CENTRAL EUROPE'S GRAND PASSAGE

BUDAPEST TO PASSAU

MAY 18 - 26, 2026

CENTRAL EUROPE'S GRAND PASSAGE BUDAPEST TO PASSAU

1

Journey Through Four European Nations

Sail through Hungary, Slovakia, Austria, and Germany, exploring the rich history and diverse cultures of each country. Discover Budapest, Vienna, and Bratislava, each offering unique historic architecture and vibrant local culture.

2

UNESCO World Heritage Sites and Scenic Beauty

Experience Austria's Wachau Valley, a UNESCO World Heritage Site known for its rolling hills, vineyards, and quaint villages. This area highlights the Danube's natural beauty and centuries-old winemaking tradition.

3

Iconic Cities and Cultural Landmarks

Start in Budapest, the "Queen of the Danube," where the river separates the historic 'Buda' side from the iconic 'Pest' side. Continue to Passau, the "Three Rivers City," where the Inn, Ilz, and Danube converge in a picturesque setting.

ITINERARY

CENTRAL EUROPE'S GRAND PASSAGE

Day 2
Budapest & Esztergom

Day 3
Bratislava

Day 4
Vienna

Day 5
Dürnstein & Emmersdorf

Day 6
Linz

Day 7
Passau

Day 8
Passau

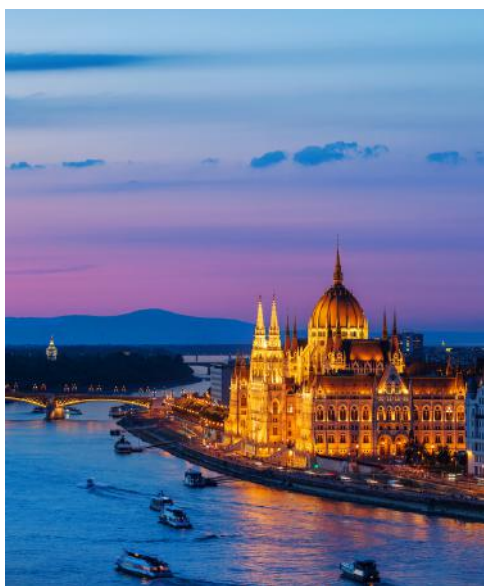

This quintessential cruise along the beautiful Danube begins with an overnight in the “Queen of the Danube” — the capital city of Budapest, which straddles the river with its hilly ‘Buda’ featuring Fisherman’s Bastion & castle district over to the flat ‘Pest’ side with its iconic Parliament building, to the “Three Rivers City” of Passau at the confluence of the Inn, Ilz and Danube rivers.

DAY 1

Budapest

Danube adventure begins

Welcome to Budapest!

Upon arrival, settle into your stateroom and begin soaking in the charm and comfort of your floating home for the week ahead.

This evening, gather with fellow travelers for a festive Welcome Cocktail and specially prepared Welcome Dinner. As night falls, enjoy a magical illuminated cruise through Budapest, complete with a spirited folklore performance of traditional music and dance—an unforgettable introduction to the heart of Hungary.

DAY 2

Budapest

Castles, Culture & Cathedrals

Discover the magic of Budapest, the “Queen of the Danube,” where a guided tour takes you through Pest’s lively streets and landmarks like the Parliament, Heroes’ Square, and the Great Market Hall. Cross into Buda to explore Castle Hill, visit St. Matthew’s Church, and enjoy sweeping views from Fisherman’s Bastion.

Then, journey along the Danube to Szentendre, a charming artists’ village filled with galleries and cafes. Visit Visegrád’s hilltop fortress for stunning views of the Danube Bend, and end the day in Esztergom with a tour of Hungary’s largest cathedral, rich in royal and religious history.

DAY 3

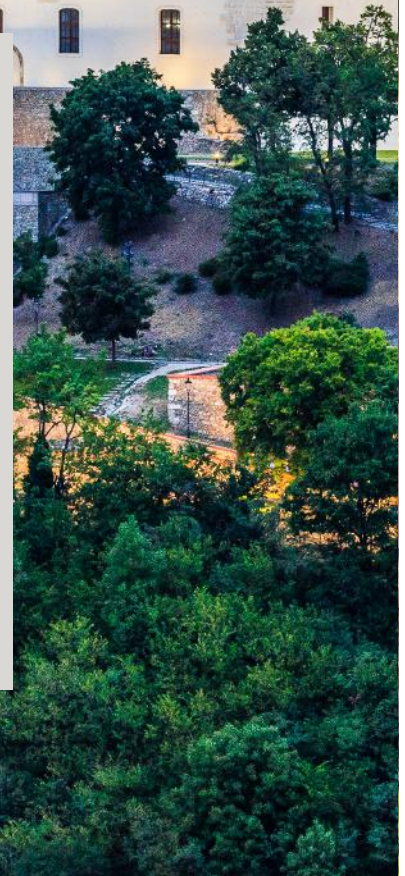

Bratislava

OLD TOWN & OPERA CHARM

Discover the charm of Bratislava, capital of Slovakia and one of Europe's youngest capitals. Begin with a scenic drive past St. Martin's Cathedral and the Grassalkovich Palace, then ascend to Castle Hill for panoramic views of the city and the Danube.

Continue on foot through the historic Old Town, from Michael's Gate to the Main Square, where you'll admire landmarks like the Primatial Palace, City Hall, and Maximilian Fountain. Pause at a cozy café to sample the beloved Pressburger rolls, before concluding your tour near the elegant Opera House. In the evening, return on board for a graceful waltz dance class, immersing yourself in the timeless rhythms of Viennese tradition.

DAY 4

Vienna

Vienna's Imperial Elegance

Spend the day discovering the timeless grandeur of Vienna, a city steeped in imperial history and artistic brilliance. Begin with a scenic drive along the Ringstrasse, passing architectural gems such as the Opera House, Parliament, and City Hall. Then, stroll through the historic center, from the Hofburg Imperial Palace to St. Stephen's Cathedral, with time to explore the charming pedestrian zone at your own pace.

In the evening, immerse yourself in the magic of Viennese music at the "Sound of Vienna" concert, held in a historic venue where Johann Strauss once led his orchestra. Enjoy an enchanting performance of classical waltzes, operettas, and ballet that captures the cultural soul of Austria's capital.

DAY 5 Dürnstein

Baroque Beauty & Village Charm

Begin your day in the charming village of Dürnstein, nestled in Austria's picturesque Wachau Valley. Stroll past castle ruins and historic buildings, stopping to sample regional apricot treats—juices, brandy, and liqueurs—along the way. Capture stunning photos of the Danube cliffs and visit the 700-year-old Schloss Dürnstein before ending with a toast of local wine at the famed Dürnstein Abbey.

Later, non-golf guests visit the magnificent Melk Abbey, one of Europe's most celebrated monastic landmarks. With grand Baroque architecture, ornate frescoes, and a renowned library of medieval manuscripts, the abbey offers a rich glimpse into Austria's spiritual and artistic heritage. A guided tour reveals highlights like the marble hall, imperial balconies, and the impressive abbey church.

DAY 6

Linz

From Digital Futures to Alpine Vistas

Today's adventure in Linz begins with a visit to the cutting-edge Ars Electronica Center, where the worlds of art, science, and technology collide. Explore futuristic installations, interactive exhibits, and immersive digital experiences that showcase visionary innovations—from artificial intelligence to robotics and space exploration. It's a fascinating glimpse into how technology is shaping the world of tomorrow.

In the afternoon, continue with an included AMADEUS Active hike up Pöstlingberg, the iconic hill overlooking Linz. Your route winds along the Danube and through tranquil residential streets, passing landmarks like the Linz Zoo and Anton Bruckner Private University. At the summit, take in sweeping views of the city and the distant Alps, visit the historic Seven Sorrows of Mary Basilica, and descend the Way of the Cross path to return to the city. It's a refreshing mix of urban culture, natural beauty, and spiritual heritage.

DAY 7

Passau

Passau and Bavarian Delights

Begin your day in the charming city of Passau, where cobblestone streets, Baroque architecture, and riverside views set the scene for a delightful culinary walking tour. As part of the AMADEUS TASTE experience, you'll explore local specialties, from artisan cheeses to Bavarian pastries, while learning about the city's rich cultural heritage and its unique position at the confluence of three rivers.

As evening falls, return to the ship for a festive Bavarian night featuring live music and a hearty dinner filled with regional favorites. It's a joyful and authentic celebration of Bavarian hospitality—complete with laughter, music, and unforgettable flavors.

DAY 8

Farewell from Passau

As your river cruise comes to a close, enjoy one final breakfast onboard while reflecting on the memorable experiences of your journey. Take a last look at the charming cityscape of Passau, where the Danube, Inn, and Ilz rivers converge. This morning is your time to savor the final moments of tranquility before disembarking.

We hope your trip has been as delightful and enriching as we intended. With fond memories and a refreshed spirit, we bid you farewell and look forward to the opportunity to welcome you back on another adventure in the near future. Safe travels and see you soon!

BAVARIA

OPTIONAL TOUR TO BAVARIA
MAY 26 – 31, 2026 (6 DAYS)

DAY 8

Walhalla & Regensburg Highlights

Disembark in Passau and begin your Bavarian journey with a visit to Walhalla, a neoclassical monument perched high above the Danube. Modeled after a Greek temple and often referred to as the “German Pantheon,” this striking 19th-century structure honors notable German figures and offers stunning panoramic views of the river below.

Continue on to the UNESCO-listed city of Regensburg, where a 3-course lunch awaits before setting off on a guided walking tour. Discover the city’s beautifully preserved medieval charm, from the iconic Stone Bridge dating back to the 12th century to the towering twin spires of the 13th-century Gothic cathedral—a timeless masterpiece that defines the city’s skyline.

DAY 9

Baroque Beauty & Bavarian Heritage

Today, explore the picturesque region around Regensburg with a visit to Weltenburg Monastery, the oldest monastic settlement in Bavaria, founded around 600 AD. Set at the entrance of the scenic Danube Gorge, the monastery features a breathtaking Baroque church built in the early 18th century. Afterward, enjoy a traditional 3-course lunch at the world’s oldest inn, family-run since 1658 and recognized by the Guinness Book of Records. Return to Regensburg in the afternoon and enjoy free time to relax or continue exploring the charming old town.

DAY 10

Munich to Inzell Escape

After breakfast, travel from Regensburg to Munich for a city tour of its iconic sights, including Marienplatz, the Olympic Park, the peaceful English Garden, and grand Nymphenburg Palace. After free time for lunch, continue to the picturesque alpine village of Inzell in the Chiemgau region, where glacier-carved landscapes, mountain lakes, and forested hills welcome you for a relaxing three-night stay.

DAY 11

Islands of Lake Chiemsee

Set out on a serene lake cruise across Lake Chiemsee, often called the “Bavarian Sea.” Visit Herreninsel, home to King Ludwig II’s Versailles-inspired Herrenchiemsee Palace, and Fraueninsel, a peaceful island known for its Benedictine monastery and tranquil village charm. Surrounded by the Alps, these islands offer a perfect blend of history, nature, and relaxation.

DAY 12

Salzburg & the Salt Story

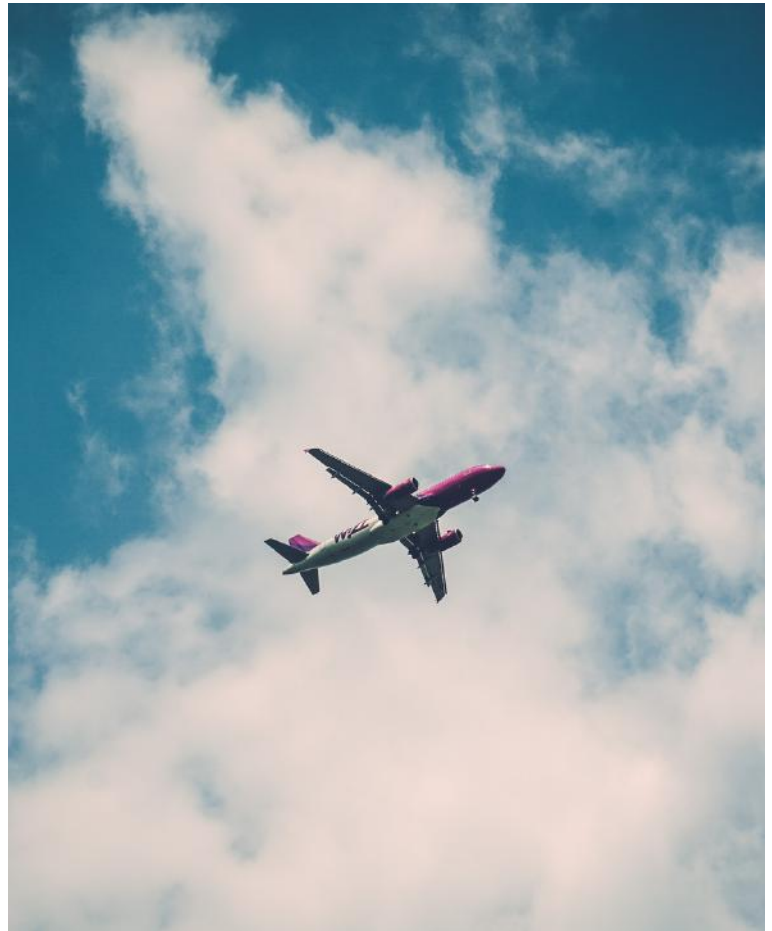

This morning, visit Hallein, home to the world's oldest salt mine open to visitors, where interactive exhibits bring the story of "white gold" to life. Continue to Salzburg, Mozart's birthplace, and explore its charming old town before riding the funicular up to the imposing Hohen-Salzburg Fortress. From the top, take in panoramic views of the city's Baroque rooftops and the surrounding Alpine landscape.

DAY 13

Farewell Bavaria

After breakfast, check out and bid farewell to beautiful Bavaria. Transfer to Munich Airport for your return flight home, filled with unforgettable memories of castles, culture, golf, and alpine landscapes.

WHAT IS INCLUDED

- 2 nights hotel in Regensburg including daily breakfast
- 3 nights hotel in Bad Reichenhall including daily breakfast
- 1 lunch at local restaurant including water and coffee/tea
- 1 lunch at the world's oldest inn including water and coffee/tea
