Discord AMA with AlwaysGeeky Games Team

The Discord AMA with the AlwaysGeeky Games team was held on July 30th, covering 3 main topics and questions from the community. There was also a VOXEL giveaway for 6 questions featured in the AMA.

Below are the topics and questions discussed by the team, with the relevant discussions and answers summarized:

Main Topic 1: Rewards and Ranking

- Hippolyte discussed the change of rewards for arena ranks (increased for ranks Competitor and above and decreased for the rest), decrease of the volatility of the VOXEL rewards, and more accessibility for ranks Veteran and above at lower ELO scores. The changes were implemented in the July 31st update of the game.
- It was observed that some players are trying to earn more VOXEL by battling a lot in the Training rank, which is not aligned with the goal to incentivize players to reach for the higher ranks.
- More seasons and new game modes were also mentioned as part of the long term plan for players to get rewarded differently.

Main Topic 2: The Upcoming Seasonal Event and New Arena

- The summer event will be a leaderboard event and comes with the new permanent arena: the Rare Arena, which only allows Rare and below rarity items to be equipped.
- The community is asked to choose the name of the event from 3 names prepared by the team at a poll in the #announcements channel of the Voxies Discord server, with the poll ending on August 2nd.
- Prize pools will be attached to the new arena as well as Extreme Arena. Similar to Dragonfest's Bone Fragments, this event will have its own virtual currency, which can be used to buy unique items such as 2 new pets during the event. But this time, there will be a battle cap (i.e., a limit to the number of games played) for the leaderboard.
- The event also comes with a game loot box, consumable packs, and even a specific accessory item set that can be built.
- There will be a partnership with OpenSea for the event, which will have a special item drop launch event with OpenSea ahead of the event launch. The event will also have an event landing page, new assets for marketing, and paid ads.

Main Topic 3: Onboarding and Player Experience Improvements

- JP (aka Oskin) discussed the improvements for the onboarding experience of new players with the game tutorial, custodial wallet and new login page, which is part of the push to release the Mobile version of the game.
- The team's aim is to make sure that when new players arrive, especially with mobile, it will be easy for them to create an account and start playing, while guided to play the tactical RPG mechanics by the game tutorial.
- The new login page will allow multiple ways for players to login, such as with their Google account.
- JP also discussed improving player experience based on community feedback, like the new matchmaking system and a game launcher that will automatically update Voxie Tactics to the latest version. The team is also working on a no downtime game update structure.

Discord AMA with AlwaysGeeky Games Team (Continued)

The following questions from the community were discussed in the AMA, and the ones who asked these questions were also awarded 100 VOXEL each.

Question 1 (Milo): [ES] Harán algo con el sistema de ranking actual donde hay solo un tactician, 5 masters y 20 veteranos activos? (English: Will the team do something about the current ranking system where there is only one tactician, 5 masters and 20 active veterans?)

- Changes to rewards and ranking system will be implemented as discussed in Main Topic 1.

Question 2 (The True King): Will it be possible to split the [new] special event rewards between players/owners? Virtual currency split as well, similar to the Bones from Dragonfest?

- The new virtual currency will work the same as Bone Fragments in Dragonfest, which is shared based on the rental % split.

Question 3 (Larossa): [ES] Estan esperando el Bullrun para iniciar el marketing masivo? (English: Are they [the team] waiting for the bull run to start mass marketing?)

- Brian answered that the team is waiting for a bigger marketing push, but not necessarily waiting for a crypto bull run. They do want to maximize opportunities, like a bigger push for the seasonal event which will set them up for mobile version that will soon follow after.

Question 4 (Faithseeker): What will the team do to promote competition? What will the company do to try to make the game more fun? When is guild management coming out?

- The team is focused on competition and a more fun game with the upcoming seasonal event. The guild management system is still in the works, with the team having started working on some of the smart contracts that will support this system.

Question 5 (Aries): [Marketplace] Offers with Ledger [hardware wallet are] not working, any workaround?

- There is no official solution yet, but the team is exploring multiple solutions and it is considered in the design of the system that will be used for the custodial wallet.

Question 6 (Ready4Poker): When will the Items that the Voxies NFT hold like the Potions be available to use in battle?

- Brad answered that these items (e.g., Potion, Mana, Flower) will be given utility and they will be good since there's a very limited supply of them.

Shortly after the end of the AMA, a video was posted in the #spoilers channel of the Voxies Discord server, showing Voxie Tactics being played on a mobile device.
