VILLY KLEPPE

PREFACE

Some aspects of life defy explanation, measurement, or control; they must be experienced.

Feel It embraces raw emotion over perfection, capturing the peaks, valleys and serene moments.

This track is a reflection of something real.

A feeling, a memory, a state of mind.

Listeners are invited to close their eyes and simply immerse themselves in the experience.

“Not everything needs to be understood...
some things are meant to be felt.”
