Welcome

We are a centre of excellence for teacher training and professional development. Our purpose is to develop, support and sustain high quality teaching across the region.

As part of Chorus Education Trust, we draw on strong educational values, expertise and partnerships to strengthen our work across South Yorkshire.

We work alongside schools to empower teachers and leaders through evidence-informed professional development at every stage of their career — from those considering a future in education, through early career and experienced practice, to leadership and beyond.

Through strong partnerships with schools and organisations, we support everyone working in the teaching profession to grow, thrive and make a lasting impact on pupils.

Our services include Initial Teacher Training, Initial Teacher Training Core Framework (ITTECF) support, Appropriate Body services, and a wide range of National Professional Qualifications (NPQs). Through expert guidance, evidence-informed practice and strong school partnerships, we help teachers and leaders build the skills, confidence and knowledge they need at every stage of their career.

By investing in teachers throughout their professional journey, the South Yorkshire Teaching Hub is committed to strengthening the region's workforce and ensuring that pupils across South Yorkshire are taught by highly skilled, well-supported and inspirational teachers.

Early Career Teacher Entitlement (ECTE)

The ECTE ensures that all new teachers have access to a two-year programme of structured support and professional development.

As part of the ECTE, both Early Career Teachers (ECTs) and their mentors benefit from high-quality training programmes based on the Initial Teacher Training Core Framework (ITTECF). These programmes are designed around evidence-based practice and cover key areas such as classroom management, subject knowledge, and professional behaviours. Mentor training focuses on developing effective coaching techniques and strategies to provide meaningful support.

These programmes are invaluable because they help ECTs build confidence, refine their teaching skills, and accelerate professional growth during the crucial early stages of their career. At the same time, mentors strengthen their leadership and mentoring expertise, ensuring they can offer consistent, impactful guidance that supports teacher development and improves outcomes for pupils.

ITTECF

The ITTECF offers a single, consistent, and progressive training pathway for teachers, starting from initial training and continuing through the first two years in the classroom. It sets out core 'learn that...' and 'learn how to...' statements, focusing on classroom practice, theory, and pedagogy, ensuring continuity with no gap between initial teacher training and early career induction.

Our role

Partnering with a Lead Provider accredited by the DfE, the South Yorkshire Teaching Hub acts as a delivery partner for early career teacher and mentor development programmes, co-ordinating and delivering a single, consistent and progressive training pathway for teachers.

South Yorkshire Teaching Hub has guided me in developing my knowledge and skills, throughout my induction; reinforcing what I already know and giving me the confidence to grow as a teacher. Their expert support has made my induction a positive, structured experience and ensured I'm on the right track from the start of my teaching career.”
