to participate in class virtually. You'll be able to ask questions and take part in group discussions, but from the comfort of your home (or wherever you are).

I registered for a class, but I can no longer make it. What should I do?

No worries! Life happens, and we get that. Simply email meckinstitute@mecklenburg.org to let us know you cannot make it.

Do you have any volunteer opportunities within the Meck Institute?

We sure do! We have opportunities for teachers, class moderators, content developers, administrative support, and more. Email meckinstitute@mecklenburg.org to find out more.

FAQ

IN-PERSON CLASSES

Do you offer childcare?

Sometimes. If you attend an in-person class on a Sunday, you can utilize MeckKidz for your children while you're in class. For weekday classes, we offer childcare for most of our parenting classes.

ONLINE CLASSES

Are the online classes live or pre-recorded?

Most classes are live unless designated as "on-demand." We believe that learning takes place best within community, and live classes provide a great atmosphere for meeting new people and forming meaningful relationships. Additionally, you'll be able to chat with the instructor and receive feedback in real time. If you're not comfortable attending live, or if your schedule doesn't afford you that option, you can always register and wait until the class recording is available a few days after the live class takes place.

Will I be on video?

While we encourage everyone to have their camera turned on during class, it's not mandatory in our adult classes. We do, however, insist on having cameras on for our children's classes as an additional security measure. But don't let the camera be a deterrent to your participation. The atmosphere of our online classes is casual, so feel free to wear your pajamas, eat dinner while participating, and even have your cat join you for class as well.

Do I need to download any software?

Not unless you want to. We utilize Zoom for our online classes, and you can attend a class through your web browser without downloading any additional software. However, to access the full functionality of Zoom, we encourage you to download the desktop app on your computer or the Zoom app on your phone. Once you click on the classroom link (which you'll receive via email), you'll be prompted to download Zoom if you haven't already. If you don't wish to, simply select "ignore", and you'll be able to access the meeting through your web browser.

Can I access class recordings?

You sure can! A few days after class, you'll receive an email with the class recording. You'll be able to watch it as many times as you'd like for three months.

So...what are you waiting for?

REGISTER TODAY.
